JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PORTSMOUTH YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Mr. President:—During the year which has just closed upon the Association, there have occurred to it many things which encourage it in its enterprise. Strengthened by the liberality of its friends, and the interest of its members at home, as well as by the sympathy and regard of kindred Associations abroad, we cannot but feel that the forwarding of the general objects of the Association is a matter of no small importance, and the responsibility assumed one which demands earnest effort on the part of those engaged in the enterprise.

In the last report a call was made upon the philanthropy of our citizens for aid and support. This call has been generously responded to, and the Association gratefully acknowledge liberal donations from kind friends, to the amount of about $120, together with additions to the shelves of our library. Besides this, we also acknowledge the receipt of $25 from His Honor Mayor Walker. This liberality, showing as it does the countenance and confidence of our friends, is highly encouraging, and it is the general desire of the members of the Association to show that this confidence has not been misplaced.

With the money received, the first object to be attained was a more suitable place for meeting. Arrangements for that purpose were accordingly made, and after due deliberation, selection was made of Washington Hall, on Market street, where are rooms more central and better adapted to their purposes than the one they first occupied. The Hall is light, airy and commodious, and meets the wants of the Association for purposes of literary and forensic exercises. In connection with it is a pleasant and comfortable ante-room, which admirably serves for a committee room, and for social purposes. In this is kept the Library. Arrangements, which will probably be soon completed, are being made to open this as a Reading Room for the members, thus attaining one more object in the design of the Association—that of making an attractive place for leisure evening hours which, otherwise, might be misemployed. We are aware of the evils which too often accrue, from the want of such a resort, to those who do not appreciate the importance of the spare hours of the years of apprenticeship, or are unable to find suitable accommodations for their evenings elsewhere; and we are hence led to consider it a matter of no small importance to have open a place where such may come together under at least harmless influences, and where they may meet associations that will tend to awaken a taste for such acquirements as will be invaluable to them in after years.

About $80 have been appropriated to fitting these Rooms for the purposes of the Association. A large part of this sum, however, was contributed by the members, leaving untouched $113.50 of the donations to the Association. This money was deposited with the Trustees, and is now at interest, making together with other money deposited and interest to the present time, about $140. From this, however, a recent vote of the Association has deducted about $40 for additions to the Library.

These new rooms were opened on the fifth of December last, with an address from our brother Horace Webster, Esq., accompanied with other appropriate exercises.

Our new hall has afforded one advantage not before conveniently enjoyed,—the privilege of holding occasional meetings which are open to invited friends of the members. Of these, two have already been held, the exercises of which are similar to those of the regular meetings of the Association, except that the Essay is lengthened into an address, and the debate is laid aside. The members who take part in these exercises are led to acquire that confidence which will be of advantage to them in more public assemblies. These meetings are fully attended, and have given much pleasure and satisfaction.

During the past year the number of our members has steadily increased; and we are happy to say that in this respect we enter upon another year with better hopes than ever before.

The Library of the Association at present numbers nearly four hundred books. This is an increase much beyond the original anticipations of the members and has demanded a large extension of the shelves which were at first deemed much more than we should be able to fill. To the present volumes will soon be added the purchase of the forty dollars' worth already mentioned. For the majority of those now on hand we are indebted to the liberality of those who have taken an interest in the Association; and while we fear calling too largely upon the generosity of such, we may be allowed to hope that the increasing demand for more and yet more will not be in vain. Our shelves will be always open for donations, and, however small, such gifts will be very acceptable.

During a part of the past year, the regularity of our meetings was disturbed in consequence of the change of rooms. This has tended somewhat to retard our progress in carrying out the designs of the Association, by preventing the organization of a method of operations for benefitting young men who are not members of the Association, and who properly come within our sphere of action.—But it is to be hoped that another year will be marked with progress in this respect, and that the benefits which we design to effect upon young men who come here as strangers will be felt in furnishing them with means of acquaintance with a class whose influence will be salutary.

It is a desirable object on the part of the Association, to establish lectures for the next winter—not a Lyceum course, for that field is already well occupied. More appropriate to the character of the Association would be a series of acceptable Sunday evening lectures, and though it has not as yet been made as a proposition in the Association, a desire for establishing such a course seems to exist. One lecture of this kind we have already been favored with by Rev. Dr. Gannett of Boston, who addressed the Association publicly a few months since.

Besides feeling ourselves an established fraternity among the things that be in this city, we are led to look upon ours as but one of the many like it which are scattered throughout the country. Our correspondence with other Christian Associations has given us enlarged views of the nature of our own, while we have been able to profit much by their favors. The growth in numbers, and the general progress of institutions of this order in the United States within a few years have been rapid. We hear of them in all parts of the Union—in New Orleans, Providence, Boston, Buffalo, and still farther west, and of large Associations in other places, while less extensive ones are established in many smaller towns and cities.

Heretofore there has been no general union between these bodies but that of sympathy; within a few months, however, an enterprise has been suggested by the Associations at Buffalo, Boston and Washington, to form a National Union to meet in convention at Buffalo on the sixth of June. The suggestion has generally met with a favorable response. Our Association has appointed two delegates to attend. National unions of this kind are in existence in some of the European countries, where Associations have been longer established, but no movement of this kind has hitherto been made in the United States.—Much is to be anticipated from the mutual encouragement which will thus be given, and the profit which may be derived from an extensive intercommunication, and a mutual understanding between the various Associations; and it is to be hoped that the Convention will be fully attended and successful in its operations.

Upon reviewing the past year, we feel assured that, with our present conveniences, the good spirit and interest existing on the part of our members, the progress indicated in our past history, and the prospect before us, we warranted in presuming that the Christian Association of this city is established upon a firm basis, as an enduring superstructure, calculated to strengthen and increase as each year revolves, and ultimately to exert an incalculable amount of good upon those who are to shape the future destinies of this city.

With firm reliance upon the Providence which rules all our destinies, let us not despise the "day of small things," but remembering that as our day is so shall our strength be, hope for the best and seize upon such means as are in our power to accomplish the ends which He has marked for us to pursue.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1854.

AN EXPERIMENT.

The New York Herald, speaking of the effort of the administration to unite southern men and northern hards and softs on the Nebraska bill, says:

Thus, from the sound and substantial Union men of all parties, the White House chieftain counts upon a new and powerful party to replace the late national democratic party, which he has destroyed. Nebraska is to do the work. The national democrats are to be drawn in upon the principles of the bill, side by side with the freesoilers and secessionists already secured by the spoils.

Experience has yet to be tested upon this beautiful theory. The Nebraska bill proposes the repeal of an unconstitutional law, and of an offensive line of demarcation against the domestic institutions of the South.

This language does not sound like a cry for liberty, but like a plea for slavery. But hear the Herald a little further.

The bill will be passed. The country will approve it; the abolition fanatics, their organs and their leaders, will rave and rant awhile; but they must ultimately succumb. The constitution and the Union will prevail; but it is very uncertain, indeed, whether the administration will realize any glory or any benefit from Nebraska. That the debris—the disjecta membra of the late whig and democratic parties will make this repeal of the Missouri line the basis of new conventions and party organizations, north and south, is very evident.—Already, as we are informed from Washington, leading southern politicians are at work for the organization of a homogeneous southern constitutional party, upon the Nebraska platform—whigs and democrats, without reference to the administration or its estimates, but entirely in regard to the importance of a powerful organization against the anti slavery conspirators of the north.

There, fellow citizens of New Hampshire, Maine and Massachusetts! Are you not all ready to throw away your old parties, conquer your old prejudices, and toss up your cap for the new republic? It is to have a homogeneous southern constitution, whose corner stone is slavery. It is to be treason to speak an offensive word against the domestic institutions of the south; every free breath must be suppressed; every free man must succumb. President Pierce and his administration are to be thrown overboard, and the Herald will say, no matter who sinks, so that slavery and fillibusterism can swim.

We ask our readers, of all parties and of no party, if they don't think this is a very beautiful prospect?

The administration, including our young New Hampshire president, are induced or moved by some power, to plant themselves on a measure against which a vast majority of New England men have protested—and while the measure is pending in the House, the strongest opponent of this administration calls out, "Hurra, boys, hurra! catch hold and pull down the compromise as men pull down an old building; but be sure and give the thing such a cant as will bury Frank Pierce and all the northern democrats so deep beneath the ruins that they can't be found till after the election of '56."

Their course is a source of surprise and regret to their political friends in New Hampshire.

The same paper quotes the following axiom from Jefferson:

"Acquiescence in the decisions of the majority, the vital principles of Republics, from which there is no a ppeal but to force, THE VITAL PRINCIPLE AND THE IMMEDIATE PARENT OF DESPOTISM."

On this the Nashua Gazette then remarks:

The factious disorganizing minority in the House are repudiating this maxim by their conduct on the Nebraska bill. Let the people mark them, and hold them to a strict accountability.

Will anybody who knows, please to tell us how this same majority was procured or manufactured? And will they also tell us how it is, that this Nebraska matter was no test of Democracy at all, before our election, but is now the true touchstone? We have read what the Washington Union said, about the opposition to the bill by whigs and abolitionists; but we do not understand why any one man should favor a measure because another man opposes it. Still less can we understand how any administration can get along without some positive policy of its own. To oppose an administration may be a platform broad enough for a faction or party which means to break down the powers that be. But the powers themselves, we always thought marked out their policy, and adhered to it, until their measures were either completed or defeated. We are, therefore, rather slow to believe in the new test; at any rate we can wait awhile, and see how all the parties in this controversy come out.

Rev. Uriah Clark, well known in Providence as a Universalist clergyman, has dissolved his connection with that denomination, and become a preacher of modern spiritualism.

Well; the world will probably survive the change.

THE SIX NEW STEAM FRIGATES.—It is understood that the Secretary of the Navy has determined to build one of these ships in the Boston yard; another in the New York Yard; a third in the Philadelphia yard; a fourth in the Washington yard; and two in the Norfolk yard. There are two ships already under construction in the Portsmouth (N. H.) yard—the Santee and the Franklin. The machinery for one of them will be constructed in the Washington yard, that being the only government establishment of the kind in which such work can be done. At present its capacities in that line are said to be only such as to justify the attempt to construct the machinery necessary for one of these vessels, if they are to be promptly built and put into commission.

We take it for granted that the machinery for the others must be built by contract, under these circumstances, and under such stipulations, of course, as will compel the contractors for building them to comply to the letter with their engagements, and pay the penalties to be agreed upon. We hear, further, that the Secretary will, if possible, have the advantage of the advice of some of the most successful private steamship builders in this country, in superintending the vessels. We presume that this will be to insure that all the modern improvements known to the art of merchant steamship building, which may be applicable to steamers of war, will be made available in the construction of these new steamships of war.—Washington Star.

The machinery of all the government steamers now in service has been built by contract, and the invariable result has been failure, to a greater or less extent. The giving of contracts by government to the lowest bidder, is in fact offering a premium for bad, cheap work, and unsatisfactory results must always follow.

Now that the appropriation bill for the six steamers is passed, another bill should be immediately offered for the preparation of several machine shops, sufficiently commodious, and properly found, for the construction of marine engines, where due regard will be paid to strength and durability, which is the truest economy.

In connection with the Portsmouth Navy Yard is now a good machine shop, where has been built the past year a beautiful stationary engine of about fifty horse power. All parts of the work, except the casting and boring have been done here, and the work is considered by judges to be equal to anything of the kind in use. With the aid of a moderate appropriation this shop might be extended so as to complete machines of any size, which would be more thoroughly built than can possibly be done under the contract system.

There should be one or more large government machine shops, and we know of no station better adapted to this description of business than Portsmouth Navy Yard.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES.

The General Assembly of the Old School, met on the 18th, at Buffalo, in Central church—200 delegates attended. Rev. Dr. Young of Kentucky, is moderator, and will preach the opening sermon.

On the same day, at Philadelphia, commenced a session of the General Assembly of the New School. About two hundred members were present. Rev. Dr. Allen of Lane Seminary, preached the opening sermon.—Rev. Dr. Skinner of New York, was elected moderator, and Rev. Dr. Darling, clerk.

☞ Father Matthews, a Catholic priest, who died lately at Washington, D. C., has left a fortune of $200,000, a portion of which is bequeathed to his nephew, Hon. D. W. Merrick of Maryland, and a large sum to the Catholic Church. A cathedral will be erected in Washington city, on the site of St. Patrick's, from his bequest.

☞ We have recently been shown a new way of putting down carpets, which is far preferable to the common way of tacking them to the floor on four sides. At the ends of the carpet, where the breadths are sewed together, and in the middle of each breadth, were sewed small curtain rings, which were hooked over strong brass tacks driven into the floor. By this contrivance the contrivance, the carpet can be taken up and put down without trouble.

FIRE WORKS.—We would call particular attention to the Fire Works advertisement in another column. Mr. Hovey's works ranking the first in the country, we would advise all who wish to take part in the general festivities of the coming Fourth of July, to get their supplies from his celebrated Laboratory.

☞ Orr, the street preacher and trumpeter, was put into the Watch House in Worcester, Mass., on Thursday evening. The military were called out to disperse the mob which ensued.

BALTIMORE, May 18.—Later from Mexico.—New Orleans papers of Friday contain details of Mexican news to the 4th inst. The accounts of Santa Anna's movements are as conflicting as ever. One account says that he is in a dangerous position, entirely surrounded by insurgents, and his resources cut off. A second report, just as the steamer left Vera Cruz, was circulated that he had gained a victory over Alvarez. On the 5th a severe shock of earthquake was felt at Vera Cruz, lasting about fifty seconds.

Rev. Ichabod Nichols, D. D., who has been minister of the Unitarian church in Portland for nearly fifty years, has resigned his pastoral charge.

LOCAL.

BATH HOUSE AND LAUNDRY.—Our readers who look into the Auction column for bargains this morning, will miss the Advertisement of the Bath House and other matters appurtenant, which were to be sold to-day; but the sale of which is now postponed for the present.

It is proposed by some gentlemen, to keep up the Bath House, with some improvements; and by way of making it more useful, and at the same time more profitable, to connect a Laundry therewith.

We approve of the idea, especially as it must be quite comfortable for the linen and the wearer to be undergoing ablution at the same time, and to come simultaneously out, the one spotless, the other good as new.

So let us get up steam and go ahead on the Portsmouth Bath and Laundry.

The Charter is good, and the stock cannot be very costly.

GONE.—The Old North Meeting House, which was long an ornament to the Parade, and has been an object of curiosity since the Parade became Market Square, is now a non entity, as the old tower, with the last of the frame, was brought to the ground with a crash on Friday morning, a little after 9 o'clock. Many tons of timber and rubbish yet encumber the ground, but will all disappear in a few days. We have a fine view, ranging across the open square before us just now,—but the new temple that is to be, will soon limit our landscape.

☞ Rev. R. W. Clark preaches at the Temple to-morrow.

TO LOVERS OF THE BEAUTIFUL.—On Wednesday last we had the pleasure of visiting the Nursery of Mr. Rogers, in Kittery, inspecting his hot house, and rambling over his garden. The place is delightful, and will well repay visitors for the time spent in going over it, even if they are not in want of any thing in his line. We examined the books in the library in his hot house, and found most of the standard works on horticulture, agriculture, and botany, agricultural papers, magazines, &c., by a careful perusal and study of which, Mr. R. is determined to keep up with the times.

The proprietor, Mr. John Rogers, keeps an extensive assortment of every thing which the agriculturist, horticulturist, or botanist desires, and attends personally to the delivery of seeds, roots, shrubs and trees. Give him a call, and we have no doubt you will find what you wish in his nursery.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—From an authentic circular, we learn, that in accordance with the expressed wishes of teachers in different parts of the State, a Convention of teachers will be held at Concord, commencing Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, June 15th, prox., and continuing through the next day and evening.

Rev. Barnas Sears, D. D., Secretary of the Mass. Board of Education, Prof. E. D. Sanborn, of Dartmouth College, and Prof. J. G. Hoyt, of Philips' Academy, Exeter, have been invited to lecture before the Convention; and in case of non compliance of either of these, substitutes are to be provided by the movers of the measure.

There is a Committee to arrange a Hall for the sessions of the Convention, and to solicit from the several railroad companies reduction of fare to its members.

All practical teachers of the State are invited to meet in Convention as above.

Teachers in other States who receive the circular, are invited to meet, and all friends of education are expected and desired to favor the movement by their presence or by their influence.

☞ The Democratic State Committee of New Hampshire has issued a call for a State Convention, to be held at Concord on the 15th of June, for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Railroad Commissioner.

Should brother Burke and a few of the Old Guard Democray, be able to obtain seats as delegates, a rich meeting may be expected,—an improved edition of last year's convention.

A Whig State Convention has been called, to meet at Concord, on Tuesday, June 20.

SUPERIOR COURT.—At the July term of the Superior Court of Judicature, to be holden at Concord, the business of the several counties will be taken up on the following days, viz.:

A petition is about being sent to Washington that a survey of Lake Winnipiscogee may be made by U. S. Engineers, for the purpose of obtaining a correct chart of the same.

GRADUATES.—In the past week two young men who have served their apprenticeship with us, and since their minority have been journeymen, have graduated. Mr. Daniel J. Vaughan, to seek his fortune in the great commercial emporium, and William W. Dow, to prepare for a course of theological study at Andover. They are young men deserving well of the community, and have our best wishes for that success in life which industry, application and upright conduct will ensure.—Portsmouth Journal.

GREAT FALLS AND SOUTH BERWICK R. R.—At the annual meeting of the Great Falls and South Berwick Branch Railroad, held on the 21st inst., the following directors were elected for the current year:—Daniel G. Rollins, Richard Jenness, John N. Goodwin, I. G. Jordan, W. H. Y. Hackett, M. C. Burleigh, Geo. Barker.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

SENATE.—The proceedings of the Senate during the morning hour were of no special interest.

A long debate took place on a resolution for increasing the compensation of the Globe newspaper, for publishing the debates in the Senate; and also authorizing the Sentinel to copy the same at a remuneration of $4 50 per column. The resolution was finally so amended as to amount to nothing but a subscription for 5022 copies of the Globe and appendix.—Adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, a communication was received from the Secretary of State, transmitting correspondence which had passed between the United States and England with regard to the rights of neutrality in the war between Russia and Turkey.

The House then went into committee on the Nebraska bill.

Mr. Banks of Massachusetts proceeded to address the House in opposition to the bill, and against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

Mr. Miller of Mississippi followed in favor of the bill.

Messrs. Parker of Indiana and Peck of New York both followed in opposition to the bill.

SEVERE STORM.

A severe storm swept over the Middle States on the 17th.

The Wheeling Suspension bridge over the Ohio River was blown down during the terrific gale in the afternoon, and now lies in the river a total wreck. All the cables were twisted and broken in pieces, and the bridge turned bottom upwards. No lives were lost.

At Washington, D. C., a tremendous storm of wind and rain, accompanied with thunder and lightning, broke over the city between two and three o'clock in the afternoon, during which a lady residing in the first ward was killed.

A Sandy Hook despatch of the 18th says:

At half past two o'clock this morning, ship William Layton of New York from Antwerp, went ashore near Squam Inlet. She is perfectly tight, and lies on the outer bar, broadside on—has 400 passengers.

The packet ship Montezuma, Capt. Decouncy, from Liverpool April 18, with 400 passengers and merchandise, is badly ashore at Rockaway.

In Baltimore, the wall of one of the stores on Light street, which was destroyed by fire on Sunday, was blown down by the gust of wind on Wednesday afternoon, killing Wilson L. Lloyd, of the firm of McElderry & Lloyd, and a clerk named Samuel C. Atkinson. They were in an office adjoining the wall, and which was crushed by the fall.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By the Europa, at New York, we have Liverpool dates to May 6. Cotton had declined 1-8d. Flour had declined 1s 6d, and Corn 2s. Arrivals of Breadstuffs large. Money market stringent.

The War.—The allied fleets bombarded the Russian forts at the Sulina mouth of the Danube. No details received.

On the 18th and 19th, Omer Pasha, with 70,000 men, gave battle to Gen. Luders, between Sillistria and Passova. The battle raged several hours. During the previous night, Omer had sent a division towards Sed, which division during the height of the battle, attacked the Russians in the rear, causing tremendous confusion. The Russians retreated behind Czarnroode, with loss of many guns, stores, baggage, and military chests. The Russians continued their attack on Sillistria.

On the 29th the Turks crossed the Danube to destroy the Russian batteries, the Russians having advanced to Kalerson, and after hard fighting retreated.

Up to the 23d Sillistria remained undamaged. Paskiewitch has ordered the Russians to advance no farther into the Dobrudscha.

An important battle was fought on the 25th between the Turks and Greek insurgents.—Nota was taken by the Turks by assault in 50 minutes. The Greek leaders, Karaistkuk and Isaullas, fled. There was considerable slaughter.

The important town of Metsova has also been taken by the Turks, and was afterwards pillaged by Albanians. The Greek leader Grivas fled.

With the exception of Piroas, all the coast of Greece is closely blockaded by the allies.

On the 19th a battle ensuced between the Turks and Montenegrins at Nieschick, the Montenegrins commanded by George Petrovitch. Hostilities have fairly commenced.—It is reported that Austria will occupy the Provinces.

Russia is fitting out a fleet of 800 armed boats against him.

Paris, Saturday.—Detailed accounts of the bombardment of Odessa state that all the batteries and military stores were destroyed, two powder magazines blown up, and twelve Russian ships of war sunk.

Also thirteen vessels laden with ammunition. Merchant vessels unmolested. Loss of allies only 5 killed and 6 wounded. The allied fleet had left for Sebastopol.

Friday.—A telegraphic despatch was received by government last night, announcing a victory by the Turks, and that Omer Pacha had succeeded in cutting in two the Russian army in the Dobrudscha.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The ship Corvielan, Capt. Woulfe, of and from Bremen for New York, with passengers, went ashore on the Beach about three miles below Squam Inlet. The vessel lies within the outer bar, head on to the beach, and is not considered in a dangerous position.

The ship Montezuma, ashore at Rockaway, is 916 tons register, was built in New York in 1843. Probable value about $35,000, which sum together with her freight, is fully insured, as is also the great bulk of her cargo.

The ship Wm. Layton, ashore on Squam Beach, is a new ship, having been built at Williamsburg, L. I., in 1853. She is worth about $80,000, and fully covered by insurance.

The total arrivals at this port yesterday numbered about 73 vessels of all descriptions. One steamer, 29 ships, 17 barks, 14 brigs and 11 schooners, amounting in all to about 38,750 tons, bringing 12,751.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 Bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers it warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in plant bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last two years, with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The native, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, all-prone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him. and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivaled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continued use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and properties are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicicne yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchia affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years

IT IS PERFECTLY AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Hygeian, Hoarhound, Liverwort and Asparagus

COUGH CANDY.

Warranted free from Mercury, Opium, or any Mineral Ingredient. It injures no one, but benefits all.

Relief guaranteed in five minutes.

NEVER, since the Science of Medicine first dawned upon the World, has any compound gained such extraordinary popularity, in so short a time as DR. HOWE'S Hygeian, Hoarhound and Liverwort COUGH CANDY, in curing Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Bleeding at the Lungs, Pain in the Side and Breast, Sore Throat, Cramp, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Hoarseness or any other Symptom of that distressing malady, Consumption.

A host of Certificates can be presented, but the following from Rev. J. M. Trimble, Presiding Elder of the Cincinnati District M. E. Church, must satisfy all of the beneficial results of the use of this Cough Candy.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 25, 1847.

DR. HOWE—Sir: I have used Howe's Cough Candy and have found it a pleasant remedy for Hoarseness, and believe that public speakers troubled with diseases of the throat would find benefit from its use. J. M. TRIMBLE.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two out-leries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city; each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

VENEZUELA EMANCIPATION.

The Caraccas correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of April 15, says:

I take leave to inform you that the liberation of the slaves passed off well; the promulgation of the act of emancipation, by the Governor of Caraccas, excited much attention, not, however, so much from the philanthropy of the measure, as from the civic and military procession, in which President Monagas and his Cabinet Ministers joined. Lithographic cuts were stuck up, representing the Congress and a group of negroes, male and female, in great exultation, with one in the foreground in chains. President Monagas stands between the Congress and the negroes. In one hand he holds a scroll, on which is written—"Liberty," and on the other a pair of iron fetters broken asunder. The measure was introduced and urged through Congress with the greatest precipitancy, for not a single member had time to consult his constituents beyond the province of Caraccas; but no harm can come by the emancipation of the slaves in Venezuela, for not more than one twentieth part of the population are white; they are a mixed population—

From lily white to coal black rose.

They are crossed by Indian and negro blood, intermixed with that of the European Spaniard, and these crossings have been so frequent for three centuries, that it is impossible to tell which species predominates. The negro slave will therefore be received into the masses without any difficulty.

On the Sunday after the promulgation of the emancipation act the servants who had been slaves, paid no attention to the pretended boon, and were not inclined to leave their good and comfortable homes to seek a precarious living in the streets, nor forsake those families in which they were born and brought up. They were seen as usual behind their mistresses, carrying the alfombaas (hearth rugs, such as are used in the United States) for their mistresses to sit or kneel upon in church; for the churches in Venezuela have neither pews nor seats, and the ladies have their carpets spread on the brick pavement, on which they squat like Indians, or sit cross legged—(I beg the ladies' pardon,) cross footed, like a tailor on his board; and in this situation they hear mass. A number of Monagistees assembled at the church doors, drying "down with the alfombras," and abusing the ladies with indecent language, and tried to cause the servants to desist from their menial employment in carrying the carpets to church, as usual, for their mistresses; and the following Sunday the police had to be stationed at the church doors to keep order.

It will be recollected that by a decree of the 21st July, 1821, all children born of slave mothers from that date were free, but compelled as manumesos to serve until they were 21 years old; consequently there were no slaves on the day of final emancipation under 33 years of age, and the owners are to be indemnified, according to the tariff established, or valuation by law, by which slaves could purchase their own freedom, which is as follows:—From 15 to 39 years of age, $300; 45 years, $260; 50 years, $200, 55 years, $125; 60 years, $50; 63 years, $5; beyond that, no value. It is not known how many slaves existed on the day of the manumission.

A tax has been laid on all the salaries, pensions, commissions, &c., of persons in public Thus the members of Congress, receiving over $800 for the session, are taxed three per cent. on the amount they may be entitled to receive, and the President, receiving $12,000 per annum, is taxed ten per cent. on the amount, or $1200 per year towards indemnifying the owners of slaves, as all salaries over $3,000 per year are taxed ten per cent., under the manumission act of the 24th of March, 1854.

New Grenada has taken the lead in throwing off the Papal yoke. Her last Congress passed an act forbidding any contribution, either by the central government, provincial or municipal authorities, in support of the church or clergy, thus seperating entirely the church and state, and withdrawing from all official intercourse with the Pope. Consequently the Pope's Nuncio at Bogota has placed the loving subjects of his Holiness under the French Charge d'Affairs. It is believed all the South American republics will follow the example of New Grenada, and the Bible will supersede the bulls of the Pope ere long, and the people will say amen.

HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

We have wondered greatly at the fact, as stated in many papers, and not contradicted, that Boston had no High School for Girls.—But it appears by the following statement, copied from the Transcript, that the City of Boston contains twelve schools for Girls, which would elsewhere be considered pretty high, and perhaps receive that appellation.

While the subject of the establishment of one or more High Schools for Girls in this city is under consideration, it may be well for the information of all parties to state, that at the present time we have twelve public schools which may justly be called "High Schools for Girls." In the Grammar Schools for females in Boston, provision is now made for instruction in the following branches: Reading—Spelling, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, First Lessons in History, Map Drawing—Grammar, Composition, Book Keeping, Morals, General History, the Rudiments of National Philosophy, including Mechanics, Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, Pneumatics, Electricity, Optics, Magnetism, and Astronomy, and in Physiology, the Philosophy of Natural History, Algebra and Geometry; the four last named, with the single limitation, that they are not to be pursued by any pupil, to the neglect of the previously enumerated studies.

It will be seen as above, that the Grammar Schools for girls offer larger opportunities to those who may improve them, than are provided for in the Grammar Schools for boys. Pupils are admitted at the same age, and are allowed to remain in them two years longer, and they receive instruction in several branches, which are extended to boys only after their admission into the English High School.

The only query in the minds of the friends of education here in regard to this subject, appears to be respecting the best method of attaining the same object. While many persons are urging the establishment of new schools, others, who have given much attention to the matter, are favorable to raising the standard of studies in the schools already existing. The Normal School, established by the city authorities in 1852, in our judgment, is of far higher value, than a single High School for girls would be.

This whole matter is now in the hands of the proper authorities. We have thought that our city has been unduly censured in many quarters by writers who have alluded to the subject. They have ignored the existence of a dozen "High Schools for Girls" now established in Boston, and attended by five thousand pupils.

All these things look well: but the number of scholars in 12 schools, 5000, seems very large; more than 400 to a school. How is this?

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 75 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

Morning Chronicle.

MESSRS. KITTREDGE AND MORRISON

Messrs Editors:—In your last, you state that the Nashua Gazette expresses surprise or regret at the course of our two Representatives, Kittredge and Morrison, in opposing the Nebraska Bill. I have only to say that it may be, they had regard for consistency, and respect for the voice of their constituents. I believe that the latter have not sent to them even a solitary petition in favor of the bill.—On the other hand there are many democrats, and the main body of the other parties, who express their surprise that Hon. Harry Hibbard should, in supporting the bill, abandon the principles to which he subscribed. They do not see how he can justify such inconsistency. It is a matter of record that in our N. H. Senate, in 1848, he advocated and voted for a resolution, passed unanimously, "that we are in favor of the passage of a law by Congress, forever prohibiting Slavery in New Mexico and California, and in all other territories now acquired by the United States, in which slavery does not exist at the time of such acquisition."

He voted for the third resolution—"that we approve, as we have always heretofore done, of all their [our Representatives] votes already given in favor of such a law, or in favor of the principle of the same."

Kittredge and Morrison adhere to "the principle"; Hibbard deserts it. The united democratic party of this State adhered to the same principle, certainly up to 1850, as the doings of their Conventions and the Journals of the Legislature prove. I suppose that the old N. H. Gazette spake ex Cathedra-politico, when its Editor, in his paper of Feb. 18, 1851, solemnly declared as follows—"If there is a political party in this country who really entertain an adverse feeling to slavery, and would REJOICE to see the institution in this country abolished, that party is the Democratic party." Again, he says—"the Democratic party are the natural enemies of slavery,—its foes from condition and principle."

Those are our sentiments, ever were, and ever will be. We shall not throw them overboard because Mr. Hibbard chooses to forsake them to promote the supposed interest of slavery. T.

CELIBACY IN ENGLAND.—The late British census shows that celibacy prevails to a large extent in England. Out of a return of 67,609 households, only 41,916 are genuine families, the remainder being domiciles kept by spinsters, bachelors, widows and widowers. As this is not an exceptional statement, but given as a fair average of the census report, more than a third of the adult population of England would appear to be unmarried. In the south eastern division, the result was even worse, for there, of women under 45, 170,000 only were wives, while 120,000 were spinsters or widows.

This is in strict accordance with the statements which were made by Rev. Mr. Bodwell in his lecture on the Women of England, which he delivered in this city last winter.—Indeed, the state of things here described, is the legitimate result of the wretchedly false and foolish feeling of aristocracy, caste, or strata in society, which he truly described as existing in that country; and which must prevail in any country where 'a fine establishment,' or a 'good outfit' is a sine qua non to matrimony. Where the wife is a helpmeet, the case is quite different.

LABOR AND FOOD.—The price of labor seems high, to those who pay out wages to many hands; and so it is. But on the other hand, the laborer has to pay in this market, for his butter, lard, cheese, meat and bread stuff, for his tea and saleratus, his beans and his fish, from 20 to 50 per cent. higher than he did three or four years ago. It becomes a serious question, then, whether the California Gold, which has raised his wages, has done him any good after all. But it is certain, that if his wages had not risen, the rise in other things must have sunk him deep in poverty and distress. As it is, he lives on, about the same as ever, seeming to have more, but only seeming.

RESIGNATIONS AND CHANGES.—The Hon. Edward Everett, of Massachusetts, in consequence of ill health, has resigned his seat in the United States Senate, the resignation to take effect in June. Hon. Rufus Choate has resigned the Attorney Generalship of Massachusetts, and the Hon. John H. Clifford has been recalled to the position. It is rumored that Gov. Washburn has tendered Mr. Everett's place to Mr. Choate.

Our milkman says he cannot afford milk any longer at the present market prices, in consequence of the great scarcity of chalk.—Lowell News.

Our milkman does not deal in chalk. He is not up to that.

At the cartridge manufactory at Cronstadt, Russia, an explosion lately took place, by which sixty Russian workmen were killed.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE CLASSICAL CHORUS BOOK.—We are indebted to Messrs. George P. Reed & Co., Music Publishers and Dealers, 13 Tremont Row, Boston, for a copy of this Collection of Choruses, Anthems, Motets and Hymns, compiled by Baker and Southard, for the use of Choirs and Musical Associations. It is a new collection, but few, if any, of the pieces ever having been before published in this country with English words; and would be a valuable addition to any musical libaary. Price $8 per dozen.

Patridge & Brittan, publishers, 300 Broadway, N. Y., have sent us No. 1 of the Sacred Circle, a monthly magazine, of the Spiritualists, published at $2 per annum, or $1 for 6 months.

The editors are Judge Edmonds, Dr. Dexter, and O. G. Warren. Its literary execution is excellent, and its diction is at once simple and beautiful. We pronounce no judgment on its opinions; but advise those who wish to understand the subject to read for themselves.

☞ John S. Sleeper, Esq., has retired from the editorship of the Boston Journal, on account of continued ill health. Messrs. Henry & Charles O. Rogers are to be the publishers, and Mr. James A. Dix, editor.—Mr. Dix has for a long time performed most of the editorial duties.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—The Boston Courier discredits almost the whole of the Foreign News, relating to the war, and says:

To show how grossly the British public—and we must say the American public, too—are imposed upon by the newspaper manufactures of "Turkish victories," we will state that the following intelligence is gravely announced on English authority:

"Paskiewitch has ordered the Russians to advance no further into the Dobrudscha."

It so happens that the Russian armies have been for some time in complete and undisputed possession of the Dobrudscha, from one end of that territory to the other.

In short, there is not a syllable of this "highly important" news, that is deserving of the slightest regard. It is nothing but a clumsy hotch-potch of worthless tattle, hastily gobbled up from the English newspapers, and tumbled over the telegraph wires in the usual haram scarum, blundering style, with names mis-spelt, dates out of joint, and everything so completely wrong end foremost as to make it evident that those who tell the story know no more about the matter than those to whom they tell it.

STEAMER OTTAWA.

Another of the Quebec steamers has arrived at Portland. The "State of Maine" newspaper says:

The Ottawa, Capt. J. B. Atkins commander, cleared from Liverpool for Quebec on the 25th of April, and went to sea on the 27th, with about 180 passengers and a full cargo of freight. She made a good run till within 250 miles of Cape Race, when on the 6th of May she encountered ice, in which she was held for about four days. Getting clear of this, Capt. Atkins passed south of Newfoundland, but found it necessary to put into Sydney, Cape Breton, for coals. After this, he again started for Quebec; having gone as far north as St. Pauls, he found any approach to the St. Lawrence still cut off, and on Tuesday, the 16th of May, he changed his course for Portland, following the example of Capt. Salt of the Cleopatra.

On Wednesday last, off Cape Sable, the Ottawa spoke the Cleopatra, and Capt. Salt and Capt. Atkins came near enough to speak to each other, but not near enough to exchange papers, so that till he reached Portland, Capt. Atkins did not know the particulars of the Cleopatra's voyage.

So dense was the fog on Thursday night and Friday, that Capt. Atkins had much difficulty in making the coast, and had to lay off Seguin all day Friday, till it cleared up that evening, when he at once came into the harbor.

We suppose the Ottawa to be the steamship which was seen and reported by Capt. Call of the schooner Amelia, on Thursday, P. M.

THE BARK GRAPE SHOT.—The foreign news has some notice of this distinguished craft, which report says has turned up as an American privateer. The Grape Shot was built in Portland in 1853—came to Boston, where she was purchased by parties belonging to New London, who took her to New York, where she was first cleared for Constantinople—was afterwards cut through and sunk by the ice, and then was raised—and the next that was heard of her, she cleared out for the West Indies, and arrived at the mouth of the Mississippi, as was reported, with 'George Law's' muskets on board, which were supposed to be intended for action at Cuba. She was a sharply constructed vessel, with a cannon for a figure head, as appropriate to her name.—Nothing has been heard of her since she left the passes of the Mississippi, until now, when she is reported as a privateer on the British coast.—Boston Courier.

The reports which speak of an American privateer, are absurdities. If the Grape Shot has been capturing any vessels, she must either be a Russian privateer, or a pirate: we rather think the latter.

SAVE YOUR RAGS.—Never were rags in such demand, or so high in price as now, since our recollection. Housewives, dressmakers, tailors, save your rags carefully, and turn them into gold.

NAVAL.—U. S. ship Cyane, Capt. Hollins, from Aspinwall via Havana 8th, arrived in New York last week—all well. She did not salute the Spanish authorities on leaving the harbor.

LOCAL.

☞ The Pleasant Street Christian Society in this city, wishing to build a new church in a more central location, have authorized their Wardens to offer their present place of worship for sale—which it will be seen is done in our columns this morning.

☞ The first train from Boston, on Saturday, was detained about two hours, on account of an accident to the morning freight train, which was thrown from the track near Seabrook.

☞ We are under frequent obligations to Messrs. Federhen & Co., Newspaper and Periodical Dealers in Boston, for copies of Magazines, Novels, &c. The firm consists of Mr. J. Federhen, and Mr. Chas. P. Weeks formerly of this city; and they are doing a brisk business at the old stand of Hotchkiss & Co., 9 and 13 Court street. Purchasers can't do better elsewhere, at wholesale or retail. Mr. Morse is their agent in this city.

ACCIDENT IN STRAFFORD.—On Friday, 12th inst., a little boy, son of Mr. William Hall of Strafford, between 6 and 7 years old, while at play with a pistol, loaded with powder and ball, shot himself by the accidental discharge of the pistol. He survived but a few minutes—the ball passed through his body and out at the shoulder blade. The boy found the pistol when the older members of the family were absent, they not supposing the pistol was within his reach. But a few moments before the accident, the boy was with other small boys trying to shoot at a mark, but could not get the piece to go off.—Dover Gazette.

"SUSPENSION."—Matt. F. Ward, it seems, asks the public to "suspend" their opinions in regard to his own escape from "suspension" by the sheriff, for the murder of Prof. Butler, until the report of the evidence is "officially published in New York." Mr. Wolfe, of Louisville, one of Ward's counsels, asks the citizens of that city not to give credence to the statements made by some six Western reporters in regard to his address to the jury, but to wait for the authorized version from New York!

We apprehend that the appeals of the murderer, and his reckless attorney, will rather damage the sale of the authorized and official report of the judicial farce recently enacted in Kentucky.—Boston Times.

DOMESTIC QUARRELS.—Those who have not traced the causes of family quarrels, would not readily guess from what slight circumstances they often originate; they arise more frequently from small defects in temper, than from material faults in character. People who would perhaps sacrifice their fortunes or lives for each other, cannot, at certain moments, give up their will, or command their humor in the slightest degree.—Lowell News.

The Portsmouth Tribune thinks a "wife and a child or two," the safest and best capital with which a man can start in business. We once knew a man who started in business in this way, and he came out twelve children ahead. Still the theory looks as if it might work.

Twenty dollar bills on the City Bank, Manchester, N. H., altered from one dollar bills, and ones of the Broadway Bank, South Boston, turned into ten dollar notes, and counterfeit tens on the Naugatuck Bank of Westport, Conn., have made their appearance.

Ship Black Hawk, from Liverpool for New York, was lost at sea on the 23d of April.—Her crew and passengers, 800 in number, were all taken off by three ships, the Dirigo, Caroline and Currituck, the latter of which has arrived at New York.

The Hon. and Rev. Jared Perkins, late Representative in Congress from New Hampshire, is about to remove from Winchester, N. H., to Nashua, to take charge of the society recently under the care of the Rev. Mr. Furber.

In New York last Thursday, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, the District Attorney moved for leave to enter a nol prosequi in the case of Mr. Hayes, who was indicted with his wife for the murder of Dr. Lutener. Judge Roosevelt granted the motion.

The Washington Star announces that Mr. Walbridge, M. C. from New York, who has been won over by the administration on the Nebraska question, "has received the promise of the Honolulu consulship."

Godfrey Pearce has been convicted of the murder of Angeline Spink, a child three and a half years old, at Coventry, R. I., on the 20th of March last. He was sentenced to the State Prison for life.

Hannah C. Freeman, daughter of Mr. William Freeman, of Orleans, Mass., committed suicide on Saturday morning last, by hanging herself in her room with a cord. She had previously showed symptoms of insanity.

Rich and Valuable Mill Property

For Sale in Wisconsin to Close a Concern.

THE KINGSTON MILLS, situated in the beautiful and thriving Village of Kingston, Marquette County, Wisconsin, are now offered for sale at a low price to close an Estate.

This magnificent property consists of a GRIST AND FLOURING MILL of the most modern construction, with two runs of stones. The supply of water is unfailing and ample at all seasons, with a fall of twelve feet. It commands a vast amount of custom work, sufficient to keep it in full operation the whole year round. The building is four stories high, very large and commodious, and built in the most substantial manner.

Also, a SAW MILL, built after the most approved plan. It has been hitherto rented for one hundred dollars per month.

Also 120 ACRES OF LAND—embracing some choice village lots in Kingston.

This property is within a few miles of the Milwaukie & La Cross Railroad, and within four miles of the navigable waters of the Fox River. A portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage if desired.

Apply to JOSIAH DRUMMOND on the premises, or to CHARLES SMITH, Waupun, Dodge County, Wisconsin, or to JAMES GRAHAM, No. 4 Pine street, New York. m19eodlm

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 19.

SENATE.—In the Senate, Mr. Cooper laid on the table a substitute for the bill suspending duties on railroad iron.

A resolution offered by Mr. Slidell was adopted, directing a committee on commerce to inquire into the propriety of making suitable acknowledgments to the captain and crew of the steamer Washington, for rescuing the passengers of the ship Winchester.

The private calendar was taken up.

The Senate passed a bill for the relief of G. W. Ridgely, for tobacco destroyed by the British during the last war. Other private bills were acted on, and the executive session adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The Nebraska bill was taken up. Mr. Churchwell of Tennessee, spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Dean of New York, against it.

Mr. Wheeler of New York, spoke against the bill, and was followed by Mr. Walsh of New York, in its favor, but denunciatory of the administration.

Mr. Morrison of New Hampshire, made a speech against the bill, and Mr. Benton against the Gadsden treaty and the government scheme.

At half past 4 the House took a recess until 6 o'clock.

Upon reassembling, Nebraska speeches were resumed, and are now, at half past 10 o'clock, continued, with a probability of remaining in session all night.

WASHINGTON, May 20th.—The Nebraska Bill was debated in the House until half-past 12 o'clock, when the committee took a recess until 9 o'clock this morning, at which hour only 20 members were in their seats.

ARREST OF INCENDIARIES.—Three boys named Butler, Pearson, and Montgomery, have been arrested upon suspicion of having set fire to the box factory of Mr. Charles Harlow, in Cambridgeport, on Monday night.—They were committed, to await an examination.

Since the above was in type, our faithful Cambridge itemizer has handed us a paragraph, the contents of which are anticipated. Our friend very properly remarks that "it is painful to contemplate the young of this age, banded together as incendiaries. There has been a lack of proper training somewhere."

We farther learn that one of the boys has confessed to several incendiarisms, by which it seems that they have been perpetrated for sometime, and that quite a number were engaged in the crime. Among the confessions is the firing of the large ropewalk on Magazine street, last winter.

The principle motive to these deeds appears to have been in a desire, on the part of the boys, to run to the fires with the engines, and the more particularly to have refreshments at the engine houses after the firemen returned. —Boston Bee.

THE NEW MILL.—The foundations of the new mill and machine shop now in process of erection by the Jackson Co., Nashua, are nearly ready for the brick work. The mill is to be 286 by 48 feet, three stories high, and is to be used exclusively for weaving and dressing rooms. It will be ready for work probably by next winter. The machine shop is to be 200 by 40 feet and 2 stories, and will be ready some time during the summer. The whole number of additional hands required for the operation of the mill and machine shop will be upwards of two hundred. These new works, and the extensive works of Mr. Gillis at the "Harbor" will add greatly to the industrial population and wealth of the city. What has already been done has given a renewed impetus to the business of the place, and the rapid rise of the value of real estate, rents, &c., shows that its prosperity is onward.—Nashua Gazette.

AFFAIRS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.—It would appear from the Constantinople correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post, that much needless alarm prevails in Turkey, lest the United States should make common cause with the Emperor of Russia against the Sultan and his allies, France and England. Visions of privateers and ships of war constructing on Russian account seem to have frightened the writer as much as the Turks. It was currently reported in Constantinople that the Russian steamer which run through the Dardanelles under British colors, was a large steamer built in the United States for the Russian government.

CINCINNATI, May 16. — A colored man named James Worthington, was arrested at Akron, yesterday, under pretence of a charge for counterfeiting. The citizens soon learned that he was in reality arrested as a fugitive slave, and that it was the intention of his captors to carry him off. A great commotion was the consequence, and the citizens turned out en masse and rescued the man. Farther trouble is apprehended.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Andrew Williams was convicted yesterday of the murder of his wife by administering poison to her. The jury recommended him to mercy.

A passenger who arrived in the Crescent City yesterday, reports having seen the bark Grape Shot riding at anchor off the Balize, on the 9th inst. Also reports having seen Capt. Baxter in the city previous to the sailing of the steamer.

BUFFALO, May 20.—The propeller seen on fire on the Lake last night is supposed to be the Kent. When first discovered she was wholly enveloped in flames. The crew, it is believed, have escaped.

HIGHLANDS, May 20.—Last night the summer hotel of Mr. John Fletcher, at this place, was entirely destroyed by fire, together with its contents. Loss $6000; about half insured.

Mr. Alfred Dutch, of the Chicago Commercial Advertiser, obtained a judgement of $4000 against certain parties at the last term of the Circuit Court, for destroying his office when acting under legal process of distress of rent. He has now another suit at this term of the Court against those and other parties, for a conspiracy to destroy the paper and ruin him. He has laid his damages at $100,000. The defendants are men of high standing and wealth.

"The Richmond Enquirer, the central organ of the "Virginia Democracy," expresses great indignation at the opposition of the North to Senator Slidell's motion for repealing the neutrality laws, which it designates as a "proposition to arm a Democratic President with power to forbid the abolition of slavery in Cuba!"

John Randolph once said "he expected to live to the time when slaves in Virginia would advertise for runaway masters; as it took all the corn to feed the hogs—all the hogs to feed the negroes—and there was nothing left for the planters."

Capt. Crabtree, indicted for having wilfully lost his ship, the Emma Watts, at the Azore Islands, was this morning in the U. S. Circuit Court, admitted to bail in $3,000.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft as a jelly bag, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many varieties of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs —the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eye, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 70, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several weighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One fever is cured him. Another came home to die, and was inclined by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

Her lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime.) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff outof the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessertspoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found this a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for those noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Gates street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

"PRESENTATION OF PLATE."—Buffalo has been quite ostentatious, recently, in the presentation of Plate to sundry of its citizens.

"The Democracy," a "new broom that sweeps clean," cuts in with an article worthy of Dickens.

Assuming that there is a great deal of flunkyism in the American People, which California gold is developing, The Democracy gives a flaming account of a Silver Curry Comb presented to William Backstrap, by the passengers conveyed in his Omnibus from the Southern Michigan Steamer to the Plantaganet Hotel. The following is a sketch of the very happy speech of Mr. Phule, on the occasion:

Mr. Backstrap was seated on the outer edge of a blue velvet lounge in the Ladies Parlor, and held his hat between his legs in a very modest manner. His efforts at hiding his whip behind his ancles, were ingenious and pleasing. The passengers arose and stood in a half circle before him. "Mr. William Backstrap" —"That's the ticket, sir!" said Mr. Backstrap, intelligently closing one of his eyes, "Mr. William Backstrap," resumed Mr. Phule, "why are we here?" If there arose in Mr. Backstrap's mind a desire to answer, "because we ain't thar," it was soon checked by the orator's continuing—"We are here to honor merit. Why, Backstrap, do we honor merit? Because it is better to be landed safely, than to be wrecked upon the voyage.—Perils of lamp posts and of opposing hubs, bad pavements, and traitorous devices of competition, encircle the omnibus passenger, and the ark of his hopes. You evaded these, William Backstrap, with masterly skill and courage. You baffled an insidious attempt of an unprincipled solicitor, to decoy us to the Universal Dominion, an inferior hotel. You were mighty in the use of that coercive dialect, which though elsewhere deemed profane swearing, the exigencies of trade and travel have established upon the docks as an element of Order and an aid to Justice. Why, William Backstrap, do we speak of Order and make mention of Justice? Because they beautifully herald the brilliant triumph of Art, which I carefully cherish in my back coat pocket, and which, William Backstrap, I now produce.

The curry comb was taken out, and Mr. Backstrap in the most affecting manner, immediately hid the better part of his countenance behind a cotton handkerchief, spiritedly ornamented with the picture of a trotting match. Notwithstanding his emotion however, he was enabled to keep his right eye uncovered, with which to give respectful attention to the proceedings. "Accept, William Backstrap, this silver curry comb, as a slight testimonial of our respect and gratitude, for the devotion, courage, and skill displayed by you, on the last trip of your omnibus from the Southern Michigan to the Plantaganet House.

Mr. Backstrap, completely overcome by his feelings, took the currycomb and stuffed it into his hat—and with a graceful backward motion of his right leg, and a short bow, he gathered up his whip and left the room. In the hall he relieved his feelings by drawing his breath deeply, and then took out the curry comb, and regarded it for a while with looks of affection and curiosity. "If this ere," said Mr. Backstrap, "ain't up the spout in less than 2 40, I hope to be spavined."

The "barber-pole pants," says the Home Journal, will most probably be supplanted this spring by the "pictorials." One of the most common patterns represents a waving ostrich feather running up the front of each leg. These are called "Some Feather." Another pattern has a pack of hounds chasing a fox down into the boots. These are called "Foxy." Still another pattern has French Lithographs of Parisian beauties on each knee. These are called "Mis-fortunes," and are all the rage with very nice young men, whose good old parents forgot to give them brains instead of money.

The high heels, says the Home Journal, which the ladies are beginning to wear, are one round, at least, in the ladder to health. On merely damp ground—as on the grass of a lawn, or garden walk at evening—there is a difference between the application of the whole foot, or the least sensitive portion of it. And if, to these high heeled shoes, the makers would add an india rubber sole, (ever so thin, and inserted between the outer and inner sole,) the precious maternity of Coming America would be one degree likelier to be worthy of the destiny preparing for it. From pigmy-and-sick-lydom, Lord defend us. We patriotically rejoice in any manifestation by the ladies, of masculine interest in exercise and health.

A PECULIAR SITUATION.—As a man was riding down Broadway, in a wagon, on Sunday last, his attention being arrested by some little circumstances, he forgot to guide his horse, which trotted against the entrance of the Metropolitan Insurance Office with such force as to spring the closed doors so far open as to get his head between them. He was relieved from his uncomfortable position with considerable difficulty.—N. Y. Paper.

The spiritual philosophy, or that creed which attributes rappings and table movings to the agency of invisible spirits, appears to have found a new advocate—a half way disciple, at least—in Prof. Hare, formerly professor of Chemistry in the University of Pennsylvania. At a meeting of the Spiritualists in New York, a few days since, he took the rostrum, and before a crowded auditory gave the result of his experience in a course of investigation, extending through a period of several months. He used electrical apparatus, and resorted to every mode calculated to detect the presence and influence of electricity in producing the phenomenon, and he affirmed that after patient investigation, he had come to the conclusion that there is an intelligent, independent, invisible agency, entirely aside from the medium, concerned in producing the various phenomena. He affirms that the theory of the Spiritualists is the only intelligible solution yet presented.

TOO MUCH FREEDOM.—It appears that John Towle, of Freedom, N. H., who lost his watch and $40 in money on Tuesday, took a seat on the Common, where he was joined by a pale, poetical looking gentleman, who invited Mr. Towle to dine with him! This polite invitation was accepted. The day being warm, Mr. Towle took off his coat, as they do in the country, and ate and drank in his shirt-sleeves. Upon leaving his hospitable entertainer, however, Mr. Towle found the difference between country and city fashions, inasmuch as his watch (which it seems was in the coat pocket,) and money were gone.—Neither the pale gentleman nor the lively ladies with whom Mr. Towle dined, could give any account of the missing articles, and, as he left the house in a confused condition, he couldn't tell the police where it was situated. This is a very melancholy affair, and we fear its tendency will be to injure the character of Boston for hospitality to strangers.

Joice Heth's brother has turned up at Cincinnati. A showman in that city advertises: "For one week only—Funtemah, alias Simon Washington, the only surviving slave of Gen. Washington, over one hundred and twenty years old, captured in Guinea when young, brought to the United States, and sold to Gen. Washington from the slave ship. Attested by Gen. Joseph Markle and others.—Admission ten cents—the proceeds, after defraying the necessary expenses, to be devoted to the support of himself and wife, now aged and in poverty."

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV, late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1854.

BRADY'S BEND.

This is an important manufacturing town in the State of Pennsylvania, where are manufactured large quantities of Railroad Iron. A gentleman of this city has recently visited the place, and gives us the following brief account of it:

BRADY'S BEND, IN PENNSYLVANIA.—This is a place which I have recently visited, and which has interested me greatly; for it has not such natural attractions to arrest the attention of the traveller, as have those great palaces of nature in our own State, amid our grand and noble mountain scenery, or such as may be seen around the Falls of Niagara; yet Brady's Bend, as the seat of great industrial operations, is a place that possesses another kind of interest of great importance to the nation, and of course to every patriot and well-wisher to his country's prosperity.

This town is situated on the river Alleghany, about 60 miles above the great Iron City of Western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh. Its outward appearance is not inviting to the traveller. A dozen years since, a company at Boston was formed to work the beds o iron, coal, &c. This company made a large expenditure of about a million of dollars, after which the company failed, and the works passed into new hands.

The present company own 6000 acres of land; 4 large blast furnaces and a rolling mill, containing 25 puddling furnaces and 9 heating furnaces; also a store, a hotel, and 590 dwelling houses for workmen. There are 1100 persons employed in the mines, the furnaces and mill.s

The weekly product is as follows:—The mines produce ores, 1000 tons; coal, 2500 do; limestone, 225 do.

Blast furnaces produce 280 tons coke metal, weekly.

Mill produces 200 tons finished rails, weekly.

There are a machine shop and a foundry for casting machinery for the works; and also an establishment for the manufacture of fire brick, the materials for which are found in great abundance on their ground, and are of a very superior quality.

There are about twenty miles of railroad connecting the different branches of the works. I rode some miles on the road passing through from one side of the mountain to the other, being one of the most singular rides I ever had. The entrance into the mountain, where the coal is deposited, is overlaid by large slate stones, as if made for man and road to pass along. All the deposits in the mountain, for the benefit of man, and for the exercise of his skill to bring them into use, are to me alike novel, interesting and astonishing in their vastness, profusion, and their nice adaptation to each other and to the wants of man; evincing the Divine wisdom, power and goodness in a way more striking than can be shown otherwise than by "sermons in stones."

I take great pleasure in stating that the present company, under the able and skillful direction of its President, M. P. Sawyer, Esq., of Boston, and A. S. D. Dudley, Esq., formerly of Roxbury, the Superintendent at Brady's Bend, are doing a good business.

The rails made at this place are superior to any imported, both in strength and durability; and our government should be aware of the great value to the country of this manufacture, and be careful not to impair its force by special legislation; for the history of this country proves that the protection of labor is a great blessing to the nation. I had almost forgotten to say I found the Portsmouth newspapers at Brady's Bend, and four "Portsmouth Boys" doing good service. D.

MOTIVES.

The Portsmouth Chronicle says—"the reason the City Council of Newburyport rejected a set of resolutions condemning the Nebraska Bill, was because they are under the influence of Gen. Cushing."

It is a remarkable fact that some persons never can allow others to differ from themselves in opinion, without imputing some unworthy motive to them: the Chronicle seems to belong to this class. The Nebraska resolutions were rejected in the City Council because they were not deemed a legitimate subject of action.—Newburyport Union.

The Union has so misquoted our words as change the point of our remarks very materially. The Herald spoke of the rejection of the anti-Nebraska resolutions in Newburyport as a singular case; the only one in any city;—and we accounted for the singularity by reference to Mr. Cushing's influence there—which Mr. C. understands as well as we do.

We did not say any one's motives were unworthy: but it would be rather difficult, we fancy, to account for that singularity in any way but the one we have suggested. If that be treason, make the most of it.

At an Episcopal convention in Philadelphia, resolutions were passed fixing the minimum salary at $500 for single, and $750 for married clergymen.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, May 20.

HOUSE.—At half past 12 o'clock last night the Committee took a recess till 9 o'clock this morning.

At the appointed hour, 9 o'clock, there were about twenty members in their seats, and only thirteen persons in the galleries.

The Nebraska bill was taken up. Mr. Harlan of Ohio opposed the bill.

Mr. Stanton of Tennessee contended that the Missouri act was like all other acts, repealable, and the repeal was justified by change of circumstances since its passage.—To say that we are bound by it, is to assert an absurdity. The Constitution and equality requires that the slavery restriction should be removed in the future organization of all territories.

Mr. Goodrich of Massachusetts agreed that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise would be the death of all other compromises, which would not be considered binding by the North. The pretence that the acts of 1850 repealed that of 1820, would be considered a cheat and a swindle.

Several other members addressed the chair.

Twelve o'clock, the time for the general debate to terminate, having arrived, on motion of Mr. Stephens of Georgia, all the gentlemen who had not succeeded in obtaining the floor, were accorded the privilege to print their speeches.

Mr. Richardson of Illinois then made the closing speech. He replied to the opponents of the bill, on which he said the people would render a just verdict, for the principles contained therein must ultimately triumph every where. If the gentlemen want a political fight, let it come, they should have it, as far as he was concerned, to their hearts' content.—The safety of the friends of the bill consisted in standing together; by doing so they will attract even the admiration of their foes. But if they must fall, let them fall together. Let them ask no quarter, nor show any, and vote down all amendments. If, he said in conclusion, the opponents intend to fight out the bill to the bitter end, we must stand by our guns, that's all.

Mr. Dean moved that the Committee rise. Negatived—62 to 92.

The clerk read the first section of the bill, when Mr. Edgerton of Ohio moved an amendment, substituting the bill herstofore passed by the House for organizing only Nebraska, contending that this had created no struggle or sectional difficulty. Lost.

Mr. Giddings of Ohio moved to strike out from the House bill the provision that when admitted as a state or states the said territery, or any portion of the same, may be received with or without slavery, as its constitution may prescribe.

Mr. Walley of Massachusetts moved an amendment to the effect that the territory shall not, during the year 1854, be erected into a territorial government. It was unwise to act on the matter now. If gentlemen do not think so, now they will before the year expires. Rejected—77 against 103.

Mr. Mace of Iowa offered an amendment that the territorial legislature shall have power to admit or exclude slavery at any time by law. Rejected—76 against 94.

Mr. Peckham of New York offered an amendment so as to have but one territorial government. Rejected—83 against 100.

An amendment of bounties, with a view to encourage large Free Soil immigration to Kansas, so as to exclude slavery, was rejected—66 against 85.

Mr. Falger of New York offered an amendment that this bill shall not take effect until the Indian title to lands be extinguished.—Rejected—63 against 84.

Mr. Fuller of Maine offered the following: "The Legislature shall have power to establish or exclude slavery, as they shall see proper." As a national Democrat he should like to vote for the bill, but would not, as at present advised, unless his amendment be adopted. In the spirit of kindness he asked his friends, who stood by him in the 31st Congress, to yield a little to northern feelings on the question. Rejected—71 against 91.

Mr. Eliot of Massachusetts offered an amendment that the territories shall be admitted to be states without slavery. Rejected—ayes 42, nays not counted.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio offered the Wilmot proviso amendment. Rejected—ayes 50.

At 3 o'clock, on motion of Mr. Richardson, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

☞ The New York Herald of Sunday expresses the opinion that the Nebraska bill is not yet beyond a struggle; and that its friends if they have the stamina to endure a forty eight hours session, will find themseles on Wednesday noon "at the point from which they started." We still expect to see the bill pass; but the Herald, an advocate of the bill, seems to doubt, for it closes its remarks by saying:

It is time this matter was disposed of. If the members of the present Congress are afraid to meet the question, let it be postponed, and the regular business go on.

A despatch from Washington in the New York Times says that private letters from Havana indicate the probability that Cuba is now in the midst of a revolution, in which Spaniards and Creoles generally are participators.

No country is worse governed than Cuba. Almost any change must be for the better.—We do not place much reliance, however, upon the above letter, or despatch.

The Richmond Examiner says that "the shooting of itinerant abolition school-masters is a creditable and laudable act" in any southern man.

This gas is fair offset for some hifalutin extracts we have lately seen, credited to the N. Y. Tribune, at which some of our papers seem dreadfully horror stricken.

Superfine Fayetteville flour is selling at Wilmington, N. C., at $7.50 per barrel. The southerners mean to manufacture a good deal more flour next fall than ever before, and to go on increasing the production largely hereafter.

LOCAL.

PLEASANT STREET CHURCH.—It will be perceived that this church edifice is offered for sale. We have heard it suggested, that this building would make excellent rooms for a High School; and believe it could be well adapted for that use, by an expenditure of $1000 besides the purchase money. This would make it a cheap School House for one so good; if the location should be deemed satisfactory.

We have also heard some desire expressed to have this building for a Third Ward House. Perhaps it might be fitted to accommodate one school or more below, and for a Ward Room above.

☞ A very pleasant excursion may be made on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, these pleasant afternoons. Take the train which leaves our depot at ten minutes past four o'clock, and stop at Greenland, to roam among the green fields, and return about seven o'clock—after having indulged in a supper at some friend's, or at the Greenland House.—Or jump off at Stratham station and feast your eyes on the beautiful things in Messrs. Diman's Nursery and Gardens, and enjoy yourself to suit, till the iron horse stops to take you home. About two hours' time may thus be spent in either place, very agreeably, all for almost nothing, and with no fatigue.

☞ We see the residents of that vicinity have set a lantern post near the Express Office, corner of Congress and Fleet streets.—This makes, we believe, twenty five lights now in our streets. They are a convenience, a comfort, and if kept clean—a luxury.

PILFERING.—We understand that several boys, from ten to fifteen years of age, have caused the P. & C. Railroad considerable trouble by taking away and selling valuable locks, articles belonging to the locomotives, &c. Perhaps they are not aware that they are liable to heavy fines and punishment by law for so doing. It would seem, too, that no persons who had much regard for the boys or respect for themselves, would knowing encourage such theft in the lads by cashing their plunder.

BOLD OUTRAGE AT CHARLESTOWN, MASS.—A most daring outrage was committed at Charlestown on Saturday evening on Mr. Samuel O. Pollard, leather dresser, whose place of business is on Main street, near the Neck. Mr. Pollard's shop is a two story building, and his counting room is on the second floor at the head of the stairs. He had occasion on the evening in question, to remain in his office until about nine o'clock, revising his books and making a weekly review of his affairs. Having completed his business for the night, he extinguished his light with a view of retiring—and the moment he did so, two men, who had, no doubt, stealthily crept into the entry—stepped into the office, and one of them, calling him by name, took his hand in a friendly manner, and asked him if he wanted any help. Before he had time to answer the question, the other man seized Mr. Pollard's left hand, and simultaneously therewith clapped a plaster across his mouth. The robbers now bound Mr. Pollard's hands and thighs together in such a manner as to reduce him to a sitting posture, and then robbed him of five hundred and eighty two dollars. They next procured a quantity of leather shavings, saturated them with spirits of turpentine which they had brought with them, placed them in different parts of the room, fired them, and then left the premises, locking the front door as they went. Mr. Pollard rolled himself out of the room, and, by almost superhuman exertion, succeeded in reaching the bottom of the stairs.

Here he remained for some time, in a terrible state of fear and doubt—his hands still bound, his mouth sealed, his shop on fire over his head—with no prospect before him but death in its most terrible form. Fortunately for him, however, the blazing fire in the counting room was seen by some persons in a sausage factory near by, who came at once to the shop, broke in the door, and found Mr. Pollard, helpless and nearly exhausted in the entry. They cut the cords by which his hands were bound, removed the plaster from his mouth, and then proceeded to extinguish the fire. Mr. Pollard has no knowledge of the persons who committed this outrage upon him. The man who saluted him spoke in an Irish accent, but he is unable to say whether the tone was real or assumed. One of the men wore a cap, the other a hat; but their features, owing to the darkness of the place, could not be discerned. The authorities of Charlestown will no doubt offer a high reward for the detection of the thieves.

Mr. Pollard, who is represented as an industrious man, has been a victim of a series of mishaps. About a year since his shop was reduced to ashes, and last summer his house was broken into and robbed of a large amount of property.—Boston Courier.

The Kentucky papers, by their contentions about the Ward verdict, are unintentionally giving a joint summary of facts which would seem to indicate that the course pursued by the Jury in that case, was nothing new under a Kentucky sun. The Louisville Courier says that no less than fourteen murders have been committed in Fayette, and not one murderer has been punished, and that a large number of murders have been committed in the Frankfort district, and not one murderer has been punished. To this the Louisville Courier adds that the number of those in Louisville who have escaped conviction is far greater.

The sum raised in England and placed in Mrs. Stowe's hands, for the promotion of the Anti-slavery cause in the United States, is £1800. In what way Mrs. Stowe proposes to use the money does not appear.—Boston Post.

Thomas Murray and a negro sailor have been arrested at Norfolk, and holden for trial, for assisting in the escape of two slaves from that port, some time since, on board schooner Ellen Barnes, Capt. Russell. The slaves were landed at Wareham, Mass., and the vessel had changed owners, and, with a new capain, was on the way to Elizabeth City, N. C., with a cargo of ice, when she was forced into Norfolk in distress.

In his annual address before the Massachusetts Episcopal Diocesan Convention, in Boston, on Wednesday, Right Reverend Bishop Eastburn attributed the scarcity of candidates for the ministry to the love of money which characterizes the age. He fears also lest all God's sanctuaries may be closed, and all the influences of the Sabbath lost, if more adequate support to ministers is not furnished.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE FRANKLIN.

SANDY HOOK, May 22, 10.30 A. M.

The steamship Franklin, Capt. Wotton, has just arrived at the Hook. She brings Liverpool dates to may 10th.

No special war news.

Consols had risen to 88, in consequence of the Chancellor of the Exchequer's budget, announcing that no loans would be raised for war purposes.

Paris Bourse rose on a report received that Denmark and Sweden had joined the Western powers.

Austria has presented fresh terms to Russia, which if declined, she will join England and France.

The Russian fleet, it is reported, sailed from Helsingfors May 5, where Sir Charles Napier signalized the fleet to prepare for sea immediately.

Cotton unchanged. Extensive demand for flour at an advance of 1s. Corn advanced 1s. Beef advancing. Pork very firm. Lard unchanged.

London Money Market easier.

A telegraphic despatch to Southampton, from Richardson & Bros., who received it the same morning from Cork, states that the captain of the Baldanr reports April 21st, lat 45 30, lon 32 54, saw a steamer, hull and funnel black, inside works drab, paddle boxes yellow; no people in sight and no smoke; a bark alongside; probably the City of Glasgow making for the Azores, then 400 miles distant.

Fuller details of the bombardment of Odessa have been received. The Russian version of it, claiming it as a brilliant feat on their part, and stating that decorations had been bestowed on the officers engaged in it. They acknowledge that four were killed and sixty four wounded.

The Shah of Persia has become hostile to Russia, and is raising an army of 50,000 men.

It appears that the hostilities against Russia are to be carried out on a much larger scale by the allied powers, and the Paris Moniteur of the 6th inst. announces that the French and English governments have agreed in the adoption of all the measures of precaution which the present war may render necessary. With this object the emperor has decided on the formation of two camps, the first of 100,000 men will be established between Montreuil and St. Omer, and the second of 50,000 near Marseilles.

The English government on its side, says the Moniteur, is preparing troops, and a fleet capable of transporting in case of necessity, the forces necessary to the Baltic or Black seas.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Yesterday afternoon an audience of several thousand persons assembled in the Park; some for the purpose of hearing Mr Moses, the street preacher. Soon after the preacher had commenced his discourse some turbulent Irishmen in the crowd began to create a disturbance by yelling and hooting; this offended a part of the audience, and they used efforts to have a stop put to it. The disturbers showed fight, but finally run, pursued by a large number; one of them in his flight turned suddenly, and stabbed three or four persons, inflicting a very severe wound on the hand of John Hawkins, and injuring others; He was arrested and gave his name as Roger McLaughlin. The excitement that followed the stabbing was very great, and at one time it was feared that a general riot would ensue. A large police force was in attendance, and made several arrests, and finally order was restored. Thos. Jackson, an Irishman, was arrested for attempt to rescue McLaughlin.

BUFFALO, May 21.—Presbyterian Assembly—Old School—Third Day.—Dr. Alexander P. McGill is appointed to the Professorship of Pastoral Theology, Princeton Seminary.—The report of the Danville Seminary states the funds raised this year to amount to over $76,000. The Union Theological Seminary reports that its invested funds amount to $64,000. The report of the Board of Education showed the receipts of the year to be over $34,006; balance on hand, $11,000.

CHARLESTON, May 20.—Mexico.—A private letter from Mexico, of the 6th of May, says that Santa Anna had arrived within three miles of the capital, and that his wife had gone out to meet him. It is understood that he has retaken and garrisoned Aapulco.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Orders have been sent by the Secretary of the Navy, to delay all vessels of war under sailing orders, and hold them in readiness for immediate service.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Dirigo, from Glasgow, which arrived yesterday, brought 270 passengers taken from ship Black Hawk, and also a part of her crew.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Newcomb, wife of Dr. Newcomb, of Lansingburg, died suddenly on Monday afternoon, in the stage, while on her way from Troy to her residence. She had been to Troy on business, and on her arrival at Albany, walked hurriedly from the depot to the omnibus. The verdict of the jury was—"Death from over exertion after eating a meal."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—An accident of a very painful and singular character occurred at Essex on Wednesday last. A mechanic who was at work at one of the shipyards, while boring a hole through the side of a vessel, requested a young man named Moses Burnham, Jr., to go into the hold and see where the auger came through. He did so, and was looking for it, when the auger having suddenly passed through the wood, struck him in the eye, taking the whole of it from his head. The suffering of the young man can be better imagined than described, and greatly excited the sympathies of his fellow workmen.—Gloucester Telegraph.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. Samel Caswell, of Gloucester, had a narrow escape for his life on Thursday afternoon last. He was at work on a stage, caulking the side of a vessel, when another vessel, lying near, parted her fastenings and fell over towards the one he was at work on. Mr. Caswell hearing the vessel coming, had presence of mind enough to jump down from the staging, which was extremely fortunate for him, as the falling vessel struck and broke her rail directly on the staging where he was sitting. It was a narrow escape for him.—Gloucester Telegraph.

'Where is your house?' asked a traveller of a man he met in the depths of the 'old solemn wilderness' of the Great West. 'House? I aint got no house.' 'Well, where do you live?' 'I live in the woods—sleep on the Great Government Purchase, eat raw bear and wild turkey, and drink out of the Mississippi.' And he added: 'It is getting too thick with folks about here.' You're the second man I've seen within a month, and I hear there's a whole family coming about fifty miles down the river. I'm going to pat out into the woods agin.'

"What do you think of equality?" said Mons. the Count D'Escayre de Lanture to an Arab chief one day. "Do you believe all men are equal?" "Without doubt," replied the inhabitant of the desert, "all men are equal as the fingers of the hand." Showing the Count his slim, nervous hand, he continued: "Behold," said he, "look at these fingers; their origin is common, they cannot be parted without grave wounds; but one of them is long, the other shorter. If all were alike, I could neither touch, nor strike nor grasp. Be sure, it is with men as with fingers of the hand.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its

Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore soundness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,

DR. ORDWAY'S
HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; some cases where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!
SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 96.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

THE MARQUIS OF ANGLESEA, who died recently, will be remembered for many things—for his share in Sir John Moore's famous retreat from Salamanca—for his part in the battle of Waterloo—for his divorce from his own wife, who had borne him eight children, to be married to the wife of a noble lord who did not obtain her divorce till four years afterwards—for his leg which was buried at Waterloo, and for his invention of a wooden substitute, which is known all over the world as the 'Anglesea leg.'

He was older than the Duke of Wellington, and was one of those who attended the Waterloo banquets to the last. Sad affairs they came to be towards the last, as the toast 'to the departed' began to be the great toast of the evening. The Waterloo banquets died with the Iron Duke, but Lord Anglesea has kept one alone with his own mind, since he stood looking into the dark crypt of St. Paul's as they laid his chief with such pomp in his resting place.

There is an anecdote told of him that is worth commemorating. During the trial of Queen Caroline, he made himself very unpopular with the people, and the mob, surrounding his carriage one evening as he was driving home, insisted on his saying, 'The queen, God bless her!' After much reluctance he shouted out, 'The queen! the queen! and may all your wives be like her.'

DESTRUCTION OF THE MOQUIS.—Some months ago we gave a minute account of an interesting people, called the Moquis, residing in handsomely constructed villages, built upon the tops of several flat mountains, near the centre of the unexplored region between the Colorado and Gila. It appears from the report of Lieut. Whipple's party, that a fearful pestilence has swept the whole nation off the face of the earth. When Lieut. Whipple reached the Colorado Chiquito, at a point about 150 miles west of the old Pueblo of Zuni, his guides informed him they were unacquainted with the country beyond, and advised him to seek guides from among the Moquis, who lived some three hundred miles to the north. Two of the Zuni guides cheerfully departed for the Moqui country, while the command, with Louis Leroux for a guide, continued on for 30 miles, where it was expected the new guides would meet them. The Zunians returned to camp alone, bringing the sad intelligence that the whole Moqui nation had been swept off by the small pox. There are several villages, built upon mesas, or high table rocks. In one village they found but one woman and a child alive. So great was the mortality that there were no burials. The dead bodies were thrown from the mesas, and lay in putrid heaps upon the bases. So great was the stench that the guides nearly perished ere they could get away.—San Francisco Herald, April 9.

HYDROPHOBIA.—A few weeks since a lad named George Riehl was bitten by a rabid dog at a tan yard where he was employed.—He immediately visited a physician, who burned the bitten part with caustic, and without any other medical aid the wound healed up. The lad continued at his work until Monday morning, when he became sick at the stomach, apparently suffering great pain. The bite of the dog recurred to the family, and they supposed the boy was afflicted with hydrophobia. Dr. C. H. Taylor was summoned, and as soon as he observed the symptoms, was convinced the fears of the family were well grounded. The usual remedies were given to the unfortunate youth, whose convulsions and sufferings were terrible to witness. At the sight or sound of water he would go into convulsions. The youthful sufferer continued in this dreadful condition, when death put an end to his agony. For some time before his death he would become frightfully convulsed at times, and although but fourteen years of age, it required the united strength of several men to restrain him. During his paroxysms, he would give utterance to such cries as 'don't drown me,' 'take away the water,' &c., which gave fearful evidence of the operations of the disease.—Philadelphia Bulletin, May 17.

PISCATORY KNOW-NOTHINGS.—Owing to the great freshets which have recently taken place in the Hudson river, the waters have become so completely turbid that the fish have been unable to keep on their usual tracks, and thousand of innocent sand porgies have drifted from their accustomed haunts in clear water, and have been caught in the shad-nets of the New York harbor fishermen. Such an occurence has not before happened in forty years. The water is quite fresh as far down as Quarantine. The porgies are not the hard-shells, nor the soft-shells, nor the half shells, nor the clam-shells, politically speaking, but are a new kind of political fish—the Know Nothings. The other political bivalves and the univalves know enough enough to keep their places.—Albany Atlas.

SHADY SIDE CHANGED TO SUNNY SIDE.—We learn from the Norwich Examiner, that the Rev. William Clift, pastor of the church at Stonington, finding, like not a few other ministers, his salary insufficient to meet his expenses, gave himself to editorial and other pen-labor, to make good the deficiency in his income. After working thus assiduously for the benefit of the church for some years, he received a call to a city church which made a mere just allowance for ministerial support, and he felt it his duty to change his field of labor. To the surprise and sorrow of his people, he preached a plain out-spoken sermon to them, from I Cor. 9:14—"Even so hath God ordained that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel," and concluded by requesting them to unite with him in calling a council to dissolve their connection. The church committee, appointed to ascertain the facts, reported that Mr. Clift had incurred a debt of $1500, and had been obliged to devote time and strength to other means of securing support. Thereupon the church with great unanimity voted to present the pastor with $1500 to meet past arearages, to raise his salary from $800 to $1500 per annum, and to appropriate $100 a year towards a Pastor's Library. It is seldom that a discourse secures so speedy and desirable a response from the hearers.—Salem Register.

THE OX THAT WOULDN'T STAY KILLED.—A farmer drove a very fat ox to market, expecting the animal when killed would yield some twelve or thirteen hundred of beef. He sold the ox; the buyer drove him off, and at night came back representing that the animal had been slaughtered, and offered to settle for him, but showing an account of his weight that fell short of the expectations of the farmer, who insisted on seeing the beef, and after weighing it with the tallow, he was forced to go home, though not more than half satisfied, with the money in his pocket.

During the night after his return, the dead ox came back to his yard alive and well, having broken out of the butcher's enclosure; and the next day the farmer drove the same ox back to town, and offered to sell him to the same butcher, who, having missed the animal, eyed the new comer rather suspiciously, and concluding that he it was who had been sold, bought the ox at a lumping price, and paid for him this time.

So great is the demand for substitutes in the French army, that the price ranges from 1,000 to 4,500 francs.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1854.

NEBRASKA BILL PASSED.

It will be seen by the proceedings of Congress, that the Nebraska Bill passed the House on Monday night, by a final vote of 113 to 100. We have all along expected this result; and now record it as a triumph of slavery over freedom, and of the trick and craft of demagogues over the sentiment of the people of the so-called free States. We are used to such things, and expect to see more of them.

The bill, as it passed the House, is like the Senate bill, except the Clayton proviso, which prevents aliens from voting and holding office. It must therefore go back to the Senate for concurrence in that amendment.

One hundred members voted repeatedly to negative the bill, in various forms. This one hundred, then, appears to be the whole strength against the bill. One or two natural queries come up, viz: Whether it is a finality, and if so, whether it is to be, like the famous finality of 1850, spiked on to the platforms of the great parties for the next Presidential Battle? Be it known that this measure is no compromise, but a simple, clear victory of slavery over freedom, moved by a northern man, achieved in part by northern votes, and urged by a few northern demagogues. It verifies the sayings of the New Hampshire Patriot, before the election:—

"Every man of ordinary sense can see that people here can do nothing to defeat the bill."

"It is not a party measure; but many of the strong men of all parties are in favor of it, and some of both are opposed to it."

These things are true. The measure did not originate with the people; but was hatched by congressional demagogues to serve their own ends,—especially the end of sinking the Pierce administration, and providing for the succession in another line. The voice of the people here, and over New England, has not been heeded,—but some northern congressional managers have made a voluntary burnt offering of themselves to slavery. It has been accepted with well-deserved scoffs and sneers. Southern men use their cologne bottles when the "flagrance" of this offering meets their olfactories. They may not spit upon the bill, as Horace Greeley did upon the platform; but they will surely do something of the kind on the faces of the northern men who passed it.

The practical working of the bill is yet to be seen. Its first effect will be, to create several fat offices, some of the best of which will doubtless be filled with men who have voted for the measure in Congress. It will give a momentary spur to the domestic slave trade, for particulars of which please read Uncle Tom; and it may possibly dishearten some persons who hoped better things of an American Congress. We are neither disheartened nor disappointed. We only entertain a more hearty contempt than before, if that be possible, for the mean and servile spirit which debases itself by favoring a system which is loathed and hated by thousands of the best men who have lived under its influence.

Its effect on political parties will be considerable; but in what direction it will operate, no one can tell as yet.

THOSE WHO VOTED YEA.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The following members voted "yea" on the passage of the Nebraska bill last night:

LIBEL.—A suit for libel has been commenced against the publishers of the Boston Daily Bee, for accusing a Catholic Priest in Saxonville, Mass., of aiding in the abduction of two children from their father's house, to prevent their attending a free school. The damages have been laid at $5000.

LIBERALITY.—A student in the Senior Class in Harvard College, entered the Library a few days since, walked up to the Librarian's desk, and coolly handed over a pile of bank notes, with the request that they might be devoted to the purchase of books for the Library. The amount of the bills was found to be two hundred and fifty dollars.—Cambridge Chronicle.

During the month of May, from the 1st to the 21st inclusive, there arrived at New York 454 sail of vessels from foreign ports, bringing upwards of 48,000 passengers.

The above includes all the important occupations mentioned in the statistics.

The above statistics, from the Exeter News Letter, are convenient for reference. But in respect to the Churches, they need additions or corrections. The Freewill Baptist Register for 1853, gives the number of Freewill Baptist Churches at 134. These, we suppose, are to be considered as included in the Baptist Churches mentioned in the census.

We do not believe there are so many as 13 Presbyterian Churches in this State. But census-takers cannot be expected to be very accurate in such matters. By churches in this enumeration, they mean meeting houses, and not bodies of christians.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—The (New School) Presbyterian General Assembly today, discussed the report of the "Doctrinal Tract Committee," and also heard statements respecting a plan for a Presbyterian House of Publication, to be located in Philadelphia.—An animated debate took place on the subject of the validity of Pedo-Baptism, respecting which there are a majority and minority reports.

NAVAL MISMANAGEMENT.—In a report made in the Senate from the Committee on Naval Affairs, it is stated that recently a United States sloop-of-war sailed for the West Indies, and not until she was near Jamaica was it discovered that there was not a shot on board to fit a gun. Her guns were thirty-twos and her shot forty-twos. She was compelled to put into Jamacia to obtain shot.—N. Y. Commercial.

Miss Caroline Plummer, who died at Salem the 15th inst., at the age of 74 years, was for many years an inmate of the family of the late Dr. Bowditch. By a course of rigid economy and self-denial, she had accumulated a fortune of $100,000. By her will she bequeathed more to public uses than has ever been left by any resident in Salem.

Madame St. Arnaud, the wife of General St. Arnaud, commander of the French army, takes with her no less than sixty dresses of the latest Parisian fashions, to make a proper appearance at Constantinople. But this is nothing to the wife of a New York merchant, who a year or two ago, took two hundred dresses in fourteen large trunks to Saratoga Springs.

The freight train on the Cape Cod Branch Railroad ran off the track, near Campello, on Saturday afternoon about dark, by which four of the cars were completely demolished. The engineer was thrown fifteen feet, and imbedded in sand. The passenger train was detained three hours in consequence of the accident.

Parson Brownlow gave notice the other day in his paper, that he should, on the following Sabbath, preach a sermon on "Human Depravity," and should show it in two ways, first by the Bible, and second by the people of Knoxville, the place where he lives.

BOAT RACE.—There was a prize boat race on Canandaigua Lake, a few days ago, in which one of the competing rowers (Cocran, of Naples, N. Y.) pulled his boat with a pair of sculls, four miles in thirty six minutes and a half. Quick work that.—N. Y. Spirit of the Times.

LOCAL.

MUSICAL.

FREE JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL.—It will be seen by our advertising columns, that Mr. J. W. Clark is to commence a free course of lessons in music this afternoon, in Academy Hall. We should think the furnishing of good instruction for nothing, and a good singing book for so small a sum, would be inducement enough to bring out two hundred children instead of one. Mr. Clark has just closed a most successful evening school, which has been very fully attended, and continued through two terms, to the satisfaction of all.

MUSICAL UNION.—A score or more of ladies and gentlemen of this city, have just formed a Society, to be known as the "Portsmouth Musical Union," for practice and improvement in music—embracing vocal and instrumental, sacred and secular. The orchestra numbers nine pieces,—violins, single and double bass viols, clarionet and flutes.—Mr. Samuel Lamprey has been chosen President of the Society. The meetings of the Union are held in "Exchange Hall," late Mr. Moses' music room, which has been fitted for this purpose. The Society includes some of the best and most popular musicians in Portsmouth, and we doubt not our citizens would welcome them with a full house, should they see fit to appear in public.

The Grand Piano announced to be used at the Gift Concert in the Temple, next week, is to be kept in the above-mentioned Hall of the Musical Union, and will be available for use at concerts, lyceums, and other public assemblies. It is truly a splendid instrument, of rich tone and great power, and vastly superior to anything ever heard in Portsmouth for the purposes named above.

☞ We understand that our friend and fellow townsman, Mr. Thos. P. Moses, is successfully engaged in teaching music and painting in the flourishing city of Brooklyn, N. Y., with strong inducements to remain; but owing to his health not being firm, he will probably decline to permanently locate there.

☞ Our readers will also be pleased to learn that Mr. Chas. E. Kingsbury, who was formerly located in this city, has been enjoying full patronage in the musical line since he left here, at Little Falls, N. Y. He is a capital musician, an estimable young man, and we wish him the rich success he merits.

For the Chronicle.

MARKET SQUARE.

Messrs. Editors:—Some time since you published in the Chronicle, that the ground on the Square in this city, owned by the North Parish, was not for sale; but feeling a great interest in the improvement of the city, and in its future growth and prosperity, I wished to make the matter certain. This wish caused me to take a little pains to ascertain what it could be bought for; and I found, to my great satisfaction that it can be purchased for twenty thousand dollars—a sum altogether too small as an inducement for the city to allow a building on that spot, which will probably destroy all hopes of ever having another opportunity of purchasing it at any price whatever. The time is short that remains for the City to effect a change of purpose, and therefore we must move quick, if we would enlarge Market Square at this time. PROGRESS.

[We did not state that the land was not for sale, as of our own knowledge. It was stated in the proceedings of the Mayor and Aldermen, as the report of a committee. We have always supposed the offer of a large sum would tempt the owners; but not a small one.]

SWEETS.—We are under obligations to those fair friends who have so liberally supplied us with beautiful flowers of late. A lady in Newburyport has favored us with twigs of the flowering almond and flowering cherry. We do not known that there are any of the latter trees in this city. They grow large, we are told, like cherry trees, and the flowers, which entirely cover the branches, are very similar to a half-blown white rose.

Those bunches of charming wild flowers were cherished till they faded and drooped.

NATIONAL CORRUPTION THE CAUSE OF NATIONAL CALAMITY.—We are indebted to Rev. S. P. Fay, of the Congregational Church at Hampton, for a copy of a Sermon preached by him in the Prospect-street church, Newburyport, on the 6th of April, and repeated in his own church in Hampton on the 13th.—This Fast Day discourse, published by his Society, is from the text—"If they break my statutes and keep not my commandments; then will I visit their transgressions with the rod and their iniquity with stripes." It is a bold and forcible protest against slavery and the passage of the Nabraska Bill, written in the usual able and pungent style of the author, and is well worthy of perusal and consideration.

LARGE BEEF.—Messrs. J. W. Nutter and H. M. Grant, on Tuesday, killed a four-years-old steer, which weighed 1200 lbs. when dressed. The animal was raised by Capt. Charles Moody, of York, Me.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune states that Lord Elgin's mission to this country relates mainly to the Spanish question, and he is empowered to offer the services of his government as umpire in the difficulties growing out of the seizure of the Black Warrior.

BALTIMORE, May 23.—Mr Thomas Ritchie, editor of the Richmond Enquirer, died on Sunday evening.

RIOT.—A disgraceful riot occurred at Bangor, Sunday afternoon. An intoxicated Irishman, making a disturbance upon the steamboat wharf, was taken by the police. While carrying him off, the officers were attacked by other Irishmen and severely injured, and the man was rescued and is still at large.

MARRIED.

In Newburyport, Mr James H. Thurlow to Miss Isabella Grant.

In Columbia, Texas, E. H. Cushing, Editor of the Columbia Democrat, formerly of Springfield, Vt., to Miss Mary Barstow, formerly of Haverhill, NH.

☞ The marriage-notice which we published yesterday, of Mr. David H. McCarthy et al, was anonymously forwarded to us through the Post-Office. We have the authority of the reported bridegroom himself, for saying that no such event has yet transpired. We regret the premature announcement, on our own account as well as that of the parties; and hope the liar who wrote the notice, and who perhaps deems this a good joke, will find better business in future. He may not be aware that he subjects himself and us to a heavy fine. With regard to the affair itself, we have only to say that Dave is a first-rate fellow, and richly deserves a good wife—but that we deem him (or them) fully competent to decide on "the happy day."

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, May 22.

SENATE.—In the Senate this morning, the Chair presented a letter from Mr. Everett, Senator from Massachusetts, announcing his resignation of his seat.

Mr. Smith presented resolutions of the Legislature of Connecticut on the subject of the Nebraska bill, and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, &c. The resolution was read.

Mr. Cass said he hoped the resolutions did not threaten another Hartford Convention.

Mr. Smith replied warmly, and Mr. Cass rejoined.

Considerable debate then ensued.

Mr. Clayton of Deleware, offered a resolution, directing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the expadiency of restricting the powers of American Consuls in Spanish Islands, so as to prevent them from protecting American vessels engaged in the African slave trade.

A debate ensued.

Mr. Clayton spoke upon his resolution, and in opposition to the view recently taken by Mr. Slidell, as to the Africanization of Cuba. The resolution was adopted.

A message was received from the President, transmitting all the correspondence relative to the imprisonment of Dr. King in Greece.

The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up, and, after some debate, postponed; when, after a short Executive Session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, in committee on the Nebraska bill, Mr. Stephens of Georgia moved to strike out the enacting clause, avowing his intention to be to cut off all amendments, and have the bill reported to the House and voted on.

Great excitement ensued, and several members rose at once, declaring such a course a violation of the rights of the minority.

Mr. Stephen's motion was agreed to—103 to 22—many of the minority refusing to vote.

Excitement increased. The Committee rose.

Mr. Richardson moved the previous question. Points of order were raised.

Mr. Pringle of New York moved that when the House adjourn it be to Monday next.

Mr. Pringle's motion was negatived—68 to 136.

Various motions to adjourn were rejected by the yeas and nays.

Mr. Walsh of New York raised a point of order, and said the rules of the House were for the purpose of facilitating, not retarding, public business; that the majority had acted with great forbearance and liberality; and that any further extension of it would be subversive of the public interest, and would establish a precedent enabling a captious minority to control the legislation of the country.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio objected to all argument, and Mr. Walsh withdrew his objection.

Mr. Washburn of Maine moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived—yeas 92, nays 112.

The question recurring on seconding the demand for the previous question, another motion to adjourn was made and lost, amidst loud cries of "Question, question."

Mr. Campbell appealed to Mr. Richardson to withdraw his motion until he could make a suggestion, which Mr. Richardson declined.

The demand for the previous question was seconded, and the main question ordered to be put—yeas 117, nays 94.

Another motion at 8 o'clock, to adjourn, failed.

The question was taken on agreeing to the report from the Committee, striking out the enacting clause, and was negatived—yeas 97, nays 117.

At 8 o'clock Mr. Richardson of Illinois moved his substitute for the bill, being the same as the Senate bill with the exception of Clayton's amendment, and moved the previous question. (Vociferous cries of "question, question.")

Mr. Dean of New York moved for the reading of the substitute. The reading occupied an hour.

Mr. Edgerton of Ohio raised a point of order, that as the substitute contains appropriations for salaries of Governors, &c., it must first be discussed in Committee of the whole.

The Speaker overruled the point, on the ground that the original bill had been discussed. The main question was ordered to be put—yeas 116, nays 90. Mr. Richardson's substitute was then agreed to—yeas 115, nays 86. The question was stated to be on ordering the bill to be engrossed for the third reading.

Mr. Millson of Virginia moved to lay the bill on the table. Lost—yeas 100, nays 114.

At 10 1-2 o'clock Mr. Matteson made an unsuccessful motion to adjourn.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading—yeas 112, nays 99.

While the vote was being taken, Lord Elgin was holding a reception in the lobby, many members being introduced to him.

The bill was read a third time, and at 11 o'clock was passed by a vote of 113 yeas to 100 nays. (Applause in the galleries and on the floor, accompanied by hissing. The Speaker rapped for order.)

Mr. Richardson hoped order would be preserved, and moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed, and to lay that motion on the table. Agreed to. At 11 1-2 o'clock the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—In the Senate, today, Mr. Toucy of Conn., replied to the remarks made yesterday by his colleague, Mr. Smith, on the occasion of presenting the anti-Nebraska resolutions from Conn.

In the House, the consideration of Bennett's land bill was postponed for four weeks, and the House went into committee on the Deficiency bill.

BUFFALO, May 22.—The Presbyterian General Assembly (old school) to day, received a letter from the French Presbyterians, in which it is stated that the Church has suffered much from the intrigues of Catholic Bishops and Priests, & been oppressed by men in high places. They ask that delegates be sent from the American Assembly to attend their next meeting in Paris. The report of the Board of Foreign Mission was read; the principal feature is the want of aid in the mission. The whole collection for the year was $170,000.

A GEOLOGIST NONPLUSSED.—An old bachelor geologist was boasting that every rock was as familiar to him as the alphabet. A lady who was present, declared she knew a rock of which he was wholly ignorant.

'Name it, madam,' cried Celebs in a rage.

'It is rock the cradle, sir,' she replied.

Celebs evaporated.

'Hallo, Sharp,' said Bagg to a friend, meeting him the other day in the street, 'you hobble, my boy; what's the matter with you?'

'Oh, I had my feet crushed, through the carelessness of a conductor, the other day, between railroad cars—that's all.'

'And don't you mean to sue for damages?'

'Damages? no, no—I have had damages enough from them, already, had'nt I better sue for repairs?'

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over seven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both tender humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrhal dizziness. Some have only taken it two years, have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. In the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet is ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DEXTROUS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that on thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumed kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equally near to the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

C. H. SIDES & CO., would return thanks to their friends and the public for the liberal patronage heretofore received, and would respectfully announce that having recently re-furnished their stable with a full stock of the best horses and carriages, they are now prepared to supply as good teams as can be found elsewhere.

Among their new carriages is a Hack of the very best manufacture and finish, which will run to accomodate the public.

Funerals and parties furnished with good hacks and careful drivers, at short notice and on reasonable terms.

Stable on State street, nearly opposite the Rockingham House.

Hack Notice.

LADIES and Gentlemen of this City, or strangers visiting here, are informed that two good Hacks with good horses and careful drivers, are to be found at the CITY HOTEL, at all hours, ready to convey passengers to or from the Railroad Depots, or to any part of the city at reasonable prices.

Funerals and Parties attended,—and Horses and Carriages to let, at reasonable rates, at the Stone Stable, in rear of the City Hotel.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 97.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

TALENT AND PROPERTY HARDLY EVER GO TOGETHER.

The world is full of instances where genius, learning and talent are allied with extreme poverty. Indeed, really intellectual men have almost invariably been destitute of property. Wealth and learning, for the most part, are not found in each other's company, do not associate, and are not found in one individual. In modern times, both in this country and in Europe, we could mention many hundreds of cases, and many most ludicrous ones exhibiting the perplexities and embarassments of men of genius and learning have been subjected to for the want of money.

It is related of one of the most distinguished and brilliant British authors of the eighteenth century, that on a certain day he sent word to a friend of his in London, to call at his residence immediately; this friend did so, where he found a carriage waiting at the door, and was invited by this great author to take a ride with him. The driver was directed to convey them to a certain hotel in the metropolis, and when they arrived there our author called for room, ink and paper, and ordered wine and dinner. He then applied himself with the utmost diligence to writing through the day; writing with great rapidity, he produced an essay filling up a pamphlet, and handing it to his friend he requested him to go out and sell it to some of the publishers. He did so, and returned with the money. "Now what does all this strange conduct mean?" he asked of the writer. "I will tell you," he replied; "I was compelled to go from home to day to escape the duns of my creditors. I could not stay at this tavern without expense, so I wrote what you have sold to pay the bill." They then ordered their carriage and rode home.

The late Hon. Daniel Webster was remarkable for his carelessness in his pecuniary affairs. His mind constantly in his profession, and the interest of the nation, he had so much at heart, and served so long and so well, he had no time to think of his own business and supply his own wants; aside from this, money, property evidently had no charms for him beyond his immediate wants, consequently if he had money it went as free as water, and of course he was often destitute—without the first cent in his pocket. Not but a few years before the death of this great man, an incident happened which we may relate, as it is so characteristic of Mr. Webster in respect to his little regard for money. Mr. Webster and Mr. Choate were counsel in the case of Wiman for embezzling the funds of the Phenix Bank, Charlestown. The last trial was held at Concord, Middlesex County, and continued for some days. Mr. Webster and Mr. Choate boarded with friends, by invitation, free. At the close of the trial they owed a bill of $15—for the use of a carriage and span of horses, but when they came to look into their pocket books for the money, neither or both had the first dollar, and "Rufus," as Mr. Webster called his friend, had to go out and borrow.—Belknap Gazette.

SLATE FROM VERMONT.—Slate from the quarries of Vermont, will, doubtless, ere long supersede the imported material in this vicinity. It is found in great abundance in the town of Castleton and vicinity; and can be sold in this market at least a dollar a square cheaper than the imported slate. We have seen specimens of red, green, blue, and black slate from Vermont, which, in the opinion of an eminent geologist, are quite equal to any imported. Roofs covered with the red slate, present the appearance of a surface of copper, or of having been painted with India red. The colors may be blended in roofing, so as to produce a very pleasing effect. Some ingenious traders have even formed signs of the different varieties, on steep roofs, the letters being ornamental and distinct. This slate may also, in some cases, be used for tiling and mosaic work. The red variety is not generally known in this vicinity, having but recently been introduced. Nearly a dozen acres of Vermont slate will be required upon the buildings of the Grand Junction Railroad Company in East Boston.—Boston Real Estate Register.

Your old Kentucky home! you poor soul you, said Mrs. Partington, as she thrust her night cap out of the window away almost into the midnight to catch the notes of the song an individual was singing, in a dismal voice, near her dwelling. I wish to my heart you was there, where your friends could take keer of you and do for you. It is a terrible thing to be in distress away off among strangers, particularly where you aint acquainted with any of 'em; but I don't think it looks well for a man to wake up a whole neighborhood at midnight with his sorrows. She saw him disappear a moment afterwards in a shop with a red curtain, opposite, and with the remark that she guessed the poor creatur' had gone in to get something to invarigate his cistern with, she shut down the window, and in five minutes by the wooden mantel clock that ticked sleepily in her chamber, she had forgotten all about the Kentucky home.

ABOLITIONISM IN THE CHURCHES.—We regret to see, by the proceedings of the Protestant Episcopal Convention, lately in session at Philadelphia, that the fell spirit of abolitionism is gaining rapidly among the clergy of that denomination. On Thursday a proposition to rescind the rules whereby the African churches of that diocess are declared not entitled to send delegates to a convention, or interfere with the general government of the Church, was warmly debated, the clergymen taking the affirmative of the question in nearly every instance. Upon the vote the motion to rescind was lost by a majority of nine churches. Among the ministers there was a majority of forty for repeal. It would seem natural to suppose that the long litigations and quarrels that have resulted to the Methodists and other sects that have split upon the rock of slavery, would have served to deter the Episcopalians from encountering a similar danger, but we fear they, also, are fast becoming demoralized by a mistaken philanthropy.

The Methodist Church in this region seems to be thoroughly impregnated with the political heresy of anti slavery, as appears from the resolutions reported by a committee of the Conference held in this city.—N. Y. Herald.

The above doleful Jeremiad only shows that the Episcopal clergy of Pennsylvania are not insensible to the most obvious claims of Christianity, which welcomes to its blessings and its privileges, men of all conditions and of all nations.

The laymen, to be sure, prevented the repeal; but the clergy showed their good will, though for the present they lack the power to do justice in the premises. We have read the debate with much pleasure; the repealers have all the argument: their opponents have nothing but prejudice and numbers.

CRUEL MURDER.—All our conceptions of the nature of demons are derived, necessarily, from the acts of men. A murder, or rather butchery, which was committed in Accomac Court House, Virginia, on the 6th inst., affords an appalling illustration of this reflection. A young man (a minor) named James Ames, got into a difficulty with Mr. George East, his step father. Ames drew out a huge butcher knife, sharpened like a razor, which it seems he had been carrying for eighteen months past, and advanced to East, who started to run. Overtaking East, he stabbed him repeatedly behind, till he fell, when the assassin got upon and literally cut him to pieces. After the monster had left him, fearing, as he says, he was not dead, he returned, and cut the throat from ear to ear, entirely disjointing the neck. He then returned to town and delivered himself up, saying he had been intending to do it for a long time, and if East was not then dead, he would go back and finish him. The deed is thought to have been done on account of property belonging to his mother, which had become vested in East by her marriage. The people in the neighborhood were so incensed that they attempted to take the murderer out of jail and hang him.

The Catholics of Roxbury are removing their children from the public schools of that city, in consequence of the use of the Bible, as translated for Protestants. These children are to be placed in Catholic schools.

THE SLAVE REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS.

This, at the present crisis, becomes a very important subject. The Slave States have twenty three Representatives on the floor of Congress in virtue of chattel slavery, which often enables them to turn the political scales against the North, although the latter have a majority of about nine millions over the white population of the South. The Wilmington (Del.) Republican condemns that constitutional provision as being unjust and unequal, and says :—"Let our readers look at the political effect of increasing slave territory. South Carolina has a white population of 274,623, and a slave population of 384,984. She has seven Representatives on the floor of Congress. Delaware has, say one fourth of the white inhabitants that South Carolina has. Deleware has only 2,290 slaves, not enough to send a Representative. If the whites only were represented, South Carolina would have only three, instead of seven Representatives." The Newburyport Herald of May 16th, has a labored article in vindication of this slave representation, which says that "Representation is arranged by Congress on the basis of persons—that five slaves are counted equal to three free persons—and that this is against the slave holders."

Now a Southern slave holder having one hundred slaves, has the political influence in Congress that sixty of our Northern freemen have. But the Herald not only justifies this, upon the ground that, under the constitution, the slaves are counted as "persons," but contends that such representation is against the South ; meaning, we presume, that the three and one half millions of slaves should be more fully or equally represented as "persons" in Congress. Now the truth is, that they are not represented at all in Congress ; they neither vote, nor have the right to vote, any more than the Southern horses. Should five of our black horses be counted equal to three of the Southern freemen, in the basis of representation, and in the Presidential election, would not the Southern electors condemn the principle ?

The consideration for the unjust concession to the South having long since wholly failed, there is now no reason whatever that South Carolina, with a free population much less than that of New Hampshire, should have four more Representatives. The consideration was, that three fifths of the slaves should be counted as persons in assessing direct taxes among the several States. Out of about thirteen hundred millions of revenue collected, a small amount was raised as direct taxes, of which about two millions were assessed upon the slave property, or persons ; and in the distribution of the surplus revenue the slave states, on account of that property, received back from the public treasury about three millions. For all Southern purposes, except in the apportionment of representatives to Congress and the Presidential elections, the slaves are declared to be simple property. This property sends, indirectly, twenty three Representatives to Congress. What Northern press, except the aforesaid Herald, will deny that the constitutional provision, allowing that unjust concession, ought to be amended.? T.

STRIKE AT NEWTON, MASS.—We perceive by the Boston Herald that a strike has been made at Newton Upper Falls, where are about 300 operatives, occupied in the cotton mill, the fine machine shops, by O Pettee & Co., and in the rolling, slitting, nail and paper mills, all of which have been driving a flourishing business.

Since the 20th of March all the above named establishments have adopted the 10 and 11 hour system. On Saturday, May 6, the operatives of the cotton mill were notified that they were to return to the old regulations, viz: the 13 hour system. The result was that between fifty and sixty of the help left, refusing to work more than 11 hours. This indignant move has been sustained by the citizens, particularly the machinists of O. Pettee & Co., who feel the benefits arising from the 10 hour system, and are desirous that their fair friends should enjoy the same privilege. They have simultaneously taken a decided stand, and have contributed sums of money towards accomplishing the object desired.

A procession of ladies has been formed each evening during the week, escorted by gentlemen, and marched through the streets to Elliot Hall, where entertainments have been introduced, and the people have listened to two able and interesting lectures from gentlemen appreciate the feelings existing, and advise and reccommend a firm and persevering course in adhering to the eleven and ten hour systems, as just before established.

EARTHQUAKE.—Advices from San Salvador, Central America, state that a severe earthquake occurred there on the 16th of April. Many of the buildings and 600 families were buried in the earth.

Mr. Henry Quinn, who kept a boarding house No. 23 Walnut street, Nashua, recently, intending, as it is supposed, to take a nipper of another article, by mistake swallowed a dose of bedbug poison, and soon was a corpse.

THE SEASON.

The Spring here, thus far, has been mostly cold and wet. The two or three warm days of last week, however, have given the grass a fine start, so that the feed in our pastures is said to be better than usual at this date. The Apple-trees in this vicinity look well.

The Newburyport Herald of Tuesday, says :

The farming prospects are now as good as they have been for many years. The warm sun upon a well saturated soil, starts the vegetation so that each day almost presents a new creation. The backwardness of the season into May, and the rains since, have prevented the labors of the husbandman, and much land is yet unplanted ; but never did we know the seeds to spring forth so rapidly, while the grass, which is the great crop in New England, is in the best possible condition. We notice too, that the trees—the apple, pear and plum—have blossomed with the promise of abundance, and at the outset have been so protected from frosts or burning suns as to give the greatest hopes. Success to the honest tillers of the soil—they are God's noblemen, the actual producers who feed the world—When they do well the country prospers and the poor may be glad.

Of the Wheat prospects, in Ohio, the Columbus Journal says :

There has been, perhaps, more than the ordinary amount of croaking during the past winter at the dismal prospect of the growing wheat crops. From the representations of the croakers one would be led to apprehend great danger of a famine which would make it necessary for the people of Ohio to seek out some Egypt for supplies. Some have supposed that this impression has contributed to the present inordinate and exorbitant price of breadstuffs ; while others have attributed it to the prospect of a general European war.—Whatever may be the cause of the great advance in the price of provisions, we assure our readers that we apprehend no cause for anticipating a famine. We indulged in a drive into the country some days ago, and assure the timid we never saw the wheat prospect more promising at this season of the year. There will be plenty of grain raised in Ohio this season to supply the inhabitants of four such states ; so there is no danger of starvation. As to the present high prices, the causes assigned are sheerest humbug. The true explanation unquestionably is, that the present stock of provisions has been bought up for speculation, and the market now controlled by eastern "operators." Those who hold on until after the coming harvest will probably be done for—and so mote it be ! We have no sympathy to waste upon such as burn their fingers in gambling upon "the staff of life."

YEAS AND NAYS.

On the passage of the Nebraska bill in the House, the vote stood 113 yeas to 100 nays.

The following gentlemen voted yea :

Those who voted nay are as follows :

MARKET SQUARE.—The pulling down of the old church has occasioned much talk and speculation (in words) as to enlarging the Parade. The last, and it seems to us the best proposition made, is for the old site of the church to be taken into the open Square, and the new building to be erected on the lot now occupied by the Granite House,—which property, we are informed, the owners will sell at a fair rate for this purpose. The length of the present church lot is, we believe, eighty feet ; that of the hotel lot, from Warren street to the southern wall of the old church, is seventy two feet—the width of both, of course, being the same. This arrangement would leave the open space desired, and still retain the location of the church on the Square, with a chance for ornamental trees in front.

This we give only as one proposition talked of out of doors. Some of our largest tax-payers are in favor of the city paying a fair sum for the lot ; but we think it should be paid for by subscription. Why don't some of the interested ones move in the matter—draw up a paper, and circulate ? Or else have a public meeting of the citizens called, and see how they feel about the matter, and if it is their wish to spend money for this improvement.

LATE INTO CHURCH.—Better late than never, perhaps, but better early than late. A correspondent who signs his name Jonathan, and who purports to be a new comer into the city, wishes to know if it is the fashion here, for elegantly dressed ladies or gentlemen to come into Church after service has begun, so as to attract every body's notice.

Probably this green horn from the bushes has some idea of following the fashion himself ; but Uncle Toby thinks he had better not do it. People laugh in their sleeves, now, at the pompous air assumed by some of the tardy ; and the old man fears they will laugh outright if any awkward fellow should try it. It is a silly fashion, at best,—more honored in the breach than in the observance.

EFFIGIES.—A correspondent at Exeter informs us that on Tuesday night, a couple of effigies were strung up on Front street, in that town. One was labeled with the inscription, "The President of the United States ;" the other, "Hibbard, the Traitor."

GIFT CONCERT.—Our readers will find advertised in our columns to-day an announcement of a concert, to be given at the Temple next Wednesday evening by a quartet club under direction of Mr. Thompson of Newburyport. The tickets of admission are one dollar each—rather a high figure for a concert, although Mr. Thompson is highly commended as a concertizer ; but in addition to the musical treat, one hundred gifts are to be distributed to ticket-holders who are fortunate enough to hold the lucky numbers. People who are too conscientious to patronage lotteries can attend the concert without being obliged to receive any of the prizes drawn, and those who wish to take the chance for a prize will not be deterred by the concert, and so we conclude the Temple will be filled. The advertisement gives information where tickets may be purchased.—Messenger.

THE SUNBEAM.

The sunbeam through the open door
Streamed down the death o'ershadowed aisle,
And lighted all the solemn gloom
With radiance like an angel's smile.

It crept to where, within her shroud,
The sainted maiden lay at rest,
And gazed upon her marble brow,
And slept upon her pulseless breast.

With golden fingers, warm and fair,
It dallied with her raven hair,
It kissed her faded lip and cheek,
As if the flush of life was there.

It spread above her pillowed head
The glory of its gilded wing,
And whispered to her as it fled,
"I'll come to thee again in Spring—

When thou art laid within the earth,
By all, save loving hearts forgot,
I'll strew thy grave with violets fair,
And woo the wild bird near the spot ;

And all day long my happy smile
Shall cheer thy lone and peaceful bed,—
I'll be for thee a shining link
Between the living and the dead." A. L.

KEEP OUT THE STRIPED BUGS.—An agriculturist, who has tried the experiment successfully for three years, informs the Bangor Mercury that a few seeds of tomato dropped into the hill with cucumbers, or a tomato plant set out, which is the better mode, will keep off black fleas and striped bugs, who dislike the flavor of the tomato.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday afternoon, as ten or twelve men were crowding on board the ship Champion of the Seas, the gangway ladder broke down, and the whole party fell overboard ; "And such a yell was there." Fortunately, Capt. Newland was present, and in an instant was down among them with ropes to rescue them. In his descent he tore his coat, and had his hands badly cut, but succeeded in fishing out the sufferers. The ship was visited by over ten thousand people on Sunday.—Boston Atlas.

Two men were killed by a falling wall, at a fire in Philadelphia, on Tuesday morning.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—In the Senate, today, Mr. Toucy of Conn., replied to the remarks made yesterday by his colleague, Mr. Smith, on the occasion of presenting the anti-Nebraska resolutions from Conn.

Mr. Toucy said his colleague had erred in saying the resolution had received the support of the Democratic members of the Legislature; the sentiments embraced in those resolutions would never receive the support of the Democracy or the people of Connecticut. When he had closed, the Nebraska bill was received from the House.

Mr. Mason, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported the following resolution, which was agreed to:

"Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to communicate to the Senate copies of all correspondence in the State Department relative to the slave trade in the island of Cuba, and of any late decrees or other acts of the Spanish government in the island connected with the same."

Mr. Douglas then offered the following resolution:—"That the Committee on Foreign Relations be instructed to inquire into the expediency of recognizing the independence of Dominica, and of opening diplomatic intercourse with the same."

Mr. Chase objected to this resolution, and it was laid over.

The Nebraska bill was then taken up and read a first time.

Mr. Sumner objected to its being read a second time.

The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up. An amendment, paying $500,000 to the friendly Creeks for land taken from them during the war of 1812, by General Jackson, was further debated and rejected. Yeas 12—nays 22.

Many other amendments of no public character were offered and debated.

The bill reported to the Senate, with all the amendments made in Committee of the Whole, was concurred in

The Senate adjourned.

In the House, the consideration of Bennett's land bill was postponed for four weeks, and the House went into committee on the Deficiency bill.

A long discussion ensued on the Senate amendment appropriating half a million dollars for the construction of Water Works for Washington and Georgetown, pending which, the committee rose.

Mr. Maurice of New York, who was absent when the vote was taken on the Nebraska bill, asked leave to have his name recorded in the negative.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW ORLEANS, May 22.

The steamer United States arrived to-day from Aspinwall May 17, with 100 passengers. Reports the Illinois to have sailed on the same day for New York, with 400 passengers, and $700,000 treasure.

The news from California is to the first of May.

San Francisco markets were dull, and the prices of leading articles depressed. Gallego and Haxall flour selling at $12.

The bark Walter Claxton was capsized and lost 13 lives by the accident.

The steamer Gazelle exploded on the Columbia river, killing 25 persons, and wounding 30.

Accounts from the mining districts are flattering.

THE MEXICAN EXPEDITION.—M. Dillon, the French Consul, having been arrested and brought into Court to testify in the case of the Mexican Consul, has struck his flag, and will not raise it again until ordered by the Emperor. The Mexican Consul was found guilty, but recommended to mercy.

Col. Fremont arrived on the 16th of April, completely broken up, only 20 men being left, the greater part having deserted after crossing the Colorado.

FROM MEXICO.—By the United States reports are received that Santa Anna summoned Acupulco to surrender, which was refused by Alvarez, who sallied out, attacked Santa Anna's troops, and took 300 prisoners. Santa Anna is said to have fled.

CONGRESS TO-DAY, Wednesday, 24th.—The House is in committee on the deficiency bill, the construction of the Pacific railroad being postponed till to-morrow.

In the Senate, various memorials and remonstrances were presented—among them 10 by Mr. Seward against the Nebraska bill, including one from 105 Methodist clergymen, and 434 other clergymen of Michigan.

A warm debate ensued between Seward, Clayton and Benjamin, on the resolutions of the Louisiana Legislature, concerning the Africanization of Cuba.

The Nebraska bill was taken up and read a second time.

Mr. Pearce moved Mr. Clayton's amendment. He is now speaking.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The indignation of the opponents of the Nebraska bill is unabated. Whigs and democrats contemplate a joint address to the free States upon the outrage.

The Whig Anti-Nebraska Caucus, Mr. Parker, of Ia., President, has just adjourned. A resolution was passed to issue an address to the free States, and a committee was appointed for that purpose. Mr. Benton was invited to act on it.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer telegraphs last night as follows:

Lord Elgin and several other members of the Provincial Government, have had an interview with the Secretary of State on the fishery and reciprocity questions. Three Provinces are decidedly favorable to the Marcy and Crampton project, but the two fishing provinces are opposed to it, except on condition that the American fishing bounty and duty on Provincial coals be abolished. They are promised favorable legislation on these points.

LOUISVILLE, May 23.—A preliminary investigation has taken place at Helena of the persons charged with destroying the steamer Martha Washington. Capt. Cummins was discharged. Kissane, Col. Chapin, Holland, and all others, were required to find bail in $2000 each. The smallness of the bail on so grave a charge, is considered tantamount to a final acquital of all concerned.

PISTOL SHOOTING.—The great match and bet of one thousand dollars to eight hundred, has at last been decided, Mr. Travis winning the money upon the first shot of course. The affair came off on May day, at Bayou Ramos, on Tiger Island, Louisiana. The N. O. Picayune gives the following account of the match:

It being difficult to procure an apple, a small orange, only about five inches in circumference, was substituted. After the shooting distance of thirty six feet was measured, and all parties agreed, the orange was placed by the Judges upon the head of a gentleman, a friend of both parties, Mr. J. P. O., and no object intervening, the first shot told the story, hitting the orange, half of the bullet going through. Both gentlemen displayed great nerve upon the exciting occasion.—Some of the best sportsmen and acknowledged best shots in the country were present, and all express themselves fully satisfied that Mr. Travis is the best pistol shot in the world.

It is the great privilege of poverty to be happy unenvied, to be healthful without physic, and secure without a guard.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; contracted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at

DR. ORDWAY'S
HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by DR. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his neck for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.
☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.
PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.
PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramp of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.
PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed, to which none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being at hand, a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There was few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroad depots. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

THE ECLIPSE.

The great central eclipse of the sun which will occur on Friday afternoon, is an item of interest at this moment.

It is probably not unknown to many of our readers that in a period of about 18 years, called the Chaldean period, or the lunar cycle, eclipses go through an order of performances, which are repeated, with but slight variations, again and again; but that in the course of time these variations amount to great changes, so that from time to time some old eclipse will be dropped out, and some new one taken up in the eighteen year programme This subject is finely discussed in Ferguson's astronomy, and a history of the returns of the coming eclipse is given as an example.

The approaching eclipse first appeared on the list about the thirteenth century, and will continue to return till about a thousand years after its first appearance, when, having gradually passed off the earth, the shadow, at the corresponding return of the new moon, will continue for more than 10,000 years to sweep by the earth without touching it, and then will again return to entertain or terrify perhaps a new race of men.

It is scarcely necessary to remark that the appearance of an eclipse of the sun is caused by the interception of the sun's rays by the moon. The moon stands between the sun and the earth.

The moon is much smaller than the sun, and accordingly makes a shadow in space (sensible only when it falls upon the earth) which is a cone, terminating in a point.

The earth is at some times nearer to the sun than at others. The distance of the moon from the earth is pretty nearly uniform.—When the sun is nearest the earth, and consequently nearest the moon, the shadow is of course shorter than when the sun is farther from the earth and moon; as a man may observe his own shadow upon the sidewalk lengthen as he walks away from a lamp post.

The length of the moon's shadow is such, that when it is shortest, that is when the sun is nearest, the shadow does not reach the earth. At other times, when the sun is farther, the shadow does reach the earth, and covers a portion of its surface. It never can cover the whole, of course, for the earth is much larger than the moon. But from those portions which the shadow does cover, in such cases, the sun's light will be wholly cut off, and the phenomenon of a total eclipse takes place, if the moon is exactly in the line of the sun's light, or a partial eclipse if the moon happens to be a little out of the line.

In the present instance, the distance of the sun is such that the moon's shadow does not reach the earth, and accordingly a total eclipse does not take place. But at that point on the earth which is directly under, or opposite, the point in space where the moon's shadow terminates, the moon appears to obscure all of the sun except a narrow ring, which is left by the difference in the apparent size of the two bodies. In other words, the eclipse is annular.

As the earth is in motion, (and also the sun and moon) the point where the eclipse is annular is not stationary, but is constantly changing; and the line of such points upon the earth's surface is called the path of the central eclipse. The passage is very rapid.

Although the path of the eclipse is strictly but a line on the earth's surface, yet the appearance of the eclipse is substantially the same at points within sixty or seventy miles of this line on each side. Farther from it, the ring appears imperfect.

The following calculations are by Mr. Alfred Hoyt, of this city, who, in connexion with Mr. Amos Abbot, of this place, will carefully observe the eclipse, and probably give the public the benefit of their observation.

Phases for Portsmouth.

	h.	m.	s.
Beginning	4	27	37
Nearest approach of centers of sun and moon	5	41	37
Formation of Ring (annular phase)	5	39	44
Rupture of Ring	5	43	30
End of Eclipse	6	47	17
Duration of Annular phase		3	5
Duration of Eclipse	2	19	40

The eclipse will first strike the earth in the Pacific Ocean, a little south of the equator, between the Navigator's and Mulgrave Islands, at 1h. 2m. 9s., Portsmouth mean time. It will first be central near the Caroline Islands at 2h. 11m. 51s. The central line will run northeasterly through the Pacific, and will strike North America in the northern part of Washington Territory, near Cape Flattery. The course will now be nearly east through the southern part of British America, through Lake Superior, then southerly through Canada West, the northern part of New York, the central part of Vermont, and will enter New Hampshire near Dartmouth College, passing across the State southeasterly. The central line will be about three miles north of Portsmouth, through Dover, Eliot and Kittery, passing at the rate of nearly one hundred miles a minute, leaving Maine almost wholly on the north, and pass into the Atlantic Ocean, where the central phase will end at 5h. 47m., in lat. 36° 18' north, and lon. 51° 53' west.

The eclipse will leave the earth at 6h. 56m. 45s. a little north of the Bahama Islands, where the sun will be seen setting with his upper limb in apparent contact with the moon.

The whole duration of the eclipse on the earth will be 5h. 54m. 36s.

It will be understood that the superiority of the spectacle at the points on the path of the central eclipse consists in the fact that at those points the ring appears of uniform thickness. At other points where the eclipse is annular, (such as Boston) the ring appears thicker on one side than the other. At points where the eclipse is not annular, (such as New York) the ring is broken.

It will be observed further, that at Boston the ring lasts not quite two minutes. At Portsmouth it lasts nearly four minutes. The duration of the eclipse, that is the interval between the time when the sun begins to be obscured and the time when the moon has wholly passed off, is about the same in each place, two hours and twenty minutes.

REFORM IN THE NAVY.—The Senate Committee on Naval Affairs has matured its plan for a reorganization of the Navy, and reported to the Senate. We have not seen the report, but learn from the N. Y. Commercial, that its main provisions are as follows:—

"The active commissioned officers of the navy shall not exceed twenty commodores, forty-eight captains, ninety-eight commanders, three hundred and twenty-five lieutenants, sixty-nine surgeons, thirty-seven passed assistant surgeons, forty-two assistant surgeons, sixty-four pursers, and one hundred and ninety-eight masters.

Engineers and chaplains as now. No professors of mathematics after the present commissions expire. Warrant Officers and Midshipmen as now—the rank of passed midshipman to be merged in that of master.

The Secretary of the Navy may 'retire' or 'permanently furlough' officers at his discretion, subject to the approval of the President.

The commander of any U. S. Ship or steamer, on his return from a cruise, shall specially report the conduct of every petty officer and other subordinate, and the Secretary of the Navy shall give certificates of good conduct where deserved.

The marine corps to be increased one thousand men.

An additional bureau to be established in the Navy Department, to be called the 'bureau of equipment, orders and detail,' for the equipment, &c. of vessels.

A Judge advocate for the navy to be appointed."

The relative number of officers provided for in this plan is the same as at present, with the exception of the number of passed midshipmen or masters, which is slightly reduced.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1854.

A fugitive slave named Anthony Burns, was seized in Boston on Wednesday night, and on Thursday brought before Commissioner Loring, by whom the case was adjourned to Saturday at 9 o'clock. Charles F. Suttle, a merchant of Alexandria, claims to own him.

The Boston Journal says:

Burns is said to have escaped from his master in Richmond, Va., in March last, and came to this city, where he has been at work for Coffin Pitts, a second hand clothing dealer in Brattle street. It was while he was on his way home from his shop last evening that he was arrested. He is about 22 or 24 years of age, stout built, and apparently possesses considerable shrewdness and intelligence. Since his arrest he has been quite sulky in his deportment, and this morning refused to partake of any food.

Burns states that his master always treated him with kindness, and never struck him a blow, and also, that when he has been sick his master has given up his own bed to him, and taken the best of care of him. He gives no special reason for leaving his master, though a love of freedom would sufficiently account for his flight.

BENTON AND THE "SCHEMERS."

In the Congressional proceedings of Friday we find the following:

Mr. Benton (Mo.) commented on part of the speech of Mr. Seward of Georgia, saying the whole of Kansas is adapted to slave labor, to the great staples, hemp and tobacco, and that within two hours ride there is a larger slaveholder than Roanoke ever saw. In his opinion there was a great movement pending. He was not, however, in the confidence of any body, and therefore must grope his way in the twilight for the purpose of guessing. He looked to contemporaneous events, and found that about the time this bill was introduced, that Mr. Gadsden went to Mexico as an American Minister. What are State secrets here, locked up, are street talk in Mexico. It is reported that Mr. Gansden offered $50,000,000 for a broadside of Mexican territory enough to make five or six great states. This failed, but he has gone back. Santa Anna is pinched at present and Gadsden may have better luck this time. Supposing this territory acquired, Slavery will rush in, and then we will have the principle of non-intervention, and the cry will be to Congress—"Hands off!" He had to say this scheme was no stranger to him; it was an old acquaintance; he knew it in '46 and '48. It is reported that Mr. Soule has been authorized to offer $250,000,000 for Cuba, and if he cannot get it to kick up a muss. He saw the two branches to this scheme, there may be others with which he was not as yet acquainted; but he had enough to stand on at present.

In a Bad Way.—Mr. Bedinger, our charge at Copenhagen, tried hard, it seems, to make a slavery convert of Sir Charles Napier. He pictured in glowing terms the beauties and the felicities of the grand "institution"—but the old British Rough and Ready, who has done so much towards ameliorating the hardships of sailors, continued very perverse. This was the result, according to the enthusiastic Bedinger:

Sir Charles looked at me a moment, and smiled at my enthusiasm, and then said, "Oh slavery is a very bad thing, and ought to be put down!" Behold the result of all my talk. I had shaken the prejudices of the English Admiral about as much as if I had entertained him by singing "Old Dan Tucker." Learn from this the folly of striving with men who are resolved to hold their own opinions. You may convince them; but if you do, it is "against their will," and you know the effect of that.

Some Difference.—We published on Wednesday morning, a telegraphic despatch from Philadelphia, respecting the New School Presbyterian General Assembly, which said—

"An animated debate took place on the subject of the validity of Pedo-Baptism, respecting which there are a majority and minority reports."

We wondered what this could mean. Was there a Baptist party in the Presbyterian Church?

The wonder is all destroyed, now, by the despatch of the 23d, in these words:

"The morning session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was occupied with the report of the Committee upon the education of young men for the ministry, and a continuation of the debate upon Popish Baptism. The afternoon session was devoted to addresses and reports."

The Hope Goodwin.—The Mobile Register of the 17th inst. says of the fire on board this vessel:

Some of the crew had proved very hostile, and are reported to have stated that they would never go to sea in her again. We learn, also, that a barrel of tar had been brought up from below and secretly placed on deck.—About midnight the mate was roused by the alarm of fire, and speedily found that the tar had been again taken below, allowed to run over the second deck, and fired from end to end. Every effort proving unavailing to save the ship, the boats were launched and they saved themselves as best they could. We learn that the crew are now all in irons; and further; that some of them were found on the first alarm with their dunnage packed up and ready for moving. We hear that the hull was partially towed up, although it is said she subsequently grounded on a sand bar. It was to have been only the second voyage of the Hope Goodwin, and would have far more than cleared her to her owners. She had been chartered at a penny per lb. for Liverpool, and 2 1-4 cts for Havre.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Steamship America brings Liverpool dates to May 13.

Flour advanced one shilling, closing with firm prices and a large business doing, but with little speculative demand. Prices from 37s to 39s 6d per brl. Indian Corn active, at an advance of 1s a 1s 6d; Western white at 39s 6d; yellow 39 a 40s per qtr.

The news possesses no feature of remarkable interest up to the last dates.

Nothing of importance has been received from the Baltic, Black Sea, the Danube or Asia.

Bombardment of Odessa.—Full accounts are now received from the bombardment of Odessa. As surmised, the affair was far from decisive, being mere destruction without result. The British accounts report the attacking force as the English steamers Sampson, Terrible, Tiger, Retribution, and Furious; and French steamers Mogator, Vauban, Desevites and Caton; also detatchments of English rocket boats. The mode of attack was new. Steamers continued for twelve hours to sail round in a circle of half a mile diameter, two thousand yards distant from the batteries, and each steamer delivered fire as she passed, the rocket boats continuing to throw twenty-four pound rockets to set the town and shipping on fire. The steamers also threw hot shot. The Russians fought with extreme bravery, replying to the fire of the ships.—Towards night, the battery becoming untenable, its fire became slower, though regular, and at length, the shipping in the rear being on fire, it silenced.

During the action, red hot shot from steamer Terrible blew up the Russian magazines on the Imperial mole, and silenced a formidable battle there. A Russian frigate in the harbor took fire, burned to the water's edge and blew up; also, twelve smaller ships, and two ships of war building. Rockets set the lower part of the city on fire also, which remained burning for two days. Three of the attacking steamers were disabled, and the Vauban set on fire, but extinguished. The British estimate their loss at less than 20 killed and wounded. The Russians theirs at 12 killed and 60 wounded. The British Admiral, after action, sent a circular to the fleet, that he had inflicted retribution on the Russians for firing on a flag of truce; but the Russian accounts look as like truth as the British.

Russia says that on March 27th the British steamer Furious approached Odessa; two guns without balls were fired from the batteries, and the Furious ordered not to approach nearer. The Furious therefore stopped, and sent a boat ashore with a flag of truce. The boat was respected and allowed to land at Ulhart, and sent back to the Furious with information that the Consul had left. The Furious, however, again got up steam and approached nearer, as if to survey, on which the battery fired several shots, not on the boat with the flag of truce, but on the advancing frigate, which then left.

On April 22d, three allied steamers came to Odessa to demand explanation. Gen. Austin Sacken expressed his surprise, in writing, that the allied admirals should imagine that the Russian shots were fired at the flag of truce—also explained how affairs were, and of course refused to deliver up the shipping in the harbor, as the admiral had demanded.—

Accordingly, on the 22d, the bombardment took place.

It was reported that for the present the admirals had abandoned the intention of attacking Sebastopol.

REWARDS.

A few days since the Star stated that a Clerk had been removed in the office of Commissioner of Customs, and another individual was appointed in his place. The clerk removed, we are informed, was efficient, and also a cripple; the appointee was a nephew of Mr. McDonald, one of the three Representatives from New England, who goes for Nebraska. The removal and new appointment were made at the instance of Mr. McDonald, we are informed. This case has excited a deal of remark in the city.

On Sunday it was currently reported in the city that Walbridge was to have the Honolulu Consulship in consideration of his vote on the bill. The truth of this rumor we will not confirm.

To-day I was informed from a source entitled to credit, that the Postmaster of Williamsburg was removed, and another one appointed at the instance of Mr. Tweed, member from New York, lately a convert to Nebraska.—We do not say that these Northern men representing a constituency opposed to the passage of the Nebraska bill, have been bribed by the means mentioned above to go for the bill; but we will say that the cause assigned for the effect produced is very plausible.

Senator Douglas may be nightly seen, with the correspondent of a notorious morning paper of your city, and rumor says, that he suggests the contents of its daily despatches.—Washington Cor. N. Y. Express.

The Spoils.—Rumor at Washington asserts that Mr. Norris of the Senate, and Dr. Olds of the House, have both been promised Governorships. How Sancho Panza would open his eyes, could he do so, and behold himself eclipsed by such a brace of Governors. While the country has been watching Congress, the administration has been clearing off the Indian titles in the territories. Indian agents and delegations of Indians have been sent for to come on here and see the Great Father, and under his auspices, with valuable and pretty presents from Mr. Meneypenny, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, they are induced to cede away their lands in Nebraska and Kansas.—Boston Courier.

Godey's Lady's Book for June 1854, is on our table, from Federhen & Co., of Boston, by J. P. Morse of this city. Embellishments—a fine view of Eastport Harbor; colored print of latest Fashions, on horseback and on foot; a humorous, satirical, laughable picture of the Truant Detected; and dozens of engraved patterns for Mantles, Hats, Caps, &c.

Among the literary contents—The Pedestrian Tour; The Sixth Letter of those left at the Pastry Cook's; and the Needle in the Hay new, are prime articles.

LOCAL.

Municipal.—In the Board of Aldermen, last evening, in the absence of the Mayor, Ald. Nelson occupied the chair.

A petition, signed by J. G. Hadley and forty-nine others, was presented, calling for a town meeting, to ascertain the ownership of the land recently occupied by the North Church; whether the town has at any time conveyed away the fee simple of the same.

The prayer was granted and the meeting will be held on Monday, June 12.

ANOTHER VOICE.

Messrs. Editors:—I have noticed several communications in the Chronicle relating to a change of location for building the North Church. I hope there will be no change from the present site, for it strikes me, and many others, that the old lot is far more eligible than any other suggested. Such a structure as it is contemplated to put up, will be a great ornament to this city, and be in full view with its handsome towering steeple; and then the dial to be in the old place (which is now much missed) to show the numerous passers by the time of day, without referring to their time pieces; besides, the new church will hide the buildings on the back street, which although decent looking, will not make an appearance sufficiently handsome to form one side of the Square. X.

☞ We observed men digging the cellar yesterday—and if nobody comes along soon with a bag of money to buy the lot, we expect to see the foundations laid heavy and strong, with great stones, in a few weeks. If built on the present site, a basement story of ten feet would improve the building in appearance, and add greatly to its present and prospective value.

☞ On the outside of to-day's Chronicle will be found an interesting article on the annular Eclipse of the Sun, which the Astronomical Prophets predict will take place this afternoon. Should the weather be favorable, it will be a most beautiful sight. Observers should be very careful, in looking at the Sun, to properly protect their eyes. A plate of heavily smoked glass is the best for a common observation; but for a nice view, an opera glass, with the small lenses smoked, would be a good instrument.

A party of observers, from Washington, were in town yesterday, on their way to Mt. Agimenticus, in York, where they are to note the phases of the eclipse, for astronomical purposes—one of which is to test the tables by which this eclipse was calculated.

Anti-Catholicism.—It will be seen by a notice in our advertising columns, that the celebrated "Ned Buntline" is to lecture on the subject of Popery, its tendencies and influences, at the Temple, on Saturday evening.—Read the advertisement.

☞ A new number of the Universalist Pulpit, published by Mr. J. M. Usher of Boston, contains a portrait and memoir of Rev. Lemuel Willis, of this city—and a Sermon on the Duty of Steadfastness in the Christian profession.

Circus.—The American, English and French Circus under the direction of Messrs. Sands and Chiarini, is advertised to perform in this city, on Monday week, June 5. Afternoon and evening exhibitions, for one day only, as usual. Admittance 25 cents.

☞ Some kind friend has taken from the Chronicle Office "The Sayings of Mrs. Partington and others of the family," without our knowledge or consent. As soon as he has perused it, the borrower will please return it.

☞ We are indebted to our lady friends residing in different parts of the city, for a number of beautiful boquets. We shall think of the ladies with pleasure, long after the flowers have withered and died.

☞ At Mr. Conner's room in Congress Block, may be seen portraits of people from all parts of the city. It would be almost impossible for a person to examine them all and not find among them some familiar face.—Notwithstanding he has painted so many portraits, we understand he will paint a few more, if those who wish for them apply in season.

Mr. Nathaniel Coffin, of Newburyport; has potatoes, in a good state of preservation, of the crop of 1852. They were sprouted once or twice last summer, and are now in as good condition as last year's potatoes. We saw some of them yesterday, and the potato was but little more shrunken than those of last year's crop, and the sprouts quite as bright and strong.—Herald.

An explosion of powder took place a few days ago at the Haperville Copper Mine, Md., killing Capt. Varken and Mr. Marshall McKay, and fatally injuring another person.

The editor of the Jackson (Missouri) True Witness says he "has not seen a drunken man in Jackson since the Legislature adjourned."

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 24th.

SENATE.—Mr. Benjamin's resolution on the Africanization of Cuba was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Benjamin and Gwin, who contended that the purpose of Spain to eventually emancipate the blacks on the island, was too apparent to be misunderstood; and by Messrs. Seward and Clayton, who strenuously insisted that no such purpose was manifested, and that it would be an act of folly in our government, in the present state of affairs, to take any action on the matter.

HOUSE.—The House is in Committee on the Deficiency bill, the consideration of the Pacific Railroad being postponed till to-morrow.

The Deficiency bill was considered until the hour of adjournment. The Senate amendment appropriating half a million of dollars or the construction of water works at Georgetown and Washington was disagreed to, and that appropriating $75,000 for building a bridge over the Potomac was concurred in.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The steamship North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived at 5 o'clock this afternoon, with 700 passengers and $450,000 treasure.

The shipments from San Francisco, per steamer Panama, amounted to $912,000; by the Cortez, $1,237,000.

Dates from Panama, are up to May 15th.—The Government of New Grenada have abolished the capitation tax.

The U. S. troops which left Norfolk in the Illinois, arrived safely at Obispo.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The steamship Illinois arrived this morning, from Aspinwall, with 400 passengers and $720,000 in specie.

From Lower California, we have news to the 5th of April. Walker's force is reduced to about 40 men, and their acts are described to be as cruel as those of the most hardened pirates. They take property and life without a moment's hesitation. Walker had crossed the Colorado, but returned and is again at San Vincent. It is said they have all been taken prisoners.

Papers from Oregon contain reports that rich Gold diggings have been found at Steitacoom, on Puget Sound, and in the Yakima river, about 150 miles north-east from Puget Sound.

OREGON.—Advices from Oregon state that Maj. C. H. Larned, U. S. A., had been drowned in Paget's Sound, together with eight men.

SOCIETY ISLANDS.—Dates from Society Islands are to March 30. Three French men of war were at Tahiti, two having just returned from New Caledonia, where they left a garrison of 500 men and a sloop of war. The French garrison at Tahiti numbers 1500.

THE CHOLERA IN PROVIDENCE.—The Providence Tribune says there is no doubt as to the existence of cholera in that city. Seven cases have occurred within a few days, six of which terminated fatally. Three of the sufferers lived less than 12 hours after the first attack. Proper measures have been adopted by the City Government for cleansing and purifying those parts of the city which would be particularly benefitted by the procedure.

Butter is now dull of sale in Providence at 18 a 22 cents a pound, having declined 8 cents in a week, and the Post says the efforts of speculators to keep up the price have signally failed. The season for producing butter is unusually good, and it is believed prices will average a great deal less than for the last two years.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24th.—There is a rumor here to-day that one of the officers of the United States Mint is a defaulter in the sum of $100,000.

Rev. Drs. Early of Virginia, Pierce of Georgia, and Cavanagh of Kentucky, have been elected Bishops of the Methodist Church South.

The Provincial papers announce, that the fishery question is finally to be settled by a convention of ten delegates from each of the Provinces, to be assembled at Montreal, this season. The British minister and our Secretary of State having arranged a treaty, Britain refuses to ratify it till approved by the Provinces, and this convention will consider and decide upon that treaty. The St. John papers announce the names of some of the delegates.

SAILORS.—It is proposed in New York to place some of the vagrant Ward's Island boys with the captains of vessels of that port, or even on board the men of war, and bring them up as sailors, where they will be of some service to the Country. The suggestion is a very good one. The city has to support thousands of those who ought to be earning their own living.—Boston Courier.

BODIES RECOVERED.—Our readers will recollect that several months since, the wife of Allen Davis, of Westport, left her home, taking her infant with her. She wrote upon the door of the house, that she should drown herself and child in the river, and search was accordingly made for them in the stream, but without avail. On Sunday morning last, her body with the infant lashed to it by a fishing line, drifted ashore and was recovered. Mrs. Davis is represented as suffering from mental aberration at the time the fatal act was committed.—New Bedford Standard.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so impossible to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no 1's and ands, buts and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case, and it has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where there is a costive habit it works easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so outhandish in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eye, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly, a lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could give a dozen cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the last inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

Directions for use. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from bugs for months.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for those noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, painted throughout, and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly occupied and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

We copy from the Newburyport Herald, the following sensible and interesting article on a subject now receiving much attention from all classes in society whose opinion is of any account.

The condition of females in reference to education and employment, is one of the most important problems of this age—far more so than the question of their rights as connected with politics and government. The general condition of woman in any country, is indicative of the state of that country itself, for the one is elevated with the other invariably.—With the savage she is a slave; with the civilized, an equal heir to this world and the world that is to come. As the mother and educator of children, the next generation of men will be, relatively, what the present generation of women are; and self interest prompts us to encourage physical and mental strength, and proper habits of life and thought in those who are to form the characters of the men who shall succeed us.

There is an equality of the sexes, but there is no similarity. In body and mind they are unlike, and nature indicates, more than reason can prove, what should be the emplyments of each. Two thirds of the physical power and endurance of the race is with the male, as is shown in the size of the frame, the strength of the muscle, the firmness of will, and the slower movements of the heavier machinery. With the female is quickness, taste, ingenuity; and in both instances there should be correspondent employment. It certainly looks out of place to be waited upon at the table, by long legged, gander headed, brawny armed men, who have spent half their time in the country, felling trees, blasting rocks, and caring for cattle, and who have come to the town for new employment, with fingers so big that they would seem to crush a cup of tea in touching it; and yet our hotel waiters are almost invariably such men.

And what looks worse upon entering a dry goods, a millinery, or fancy goods store, than to see overgrown men selling silks, tape, ribbons, bonnets, hose and slippers? And yet this is the general custom in these parts, though in some cities—such as Philadelphia for instance—it is directly reversed, and most of the clerks are females; and where it has been tried in New England, those stores being mostly visited by females, have the best succeeded. This would follow as a matter of course, since the goods in the store would be better selected, adapted to the wants of the customers, and the purchasers have a thousand inquiries to make that can better be addressed to their own sex than to men. These and a hundred other light employments should be left to women, and no more men employed than are necessary to perform the heavy work about the establishments.

It were vain that females should be educated, as they certainly should be, equal to males, if they are never to use what they learn. If, where the parents have wealth, girls are to be dressed and set up in parlors to look at, or to run the streets with new flounces and flying ribbons, to show themselves, they need but little education. All that is necessary for them to know—the reading of novels, playing pianos, stepping correctly, and showing off to the best advantage—can be had from the primary school, music and dancing masters, and man milliners, without high schools. If the daughters of the poor are to be driven from their proper sphere to drudgery and toil, such as a humane Virginian would not put his slave to, or an understanding Irishman engage in, better they be brought up like Indian squaws than otherwise. And in no case, for the want of proper labor, should the high or the low be driven to sell themselves to baseness and death, or to contract marriages simply because they have nothing else to do, and they are old enough and big enough for that.

It is a wrong idea that girls should live a burden upon their friends or their fathers, for an indefinite period, till they can marry and settle in life. Where this is the sum of existence, marriage is quite as likely to settle their husbands as themselves. If they are poor, it settles the man into slavery for life, and the woman to unhappiness; if wealthy, it settles the man's fortune in foolish display and nonsense; it settles his children into the follies of their mother, so that they become a burden to society and themselves. Give to women all the social rights, the education, and the chance of life, that men possess; save them from dependence; let them exercise their own judgment and choice; and you then do something for the elevation of the entire race.

If men were obliged to monopolize every field of labor, and steal from females every chance in life, exposing them to imbecility, and driving them to suffering and often to prostitution—if they were obliged to resort to situations in which there is no manliness, there would be an excuse for the present arrangement of affairs, but it is not so. The world is wide, and enterprise without limits. The seas and the lands are open to them; commerce stretches her hand from a thousand shores across the waters; the forests nod at their approach, and ask to be felled; agriculture invites them to the open fields; and the arts and business of life tell them they may flourish in pursuits adapted to manly tastes and to strong muscles, where self reliance and independence, and mental and physical energy will be developed.

There can be no need, therefore, that grown up boys and sinewy men should compete with tender girls and delicate women, in the labors that belong to them—in selling pins and needles, buckrams and stay lacings. How much better that men should survey railroads, with compass and chain, than measure tape with yard sticks; unfurl the sails of ships to the free breezes of heaven, than open laces and silks from paper boxes; hold the horse bridles as the fields are plowed, and leave ribbons to women; cut the timber on the hills, and the tunnels for the railways, and let the scissors go to the girls. When we come to learn that the goad stick is more honorable for the men than the yard stick, both men and women will be better off; and any change that advances the one will elevate the other.

Females have but few employments at best,—we should not take those from them; labor is seldom ever paid, and we should not expect to get it at half price, because a woman does it, and think we show her a special favor at that. Labor should be estimated according to its value, whoever does it, and all be rewarded in proportion to what they perform. If a woman does what we pay a man ten dollars a week for, she should have the ten dollars, and not be forced to do it for two. We go for a fair field, and fair pay for all.

GROWING CUCUMBERS.—The following has been tried and proved by the Scientific American:—Take a large barrel or hogshead; saw it in two in the middle, and bury each half in the ground, with the top. Then take a small keg, and bore a hole in the bottom; place the keg in the barrel, the top even with the ground, and fill in the barrel around the keg with rich earth, suitable for the growth of cucumbers. Plant your seeds midway between the edges of the barrel and the keg, and make a kind of arbor, a foot or two high, for the vines to run on. When the ground becomes dry, pour water in the keg in the evening—it will pass out at the bottom of the keg into the barrel, and rise up to the roots of the vines, and keep them moist and green. Cucumbers cultivated in this way, will grow to a great size, as they are made independent both of drought and wet weather. In wet weather the barrel can be covered, and in dry the ground can be kept moist by pouring water into the keg.

The famous Cathedral of Antwerp has a tower 466 feet high—the upper gallery being reached by the ascent of 622 steps. At this immense height is placed a chime of 99 bells, whose music, of a calm evening, floats over the city like symphonies from the skies.

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1854.

IMPORTANT DEBATE.

In the Senate on Wednesday, May 24, there was much important debate on the Cuba subject, and also upon the Nebraska bill, which came back from the House with the provision which had been inserted by Mr. Clayton of Delaware, striking out the right to vote by foreigners in the preliminary organization of the territories. Mr. Douglas explained the bill as it came back from the House, whereupon Mr. Pearce of Maryland continued:—

Mr. Pearce moved to strike out the provision allowing foreigners, who may have declared intention to become citizens, to vote and hold office in the territories. He said the Senate had voted this amendment upon the Senate bill. The reason of it was to confine the right of suffrage to American citizens, native and naturalized. The right of suffrage was one peculiarity belonging to the character of an American citizen, and none other. It controlled the interests of the country, and ought to be exercised by citizens only.

Mr. Pearce said the bill repealed the Missouri restriction, and conferred upon the people of the territory the right to settle the question of slavery themselves. This bill gives to aliens just arrived in this country, the right to vote on and determine the question which Congress, unable to settle, has as a last resort turned open to the people of the territories. He was unwilling to let any one but citizens of the United States have the right to vote on this or any other question.

Mr. Brodhead of Pennsylvania concurred with Mr. Pearce.

Messrs. Toombs of Georgia, and Atchison of Maryland, favored the amendment of Mr. Pearce in very strong terms, and the latter named Senator said he did not believe that "any one should vote or hold office except citizens of the United States."

Mr. Petit of Indiana opposed the amendment, as calculated to send back the bill to the House, and to renew there and throughout the country all the agitation which had been made upon the subject. He said the bill, if sent back to the House, might be defeated, and it might not be possible again for for years to come to get into Congress a body of men who would settle this question of slavery as this bill proposed to do! Defeat this bill, and let the subject go back to the people, and the cauldron of agitation would again become heated and boil for years. It would unite throughout free states all ultra Abolitionists, moderate Abolitionists, Free Soilers, and tender footed and timid Democrats.

Now we ask our readers, one and all, to look carefully at what Senator Petit says above. He is a leading man in favor of the Nebraska bill,—and we believe he calls himself a Democrat. But will the reader mark well, that he is afraid to trust the People, and wait their sober second thought on the measure.

We ask our friends in New Hampshire, if they can, by any figure of speech, call that a Democratic move, which can only succeed by springing a trap upon the people?

Mr. Petit desires to have slavery so thoroughly established, protected, and perpetuated, that neither the People nor any future Congress can shake or assail it. Are the people of New Hampshire prepared to swallow this?

Mr. Petit, and all others like him, may, if they choose, lay the flattering unction to their souls, that agitation will cease on the passage of this bill. Agitation on the subject of slavery or freedom is inevitable, whether this bill becomes a law or not. Circumstances may increase or diminish agitation. But in this century slavery cannot hide itself from the sunlight of free thought. And every man who thinks freely, deems slavery a blight and a curse, a sin and a woe.

Mere politicians, like the ostrich, may hide their heads behind some statesmanlike juggle; but like that silliest of birds, they leave themselves exposed to a terrible fire in the rear.

DAIRY MAID'S SONG.

Song of the Churn.—A New Hampshire dairy maid sends to the Boston Chronicle the following buttercup from the farm yard:

And it's I, to be a slave
Along with the barbarous Turk,
If delving on with churn and cream
Is always to be my work.
Churn, churn, churn!
When the arms are tired and numb;
Churn, churn, churn!
Till the butter is pleased to come.

Kate.

We (Portsmouth Chronicle) sympathize with Kate, if she uses the old clumsy churn. We advise her father to buy the Thermometer Churn; and when he has done so, if Kate will have her cream at about 50 deg. by the thermometer, there will be little or no trouble about the arms being tired. Butter will always come in a short time with the cream at that temperature.

With cold cream and an old upright dash churn, we have seen churning go on for twelve hours in vain. Everybody was tired and cross; and the butter wouldn't come, for all the sweating and scolding and fretting.

Illness of the Pope.—Rome, April 30.—The state of the pope's health is still very unsatisfactory. His chest is considered to be affected, and the enormous enlargement of his person reveals a dropsical tendency, which is not likely to be improved by the bleeding and Sangrado style of treatment prevalent here.

LOCAL.

UNCLE TOBY'S DREAM.

I had a dream which was not all a dream,—said the old gentleman, as he rubbed his eyes after a good long nap, and started off with a prosy story, such as old men are wont to weave when they get talking about old affairs.

He had been looking at the dust and dirt, as it was drawn away in carts from the site of the old North Meeting House; and had been reading in the Chronicle a query by somebody about the title to the land: and as he mused in his elbow chair, he saw a vision of Governer Williams, in his cocked hat and small clothes signing the deed of the people of Portsmouth, to Thomas Walford and Henry Sherburne, church wardens, and their successors forever, as feoffees in trust, whereby the Glebe, of twelve acres in the middle of the town, and thirty-seven acres of outland, was granted.—He saw these wardens receive the deed with a low bow, and with their vestrymen and fellow worshippers, employ the Reverend Mr. Gibson, arrayed in his cassock and band, to perform the Episcopal service in the little Chapel erected sometime before.

He saw the boundary line of the lower Glebe stretched out, from the Parade, four and forty poles southerly, to the N. E. corner of the lot now occupied by the Universalist church, thence westerly to what is now Rogers street, thence northerly, by the present Rockingham House and the late Wm. Sheafe's land to King street, now Congress street, and thence easterly to the Parade, whence the surveyor started.

In vision, he saw the little chapel and the minister's house hard by, near the south-east corner of the lot. Then the scene shifts, and the years move on, easily, as in dreams they are wont; Gibson disappears, and Joshua Moodey enters; the little chapel becomes a meeting house first, is over-filled, and then emptied into the larger steeple house below the mill-dam, where Moodey labored long and nobly.

Next appears Reverend Nathaniel Rogers, in whose days, after a hard struggle, a major vote of the people created a huge three story wooden temple on the north-eastern corner of the glebe, wherein for more than one hundred and forty years, the people worshipped, and from which successive generations of worshippers and pastors have silently disappeared and passed away.

And now dimness and confusion, like old chaos come again, makes the brain to reel and senses to stagger, as the visionary beholds a crowd of men and boys, some rushing up the steeple and abstracting the bell; others spiriting away the clocks, great and small; two or three cunning workmen taking out all the music from the organ; and the grand artificer of ruin presiding over the general destruction.

The auctioneer knocks down the church with his hammer, and a couple of uncircumcised Sampsons knock down the steeple with their axes. Then the roof disappears, the consecrated walls tumble down, and the whole fabric is scattered and peeled.

And now in visions, not only a Daniel came to judgment, but a dozen Daniels; seers arose, unlike any of the old prophets; and wise men, who would astonish Solomon, and whose wisdom is past finding out, set afloat all sorts of schemes to make a new meeting house in a dozen or twenty places, or nowhere, as the case might turn out. Some scribes, also, and doctors of the law, raised a question whether any body owns the ground whereon the old meeting house stood. But while they were discussing this question, in town meeting assembled, the masons made a great clatter, calling out Mortar inside! Brick! Mort. outside! The old gentleman started, and saw a spacious brick edifice that had arisen he knew not how; he thought it was on the parade where it used to be, only the parade looked bigger and better. To be sure there was the Athenæum and the Brick Market, and the stores all round; but the Granite House had disappeared, and so had the modern Doctors of the Law.

Instead of these last, Uncle Toby saw Mason and Webster, Sullivan and Cutts, Richardson and Woodbury, who had tried the old Glebe Rent cases thoroughly, and found how they stood. He saw the house-holders on all the twelve acre lot, taking land leases from the old parish, and paying up their rent like men, while he signed the receipts. And he saw also the old parish in the new generation, settled in the new house, with the old bell and town clock above; and the people of the city greatly delighted at the improvement of the Square, and particularly with the illuminated dials, on which the hours can be seen all night. Above all, the public mind was at peace: and so profound was the stillness, that the sleeper, missing the hubbub of his dream, found his nap and his vision broken off together.

Rattlesnake.—One of our Portsmouth farmers, Mr. Asa Ham, killed a rattlesnake in his pasture on Thursday. The reptile was two feet nine inches long. This kind of snake has never been plentiful in this neighborhood; and for many years past has been rare indeed.

THE GIFT CONCERT.

It is believed that the entertainment announced for next Wednesday evening, at the Temple, will be one of the most brilliant and interesting ever given in Portsmouth. A Quartett Club of fine singers, from Newburyport, led by Mr. H. S. Thompson, offer a rich programme, including some entirely new compositions by Mr. Thompson. A proficient lady player from Newburyport will preside at the piano.

The instrument to be used is one of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s "Grand" Piano Fortes—valued at about $800; the first of the kind ever introduced here. It is of more than double the power of common pianos; and to hear it well played is fully worth the price of admission. The managers of the entertainment, we learn, have engaged the services of Mr. J. W. Clark of this city, to favor the audience with a piece or two on this splendid instrument.

☞ The Eclipse on Friday afternoon was itself so eclipsed by the clouds, that the astronomers in this city and vicinity were able only to get occasional and fitful views of the obscuration. These limited opportunities were improved to the utmost, and were perhaps sufficient to test the accuracy of the calculations.

☞ We have received from our neighbor and friend, James H. Head, a very neat sample of his Fancy Goods, of which he has a well selected and constantly changing stock—including Porte Monnaies of all kinds, some very rich; and in fact, almost every sort of a thing a man needs or wants, in his line.

HOOKSETT BRANCH RAILROAD.

As the session of the Legislature approaches, a slight excitement is again perceptible in respect to the branch which has been proposed to connect the Manchester & Lawrence and Portsmouth & Concord Railroads. Had it not been for various other matters which pressed upon the attention of the legislature from this city at the last session: it is probable that a charter would have been granted. As it was, however, a bill was introduced and postponed to the coming session, and there is no reason why it may not be taken up at an early day. The road is termed in the bill, the Manchester & Concord Railroad.

This road seems to be one of the few now demanded by the public good. It comes bearing the two recommendations, certainty of construction and certainty of dividends.—These facts added to the other fact that it would be a convenience to almost the entire business interest in this city, and to Suncook and portions of Hooksett, to Candia, and indeed to a large portion of the eastern travel, places its claims beyond all cavil or dispute. We have heretofore stated somewhat particularly the grounds on which the petitioners for this branch relied. It opens into a region of wood, timber, stone and brick. A portion of the wood is in the vicinity of Garvin's Falls, and is owned by the Amoskeag Company; and large quantities of it are cut every winter and transported to this city for use.

By far the larger part of all the brick used in this city would come over this road, a track being easily thrown directly into the Hooksett brick yards. It opens directly into a region of ledges, some of the finest in the vicinity. It is confidently asserted that the wood, lumber, granite and brick which would reach this city by that road, would render it at once independent and profitable. This is aside from any travel or other business which might be reasonably expected from roads above, and from the Portsmouth road.

The distance from its connection with the Lawrence, to its junction with the Portsmouth is not at the outside but eight miles, and probably not more than seven. Three miles of the land is owned by the company, and the rest by individuals whose interest would induce them to be liberal in granting the land for a right of way. We presume some of the owners would give the land, and perhaps all of them. If this should be the case, the cost of construction would be much reduced. It is estimated that it might be built for $100,000, and we think twenty individuals could be found who would at once take the stock.

These points then are certain; viz: first, there is no objection to the road; second, the interests of Manchester and some adjoining towns demand it; third, if the charter be granted, it would immediately be constructed; fourth, if constructed its business would insure good dividends. If this is not a clear case we do not know what is.—Manchester American and Messenger.

☞ The Nebraska bill having passed the Senate, now only waits the President's signature to become a law. No doubt it is signed before this time.

Conflagration.—From Bolivia.—By the arrival of the schooner Sullivan from Bolivia May 10th, we learn that Hides are very scarce there. On the 15th of April, the city of Neutress was visited by the largest conflagration ever experienced in that country, the entire city being destroyed, together with 70,000 or 80,000 Hides, a large lot of Deer Skins, and other produce. Many lives are supposed to have been lost.

Joseph Campbell recently died in Campbell county, Geo., at the advanced age of 97. His children, grand-children and great-grand-children were found to number two hundred and twenty-five; but the most remarkable circumstance was, that the youngest of the whole group was his own child.

A generator in a soda water factory at Cincinnati, burst last Friday, and one of the workmen was almost instantly killed.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May 25.

SENATE.—Mr. Gillette, the newly elected Senator from Connecticut, took his seat.

Mr. Clayton, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported back the joint resolution requesting the President to have prepared and presented gold medals to the officers of the British ship Virago, and also $100 to each man of the boat's crew who rescued Lieut. Strain's surveying party. Passed.

The Nebraska bill was taken up, when Mr. Bell resumed his speech. Mr. Bell continued his remarks at great length and with considerable warmth, being frequently called to order.

HOUSE.—In the House Committee of the Whole, to day, Mr. Phelps moved the postponement of the Pacific Railroad bill till to morrow, in order to take up the Deficiency bill.

After some pungent remarks by Mr. Walsh and others, the Senate's amendment increasing the salary of the special mail agent of the Post Office Department in California to $5000 was non concurred in.

The Senate's amendment regulating the printing for Congress was debated and rejected.

Several minor amendments were acted upon, but important ones were reserved for yea and nay votes. Adjourned.

NEBRASKA BILL IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The following is the closing scene of the debate on the Nebraska bill:

After a long discussion, Mr. Clayton's amendment depriving aliens of the right to vote, was rejected by a vote of 44 to 7.

Mr. Sumner, at a quarter to 12 commenced speaking against the bill. By unanimous consent, he was allowed to present a number of petitions against the bill, including 126 remonstrances from clergymen of every Protestant denomination in New England.

The latter, he said were intended to have formed part of the mammoth memorial presented by his colleague some time since. He then defended the clergy of New England for their noble conduct in publicly denouncing the bill and protesting against its passage. The pulpit of New England would never again defend slavery from any attacks made upon it.

Mr. Mason objected to the reception of the remonstrance of the clergy, because, as their conduct was explained by the Senator, they were evidently profaning their sacred office.—He desired in behalf of the church in the South to say that the clergy of the South had no connection with the clergy of New England in this managing of political affairs for unworthy purposes.

Mr. Sumner briefly responded.

At a quarter past 12 Mr. Douglass commenced the closing speech in support of the bill, and repeated his denunciation of blasphemous sermons and the memorials of the clergy. He replied at length to the intimation that the bill would be resisted, and henceforward stern opposition to all laws upon the subject of slavery would be universal at the north.

Mr. Toucy said that he had expressed his views on a former occasion, and he now fully concurred in all he had then expressed. He had been instructed by the present Whig Abolition Legislature of Connecticut to vote against the bill, but after mature reflection, he had come to the conclusion to disobey the instruction.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Atchison, Badger, Benjamin, Brodhead, Brown, Butler, Cass, Clay, Dawson, Douglas, Fitzpatrick, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson, Jones of Ia., Jones of Tenn., Mallory, Mason, Morton, Morris, Pearce, Petit, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Slidell, Stuart, Thompson of Ky., Thompson of N. J., Toombs, Toucey, Weller, Williams, Wright—35.

Nays—Messrs. Allen, Bell, Chase, Clayton, Fish, Foote, Gillette, Hamlin, James, Seward, Sumner, Wade, Walker—13.

Mr. Sumner said he had a letter from his colleague, endeavoring to make arrangements to pair off with some other Senator, but no such arrangement had been made. If present he would vote against the bill.

Mr. Butler said if his colleagues were present he would vote for the bill.

Upon the passage of the bill, Mr. Sumner asked the yeas and nays, which the Senate refused to order.

The bill passed, and at a quarter past one o'clock the Senate adjourned to Monday.

Immediately a salute of 100 guns commenced firing from Capitol Hill.

NEW YORK, May 26.—GREAT EARTHQUAKE.—The Northern Light brings intelligence that a revolution had broken out in Nicaragua, under the leadership of Senor Castellan.

The city of San Salvador was totally destroyed by an earthquake on the night of Easter Sunday; 200 lives were lost and over $4,000,000 worth of property destroyed. The shock lasted nearly a minute, laying the whole city level with the ground.

On the Friday previous, until the moment of the calamity, strong shocks of earthquakes were experienced from day to day until the night of Sunday, the 30th, when, about 10 o'clock P. M., a rolling sensation, as that of a wave of the sea, and which lasted about fifty seconds, laid the whole city in ruins. The night being calm, the dust occasioned by the falling of the houses obscured the whole atmosphere. Plunder and robbery followed, the government, with the troops, having removed from the scene of destruction at an early hour on the following morning. The consequences accompanying the catastrophe are likely to be attended with very serious results to commercial business throughout the republic.—The authorities have petitioned the neighboring States for assistance in money, provisions and labor.

Just before the sailing of the Northern Light, an attempt was made to arrest Hon. Mr. Borland, American Minister, by the authorities of San Juan; he however took refuge at the American Consulate, which was attacked by a mob during the night. The next morning Mr. Borland managed to get on board the Northern Light, when a meeting was called, and measures taken to protect American citizens and property on shore. A volunteer force of 50 men, from the passengers, was organized under the command of Mr. Crawford Fletcheri, formerly of Tennessee, who remained at San Juan, and under whose protection our consul placed himself.—The outrage grew out of an attempt on the part of the authorities of San Juan to arrest an American captain of a river steamer, which Mr. Borland resisted.

A RAILROAD CASE.—We learn from the New York Commercial, that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has reversed the decision of the lower Court in the case of Aspell vs. Pennsylvania Railroad Company.—The plaintiff was a passenger in a train of cars, which owing to a defect in the signal rope, did not stop immediately at the place where he wished to get off, whereupon he leaped from the cars and seriously injured his foot, for which accident he was allowed by the lower Court $1500 damages. The company appealed, and the decision was reversed, upon the ground that the accident was caused rather by the recklessness of the passenger than by the misconduct of the company's agents; that the plaintiff should not have hazarded such a leap for the sake of getting to the ground a few seconds earlier.—Boston Journal.

The Supreme Court's decision is right.—The road should not pay for the passenger's haste or folly.

The Sea Serpent was seen on Sunday, near King's Beach, Swampscot, Lynn, by more than twenty fishermen. It is supposed to be about sixty feet long, and of quite a different appearance from any one ever witnessed in these parts.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—
Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancer, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases.

DR. ORDWAY'S
HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattle ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying of the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach, and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.
PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.
PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our mightly rest.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber late Examiner of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836, is determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and in fringements of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries, besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished for transmitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the market, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

SILVER MINE IN HOOKSETT!

Quite a little stir has been noticeable in this vicinity, owing to the flying rumors that a Silver Mine was being worked in Hooksett, seven miles from this city, and that large 'chispas' had already been taken from the 'diggings.' We visited the silver placer this morning, and saw the 'prospectors' and the 'lumps,' and find that there is more truth than poetry about the story. Pleasing will be the illusion as long as it lasts, if finally it prove one, that we live near a silver mountain,—near the bed of a river whose waters flow over silver sands!

On the west bank of the river at Hooksett, less than a quarter of a mile from the depot, is what is called Pinnacle Mountain, from whose summit the country for many miles around can be seen. Its ascent is not easy, and its summit is mostly covered with rocks and a small growth of trees. Its westerly side is less steep and contains a heavier growth of wood. On that side embosomed among the hills is a small pond of deep pure water, fed by springs and having no outlet. It is about the size of Echo Pond, at the base of the Old Man of the Mountain. It was a favorite place of resort for the late Hon. R. H. Ayer, where he kept a boat, and often spent many hours of pleasure in bathing and fishing in its cool and shaded waters.

About twenty five years ago, a man by the name of Eaton discovered a vein of rocks on the side of the mountain containing something that looked like pure silver. He broke up the rock and brought away two quarts of the fine rock, sent it to Boston, had it separated, and the metal made into half a dozen common table spoons. The jeweler to whom he sent it, said that it was one sixth tin, and the rest was pure silver, and that the six spoons were made from what was sent, and also there was nearly enough left to pay him for his trouble. At any rate he charged only nine shillings in addition. The six spoons are now in existence, and are said to be superior to common silver spoons. This made considerable stir at the time, but those were not the days of diggings, and no one took the trouble to prospect further.

Some returned Californians and others, most of them from Milford, this county, fifteen in number, have purchased the mountain and the lands at its base, about 80 acres, of Jeremiah Wilkins, Esq., of Pembroke, for $3000.

They have had the matter under contemplation during the winter, and now think they have got a sure thing—that their hopes are silvered o'er, or silver ore. Till they had bought it, it was supposed they designed to cut off the wood and cultivate the land merely, and if it should happen that the base of the Pinnacle is pure silver, Esq. Watkins will regret that he sold.

A gang of men have been sinking a hole in the mountain the past week, and have taken out many fine looking specimens of quartz rock, combined with something that has a silver look. It has not been assayed yet; but whether this shall be the Simon pure or not, they are convinced that it exists in the mountain, and that it will never do to give it up so. They will make a summer's work of it, and the first solid bar of silver we are presented with from that Co., we will keep on exhibition at our office. As might be expected, the usually quiet village of Hooksett is on the tip toe of excitement about it. It is a delightful drive from this city to the Placer, and E. E. Goodale keeps the Pinnacle House, close by, and a capital house it is.—Manchester Mirror.

MILK IN CITIES.—Few people in our country towns have any idea of the miserable concoctions which are swallowed, in the larger cities, in the form of milk. The dairies in those cities, are confined in stables, and never let out. They are fed upon brewers' grains and distillery slops which are given to them warm, fermented and full of the stimulating principle. At first cows loathe it, but after being forced to drink it by hunger for a while, their appetite becomes voracious for it, as does the drunkard for his stimulants. This food rapidly reduces the animals, their teeth become blackened and corroded, they become diseased and die. A cow can endure the food but six months. They are often milked after they have become diseased by this unnatural food, and even to their death. A cow can be taught to drink from thirty to forty gallons per day of this fluid, from which they yield large quantities of blueish milk—almost entirely deficient in nutriment, and impregnated with the injurious properties of the slush on which she is fed. It is then colored, diluted, and drugged,—adulterated with starch, sugar, flour, plaster of Paris, chalk, or some other substance. It is then sold. Persons taking into their stomach this poisonous liquid, frequently become diseased from the effects of it, and sometimes take the disease of the cow. This is said by Physicians to be the source of much of the disease in the cities.

The editor of the Jackson (Missouri) True Witness says he "has not seen a drunken man in Jackson since the Legislature adjourned."

LOLA MONTEZ.—We have seen a letter from one of our old acquaintances in Grass Valley, California—and in speaking of Madam Lola Montez, he says:—She is making an application for divorce from a husband whom she foolishly married in San Francisco, last summer. She lives in handsome style at Grass Valley, where she has a pretty cottage. She has five dogs, a horse, a grizzly bear, several other wild animals, and a green house, for pets. She has money, and is one of the shrewdest women in matters of business, and one of the best informed on general subjects whom I ever knew. She is perfectly well bred, and her manners are entirely unpretending. She is very popular with the miners as a class; and, in short, is a remarkable woman. Her failings are a high temper, and some obtuseness on moral questions—but she pays well those whom she employs, and that, in a Californian's eye, covers a multitude of sins. —Northampton Gazette.

NOT COMPLIMENTARY.—A Frenchman travelling in the United States, sends the following sketch of a 'genuine Yankee' to a Parisian journal:

Picture to yourself, if you please, a lean figure with bony wrists; feet with dimensions that would forever tarnish the escutcheon of a gentleman; a hat stuck upon the back of the head, straight hair, mouth stretched from morning till night by a lump of tobacco; lips stained yellow by the juice of the same weed; a black coat with narrow skirts; a tumbled shirt; the gloves of a gendarme; trousers in harmony with the rest of the equipment; and you will have before you the exact portrait of a thorough bred Yankee.

BABY SHOW IN CANADA.—A correspondent of the Burlington Free Press gives an amusing account of a baby show in Bytown, Canada, on the 2d inst. The prizes were $60 each to the three largest, fattest, and handsomest babies in Bytown. There were but two babies presented, one 16 and the other 17 months old, each of whom received a prize. After some appropriate speeches by the judges, one of the lucky mothers made the announcement that she should have another baby to show at the same time and place next year, if there was a premium to be given, which caused rounds of applause.

A pretended Hungarian clergyman, with a very crooked name and still more crooked principles, preached in two of the Charlestown churches last Sunday—the First Baptist and the Winthrop, (Congregationalist.) He exhibited plenty of recommendations, was listened to with interest, and collections were taken for his benefit in each church, though that only of the Baptist church has been paid over to him. By telegraphic communication with southern places which he pretended to have visited, it was learned that he is an imposter. The last seen of him was at the American House, in Boston, on Tuesday. He gave his name as Zangowrska.

MONDAY, MAY 29, 1854.

FUGITIVE SLAVE RIOT.

The attempted execution of the fugitive slave law in Boston, on Anthony Burns, has resulted in a great riot, and in the death of a white man named Batchelder, who was employed as a temporary assistant slave jailor at the Court House, where the anti slavery mob broke in the doors.

Soon after Burns' arrival in Boston, he wrote a letter to his brother in Alexandria, who is also a slave of Mr. Suttle's, stating that he was at work with Coffin Pitts, in Brattle street, cleaning old clothes. This letter he dated in Boston, but sent it to Canada, where it was post marked and sent according to the superscription, to Burns' brother at Alexandria.

As is the custom at the South, when letters are received directed to slaves, they are delivered to the owner of such slaves, who opens them and examines their contents. This appears to have been the case with Burns' letter, and by his own hand his place of retreat was discovered by his master.

On Friday, the claimant and his principal witness, Capt. Suttle and Mr. Brant, were arrested at the Revere House, on a charge of kidnapping Anthony Burns, the alleged fugitive slave, and admitted to bail, without leaving the house, in the sum of $5000 each.—Watson Freeman, and Henry L. Hallett, were the sureties.

Subsequently Chief Justice Wells issued a writ of replevin against U. S. Marshal Freeman, directing that officer to bring the body of Anthony Burns, the fugitive, before the Court of Common Pleas, on the 7th day of June next, but the Marshal did not obey the order.

On Friday evening a meeting was held at Faneuil Hall, to consider the subject of the arrest of the fugitive, and consult as to what measures it was proper or expedient for the friends of Burns to take in the case. The meeting was called to order by Samuel E. Sewall, Esq. George R. Russell, Esq., presided, assisted by six or eight Vice Presidents. William I. Bowditch and Robert Morris were appointed Secretaries. Mr. Russell, on taking the chair, said they had assembled to protest against the arrest of the fugitive, but not to encourage violence.

The meeting was then addressed by F. W. Bird of Walpole, and others. Dr. S. G. Howe offered a series of resolutions, and when Wendell Phillips, Esq., was speaking, it was announced that a crowd had assembled in Court Square, and the meeting immediately adjourned, most of the people wending their way towards the Court House, apparently more from curiosity than for any evil purpose.

The people who had previously assembled in Court Square began to show indications of an attempt to rescue the fugitive who was in one of the upper rooms of the Court House. Several of the windows were broken, and the middle door on the west side of the building was burst open, by a timber borne on men's shoulders for a battering ram.

At the time the mob beat down the westerly door of the Court House, several men, employed as United States officers, were in the passage way, using their endeavors to prevent the ingress of the crowd, and among the number was Mr. James Batchelder, a truckman, who, almost at the instant of the forcing of the door, received a pistol shot, (evidently a very heavy charge) in the abdomen. Mr. Batchelder uttered the exclamation, "I'm stabbed," and falling backwards into the arms of watchman Isaac Jones, expired, almost immediately. He resided in Charlestown, where he leaves a wife and one or two children to mourn his death.

One account says, he was killed by a pistol ball, which seems to have been fired by one of his companions, who handled his pistol carelessly. But this is not certain.

By the Mayor, the Boston Artillery and the Columbian Artillery were ordered out, and about midnight took quarters in City Hall, where they remained during the night, waiting further orders.

A large force of officers were detailed for duty during the night, outside the Court House, and throughout the whole evening and night, an additional strong force was inside, fully armed and prepared for any emergency.

The police of Boston made several arrests, among them the following persons, for taking active part in the riot, or for specific acts of violence or misconduct.

Albert G. Browne, Jr., a law student at Cambridge.

John J. Roberts (white) of Harrison Avenue, for extinguishing one of the gas lights at the easterly entrance of the Court House.

Walter Finney (colored); John Wesley (colored); Wesley Bishop (colored); Thomas Jackson (colored); Henry Howe (white); Martin Stowell (white) of Worcester.

The noise of the mob created a stampede in the Museum, and much alarm prevailed among the ladies. The performances were interrupted, and nearly half the audience left the house.

At half past two o'clock, eighty marines from the Navy Yard, Charlestown, under command of Lieut. Rich, arrived, and remained in the Court House.

A steamboat was sent down to Fort Independence, at midnight, and the United States troops brought up, at six in the morning.—Most of the uniformed companies in Boston were wholly out, or under orders at armories. A great crowd of people were gathered in Court Square.

At ten o'clock on Saturday, Commissioner Loring came into the Court Room. Dana and Ellis, Burns's counsel, moved for a postponement of the case—but Thomas, and Parker, for the claimant, urged an immediate decision.

Dana argued that the granting of the certificate settled the case of Burns finally; that he would never go before another tribunal, but might, and Burns himself feared that he would, be sold to go to New Orleans. The claimant might send him where he pleases, and your honor could not help it. If the case goes on now he will say, and we shall say, he has not had a defence. It is in view of the tremendous consequences of granting this certificate that they asked delay.

In reply to the suggestion that Burns might be sold at the first slave mart, Mr. Parker said that the claimant had consented to sell him here.

The Commissioner, after hearing the arguments, decided that the request for delay was a reasonable one, and therefore postponed the further hearing of the case until Monday at 11 o'clock.

The Transcript of Saturday evening says:

All the persons who were arrested last night were arraigned to-day in the Police Court, on complaint of Deputy Chief Ham, charged with the murder of Mr. James Batchelder, the special policeman who was shot inside the Court House. The defts. were committed for examination on Tuesday.

ARREST OF FUGITIVE SLAVES.—New York, May 26.—About three o'clock this morning, three colored men, father and two sons, known as Jake, Bob, and Stephen Pembroke, were arrested at the instance of David Smith and Jacob Grove, of Washington Co., Md., who claim them as their slaves. They were taken before Commissioner Morton of the United States Court, and it was understood that they would be examined at 11 o'clock; instead of that, however, the case was heard at once, no persons being present when the claimants testified that they were the owners of said slaves, and that they escaped from their service at Baltimore, on Sunday last.

From what we can gather of the proceedings, the fugitives acknowledge themselves to be slaves of Smith and Grove. The Commissioner considering the testimony sufficient, ordered their surrender, and they were accordingly given up to the claimants, who hurried them off at once, and they are now on their way to Baltimore. A telegraph despatch has been sent on to Philadelphia, as it is understood that an attempt will be made to rescue the parties when the cars arrive. There was no excitement around the Commissioner's office, owing to the misunderstanding as to the time of examination.

The men were tracked to this city by the claimants, who made application to the U. S. Court, when officers Horton and DeAnger were deputed by the Marshal to effect their arrest, and those officers, with deputy marshal Thompson, scoured the city, and finally found them secreted in a house in Broome street.—They were brought before Commissioner Morton this morning. No counsel for the fugitives appeared; the case being made out, usual affidavits of fear of rescue were made, and the warrants thereupon issued, and the three fugitives were delivered over to the U. S. Marshal and hurried off to Maryland. They were father and his two sons. Father about 45—sons 18 or 19. The evidence shows them to have recently escaped. The father is the brother of the Rev. Dr. Pennington, a highly respectable colored preacher of this city.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Rev. J. W. C. Pennington, whose brother and two nephews were yesterday returned to Maryland as fugitive slaves, announces that he will hold a meeting to-morrow evening, at his church in Prince st, at which he will give a full statement of all the facts in the case.

The steamer Carlew, from St. Thomas and Bermuda, arrived last evening.

The Nebraskaites fired a salute of 148 guns, in the Park last evening, 113 for the House and 35 for the Senate. They also got up a torch light procession, with music and banners, and marched through the streets.

The N. Y. East Methodist Conference, in session at Brooklyn, adjourned last evening. During the sitting yesterday, Rev. Seneca Howland was suspended from the ministry for immoral and unchristian conduct. The report on slavery was returned to the Committee, with instructions to prepare a more extended and practical report for the next session of the Conference.

FUGITIVE SLAVE EXCITEMENT.—Syracuse, May 26.—A tremendous excitement was created here this afternoon. A telegraph despatch was received by Messrs. Cobb and Wheaton, Abolitionists, that a fugitive slave, in charge of an United States Marshal, on his way to the South, would arrive in the 6 1-2 o'clock train. The bells were rung, and upwards of 2000 persons turned out and attacked the cars. A negro was caught, but proved to be a passenger, residing here; and no fugitive slave was discovered.

THE LAST FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE.—We published a despatch a few days since relative to the attempted arrest of an alleged fugitive slave at Akron, Ohio. The Cleveland Herald of Friday has the following version of the affair:

"A colored man named James Worthington was arrested in Akron this morning, by Deputy Marshal Denis. The whole town turned out to the aid of the alleged fugitive; a great excitement prevailed, and the man was rescued and delivered to his friends. In connection with the criminal charge of being a slave, was one trumped up of counterfeiting. Of course this was false, as the man has lived in Akron 15 years, and has an irreproachable character. The citizens said to the Marshal that if Worthington was charged with crime committed in Ohio, he should answer to the laws, and be put under preliminary examination, and all aid should be rendered the officers in the matter; but if he was accused of taking care of his own personal liberty only, he should never be taken from Akron. The Marshal saw fit to leave on the first train."

THE GOLDEN FLEECE.—The San Francisco Chronicle states that it is alleged the loss of the clipper ship Golden Fleece was occasioned by the intoxication of her crew, who were unable to perform duty.

Five colored men were drowned on Tuesday afternoon, by the capsizing of a boat near Burlington, N. J., on the Delaware river.

HARTFORD, May 26.—The Hartford Powder Mill of Hammer and Forbes, exploded today—two men killed.

SOBER THOUGHTS WIDE AWAKE.

BY UNCLE TOBY.

The first thought is, that a town-meeting is the queerest kind of a judicatory, before which to bring land titles for adjustment; and the sober second thought is, that land titles themselves are rather queer things.

Yet the people read, in the city papers, that a town meeting is to be held in Jefferson Hall, on Monday, the 12th of June, a fortnight from to-day, the grand object of which is to see who owns the lot on which the workmen are now digging a cellar for the new north meeting house.

Now as an old fashioned republican, Uncle Toby holds it to be the right of all good citizens, peaceably to assemble, and to discuss all manner of subjects, relating to the general welfare, individual rights, and personal safety.

Therefore he holds it right for the people to hold such a town meeting if they choose, and to discuss, not only the subjects in the warrant, but any and every question, ad libitum. At the same time, he is certain that any action of such meeting can have no legal effect whatever. It may have a moral effect, and so it will, in exact agreement with the number and character of its members, and with the wisdom of its proceedings.

It seems, however, that the old question of the Glebe Titles, Rents and Claims, after having been a bone of contention for a century, and of litigation for a quarter of another, must have been picked pretty dry by this time.—Nevertheless, it can do no harm to revive a few historical and legal reminiscences.

The origin of land titles seems to be, that somebody, at some remote period, grabbed all the land he could, and sold it, or left it to his heirs, whence it has come down from generation to generation of purchasers and owners.

Portsmouth, or Piscataqua, was a part of the old Masonian patent, which was granted to Mason by the Crown of England. After Mason's death, his widow got tired of sending out money and goods without return, and in 1638 she abandoned the colony. The people were left to govern themselves as best they might. Each head man kept his house or his farm, or what he could, and the sovereign people of Portsmouth, at once a county and town, a democracy and an empire, took and granted lands in fee simple and otherwise.

In 1640, in the exercise of their primitive sovereignty, this pure democracy, made a grant in perpetuam, of the two glebes, the upper and lower, to certain Wardens and their successors to the end of the chapter, or as long as such successors should be chosen. This trust was accepted, and the oldest inhabitants well know the boundaries of the lower glebe.

Uncle Toby described them aright in his dream in Saturday's Daily Chronicle, except one error, viz, that the glebe did not extend to Rogers street, nor did it cover the land of the late George Simes. There was no dispute as to the ownership of the glebe, for seventy years: but then, when a majority made a successful move for a northern house, carried the minister with them, and held the glebe, there arose ill-feelings which lasted a long while.—Early in this struggle, had there been the slightest flaw in the title, it would have been discovered, and the land wrested from the north parish, or divided between that and the south. But no such flaw was found.

Seventy years or more after this first seventy, Rev. Mr. Ogden, of the Queen's Chapel, set up a claim to the glebe, for his church, to which claim, however, the distinguished lawyers who have been members of that church never gave the slightest countenance.

During these 140 or 150 years, the Wardens, by vote of the Parish, had leased out nearly all the lower glebe, in lots; and under these old leases, to run 999 years, all the property on these 12 acres is now held! The owners have no other title, unless by some right of possession. The old jail, where Mrs. Mary Cutts's buildings now are; the old negro burying ground in front of it; and the old Alms House, being important institutions of that day, were suffered to take their places by the action of the parish and the wardens.

When the glebe had been held by the Wardens and by lessees under them for 170 years, it was suggested that several of the leasees were in arrears for rent, for though the rents were small, they would run up in time.

Suits were commenced by the Wardens for the North Parish: the best Lawyers were employed on the cases; and if Uncle Toby remembers rightly, there were some tall lawyers round Portsmouth in those days as well as these.

These suits were in the Courts, at intervals, and in various forms, for a number of years. No lawyers nor courts could break up the title; and the result was, that every writ was settled by the payment of the quit rents, and quit claims given by the Wardens.

Finally: when the town of Portsmouth built its fine new Alms House, the Parish set up its claim to a reversionary right to the lot where the Court House now stands. And this claim was settled by the Town's paying to the parish a small sum of money, and by establishing to the parish their Meeting House Lot, by metes and bounds, nearly as the stone posts now stand.

It would seem that if any title can be good this is valid. If this is not, then who are the owners of half the centre of Portsmouth?

There is, as we are well pleased to hear, a plan now on foot, with a fair prospect of success, for the city to enlarge the Square, by purchasing for the North Parish the land directly south of the old site, on which to build the new, elegant and substantial edifice. So may it be, if the people so consent and ordain.

☞ Samuel S. Smith, an old printer, now in this city, made a bottle of writing ink in our office on Saturday, in two minutes' time. The ink flows freely from the pen, contains no acid whatever, and holds on the paper, when other good ink, made in the usual way, is entirely erased by oxalic acid and hartshorn.—He will sell the ink, or recipes for making it.

LOOK TO YOUR WINDOWS!—A window in the store of Mr. F. W. Rogers, in this city, was broken on Saturday night, and several pairs of Boots stolen This is the fourth case of window breaking to obtain goods, within a few months.

THE TERRITORIES MUST BE FREE.—A Washington despatch states that advices report that ten thousand citizens of Iowa and other Western States, would start for Nebraska on the passage of the bill by Congress. If anything can stimulate emigration it is the passage of the Nebraska bill. There is a deep, earnest, settled feeling at the North against the further extension of slavery, and the freemen will flock into the territories in overwhelming numbers, to rescue them from the deadly grasp of the slave power. The New England Nebraska emigration convention is an earnest of what will be done by this section in aid of this praiseworthy object.

CALIFORNIA PAPERS.—A newspaper published in the Chinese language and printed in Chinese characters, has been started in San Francisco, as the organ of the Celestial population, and is the first ever published in the United States. The name of the paper is said to be the Gold Hills News—though we fail to make those words from the five characters supposed to represent the title, on the fourth page of the sheet. We are indebted to Chas. E. Rand for a number.

We have also received a large number of other California papers, from our friend Daniel G. Waldron, Postmaster at Coloma.

JAMES WILSON, on trial at Boston, for the murder of Thomas Adams, a fellow convict in the State Prison, was found guilty on Thursday. The defence was insanity;—but his guilt, as a murderer with malice aforethought, was proved most clearly.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

HOUSE.—The House this morning proceeded to vote on the amendments to the Deficiency bill.

The Washington Water Works bill was rejected, 100 to 47.

The following Senate amendments were also rejected, namely: that part of the printing act which provides for the more equitable distribution of the document printing between the two public printers, and that providing for new Custom Houses at St. Louis, Mobile, Cincinnati, Louisville, Bangor, Bath, Wilmington, Providence and San Francisco.—Adjourned to Monday.

ANALYSIS OF THE VOTE ON NEBRASKA.—The vote ordering the bill to be engrossed was 110 yeas to 100 nays. Of those voting for the bill, 95 were democrats and 15 were whigs. Of the former, 41 were from the free States, of the latter, none.

Against the bill were 46 democrats, 50 whigs and 5 independent democrats, so called—100 in all. Of the democrats, 44; but two were from the free states. That gives a majority of three in the democratic delegation from the free states against the bill.

There were 23 members in all absent, or who did not vote.

LATER FROM HAVANA.

CHARLESTON, May 25.—The steamer Isabel, from Havana and Key West, 22d inst., has arrived. Left at Havana a French frigate, two small steamers, and an English brig of war. The Captain General, as well as the officers of the fleet, announce that they have come to protect the Spanish plan of emancipation. Great uneasiness is felt.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Washington Correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, telegraphed last night as follows: "The latest rumor, which I regard as authentic, is that G. M. Dallas and ex-Governor Cobb are to be despatched to Spain as Special Commissioners with the ultimatum of this Government, relative to Cuba. In the mean time the President will issue a proclamation against fillibusters.

The fillibuster organs pretend that they will have a new expedition organized under the command of Gen. Quitman, and that they have raised $1,000,000 by bond of the Provisional Cuban Government.

THE STEAMSHIP CITY OF GLASGOW.—Philadelphia, May 26.—The following despatch from Liverpool was received this morning by Mr. Samuel Smith, agent of the Philadelphia and Liverpool Steamship Company, from Messrs. Richardson & Brothers:—'The steamer we advised you of per Franklin was not the City of Glasgow, as the captain who saw her is positive that she yellow paddle boxes and timber bulwarks, which answers the build of the West India mail steamers.—The Washington, of and from Hamburg for New York, was in sight during the time.—The portions of the wreck seen by the packet ship Hibernia, did not belong to the Glasgow, the handles of her doors being all brass and black, and not white as reported.

These items seem to extinguish the last ray of hope for the safety of the Glasgow, or even knowing how or where she went down.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Pennsylvania Whig State Convention is to meet at Harrisburg on Wednesday, and a letter from Washington states that it "is to be signalized, probably, by a new political combination, formed out of anti-Nebraska elements—Whig, Democratic and Abolition. The flag of the Wilmot Proviso is to be hung out, and David Wilmot will be selected as the standard bearer of the new party. This will be the commencement of a new political era, and one, perhaps, inauspicious for the public welfare."

CONNECTICUT UNITED STATES SENATORS.—The Legislature of Connecticut has elected Francis Gillette, Free Soiler, for the short term, and Layfayette S. Foster, Whig, for the long term. On voting for a Senator for the short term, nearly all the Democratic members of the House supported Mr. Chapman, who was the Maine Law candidate for Governor at the election. In the House the vote stood—Gilette 109, Chapman 92, scattering 15. In the Senate, which consists of 21 members, the vote stood — Gillette 11, Smith (Democratic) 5, Chapman 2, blank 3. For the long term the vote stood, in the House—Foster 129, Ingham (Democrat) 88, Gillette 2; in the Senate, Foster 13, Smith (Democrat)5, Dixon 2.—Boston Courier.

SAD AFFAIR.—A sad affair occurred yesterday to Mr. Pendexter, hardware merchant. He was sitting in his office on the corner of Oregon and Davis st. about 10 o,clock yesterday morning, when he received a shot on the point of the right shoulder, the ball ranging along the collar bone and inflicting a dangerous wound. It appears that a boy was playing with a rifle on the opposite side of the street, and it was accidentally discharged while in his hands. The ball passed through the side of Mr. Pendexter's building, and thence through his office window on the inside, inflicting the wound above mentioned. He was immediately conveyed to Dr. Nelson's office, where he had his wounds properly attended to. The boy was immediately arrested, but as it was evidently the effect of accident he was subsequently discharged.—California paper.

The above is supposed to refer to Mr. Samuel H. Pendexter, formerly of Dover, N. H., who is a hard ware merchant in San Francisco.

SAUGERTIES, May 26.—The powder Mill of Lafin & Smith, near here, exploded to-day, killing seven men and blowing six houses in pieces. Loss heavy, being one of the largest mills in the country.

CINCINNATI, May 26.—The Indiana State Democratic Convention met at Indianapolis on Wednesday, and passed resolutions, 421 to 13, fully endorsing the Nebraska bill, and the National Administration, and repudiating the prohibitory liquor laws.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham ss
To Andrew J. Beck, Esq. City Marshal of the City of Portsmouth, GREETING.

IN the name of the State of New Hampshire you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of said city, qualified to vote as the law directs, to assemble and meet at JEFFERSON HALL, in said City, on MONDAY, the twelfth day of June next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to consider and act on the following particulars, in conformity to a petition signed by over fifty legal voters of this city, viz:

To choose by ballot a Moderator;

To see if the City will vote to adopt suitable measures to ascertain in whom the absolute title of a certain lot of land situate in Market Square, so called, whereon lately stood a house once occupied by the North Parish or Church for public worship, in the City of Portsmouth aforesaid; and

Also further to ascertain in whom the fee simple of the aforesaid lot was vested; and

Also to see and ascertain whether the inhabitants of said city ever at any time conveyed, sold or parted with said lot of land legally to any person, persons or body corporate for a valuable consideration; and

Also, if practicable, to keep the same open, to be added to Market square, so called.

Hereof fail not, and make return of your doings therein, at the time and place aforesaid, to the City Clerk or Mayor and Aldermen of said city.

Given under our hands and the seal of said City of Portsmouth, this the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

[L.S.] AUGUSTUS JENKINS,
JAMES AYERS,
CHARLES J. COLCORD,
WILLIAM TUCKER,
JONATHAN DEARBORN,
ISAAC F. NELSON,
GIDEON H. RUNDLET,
Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth.

The inhabitants are hereby notified to meet accordingly.

Portsmouth, May 26, 1854.

DR. LAIGHTON has removed to No. 11 Middle street. m18 3w*

Mr. Wharton, editor of the Wheeling Gazette, is a bold man. Hear what he says of Slavery in Virginia:

There is not more than one man in ten in the State who owns slaves, and but few who do own them, who do not say in their hearts and tacitly admit in their conversation that Slavery is a curse to the State, retarding her progress, her intelligence, her population, her wealth, and her happiness. These facts are known to every man, and hinted about at the corners; but many men are too timid to speak them out plainly.

The New York Herald has lowered its price to two cents a copy again, for the alleged reason that its two cent contemporaries refused to raise theirs.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, was discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor,) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running tetters.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. It peddled out over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen open, purpy, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is bound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will recall that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie down for a number of years; she can now lie without the slightest inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all these diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United states, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters stating the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linitment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green st.

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. Each tenement will be sold separately if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly occupied and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard near by.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling House.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

WHEAT.

The Ohio papers say the growing wheat crop never presented a fairer prospect in that State than at the present time. There is wheat enough sowed in that State to supply the inhabitants of four such States.

ILLINOIS WHEAT CROP.—The season is now so far advanced that growers can judge, with much accuracy, what are the prospects of the approaching wheat crop; and the accounts which reach us from all parts of the State, give promise of a full and beautiful harvest. We learn from one of our millers, who has just returned from a tour throughout this State, that he has never seen finer wheat fields anywhere, and that if nothing intervenes to cut off the promised yield, the crop will exceed all calculation. Throughout Madison, Jersey, Greene, Macoupin, Montgomery, Scott, and other adjoining counties, a much larger quantity than usual has been planted; and the same, we believe, is true in other parts of this State. We shall not be surprised if Illinois shall this year take her place next to Ohio, as the second wheat growing State in the Union.—Alton Telegraph, 15th.

HARVEST.—Five or six weeks hence and new wheat will be in the market. Last year the first arrival came to hand on the 25th of June, and sold at $1 per bushel. On the following day flour from new wheat was offered for sale on Commercial street. The present crop is equally as far if not farther advanced. Then comes a new order of things. Old prices will be at an end, and new ones will commence. The time is quite short, and those who have large investments in grain and fortunes to make with flour had better be up and doing. Say it will require five weeks for the wheat to mature, and three or four additional before it is fit for general use. What then? A decline in price, as a matter of course. We never knew it to fail that wheat did not fall off 25 to 33 per cent. in value upon the first appearance of the new crop, or very soon thereafter. New wheat and new flour will be in all our Western markets before the middle of July, and just so sure as that short space of time rolls around, just so sure will prices for the old stock "tumble." We would therefore have western dealers mindful of the fact.—St. Louis Intelligencer, May 17th.

The handsome sum of eight dollars per brl. was paid yesterday for 1000 brls. Kilborn mills extra flour. It was purchased for the Boston market, and the same price offered for more. This flour was made out of good Wisconsin winter wheat by Col. Sawyer, and cannot be beat, east or west.—Milwaukie Sentinel, May 10th.

We heard yesterday of a sale of 2000 bu of wheat now standing in the field, to be harvested about the 12th of June. The figures are strictly private, though very materially less than the present market price of that product. —Alton Telegraph, May 12th.

WHEAT.—The Rochester American estimates that there will be harvested in Monroe county, New York, in July, 1,544,723 bushels of wheat, which at the present price of the article in that city, will be worth $3,475,627.

There is a difference between some folks, said Mrs. Partington, sagaciously, laying down the remark on the cover of her snuff box, and looking out of the window at the windmill whirling upon the shed, that Ike had placed there a few days before at the expense of one of the old lady's curtain sticks and a bran new knitting needle, about taking rupturous disorders, because some people are much more acceptible than others. It is just so with other things. Some folks can't go where there is any tinu fever without taking it; some can. Now I can go any wheres without being libel, because my regularity of living is an anecdote to disease, and I lived once a quarter of a sentry contagious to a salt marsh and never took the rheumatiz, though Mrs. Jeems, that didn't live nigh as near, use to have a romantic affection every time the wind was east. How the garrulous old dame did run on to be sure, all regardless of the fact that Ike was very acceptible to take things, and was at that very moment trying the experiment performed by the late Capt. C. Columbus, of Genoa, of sitting an egg on an end; but with ill success, for he stood, a moment thereafter, with confusion on his face and the yolk of an egg on his jacket sleeve, with the rebuke of Mrs. Partington ringing in his ear.

INSURANCE REGULATION.—The Board of New York Underwriters have resolved to grant no policy of insurance on any vessel in the foreign trade, or on its freight, except such vessel is guaranteed not to carry grain in bulk. This measure is adopted to protect insurers against frequent losses, such as have recently occurred, resulting from the shifting of grain cargoes. This measure has been adopted as well for the better prevention of the loss of vessels, as for the preservation of lives.—Boston Courier.

There is little noise and bustle, but a quiet, peaceable industry that keeps all busy. This year as last, it is almost impossible to obtain a mechanic of any description, or a day laborer. At the depot hundreds of thousands feet of timber are lying on the ground for the want of teams and men to carry it to its destination. There is unexampled energy in every department of ship building—more tons and more value will be launched upon the Merrimac this year, than in any previous season since the settlement of the country.—There are building now, after all the ships that have gone away—or certain to be built under contract, this season, no less than fourteen ships and some half dozen smaller vessels; and new engagements at higher prices, are being pressed upon the master carpenters every week. One of the ships on the stocks, at Currier & Townsend's yard, is larger than was ever before built here. The expenditure of a million dollars—and it will exceed that this year—in ship building, does not fail to add to the wealth of the city, and after all the talk of enterprise and progress in the new towns, we doubt whether any of them are having more substantial growth.

The scarcity of materials and the high price of mechanical labor, prevents the erection of houses and stores to a great extent, or we should be more busy in that department than ever before; but, as it is, there are some twenty five or thirty dwellings now in process of erection, and others, probably two school houses among the number, are to follow.—Rents keep pace with the building, and never was the demand for houses of moderate rents so great. Houses building at present prices, are equal to 10 per cent. stock. The returns of the assessors are not completed, but we shall be disappointed if a full half million more wealth is not found by them, this year, than last.

A NEW CURRENCY.—A novel mode has been invented in Ohio of paying the laborers on the public works. An elegant check plate has been finished, the checks from which are to be given to the laborers in their own names, and must state the exact services performed by each one. These checks must be presented by the holders to the auditor, who draws an order for the amount mentioned on the State Treasurer. The laborers being unable, of course, to go to Columbus for the money on their checks, will be obliged to pay them out for goods, provisions, &c., so that before long they will doubtless form a part of the circulating currency of Ohio.

A SEDUCTION CASE.—We learn from the Selma (Alabama) Sentinel, that at the late term of the Circuit Court for Green county, a certain M. D. was mulcted in a verdict of ten thousand dollars for seducing the daughter of one of his patients in Tuscaloosa county, some time last fall.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1854.

WHY AND BECAUSE.

The Washington Union, after giving the resolutions from the state of Connecticut on the Nebraska bill, comments upon the spirit which actuates the coalition between whigs and abolitionists, which is so rapidly being consummated at the north, and expresses its surprise that the real object in the late opposition to the Nebraska bill was not perceived by all democrats. It was no fear that slavery would go into Nebraska, nor was it any sincere regard for the Missouri compromise; the real object was to defeat the bill, that the question might be kept open as the basis of a sectional organization that should break up the old parties, and either place the power of the government in the hands of such leaders as Seward and Sumner, or force a dissolution of the Union.

The above paragraph, which we copy from the Boston Post, is doubtless a fair abstract of the official article in the Union,—and we commend it to the special notice of our Democratic readers, for whose special benefit it was written.

It is true, beyond all question, that all the abolitionists and all the whigs in Congress from New England, opposed the bill,—and that the men of both these parties opposed it at home.

But we cannot see why our good New England Democrats need to care what object those two incendiary parties had in view.

The Union will do something much more to the purpose, when it tells us and all the rest of mankind what object all the Democrats (but six) in Congress from New England had, when they opposed the bill. Will it please to tell us what object the democrats of Maine had, in their opposition at home, or what was the object of those in New Hampshire, who expressed their dissent? Did they wish to elect Seward and Sumner? Or did they wish to dissolve the Union? We do not believe either of the suppositions.

The pretence is a specimen of special pleading, and rather hard at that. The great body of the democrats in New Hampshire, could they have passed on the bill per se, without outside influence, would have voted against it. If not, why was the question so carefully kept from being the issue in the late election?

For the Chronicle.

WAR.

The Boston Atlas of May 27, states that "Mr. Clayton, the leading member of the Committee on Foreign Relations, it is said, is of opinion that war with Spain will commence within ninety days." His position and knowledge of the views of the Administration will give much weight to his opinion. There is no probability that Congress will declare war, because no cause for it can be assigned; but under the plea that the Executive and his Southern leaders will provoke it, and then will follow the declaration—that "war exists by the act" of Spain. In the distance, we may now discover in the political horizon, only a dark speck no bigger than the hand, which may swell to a destructive tornado. There is abundant reason to believe that France and England would become Spanish allies in such a contest, because they are interested in their W. I. possessions and commerce with the nations bordering on the Gulf of Mexico, which is a great inland ocean. The consequences of such a war, and, if once commenced, when it would terminate, are grave considerations.—There would be neither glory nor profit in its results.

The careful observer of the signs of the times can hardly fail to see strong indications in high quarters as well as some very low quarters, that the spirit for foreign conquest may terminate, for a season, our career of national prosperity. The old doctrine—"cultivate peace with all nations"—seems to have given place to the War spirit. T.

EXCITEMENT IN BOSTON.—Scarcely had the echo of the Nebraska guns died away on Boston Common, when the bay of the blood hound was heard in Court Square, and blood was shed in the Court House. The man who fell, was not the fugitive who was guilty of having a dark skin, and is charged with the crime of stealing himself; but a white man, a citizen of Charlestown, a truckman hired and engaged for the first and only time to guard the fugitive slave law from violation, and aid in sending back the bondman to his master. The murderer is by some supposed to be a negro by the name of Nelson Hopewell, who is in custody and will doubtless be tried for his life.

The state of things in Boston for the last three days, does not indicate a conquest of prejudice; and does not show the fugitive law to be a peace making instrument; but it does show that the fanaticism of slavery, which by atrocious law and false pretence would crush out all freedom from Massachusetts, has provoked the fanaticism of liberty, which because it cannot reach the great men who make the law, strikes down one of the humblest instruments of its execution.

The whole operation of the fugitive law, so far, has been to increase agitation on the subject of which it treats; and it seems to be about equally successful in producing this effect, in cases of failure or of success in getting its victim.

BOSTON SLAVE CASE.

The Boston papers are full of it. The Courier of Monday morning says:

The President, having been informed that the United States troops had been called upon, telegraphed on Saturday to Marshal Freeman, approving of his course thus far, and counselling him to execute the laws of the country at all hazards, and at any cost.

The post mortem examination of the body of Mr. Batchelder disclosed the fact that his murder was not caused by the contents of a blunderbuss, but that he was stabbed in the lower part of the bowels; the wound was over two inches wide, and the knife penetrated six inches. The only words that the poor man uttered, upon receiving the mortal wound, was, "I am stabbed." The widow of the murdered man, when the news of the death of her husband reached her, was in the yard of her house at Charlestown. The terrible tidings for a time dethroned her reason; but she is now rational. It is to be hoped that Congress will render prompt aid—in so far as it can by money—to the widow and orphan of this man who died in defence of the laws of the country. A life pension should be extended to her without delay. Promptness on the part of the lawgivers, in this case, will have a moral effect which the enemies of peace cannot overcome.

Up to ten o'cloek on Sunday night the number of persons arrested for riotous conduct and disturbing the peace in the vicinity of the Court House was fifty-three. Of this number about forty individuals were discharged upon "parole of honor."

An attempt was made on Saturday evening to raise money to purchase Burns from his owner, which was quite successful. It was intended to execute the bond during the night, and the counsel for the prisoner and the District Attorney were in attendance at the Marshal's office for the purpose of witnessing the transaction until a very late hour at night.—The sum fixed upon by the owner of Burns was $1200, and that was not raised, however, until after 12 o'clock, and it being then Sunday, the negociation was necessarily suspended. Whether the bargain will be closed today or not, is doubtful, as many persons are of opinion that the strength of the civil authorities cannot be tested unless Burns is removed, at least, on shipboard.

Col. Suttle has been admonished by his friends at home not to sell the man, and thus the case stands at present. In consequence of this state of things, the Abolitionists yesterday issued a proclamation to their friends "to be on their guard against all lies"—to "watch the slave pen"—and calling on "every man to attend the trial" on Monday morning.

A paragraph has appeared in one of the Sunday papers containing statements in connection with the names of Messrs. Thomas B. Curtis and W. W. Greenough, which requires correction. They were not appointed to negotiate the purchase of Burns, but were desirous, for obvious reasons, that he should be liberated before midnight on Saturday. They have never had or sought any interview with Colonel Suttle. The delay which occurred with regard to the purchase of Burns, &c., was understood to have arisen from questions of legal costs; nor is it within the knowledge of Messrs. Curtis & Greenough that any officer of the United States government was disposed to defeat the negotiation.

The Boston papers of Monday state that the project of ransoming Burns had failed.—The Journal says:

Mr. Suttle, the owner of Burns, had agreed to accept the sum of $1200 in cash as the price of Burns, on condition that some matters relative to the costs appertaining to the case should be adjusted between the signers and the Marshal, that night before the hour of 12. So far the parties were agreed, but 12 o'clock came round, and the conditions were not complied with.

It is stated that Mr. Suttle was offered two checks for the amount, but declined accepting them, for the reason that the matter relative to the costs had not been arranged with the Marshal by the signers, and that he had no assurance that the payment of the checks would not be stopped before the opening of the Banks this morning; and further, he had no guarantee that he should not be troubled with further arrests. As the matter now stands, Mr. Suttle considers the negotiation so far as it was made on Saturday evening, entirely null and void.

At 11 o'clock on Monday the hearing was resumed. C. M. Ellis, for the defence, said:

It is not fit that this body of armed men should stand round here and prevent access to the Court House. He charged that the show of force on the part of the government had created the excitement. They asked that the Court should be held in such time and place as would remove these objections. It is not fit that we should go on if these things be true.

The Commissioner said that the case must proceed.

B. F. Hallett said the force here was rendered necessary by the acts of the friends of the counsel. The Commissioner tried to stop Mr. Hallett, but he declined to take his seat until he had stated that the Marshal had done his duty. Mr. Ellis remonstrated against this proceeding of the U. S. District Attorney, in disobeying the commands of the Court, and renewed his motion for postponement.

The Commissioner decided again that the case must proceed.

The testimony, as far as reported in the 2d edition of the Boston evening papers, is not worth our copying in detail, but may be briefly stated to be distinct and positive.—Messrs. Suttle, the claimant, and Burns, his friend, testify that Suttle owns Burns.

A gentleman who passed the day in Boston, says that the city was filled with people, many of them from the country; and the interest felt in the trial is intense.

LOCAL.

GAURD OF LIBERTY.

Ned Buntline, Commander-in-Chief of the Guard of Liberty, lectured on Saturday evening, at the Temple, in this city, and formed a company of the Guard in this place, at the close of his lecture.

On Sunday evening he lectured again in the same place to a crowded audience. His lectures were American and anti-Romish, especially anti-Jesuitical, and were marked by boldness and decision. He denounced the foreign military companies which are formed in this country, against which we have spoken repeatedly. And he mentioned the well-known atrocious massacre of St. Bartholomew, as an illustration of the spirit of the Romish Church, which professes to be changeless.

He saw in the immense influx of Romanists with their foreign allegiance and Jesuit managers, a reason for the organization of an American Guard of Liberty, who should train and arm, stand by American laws, and support our own government in keeping order.

LIBRARIES.

Of making many books there is no end, says Solomon, in one of his books written long, long ago. And if Solomon were round about here now, we fancy he would not alter this saying. But he adds: Much study is a weariness of the flesh. So it is; but when thus wearied, there are books in this day, of which Solomon never dreamed, which recreate the mind and so refresh the body, and thereby tend to make the flesh fair and flourishing.

The professional man, the scholar, the man of scientific research, all of these have their private libraries, their working libraries, as they call them, where they dig and delve and study. The books for this purpose, they buy, often with scanty means. Besides these they need books of reference, not to be studied generally, but some to be read, and more to be consulted only when some items of knowledge is wanted.

This want is supplied in a measure by great public, or joint stock Libraries. Our Athenæum is of the latter class.

But besides books of art, science and professional knowledge, there is a vast storehouse of literature comprising History, Biography, Travels, Voyages, Novels, Romances, and Poems. Can any man of moderate means buy them all? Could his house hold them? Can any one person read them all? No, no, no.

But they will all be read by somebody: and many people are able and willing to hire a book and read it, who do not wish to own it, or are not able to do so. Into this place comes the Circulating Libraries, offering a range of literature not embraced in any private library, for the use of which only a trifling consideration has to be paid.

Most of our book-sellers have circulating libraries, to which their several advertisements and catalogues furnish a key.

In particular, one of them, Mr. J. F. Shores, Jr., has a library, the foundation of which dates as far back as the days of our old publishers, W. & D. Treadwell, from whom it passed to that eminent book-seller Charles Pierce, from him to James F. Shores, senior, and then to Junior, who knows and can describe and select the standard works in each department. The best of the old works have been preserved; the new books added, constantly and literally. Catalogues are given to any who wish to use them.

LAUNCH.—The beautiful clipper ship named Sierra Nevada, of 2000 tons, will be launched this afternoon at about three o'clock, from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island.

The ship is 225 feet long, 44 feet wide, 27 1-2 feet deep, and is the largest merchant ship ever built on the river. She is owned by Messrs. Glidden & Williams, and will load in their line for California.

In about four weeks, a full ship of 800 tons, building for Capt. Richard Tucker, of Wiscasset, Me., for the Charleston trade, will be launched from the same yard.

☞ Rev. Mr. Armitage, late assistant minister of St. John's Church in this city, has accepted an invitation to take charge of the Episcopal Church at Augusta, Maine, and is about to take up his residence in that city. He has resided here about two years, and the Society have become warmly attached to him. He leaves a large circle of friends, whose best wishes go with him in the new field of his pastoral labors.

PERSONAL.—By a telegraphic des patch from New York this morning, intelligence is received of the sudden death of Thomas Hale, Esq., one of the Vice Presidents of the Atlantic Insurance Company. Mr. Hale was a native of Newburyport, and has many relatives and personal friends in this city and State.—Several of his elder brothers have been connected for many years with insurance companies in Boston and New York, and the deceased was extensively known in commercial circles. We hear that his death was occasioned by an attack of the erysipelas.—Boston Transcript of Monday Evening.

Mr. Hale was a resident of Portsmouth nearly 30 years ago, when he was a partner with Mr. Daniel Knight. His age was about 54.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—A terrible scene was witnessed on board the steamboat Star, this evening. The boat from Red Bank, with nearly 1000 passengers, took fire around the smoke stack, when about one mile from the landing. Prompt measures were taken to extinguish the flames, and the boat was headed for the nearest wharf, when the passengers were safely landed and the fire extinguished. During the excitement many of the passengers could hardly be restrained from leaping overboard.

SEVEN MEN KILLED.—The powder mills of Loffiin & Smith, about three miles back of Saugerties, Ulster county, New York, blew up on Thursday morning, killing seven men and blowing six houses in the vicinity all to pieces. The buildings were of no great value. The principal loss will be from the destruction of stock and interruption of the works. The latter loss will be pretty serious, as this is the largest mill in the state, and next to the largest in the United States.—This mill has blown up five or six times before.

ESCAPE OF A MARINE.—While the Court House is guarded by a detachment of Marines, the Yard in Charlestown is almost deserted. We learn that an aged sergeant of Marines and three men, compose the present military force of the establishment. This being the case, a marine, who was on trial for desertion, embraced the chance, and quickly cut and run from a situation which he regarded as unpleasant and dangerous. The officers have not yet been able to find any clue to his whereabouts.—Boston Chronicle.

Four rowdy students from Cambridge were before the Boston Police Court a few days since, for drunkenness and assault upon officers in the night. One was fined $5 and costs; another was bound over for trial at the Municipal Court; and the other two were sentenced to jail for four and six months, by Justice Russell. They appealed and were put under bonds. Three of the four, it is said, are from the South.

Fanny Fern's New Book.

JOSEPH H. FOSTER has just received THE SECOND SERIES OF FERN LEAVES from Fanny's Portfolio. Also fresh supplies of the FIRST SERIES OF FERN LEAVES & LITTLE FERNS. m30

NEW YORK, May 28.—Last evening the church at the corner of Prince and Marion streets was filled with an intelligent audience of white and colored people, to hear Dr. Pennington relate the circumstances connected with the arrest of his brother and nephews.—He showed that he attempted to afford his brother the assistance of counsel, but was unable to do so, the officers at the Marshal's office having deceived him in relation to the time the trial was to take place before the Commissioner.

Hon. E. F. Culver next addressed the audience, showing that a great injustice had been done the brother of Dr. Pennington, and tho' he, up to that time, had advocated peace, he now had the spirit to tear down the building over the Marshal's head. Intense interest was manifested during the proceedings, and much sympathy in behalf of Dr. Pennington.

LATER FROM MEXICO.—New Orleans May 26.—The steamer Orizaba from Vera Cruz, brings news from the city of Mexico up to the 18th.

Santa Anna made a triumphant entry on the 16th General rejoicings were ordered to continue for three days on account of his victory over Alvarez after the abandonment of the seige of Acapulco.

An account from Gen. Caneo says Santa Anna's troops stormed Mount Peregrano on one side and drove the rebel troops down the other.

All the accounts are from government journals, and it is difficult to ascertain the truth.

The news of the passage of the Gadsden treaty reached Vera Cruz on the 11th.

TROY, May 28.—The jury in the case of Henrietta Robinson, charged with murder, after being out nearly three hours, returned with a verdict of guilty. She received the verdict with great boldness, and exclaimed, "Shame on you Judge, you are prejudiced against me." She also charged the jury with being bribed. Sentence was deferred until Monday morning to allow her counsel to bring in a bill of exceptions. The prisoner's conduct, after the rendition of the verdict, was strange, and her manner incoherent.

The City of Manchester, screw steamship, arrived at Philadelphia on Friday, after a ran of fifteen days from Liverpool, with a very large and valuable cargo, 72 cabin passengers and 624 in the steerage, which is the largest number ever brought by a steamer from Europe to this country.

RIOT AT BANGOR.

The Bangor Mercury of the 22d inst., gives the particulars of a riot at Bangor, in which the Deputy Marshals of that city were roughly handled. The Mercury says:

One week ago to day we had occasion to speak of an arrest and attempted rescue at the foot of Union street, on the previous Sunday afternoon. Yesterday afternoon a far more serious difficulty occurred in the same vicinity. Deputies Pratt and Amsden and constable Mayhew, took a drunken, turbulent Irishman, belonging on board the steamer Penobscot, in custody at the wharf, and when proceeding with him to the lock-up, a crowd of Irishmen began to thicken from the numerous dens which cover that vicinity, beset the police and attempted a rescue. For some distance Deputy Amsden succeeded in keeping the crowd clear behind, but when they reached the head of the upper steamboat wharf, the crowd received a large accession of the same bad material, numbering two or three hundred. Here a desperate onslaught was made upon the police, and Deputy Pratt, who is the most powerful officer, and consequently the most feared, was the principal object of attack.—Amsden fought manfully, but, after dealing some very telling blows, was himself disabled by two heavy blows upon the head, apparently with slung shot, or rocks held in the fist, cutting heavy gashes. Deputy Pratt kept his hold of the prisoner and warded off the blows as well as a man could, but the brutal assailants were too many for him. He received several blows from slung shot, rocks, or similar weapons, upon his head and face, one of which crashed in the bridge of his nose and prostrated him. The inhuman and murderous rabble followed up their work by trampling him with their heavy heels upon all parts of his body. He was carried off and medical assistance was rendered by Dr. Seavey.

Constable Mayhew received two or three blows upon his head, but not sufficient to disable him.

Dr. Straw, one of the special deputies, was vigorous in his assistance, and fought well among the rioters, breaking up his cane about their heads, himself receiving no injury.

Mr. H. G. Thaxter was also very efficient in his assistance to the police.

The mob consisted of several hundred, and opposed to them were only five or six men.

When Pratt was felled, the person in custody escaped and ran down to the steamer Daniel Webster, and attempting to jump on board, fell into the water and was carried by the current to the wharf of the steamer Boston, where he was subsequently got off and concealed.

Marshal Boardman, armed with warrants and accompanied by a posse of citizens, was on the spot shortly after the fray, and made search for the assailants, but without success. The ring leader of the rioters was one Haggerty, who dealt the heavy blows upon Amsden, and who was one of the ruffians that fell upon Pratt. He was taken by his brethren and shoved in between two small houses and made his escape. Others, actively engaged in resistance, are known to the police, and it is to be hoped that the most strenuous efforts will be made to discover them and mete out to them the extremity of the law.

During last evening the streets were filled with citizens drawn together by the occurrences above detailed, and much feeling was manifested.

From Dr. Seavey we learn that the injuries Deputy Pratt received are very severe. The whole of his nose from the frontal bone was crushed in, breaking all the bones together with the septum and driving them in upon the palate. His left eye also received considerable injury. His wounds were skilfully dressed, and he is getting along very well, though it will require several months for entire restoration.

Deputy Amsden's wounds were dressed, and he is able to be about to day.

A REVOLUTION IN THE CUISINE.—A patent has recently been taken out by Messrs. Coleman & Stetson, of the Astor House, New York, for a new stove for cooking and warming purposes, in which gas is used for fuel instead of coal or wood. The invention is English. By its application, all kinds of cookery may be made, and rooms heated at a most trifling expense, and without any of the inconveniences usually attached to the common description of fuel. The patent will, we understand, be farmed by a private company in New York.—Boston Herald.

A letter from one of the Delegates to the Western Unitarian Conference, recently in session at Louisville, says:—"Mr. Butler, the murdered man, was a member of the Unitarian Church and Society here, and Mr. Hayward, the pastor, in some remarks on the condition of the society, paid a beautiful and just tribute to his memory—he spoke of him as a fine scholar, a devoted Christian, and earnest coadjutor with him in promoting the cause of religion and virtue in the community. He possessed a high, noble and philanthropic spirit, which made his death a great public calamity. The people spontaneously raised a fund for the support of the afflicted widow and her child.'

Rich and Valuable Mill Property

THE KINGSTON MILLS, situated in the beautiful and thriving Village of Kingston, Marquette County, Wisconsin, are now offered for sale at a low price to close an Estate.

This magnificent property consists of a GRIST AND FLOURING MILL of the most modern construction, with two runs of stones. The supply of water is unfailing and ample at all seasons, with a fall of twelve feet. It commands a vast amount of custom work, sufficient to keep it in full operation the whole year round. The building is four stories high, very large and commodious, and built in the most substantial manner.

Also, a SAW MILL, built after the most approved plan. It has been hitherto rented for one hundred dollars per month.

Also 130 ACRES OF LAND—embracing some choice village lots in Kingston.

This property is within a few miles of the Milwaukie & La Cross Railroad, and within four miles of the navigable waters of the Fox River. A portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage if desired.

Apply to JOSIAH DRUMMOND on the premises, or to CHARLES SMITH, Waupun, Dodge County, Wisconsin, or to JAMES GRAHAM, No. 4 Pine street, New York. m19eod1m

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 2 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will care Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure NursingSoreMouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will care old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

The effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or ticking at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PERMANENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice tendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can have all their business done at the expenses of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, who came actively that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———,

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good order and pair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equidistant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

A TRIP DOWN EAST.

BY TRIM, JR.

CHAPTER I.

The Voyage—Frankfort—The Steam Mill—Belfast—Steamboats—The Canoe—Bangor—Arrival at Old Town.

Last summer, Trim, jr. took a jaunt down east, and he proposes to give the readers of the Chronicle an account of his adventures there. One beautiful summer morning, we started from the ancient town of Kittery in the good topsail schooner Emery, whereof Thomas O. Hoyt was master. After proceeding as far as Boon Island, the wind died away, and we laid there becalmed all night,

"As idle as a painted ship,
Upon a painted Ocean."

The next morning a fine breeze sprung up and we sailed along the shore on our course. The sea was very smooth, the weather fair, and everything prosperous. We passed successively, the Damariscota, Pemmaquid, Manheigan, and Mosquito islands, on each of which light houses are placed. We next passed the little village of St. George. It is a beautiful village, lying at the head of a smooth cove, and half concealed by the dark forest trees through which it peeps out. During the next night we entered the Penobscot Bay. This bay is about forty eight miles in length, and as we sailed along we could see the land on both sides very distinctly. Near its entrance, and bordering on a beautiful little bay called Saturday Cove, is the village of Northport. We passed this, and the village of Illesborough and the city of Belfast, and then came Brigadier's Island. It is almost entirely covered with dark pines—only one house could be seen there, and that one is said to be haunted. Pretty soon we came to the Penobscot River, at the mouth of which stands Fort Point Light. Close by here, on a high bluff of land, are two large, fine looking churches, standing all alone, with no village nearer than Prospect, which is about two miles distant.

The scenery along the banks of the Penobscot is very beautiful. The river is hemmed in by high hills, covered with green trees of every shade of color and shape; from the dark cone-like spruce and fir, to the graceful, pale green maple. We next passed Bucksport.—This is a large and flourishing village. There are a great many trees scattered through it, which give it a fresh, pleasing appearance—but after all, there was a kind of newishness about the place which I never like. Just opposite this village is the partly completed Fort Knox. It is built of brown stone, and is very handsome; but what a fort is wanted here for, I cannot imagine; I would as soon think of looking for one on the top of Agameticus. Just above Bucksport there is a long sweep of barren rocks, called, and very appropriately, too, Poverty Shore.

All along the river, on both sides, are weirs, a kind of pen built of stakes and net work, in which silly shads and alewives are caught. We now passed Mosquito Mountain, a high, bold hill, and came to the little village of Frankfort, where we anchored, and soon after went ashore on the logs with which the stream was half covered. In the afternoon we visited the steam saw mill here. About one hundred men are engaged in this mill, half working by day and half by night. The lumber comes down the river in rafts, and is drawn into the mill by steam power. There are in this mill two gang-saws, one having fifteen and the other seventeen saws, placed just an inch apart, so as to saw a whole log into boards at once. There are also two large single saws for cutting out timber, and twelve circular saws, including those used in making laths and boxes. It is said that seventy five thousand feet of lumber are sawed here daily, making during the ten months which the mill runs, 18,000,000 feet. Even the sawdust is saved; and it is made as fast as four schooners can carry it to Boston, or about two hundred cords a week.

The next morning I started down the river in the steamer Daniel Webster. This is a noble boat. It is finely finished, and supplied with every convenience. Pretty soon we arrived at Belfast, where I stopped to visit some friends. During the afternoon and evening, I walked all over the city and visited all its places of note, among which was the cemetery. There are many fine large monuments here, and many more grassy mounds without even a stone to tell who rested there. Belfast is a very pretty place. It is a new city, and the people seem to be quite proud of the name. The next morning I started for Frankfort again in the steamer Boston. After walking round awhile, I noticed an Indian canoe among the baggage. Directly the owners, three Indians of the Penobscot tribe, made their appearance. I soon became acquainted with them, and after some conversation received an invitation to visit Old Town, their home. I at once complied, and so went directly to Bangor in the steamer. As we drew near the city, I noticed a large number of vessels moored to the banks of the river, taking in lumber from rafts in the water. Bangor is quite a large place, and apparently very thriving and prosperous. The principal business here appears to be lumbering. I don't like cities, and so pretty soon went up to the railway station, and waited for the Old Town train of cars. This road is called the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad. I didn't like the agent at all. If Trim jr. was president of their road, that agent's services would be dispensed with at once. The cars were ready at last. We jumped in and passed along on our way. A large fire had been along that way a little while before, and everything looked charred and desolate. After a long drill, for a ride of a dozen miles, we arrived at the place of our destination. I stepped in a curious looking boat called a batteau, and five minutes after landed in Indian Old Town.

How different girls are now from what they used to be, said the kind Mrs. Partington, as she saw a neighbor's daughter streaming through the street, instead of coming home from school. There is no trusting of 'em now out of sight, and they don't keep in sight long enough to trust 'em. When I was a girl I could be trusted all day with a baby, all alone, in a two story house, that was a mussing, and never found wanting. She reached out of the window to look after the romping school girl, and Ike lay upon the floor, like a frog, making additions with a piece of white chalk to the scarlet flowers of the kidderminster carpet.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1854.

THE BOSTON SLAVE CASE.

Most of the items on the trial of Burns for for the alleged crime of being a slave, are of little interest; but we copy a few of the best.

On Monday afternoon, the prisoner's counsel, Mr. Ellis, objected to a witness, Mr. Brent, repeating the statement made to him by the prisoner. He quoted from the law—"in no trial or hearing under this act shall the testimony of such alleged fugitive be admitted in evidence," and urged, that under this provision what Burns told Col. Suttle in Mr. Brent's hearing could not be taken as evidence.

Mr. Thomas replied that this did not debar the witness from repeating what Burns told him—and he quoted from the case of Sims to show that during that trial, Sims's confession that he was a slave, was taken as evidence.

The witness then detailed the answers of Burns to Col. Suttle's questions, which were admissions that Suttle had been kind to Burns, had given him money when he wanted, attended him when sick, and nursed him on his own bed. During the interview Burns expressed a willingness to go back to Virginia, but the precise language the witness could not recollect. Burns's mother lives on one of Col. Suttle's plantations, and his brothers and sisters live in Richmond and and other parts of Virginia. The counsel for the claimant here insisted upon asking the witness whether Burns has been treated as a slave, but the counsel for prisoner objected. The Court ruled for the admission of all facts tending to show that Burns was a slave of Col. Suttle. The witness stated that he hired Burns to work for him at one time, and that Col. Suttle then let him and described him as a slave. On another occasion Col. Suttle mortgaged a portion of his property for the purpose of raising money, and Burns was included.

Cross Examined.—At the time of his escape Burns was in the employ of C. A. Millspost, and it was to John M. Tolson that he and other negroes were mortgaged. It was in a room in the upper part of the Court House that witness heard conversation with the master. The witness knew only by hearsay that persons in Virginia were Burns's brothers and sisters, and that his mother lived on Col. Suttle's plantation.

We have little or no doubt of Burns being a runaway slave: but the evidence in the case is rather slender, resting on the testimony of two witnesses, one the claimant, and another who came with him without any bargain for pay, after the manner of the volunteer witnesses in the liquor cases. Besides this, there is Burns's own testimony which the law itself says shall not be admitted.

At 6 o'clock on Monday afternoon, the Commissioner adjourned his Court to Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Parker, one of the counsel for the claimant, says in relation to the sale, that "on Sunday morning a conditional check of $400 was withdrawn from me by the drawer thereof.—This wholly absolved the claimant from his agreement. And now, the claimant being advised thereto by many lovers of law and order, declines to negotiate further until it is first established that the supremacy of the law can be maintained."

The Courier of Tuesday morning says—

The statement that the owner of the slave Burns had refused to sell, is, we understand, incorrect. By the laws of Virginia, a slave belonging to that state cannot be sold except within the limits of the State, where the money must be paid before he can be set free.

The hearing before Commissioner Loring was resumed at 9 o'clock, A. M., and continued up to the time when the afternoon trains left Boston for this city; order was prevailing; much indignation was expressed at the refusal of Suttle to sell his slave; and the evidence and pleas in the afternoon, seemed to look as if the prisoner might not be legally proved a slave after all.

Mr. Ellis, for the defence, said,—

If this Court is not a judicial one, as has been declared, it cannot take cognizance of the Virginia records here produced—it cannot undertake to acknowledge the seals of all the Courts of the different States, certainly not without proof of their identity. The claim of possession of this man is no evidence whatever that he is a slave; and he here cited authorities to prove that mere personal description was no proof of the party being held in slavery—it must be shown that his mother was a slave. Neither can the prisoner's confessions be received as evidence against him, especially in such a case as this, as was shown by several authorities quoted from.

Witnesses were introduced for the defence, who testified that Burns was in Boston on the 1st and 4th of March, though the witnesses for the claimant had testified that he was in Virginia on the 14th.

By a telegraphic despatch received last evening, we were informed that no decision had then been made in the case, and probably would not be before Thursday.

A GOOD HIT.—In Court square, yesterday, a man in the crowd, with great irreverence, suggested that the three thousand clergymen be brought out to disperse the mob.

"Yes," said a bystander, 'set 'em to preaching and no mob could ever stand against it.—Boston Post.

"Mr. H.," who represents "one of the upper western wards" in the New York Common Council, after suffering a night's confinement in the Station House, was taken before Justice Wood on Friday morning, who fined him $5 and costs for "drunkenness and disorderly conduct." The Councilman is indignant about the matter, denies that he was drunk, and says "the end of the case is not yet"—which, being translated, means "a resort to arms."

COMMISSIONER LORING.

Before this gentleman, as United States Commissioner, in Boston, the claimant of the slave Burns made his claim, and before him the case was tried. We think the Commissioner has been harshly dealt with on both sides. He has been a commissioner fifteen years, having taken his oath at the commencement of that period, and so is liable to have such cases brought before him.

Theodore Parker says of Mr. Loring:

I have respected and honored that man.—In private life he is blameless and universally beloved. I have known him well, and never heard a mean word from his lips, but many good words. I have respected him as a kind hearted and charitable man, a good neighbor and a firm friend. And I should as soon have expected that venerable man before me, (pointing to an aged gentleman in the audience,) who was born before the Revolution, of attempting to arrest Robert Morris, or any other colored brother, as have expected the arrest of a fugitive slave under a warrant issuing from the hand of Mr. Loring. Therefore—

I deliberately charge it upon you, Edward Greeley Loring, Judge of Probate for the County of Suffolk, United States Commissioner, before the citizens of Boston, on this Ascension Sunday, assembled to worship God—I charge you deliberately with the murder of a man on Friday night last.

I charge you with putting in peril the lives of nine men, who were arrested, charged with that murder.

I charge you with filling Boston Court House with one hundred and eighty-four hired ruffians, and alarming not only our own citizens, but stirring up the whole population of this Commonwealth, and filling them with indignation, of the results of which no man has yet seen the end."

This is one side; for the other, let us look at the New York Herald of Saturday, which says:

The conduct of the Commissioner is mysterious. It certainly exhibited great weakness on his part. With proper firmness the riot might have been avoided. He had all the evidence required by law at the first examination, and there could have been no doubt upon his mind as to these facts:—First, that Burns was a fugitive slave; second, that he was the property of Mr. Suttle. Why, then, did not Mr. Commissioner Loring do his duty, and give up the slave to his master, and provide protection for the slave and master while the latter chose to remain in Boston, and safe conduct when he should see fit to leave that city? That was his duty; and if he has not back bone enough to do his duty according to his oath of office, he should resign at once.

No, Mr. Commissioner Loring paltered and and succumbed to and played with the abolitionists, and they, taking advantage of his weakness, first got out a process against the claimant of the slave and his witness, by which they were compelled to give bail in five thousand dollars to appear and defend a suit brought against them for conspiracy to kidnap; and also stirred up all the black and white traitors in the city to break open the Court House and shoot down the officers of justice. That's what Mr. Loring has done, and his imbecility will receive, as it richly deserves, the contempt and derision of the whole country.

The reader will perceive that Mr. Parker charges his friend Loring with the murder of Batchelder, because he issued the warrant for the arrest of Burns; while the New York Herald charges him with the same crime for postponing the case.

The simple truth seems to be, that Loring, an honest, conscientious man, felt himself bound by his oath of office to perform a disagreeable duty; but that he did not, as counselled by a late lamented statesman, do this duty with alacrity. And then, in this case, as in any other, he supposed that on a reasonable plea, he was bound to grant the postponement of the hearing.

His position was, therefore, one of peculiar difficulty; as must be that of any man who endeavors to execute an unjust and unrighteous human law, but finds within himself the law of kindness which God has written on his heart. Atrocious laws are most successfully enforced by atrocious men. Such an one, we are persuaded, is not Mr. Commissioner Loring.

THE BOSTON ADVERTISER.—This old and respectable journal, on Monday, in some excellent remarks upon the popular excitement, alludes to the effect produced by the breach of faith just consummated by the passage of the Nebraska bill. It says, with great truth, that it has produced a severe shock upon the feelings of the whole community throughout the free States. We copy the following paragraph:

The difficulty which has always existed in enforcing the execution of the fugitive slave law, is greatly increased by this exasperation of the public feeling. Many persons who have hitherto used their utmost exertions, and hazarded their influence in carrying into effect the compromise measures, on the footing on which they understood them to stand, are entirely disgusted and disheartened, in finding themselves placed in the unexpected position of being held to a compromise, which is binding on but one side. We are not, however, aware that the number of those who are disposed to violate the laws of the land, or to be guilty of a breach of the peace, is increased by this violation of faith by the representatives of the south; but it cannot surprise any one, that such an act should diminish the ardor of some men in enforcing an odious law, enacted for the exclusive benefit of those who have made so ungracious a return for it.

LOCAL.

THE GIFT CONCERT.

The entertainment at the Temple this evening, it is expected, will be one of the most brilliant ever given in this city. Besides the attractions of the performance named—the Grand Piano, and the beautiful articles to be distributed among the ticket holders—a youthful pianist of this city is expected to appear, who will show musical skill which La petite Camilla Urso, or "La petite Familiar Also" can't much outshine.

Among the good things with which Mr. Clark will favor the audience, is a very neat and spirited composition of his own, which he entitles the "Strawberry Bank Polka," and dedicates to his piano pupils in Portsmouth.

It will be seen that, by request, if the comfort of the original ticket holders will allow, a few simple admission tickets will be issued at the door, at half-past 7—for 25 cents.

FOURTH OF JULY.

If any thing is to be done on this day in this city, it is high time to begin the work of preparation. A friend who is a fireman, informs us that there will be a Firemen's parade that day, and if the city government says so, there may be a splendid one of that kind.

We had expected to see, before this time, an appropriation by the city for a festival procession, and for some other branches of pleasant notice of the day. It is gratifying to many, especially to the young, to have the day observed in some way; as a holiday, a day of recreation, if not of patriotic devotion and remembrance.

☞ The clipper ship Sierra Nevada, according to notice, was launched on Tuesday afternoon, from the yard of Messrs. Toby & Littlefield, Noble's Island. It was intended to call her the "King of the Forest," and that name is now on her quarters. The name has been changed as above.

SUICIDE AT EXETER.—William Burton, a laboring man, committed suicide in Exeter, by drowning, on Tuesday morning, about 6 o'clock. He attempted to destroy himself, by cutting his throat, on Sunday last, but failed to cut deep enough to accomplish his purpose.

Burton had two watchers on Monday night, but one of them had fallen asleep, and he sent the other to get him some water, and in his absence, left the house and jumped into the river. We have no further particulars of the sad affair.

Telegraphic despatches were sent down on Tuesday, from Boston to this city, calling the Marines from the Navy Yard to Boston, to increase the guard of the slave court. The company, numbering but twenty-nine men, under the command of Capt. Young, left in 4 1-2 o'clock train for Boston.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT WEST POINT.—Cadet Smead, of Virginia, a member of the 1st class at the government military academy, was severely injured on the morning of the 18th, while "charging" upon the plain. His horse, going at great speed, fell, or threw him with awful violence upon the ground, while the horses in his rear plunged over him before they could be stopped. He was horribly mangled and ever since the acbident he has been entirely insensible. It is somewhat doubtful whether he recovers.

"FULL AND AUTHENTIC."—The title page of the trial of Matt. F. Ward, from the press of the Appletons, makes no reference to the offence of the accused. Ninety six of the one hundred and seventy five pages are devoted to the defence of Ward; forty six pages are occupied with the report of the testimony, and four lines are given to a "full and authentic" report of the great speech of the leading counsel for the government.—Boston Trans.

Dr. Andrew McFarland, formerly superintendent of our Asylum for the Insane, has been appointed superintendent of a similar institution in Illinois, by the authorities of that State. Dr. McFarland is an accomplished scholar and writer, and is admirably qualified for the place.—Manchester Mirror.

Capt. William E. Molthrop emigrated from New Haven to Oregon about eight months ago, and by the last steamer we have news that his three daughters were all married at Wapato in one day, the 29th of March. This may encourage the emigration of families containing several marriageable young ladies.

PREDICTION.—The New York Herald says everything is overdone in that city, and adds: "In a short time there will be smashing work among the dry goods establishments, hotels, newspapers, opera houses, and various other extraordinary enterprises of the day."

The will of Mrs. Jane Wilson, of Steubenville, Ohio, has been broken, thus giving her relatives property to the amount of $214,000. She had bequeathed it to the Foreign and Home Missionary Societies of the Presbyterian Church. The will was contested on the ground that she was not of sound mind.

William Jones, of Perrysville, Pa., having drank three quarts of whiskey every twenty four hours for three weeks, concluded to murder his mother. He stabbed her three times with a knife, and drenched her with buckets of water, without accomplishing his purpose.—The noise at length attracted the neighbors, and the old woman was saved.

Under direction of

MR. H. S. THOMPSON,

The popular Composer, Singer and Concert-giver, now of Newburyport.

The Club consists of two Ladies and two Gentlemen Singers, with a Lady to accompany on the Piano.

The Instrument to be used for accompaniment on this occasion will be one of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s splendid seven-octave GRAND PIANO FORTES,—the richest and most powerful Piano ever brought into this city. It is new, and is valued at about $800.

Besides the above attractive performers,

Mr. L. H. JOHNSON, of Boston, and
Mr. J. W. CLARK, of this city, have kindly consented to add to the entertainment, by performing on the Grand Piano.

Programme.

ADMISSION.

The Tickets of Admission will be those headed "Portsmouth & Boston Mutual Benefit Association," and dated May 10th, 1854.

TICKETS ONE DOLLAR, for sale by W. R. Preston, J. P. Morse, Geo. W. Towle & Co., J. S. Harvey & Son, J. H. Head, W. B. Lord, and R. Hilton.

Should any Tickets remain unsold, (which from present appearances is not probable,) they may be had at the Door.

As there are many Tickets sold out of Portsmouth, and which will not be represented in the audience—by request, a few Tickets of Admission, entitling the holders to no share in the Gifts, will be issued at the Door, at 25 cents; but not until half-past 7 o'clock, and not unless the comfort of the original ticket-holders will warrant it.

Doors open at 7. Concert to commence at quarter of 8.

$25 Reward.

THE subscriber will pay to any person or persons who will give information whereby sufficient proof can be obtained against the unprincipled cowardly villain, who on Saturday night May the 13th, or the next morning, dropped on my premises poison, thereby injuring my property to a considerable amount, and endangering the lives of my swine, horses, &c., also jeopardizing the lives of my family.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, May 29.

SENATE.—In the Senate, this morning, a message was received from the President, communicating a copy of Mr. Sanford's report upon the penal codes in France and other European countries.

Mr. Gwin offered a resolution providing for an adjournment of Congress on Monday, 3d July.

The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up, when Mr Badger made a personal explanation.

The Deficiency bill was taken up, and several House amendments were disagreed to, and a Committee of Conference asked for and granted.

Mr. Brodhead's motion to reconsider the vote directing the printing of 37,000 additional copies of the Agricultural part of the Patent Office—the report was taken up, discussed at length and agreed to.

Mr. Brodhead moved an amendment, that the printing should be done by the Senate printer. A discussion ensued and the amendment was agreed to—yeas 23, nays 11.

The bill authorizing the coinage of $100 and $50 gold pieces was read to the Senate, and its consideration postponed to to-morrow.

After a short Executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Faulkner of Virginia asked leave to offer the following resolution: "That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the cause of the recent death of James Batchelder, a Deputy Marshal of the United States who, it is alleged, was murdered in Boston on Friday night last, while engaged in enforcing a law of the Union, against a violent and treasonable mob; and if they find that he was killed as is reported, while in the performance of a patriotic duty, and has left a widow and children, that the committee be further instructed to report a bill making a liberal provision for their relief."

Mr. Dean of New York objected, saying it was a matter belonging to the Executive.—Let him enforce the laws. Negatived—68 to 50.

The House went into Committee on the Pacific Railroad and Telegraph bills providing for a railroad and telegraph from the Mississippi River at a point not on the north of the 37th parallel of north lat. to San Francisco, and also a railroad and telegraph line, from some point on the northern shore of Lake Superior of the Mississippi river in Minnesota to the waters of the Pacific ocean.

Mr. McDougal spoke at length in its favor. Mr. Shaw made a speech against the policy of distributing among the states.

Gerritt Smith got the floor, saying he intended speaking against the Pacific railroad bill. Committee rose. No business of importance. Adjourned.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Rev. Dr. Pennington has received a letter from Mr. Grove, the claimant from his brother, who was recently taken back from this city, offering to sell him to Dr. Pennington, should he wish to buy him, and stating that he will await a reply before selling him to the slave drivers.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—In the Senate this morning, Mr. Adams offered a resolution directing inquiry by the Committee on Pensions as to the wife and children of Mr. Batchelder, who lost his life in Boston while in the execution of the U. S. laws. Laid over at the suggestion of Mr. Sumner.

DEATH OF A SUB-MARINE OPERATOR.—Buffalo, May 29.—John Pope of Boston, an old and experienced diver, while thirty feet below water, searching for a wreck, on Lake Erie, was killed on Saturday. He went down, but returned and complained of foul air. He, however, again got on his armor and went down; but the deck air pump worked badly, and the blood in his body was forced to his head, from the effects of which he died.

MURDER TRIAL.—Mrs. Henrietta Robinson is on trial at Troy, N. Y., for the murder of Timothy Lanegan. She was a neighbor of Lanegan, and it is not known that she had any quarrel with him or his family, yet she went to an apothecary's shop, bought two ounces of arsenic, took it to Lanegan's house, persuaded the wife of the latter to bring in two glasses of beer from his shop, which was in front, and while the wife had gone for the third glass Mrs. Robinson distributed her arsenic into the two full tumblers before her, and Lanegan and a relative named Catherine Lubee drank at her invitation, and both died of the poison. Mrs. Robinson wears a close veil in Court, and refuses to have her face seen. She stepped to the witness platform and uncovered her face, so that the person who sold her the poison might recognize her. Her counsel explained the conduct as a woman's freak, but the counsel for the government declared that "there were reasons reaching far beyond this trial why this woman desired to sit here veiled—reasons which the Court did not know, but which her counsel did." The defence for this murder is to be the usual plea of insanity.—Boston Courier.

OLD TAMMANY.—Elijah F. Purday, Soft Nebraskian, was on Friday evening chosen Chief Sachem of the Tammany Society in New York, in place of J. V. Fowler, who is not re eligible. The successful candidate as usual called for refreshments for the party.—Speeches, containing some personal reflections, were made, and Daniel E. Delavan, one of the defeated candidates, and a Mr. Brown, got up a fight.

A student in the Princeton; (N. J.) Seminary, named William Crapster, says the Courier, became a Unitarian during his studies, and was not allowed to graduate with the last class.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—In Washington, (D. C.) on Wednesday afternoon, during the storm, Mrs. Roemmale, a married lady about fifty years of age, was struck by lightning and killed upon the spot. She was standing at the time in a rear building attached to her dwelling, which is a two story frame building, together with her grand children. Her position at the time, was in a passage between two doors, and the lightning having struck the roof, perforated it with an aperture of about the size of a musket bullet, striking Mrs. R., who was directly beneath, on the top of the head, and she dropped. The children beside her were injured only slightly. The deceased survived a few minutes after having been struck.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both blunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases but not yours. I peddled out a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts, gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, pauty, sorry looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the column of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the last inconvenience.

A lad in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, teaspoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all conditions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for the insidious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by this Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Parker street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $150. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

BY TRIM, JR.

CHAPTER II.

Maanahant—Mrs. Nicola—The Medicine Man's House—River Drivers—Birch Canoes—Indian Boys—Atien Oassan, the Chief—the Indians.

After landing on the Island, I walked around awhile, talking with every one I could see. At first the Indians said I couldn't stay on the Island, but on learning that I had come a great many miles to see the Penobscots, they changed their minds, and the young Indian, Savatis, found me a place. This Island, which contains one or two hundred acres, is called by the whites Indian Old Town, by the Indians, Maanahant, and here live all who are now left of the once numerous Penobscot Tribe. Pretty soon, Mrs. Marlionzaliqne Nicola, the squaw of the Indian Doctor, or Medicine Man, came down and said that tea was ready. She is a real Indian, about thirty five years old, rather pretty, and very interesting. She has a singularly soft and musical voice when she speaks broken English, and it is yet more musical when she speaks her own tongue. She had for supper, fried venison, broad and tea. She had two bright little boys, Piel Misel and Lola Nicola. It was Saturday night, and I was very tired, so I went into my little bed room and was soon fast asleep.

The next morning I rose quite refreshed.—I had connected with my bed room a little parlor, carpeted, and with a sofa and centre table in it; but after all, everything had an Indian-like look. The more the Penobscots try to look like white men, the more they don't. The Indian peeps out through everything they wear and have and do. After breakfast I went out to reconnoitre the island. There are a great many logs in the river. They are floated down by the River Drivers. These men are obliged to work all the time during the driving season, Sundays and all. No boats or wherries are used—instead of them they have long, narrow, sharp crafts called batteaux. The Indians use birch canoes altogether. They are scattered all over the island, usually hid among the bushes. They are made inside of basket work, and the outside of birch bark sewed on neatly. They are very light, so light that they can be easily lifted with one hand. A great many Indians were walking about this morning. They always use their own language when talking with each other, though the most of them can understand English; a large number, however, especially the children, cannot speak English at all.

Most of the boys were playing with bows and arrows; as I passed a group, I held out my hat, saying, "shoot!" In an instant an arrow glided through the hat and half a dozen rattled against it. The Indians are all Roman Catholics. They have quite a pretty church, with a large wooden cross in front of it, around which the devout kneel. The priest from some cause was away this Sabbath, and so there was no meeting.

There are two chiefs in this tribe, Neptune and Atien Oassan. This morning I received a call from Atien. I suggested, among other things, that it would be better for the Penobscots to go to school and learn. "No," said the chief, "Indian no want book learning; he know now how to kill beaver, moose, deer and bear, More learning makes Indian bad." Afterwards he said, "Once the Penobscots owned all the land to the sea, now you look around and see all that is left. The Penobscots are like feathers when the wind blows; pretty soon they will all be gone."

The State of Maine has secured to the Indians, by treaty, all the islands in the river above Old Town. There are about sixty of the islands. At some seasons the Indians are scattered all up and down the river, but at this time, nearly all were at home. There are about five hundred of them. They are governed by the laws of the State; the chiefs' authority is a mere shadow. They often kill wolves, moose, deer, otters, beavers, and sometimes bears, and other wild animals. Venison forms a large part of their food. They sometimes cook it while fresh, and sometimes cut it into thin slices and dry it in the sun.

Most of the tribe dress very much as we do, but the Indian love of finery shows itself in feathers, medals and fringes. All the women wear black hats shaped something like the Kossuths, many of them having a strip of silver around them. The women do nearly all the out door work, such as planting or cutting wood. They all cook out of doors, hanging their kettles on sticks. They are all extravagantly fond of music and dancing. They have a dance nearly every night. There is a school here, taught by a young white lady; but the Indians don't like schools very well. Some of the young girls are quite pretty, but the most of them are very plain. It is said that they frequently marry and commence having families at from twelve to fourteen years of age.

Mrs. Nicola appeared to like Trim very much, and was doing him little kindnesses all day—now getting a pair of soft moccasins for him to wear, now filling his pipe with tobacco and squowbush, now showing him her silver ornaments, and telling him stories about the Indians. She had several bracelets and about thirty round plates of silver, from the size of a dollar to that of a saucer. All this pleasant Sabbath I was walking rounk, making calls on the various families. Nearly all appeared glad to see a stranger, and were willing to talk with him. In the evening, quite a number of the Indians came up to the doctor's house to see me. We built a fire in front of the house to keep the mosquitoes off, and sat down round it and had a long talk. They told me many old traditions of their tribe, and I told them all the Indian stories which I had ever read or heard.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1854.

BOSTON SLAVE CASE.

The Courier of Wednesday morning says:

There was an abatement of the excitement with regard to the alleged slave, Anthony Burns, yesterday, and the streets were comparatively free of crowds. There was, however, no decline in the interest taken in the fate of the prisoner, and the evidence for the defence, which indicates a mistake in the complaint and gives a hope of escape to Burns, tended to give matters a new complexion. It is alleged in the complaint that "Anthony Burns, on the 24th day of March last, did, and for a long time prior thereto, had owed service and labor to Charles F. Suttle, in the State of Virginia, under the laws thereof; and that while held to service there by said Suttle, the said Burns escaped from the said State of Virginia into the said State of Massachusetts," &c. The testimony for the defence goes to show that Burns was in this city as early as the 5th of March, and here, then, is a conflict of testimony. How far it may be removed or weakened by the rebuttal evidence this morning, and how far it may affect the cause of Burns, remains to be seen; but at any rate it produces an anomalous state of affairs.

Eight or ten witnesses testify that Burns was in Boston early in March.

The Boston Journal of Wednesday evening says:

The hearing in the case of Burns was resumed this morning. There was even less excitement in and around the Court House than there was yesterday. The only unusual appearance was the large military and civic guard which was on duty.

Among the spectators in Court was Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, member of Congress from Ohio.

The Commissioner came in at 9 o'clock, and more rebutting evidence was introduced.

Erastus B. Gould, who has charge of the city building, testified that he employed Jones there on the 26th of March, and at no other time in that month; and that he did not see Burns there.

Benj. True—Have conversed with the deft. (Burns) within a day or two. [Counsel objected to the evidence. The counsel for the claimant proposed to show by this witness, by Burns' admission, that he came to Boston on the 19th of March. Mr. Dana objected that the admissions of the man under arrest should not be received at all. Again he objected because it was not rebutting testimony.

The evidence introduced that Burns was here on the 1st of March was simply contradictory to the testimony for the claimant that Burns was in Virginia on the 29th of March, and they are now simply reinforcing their former testimony. Mr. Thomas (for the claimant) urged that the evidence alluded to by Mr. Brent, was simply to prove the identity of Burns, and not to establish the fact of his being in Virginia on the 29th. The defence propose to prove an alibi, and we introduce this evidence to control their evidence sustaining the alibi.]

After some further discussion between the counsel and commissioner,

Witness resumed.—The conversation was on Friday and Saturday; on Friday conversed with Burns about the length of time he had been here; he said he had been here about two months, perhaps a little short of that time; said nothing else about the time he had been here; he said he had been in Richmond, Va., before that time.

With the close of the examination of this witness, the counsel for the claimant rested their case, and Mr. Dana commenced the closing argument for the defence, and had not closed when the afternoon trains left Boston for this city.

MASSACHUSETTS LAW.

There is a considerable interest, at this moment, in the conflict of laws, State and National, in the Old Bay State,—especially in some points alluded to in the following extracts from the Boston Transcript.

It is well known that our Commonwealth has acted upon the popular Democratic doctrine of non intervention in regard to Fugitive Slaves since the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Pennsylvania case of Prigg. In 1843 an act was passed further to protect personal freedom, by which Judges of the State Courts and Justices of the Peace were forbidden to take cognizance under the act of Congress of 1793 concerning Fugitive Slaves, and all State officers were forbidden to arrest or to detain in public buildings any person for the reason that he is claimed as a fugitive slave. Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Coroners, Constables, Jailers and Justices of the Peace are especially mentioned in this law, and "all other officers of the Commonwealth" are included in the provisions. The penalty for disobedience to this law of non intervention is a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year in the common jail. This statute is found on the 261st page of the supplements of the Revised Statutes. This important law was passed by a Democratic Legislature, and signed by Marcus Morton as Governor. Hon. Benjamin F. Hallett at the time was a member of the Executive Council for the Suffolk District.

It will doubtless be remembered that one of the fugitives arrested here soon after the passage of the Compromise act of 1850, was falsely charged with robbery, and some of our city police were base enough to engage in slave catching under false colors. The Legislature of 1852, in order to put a stop to such despicable business, enacted a law to prevent and punish fraudulent arrests. Had this statute been in existence at the time of the arrest above referred to, the police officers would doubtless have suffered the penalty incurred, and been imprisoned a year in the House of Correction. This law was passed by an Anti-Whig Legislature, and signed by a Democratic Governor.

We add that some Boston papers say, Burns was first arrested on a sham charge of larceny. But reports are so numerous that we receive them all with great caution.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Considerable feeling exists among the northern men here in consequence of an article in the Star of this evening which is considered to be an invocation to personal violence to Mr. Sumner and other anti Nebraska members of Congress.—The Article contains the following language: "If southern gentlemen are to be assaulted and threatened while legally seeking to obtain possession of property, for the use of which they have a solemn constitutional guarantee, if legal rights can only be sought for and established at the bayonet's point, certain men now in our midst will have to evince a little more circumspection than they have ever evinced in their weak talk and acts. If we can contrast the treatment which a southern slaveholder receives at the hands of a northern abolitionist with the treatment which the latter receives at the hands of the former, we may probably assert that among the many virtues which adorn the southern character, forbearance is not the least conspicuous."

This sort of talk puts us in mind of an old Portsmouth Town Meeting. More than twenty years ago, we had some very active police officers, who by their activity had made themselves unpopular with some drunkards, rioters and others; and on town-meeting day quite another board was chosen. In a few hours, and before the new board was qualified, some police offence was committed, and officer Rogers arrested the offender, laying his hand on his shoulder, and saying You're my prisoner. Who are you? said the fellow.—I'm one of the Police, said Rogers, in his usual quiet way. Police! roared out the culprit in great astonishment and wrath; why I thought we had voted that all away in town-meeting.

Much in the same manner has liberty been voted away in Congress, by fugitive bills, Nebraska bills, and others; but still the feeling is not quite crushed out.

DYE'S BANK NOTE MIRROR.—This is an excellent test for Bank Bills; and by a little attention to it, any intelligent person may guard himself against the danger of taking those that are counterfeit or spurious.

The subscription is two dollars per year, and for this, Mr. Dye furnishes the Mirror, correctly posted up in all new counterfeits, semi-monthly; a Bank Note Delineator, once in three months; a Book of Bank Plates once a year; and a Chart of all known Coins, once a year. The whole are valuable to business men. The Mirror has already attained to a circulation of 85,000 copies semi-monthly.

Mr. Gill, an agent for the work, is now in this city, and will present the Mirror to our citizens for their patronage.

THE MUSICAL REPOSITORY, No. 27, published by F. Parker, Cornhill, Boston, contains one piece, viz:

Chide Then, Chide Me; or, Batti, Batti: from the Opera of Don Giovanni, with English and Italian words,—composed by W. A. Mozart.

IS IT SO?—We have been taught, by statesmen and divines, great and small, that there was a sacredness in all the laws of the country, and especially in a certain law of the United States, passed in 1850. But now, in the Newburyport Herald, we read, in an article on the folly and mischief of abolitionism, the following words:

The fugitive slave law was one of those retaliatory, vindictive measures, beneficial to none and injurious to all, which are the common fruits of controversies conducted in this manner.

This remark does not make the law look very sacred: nevertheless, the remark may have some truth in it; we think it has. But we remember very well that the most earnest advocates of that law in 1850, pointed us back to the old law of '93, and said this was like it in principle, only modified in detail. Now will anybody tell us, if anybody knows, whether the law of '93 was also vindictive and retaliatory? If any, speak.

WILSON, THE MURDERER.—When the mob assailed the Court House, on Friday night, the jury in the case of Wilson were in their room discussing the verdict. Wilson had been removed to an upper room and was in charge of officers. As soon as the assault began, he aided the officers in barricading the windows, saying—"Don't be alarmed, gentlemen; I will stand by you."—Boston Journal.

ARRIAL OF A BOSTON ICE SHIP AT MADRAS.—The American bark Piscataqua, from Boston, has arrived at Madras. She will already have attracted the notice of all whom business or pleasure have drawn to the beach, where she presents the curious appearance of a vessel on her beam ends and about to sink. She left Boston nearly five months ago in good trim, and filled with ice for Madras.—By some strange chance it has nearly all melted away on one side of her hold, shifting the centre of gravity till she floats as she is now to be seen. The length of her voyage is to be accounted for by the difficulty of sailing her in her present trim. The Piscataqua has brought some American missionaries for Madras and for Calcutta. This supply of ice brought by the Piscataqua is well timed.—The stock at the ice house had got so low that the greatest economy could not make it last at the present rate of demand, for more than ten days or a fortnight.—Madras Examiner, April 21.

LOCAL.

GAS LIGHTS.

Messrs. Editors.—Who has the charge o the Street Lights? There does not seem to be much judgment used in the time of lighting up. Sometimes they are lighted before it is dark enough to see the flame, and at other times, when it is so dark that you cannot see a post, there are no lights. Monday evening was as dark from 9 to 11 as it can be, and yet there was no light to cheer our path. Tuesday evening, from 10 to 11, was pretty much ditto, and yet there was no light. Please "stick a pin" into somebody and make them do their duty, and oblige JUNIOR.

"Junior," in the above paragraph, rather casts a doubt on the correctness of the Almanac. That time-honored book says that it was light on Monday night till 10 1-2 o'clock, and on Tuesday night till 11. We have been informed that the person whose business it is to light the lamps, is instructed not to light up when the new moon does not set before 9, and when the full moon rises before the same hour. The state of the weather has nothing to do with it. Let the clouds be ever so black, if the almanac says the moon shines, it does shine, and the streets are sufficiently light.

POLICE COURT.—On Wednesday, James Happenny, was arraigned, on complaint of Mr. J. H. Thacher, for obstructing the sidewalk, last Sunday evening, and creating a disturbance and refusing to move when requested. He was sentenced to the bridewell for five days and until he pays the costs of prosecution.

A few energetic prosecutions by our citizens will soon break up the gangs of loafers which take possession of the sidewalks, to the great discomfort of those whose business or pleasure call them out during the evening. A female can pass scarcely a corner without hearing insulting remarks or gross profanity and vulgarity.

POLISHING BOOTS AND SHOES.—Our friend J. C. Carr, at the well-known Boot and Shoe Store, 14 1-2 Market street, has sent us in some boxes of "Stockbridge's original Croton Blacking," to be used for our benefit, and for his own if may be. From the picture on the cover—which represents a rat smelling a fellow nibbler on one side of a boot; a gamecock bristleing up to a brother on the other; and a Darkey wide grinning at the illusion, which grin is reflected and made wider on the boot in his hand—we should infer that there was a prime article inside. On a partial trial we get a pretty good shine—but the fact is, we have had so many kinds of blacking to test of late, that we have worn our brushes down to the quick; and we don't see how we can give the Croton a fair trial without a new brush.

☞ Our friend, Stillman B. Allen, of Kittery, has been appointed by the Governor of New Hampshire, Commissioner, resident in Maine, to administer oath, take depositions and acknowledgements of deeds and other written instruments, to be used or recorded in this State.

BEECHER ON SHILLABER.—Henry Ward Beecher, in the Independent, thus notices the sayings of Mrs. Partington and the rest of the Family.

Here we have opened another and most genuinely American vein of humor. In such a book, there must be much that is but indifferent. But Mr. Shillaber has certainly developed a peculiar phase of wit. The innocent verbal blunders of the most worthy Mrs. Partington, are secondary to the sly satire often conveyed in the mistakes. There is a great deal of fragmentary picture drawing in the accompaniments, which, if performed upon canvas, would have given Mr. Shillaber rank with the best Dutch and Flemish artists. Jack Downing has had his day. Sam Slick has run his race. Mrs. Partington now is the American humorist; original, genial, laughable, and not uninstructive. We wish it to be understood that "Ike" is included in these remarks. No one should buy the book who thinks it sinful to laugh.

SUDDEN AND MISTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Mr. Keith, who has been for many years employed as a ship's husband, and is well known among our ship owners, suddenly disappeared about two o'clock on Friday morning last, and nothing has since been heard of him. He was on board the Atlantic lying at the end of Central wharf during the preceding night, performing his duty as watchman, but in the morning nothing could be seen of him, and whether he accidentally fell overboard, or was attacked and thrown into the water, is unknown. His body has been grappled for, but as yet without success.—The impression that he has met with foul treatment, or has been accidentally drowned, is strengthened from the fact that he is a man of very steady habits, of excellent character, and in the receipt of a comfortable income. Mr. Keith was between 50 and 60 years of age, was a light complexioned man, about 5 feet 6 inches high. Any information concerning him can be communicated to Capt. Knight or Joseph Brooks, agent of the Atlantic.—Boston Journal.

AN OFFICIAL BLUNDER.—A paragraph has been going the rounds of the papers, stating upon the authority of the naval report of Senator Mallory, that "a few months since" a United States vessel went to sea with shot of a wrong size. The Philadelphia North American says that this circumstance occurred in 1846, instead of a few months since, as Mr. Mallory stated, and that the vessel was the brig Perry. Since then the Ordinance Department of the Navy has undergone a thorough change, and is now in a high state of efficiency.

It is said that the minority on the Nebraska Bill will ask leave to enter a protest on the journals of the House, and that Mr. Campbell of Ohio, is preparing the document.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher, now in his 108th year, lately preached to a large congregation in the Primitive Methodist Chapel, at Grantham, England.

Rev. Robert Newton, the celebrated English Methodist divine, is dead. He visited this country in 1840.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 30.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Dawson, the Senate resolved to adjourn on the 3d day of July next until the 3d Monday in October.

The Conference Committee on the Deficiency bill made a report recommending that the Senate recede from nearly all its amendments, including the appropriations for Washington Water Works, Custom Houses and Marine Hospitals. The House receding from its refusal to agree to the Senate amendment to the printing law report was accepted. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Wells it was resolved that the Committee on Commerce be instructed to inquire into the expediency of repealing so much of the fourth section of the act of the 2d of March, 1831, to regulate the foreign and coasting trade on the northeastern and northwestern frontier, and for other purposes, as prohibits the receipt of commissions by the officers of customs on said frontier on goods entered at their offices and paid thereat.

The House went into Committee on the Pacific Railroad bill. Gerritt Smith spoke at length in opposition to the bill, when the Committee rose.

Mr. Phelps, from the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing amendments to the Deficiency bill, made a report which was agreed to. Adjourned.

A telegraphic despatch of Tuesday says:

The House of Representatives has some 800 private bills to consider, besides public business of importance, and will, it is thought, refuse to concur in the Senate resolution to adjourn on the 3d of July.

The action of the Senate occasions much speculation.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL PASSED.—Washington, May 30.—The President has prepared and will send to Congress to-morrow, a message on the subject of Cuba, decidedly adverse to fillibustering.

The anti Nebraska address is receiving signatures. There is some difference of opinion on it. It was written by Mr. Campbell of Ohio.

The deficiency bill has passed with appropriations to the amount of $2,200,000.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The subject of the Boston riots was brought up in the House to-day, by Mr. Faulkner of Va. He proposes to bestow a pension upon the widow of the officer slain in endeavoring to enforce the fugitive law. The resolution was received with little favor. The vote of the Speaker was required to make a quorum, and the proposition was excluded from consideration by a vote of 50 to 68. Mr. Dean of New York, and many others, privately declare that if the House went into the inquiry, they should move to add the widows of Lovejoy, Miller and others, who had lost their lives in the opposite side of the quarrel.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Times telegraphs as follows:

A strenuous and systematic effort is being made here and in Alexandria to raise a mob against Senator Sumner, in retaliation for the Boston difficulty.

The Union newspaper article on Sunday last is said to have been written by Senator Douglas.

The Star of the Evening has two articles, the incendiary purpose of which cannot be mistaken.

Senator Turner has been warned of personal danger, and assured that persons bearing close relations to the administration, are inciting the people to violence against him.

Northern men are much excited in consequence, and if an outrage is committed, there is a probability that there will be serious trouble.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—The Presbyterian General Assembly, New School, adjourned sine die this afternoon. The subject of Popish Baptism was indefinitely postponed, resolutions were adopted favorable to co-operation with the American Home Missionary and Philadelphia Home Missionary Societies.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Three daughters of Rev. R. Gerry, residing near Harrisburg, Ky., were recently burned to death by the explosion of a can containing camphene. They were aged 19, 17 and 9 years.

LOUISVILLE, May 30.—The cholera has broken out at Nashville; 15 died from it on Sunday.

FROM THE SOCIETY ISLANDS.—French missionaries in Noukahiva, the most important isle of the Marquesas, laid the corner stone of their first church on the 23d of January. The Messenger says that many of the people, including the King, Moana, have been converted to Romanism.

A number of the French officers at Tahiti recently paid a visit in the steamer Catinat to the isle of Meetia, 60 miles east of Mahiti.—This island is described as being high, with abrupt sides, of volcanic formation, and covered with a more luxuriant vegetation than any other isle in the Pacific, and abounding in bananas, breadfruits, cocoa nuts, yams, sweet potatoes, and other fruits peculiar to the Pacific isles. The island has a small population, but there is not a drop of fresh water to be had on the island. The milk of the cocoa nut is the only resource for culinary purposes.

A fagitive slave in the employ of Clark & Pond, millers at Fulton, N. Y., sent a barrel of specimen flour to Queen Victoria. A few days since he received an autograph letter from the Queen, acknowledging the receipt of the flour, and enclosing $300 in return.

STOPPING AGITATION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, who has heretofore obstinately closed his ears to the voice of public opinion at the North, and professed to believe that the Nebraska bill would be acquiesced in and would quiet agitation, has changed his opinion. He says in his last published letter:

"Whether the measure is to be fraught with all the healing influences that have been attributed to it, is to be doubted. New questions, involving slavery, will be forced upon us in quick succession, and perhaps with fearful results.

m30 LA FAYETTE LAIGHTON.

INDIGNANT LOVELINESS.—In Buffalo, a few days since a gentleman temporarily residing there was flogged in a restaurant by a lady, who charged him with making a disturbance in her family, promising to marry sundry young ladies, he being a married man all the while. She warned her victim that if she ever caught him again, he should receive another instalment of the hide.

The Rochester Advertiser tells of another case where a citizen of that city proposed to wind up a spree with a ride in the country.—His wife declined to accompany him because, as she said, he was too drunk. At this he became enraged and proceeded to abuse her, whereupon she seized his whip and gave him a good wholesome flogging.. Then wending her way to the police office she procured an officer to take him in custody for his conduct.

Rich and Valuable Mill Property

THE KINGSTON MILLS, situated in the beautiful and thriving Village of Kingston, Marquette County, Wisconsin, are now offered for sale at a low price to close an Estate.

This magnificent property consists of a GRIST AND FLOURING MILL of the most modern construction, with two runs of stones. The supply of water is unfailing and ample at all seasons, with a fall of twelve feet. It commands a vast amount of custom work, sufficient to keep it in full operation the whole year round. The building is four stories high, very large and commodious, and built in the most substantial manner.

Also, a SAW MILL, built after the most approved plan. It has been hitherto rented for one hundred dollars per month.

Also 120 ACRES OF LAND—embracing some choice village lots in Kingston.

This property is within a few miles of the Milwaukee & La Cross Railroad, and within four miles of the navigable waters of the Fox River. A portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage if desired.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KRAUT, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kraut by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible scourge, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 6 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem, was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and cure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were swept out of a room by it, where none had been applied later than the preceding year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS EXTREMENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in advance of the time to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but consumers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroad. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE, No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough (or a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

CHAPTER III.

The Deer Hunt—The Falls—The Sunkhaze—The Camp—"No kill um deer"—Accidents—Night—Morning—A Long Walk—Voyage Home.

On Monday morning I rose very early, and went down to the Chief Atien's house, to start with him. The chief carried his canoe down to the shore, put some bread, dry venison and fish in it, took his rifle and we started up the river. I had never been in a canoe before.—About a mile above Old Town are some rapid falls in the river. Atien laid aside his paddle, and taking a small pole, with a few rapid, vigorous pushes, sent the canoe over them.—No common man could have done it.

After passing the falls, we glided along beautifully and easily over the smooth river. About three miles above Old Town, we came to the mouth of a small stream called the Sunkhaze river. We stopped here a few minutes and tried our skill in firing at a mark. Then the chief carefully loaded his rifle and handed it to me, saying, "now you kill um deer." We then went up the Sunkhaze river for many miles, part of the way through dark woods, and part of the way through rich meadows. At about noon we stopped on the border of a large and beautiful meadow, about seven miles long and one mile wide, with the smooth Sunkhaze winding through its midst, and dark woods on both sides. We went ashore here and built a fire. The canoe was found to leak a little; Atien said "it is sick," and took it up and mended it. We then, after preparing and eating our dinner, laid down on the grass and slept two or three hours.—In the daytime the deer stay in the woods; in the morning and evening they come out on the meadows and down by the side of the river to eat and drink. After we awoke from our sleep, Atien rose and looked round awhile, then with a sudden "whist!" dropped down. I peeped up and saw a deer grazing at about one hundred yards distance. I took the rifle and fired. I had never seen a deer before—I was agitated—my hand trembled and I missed the deer; he pricked up his ears and then ran off into the woods. I was very angry and sorry; Atien only said, "Ugh, no kill um deer;" afterwards, to comfort me, he said, "The Great Spirit no let you kill his deer, he keep um for Indians. You no want meat; Indian do want it."

After this we went further up river, and went ashore and hunted until night. We saw seven or eight deer, but met with a series of most unfortunate accidents, losing our percussion caps, accidentally firing the rifle, and so we killed nothing. At last we started for home; it was a glorious evening; we glided along in the birch canoe over the black water, and almost under the trees which hung over it. Now and then a deer who had been standing in the water, would rush out and scamper away. The moon was full and shone out brightly, making one half of every thing day, and the other half dark night. Not a word was spoken for miles; then the Indian broke the silence: "See," pointing to a large, fleecy cloud, "him look like bear." I caught asleep a few moments, and dreamed that I was at home; when I awoke the canoe was rushing through the falls, a heavy rifle rested across my knees, and close over my shoulder peered the bright eyes and dark face of my Indian guide. I was startled for a moment; then I remembered where I was, and was ready to enjoy the glorious summer night again. Towards morning we arrived home, made a hearty supper on dry venison, and retired to the land of dreams for a few hours.

Early in the morning I rose and took a last look at the Indian village. Some of the houses are quite neat and pretty, but the greater part of them are small and not very neat. I called this morning to see all the Indians whom I knew. Nearly all were asleep. Hardly any had beds. They were lying on the floors, men, women and children, all together. I asked Sabatis to write a line in his own tongue for me. He took his pencil and wrote—

"Rya Ny ta, be kammatch kmme tchel moque a anpe, Nalmug ali lan nan tchi Kestona lan ban Nalke. Nya SABATIS SOCBESSON."

The interpretation thereof is:

"My good Friend, you have very bad luck while you were up river yesterday to try to kill deer. I am SABATIS SOCBESSON."

I then crossed the river in a canoe and went into the cars, where I found one of my Indian friends, Jo Newell. I laid my head on his shoulder and slept soundly all the way to Bangor. The steamer did not run to day, so I started and walked along the banks of the Penobscot through the two villages of Hampden to Frankfort Mills, a distance of about fifteen miles. Two days after this, I sailed along the shore to Charlestown, Mass., and in three hours more, thanks to the Eastern Railroad, was at home again.

LORD ELGIN AND SIR CHARLES GRAY.—A Washington paper, giving a description of a recent party at the British Minister's, says:

"Amid the soft footfall of fairy feet—the graceful sweep of $500 dresses—the glittering of jewels—the sparkling of eyes which shot forth alternate flashes of lightning and love—were two gentlemen who appeared to be the observed of all observers.' One was the Earl of Elgin, and the other Sir Charles Gray.—Lord Elgin is a short stout gentleman, on the shady side of forty, and is decidedly John Bullish in walk, talk, appearance and carriage. His face, although round and full, beams with intellect, good feeling and good humor. His manners are open, frank and winning. Sir Charles Gray is a much larger man than his noble countryman, being both larger and stouter. He is about sixty years of age, and his manners are particularly grave and dignified."

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1854.

BOSTON SLAVE CASE.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Thomas, for the claimant of Burns, made an able closing argument for his client, very ingeniously criticised the evidence, and said, as reported in the Courier,

It was no matter, what the condition of the complaint—whether it was alleged in it that Burns escaped on a day later or a month earlier, the variance was nothing; it was enough for the Court to know that Burns was a slave owing labor and service to Col. Suttle, to warrant the issue of a certificate. There is no special necessity for a formal complaint at all in this class of cases. The law allows the master to seize his slave wherever he finds him, and having done that, it remains for him only to establish his identity and prove escape. How is it that this man's name is Anthony Burns, with the scars, the dark complexion, six feet high, and those other characteristics described in the record?

Mr. Thomas contended that there was no irregularity in proceeding under the 6th and 10th section of the law, and cited a precedent. The counsel proclaimed that the case had been proved in three ways—1, by the record; 2, by the testimony of Mr. Brent; 3, Burns' admission uninfluenced, that he did owe labor and service to Col. Suttle.

In reply to the inquiry why was not the affidavit of Mr. Millspdugh produced, Mr. Thomas said that that was unnecessary, since the question of Col. Suttle's title is not open to this tribunal, and if it were open, the leasing out would not in the least impair the right of Col. Suttle to reclaim the man.

Mr. Thomas did not deem it necessary to reply to oojections raised to the constitutionality of the law. That was a settled question.

If any additional proofs were necessary, True's statement supplied them.

Mr. Thomas closed with a defence of his connection with the case, and a reply to some taunts from the other side.

The Commissioner said he should not attempt to decide the issue to night, and as the Circuit Court of the United States came in to-morrow—although he regretted to be obliged to continue the excitement—he should postpone the decision until Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Advertiser says:

The hopes which the testimony of the previous day in behalf of the alleged fugitive had excited, can scarcely be maintained. Nothing farther was advanced on that side. If Burns actually was in Boston from the 1st to the 20th of March, it is somewhat remarkable that the fact can only be shown by a few chance interviews.

The Boston Trumpet, in introducing an account of the proceedings, says:

The city of Boston has been thrown into the greatest excitement which has occurred here since the revolution, by the arrest of a colored man as a fugitive slave. A complaint against him was made for breaking open a jeweller's shop, of which the poor man was as innocent as the President of the United States. This was on Wednesday of last week. He was detained through Thursday, when the report got abroad that the first charge was a falsehood, and an imposition on the Court, and that he was held as a fugitive slave.

The reader will please to notice that these statements are made by an editor who is not reckoned among the abolitionists at all, but who is one of the most cautious and therefore one of the most reliable men in jotting down facts.

His testimony, therefore, must go for something, as to the New England feeling that is aroused, and also as to the false pretence on which the prisoner was arrested.

The Boston Atlas says:

We understand that the steamer John Tayler has been under charter to the U. S. Marshal since Friday night, when the U. S. soldiers were brought from Fort Independence. The U. S. revenue cutter Morris is now lying off Central Wharf, and it is surmised that if Burns is remanded to the custody of his claimant, the Morris will be employed to carry him back to Virginia, and the John Taylor will tow her to sea.

It is estimated that the entire bill of expense attending the proceedings connected with the arrest of Burns, will exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

The Boston Chronicle says:

We are informed by an eminent legal gentleman of this city, that it is contemplated by certain parties, in case of a failure to obtain a certificate to convey Burns back to Virginia, to institute another process for his detention and examination before another Commissioner. The precise character of the process is best known to the parties, who evidently contemplate acting with secresy and despatch.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for June has come. It is a good number. Abbott's life of "Saint Napoleon" is brought down to the scenes at Fontainbleau, and illustrated in this number by seven engravings. There is a good article on the Steppes, Odessa, and the Crimea, with 40 illustrative cuts. These, the Newcomes, by Thackeray, with several cuts; and a queer article about Babies, with some equally queer engravings, were about all the pieces we examined. No, we forget, there was a leaf of Punchy pictures all about Young America at the sea side. We think they are true to the life.

We received this copy of Harper from Fetridge & Co., Boston, via J. P. Morse in his city.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The President has issued a proclamation to the United States Marshals to prevent fillibusters to Cuba, and warning adventurers of the consequences.

LOCAL.

THE GIFT CONCERT.

A highly respectable audience filled the Temple on Wednesday evening—a large proportion being ladies. And all were richly repaid for attendance, even with a dollar for admission fee. Although the performers appeared under disadvantagous circumstances—Mr. Thompson with a bad cold, Mr. Johnson and Miss Fitz without having previously touched the piano, Miss Page quite indisposed from a twenty mile ride in a hack,—and this being the first time this club had sung together,—every thing passed off to the satisfaction and delight of the audience. Mr. Clark, too, severely wounded his hand the day before the concert, and was much inconvenienced thereby. The excellent alto, Miss Wildes, Mr. F. W. Johnson the rich and powerful bass, and the juvenile pianist, whose "Coquette Polka" and "Wrecker's Daughter" were loudly encored, seemed to be in the best order for performing.

The Concert was opened with a piano piece by Mr. Lewis H. Johnson, from Emerson's piano forte manufactory, Boston, who displayed much skill and power in playing, and well brought out the beauties of the splendid Grand Piano. The quartet (Mr. H. S. Thompson tenor, Miss S. S. Page soprano, Miss A. T. Wildes alto, Mr. F. W. Johnson bass,) was a most excellent one, and their singing was finely accompanied by Miss Fitz on the piano. Mr. Clark played with his usual skill and accuracy.

The musical performances throughout were very entertaining, and though continued till ten o'clock, were received with great pleasure. The little girl of ten years, who was pronounced by Mr. Thompson an ornament to her teacher, is the more astonishing as her skill is self-acquired — her instructor being nature. Thompson is full of music as an egg is of meat, and could hardly make an unmusical sound. He said that as he couldn't sing a song, he'd whistle it—which he did in grert style. And the whole quartet can't be easily excelled in power and richness of voice, and in execution. Mr. Johnson closed with some very powerful and rapid execution on the piano, and was heartily applauded; after which the Gifts were distributed by lot.

Messrs. James F. Hartshorn, John Buzzell and Samuel Lamprey were selected from the audience for the drawing committee, and Mr. N. K. Raynes for Secretary. They dispatched the business in good style, with the result we published on Thursday. The audience was in most quiet and interested attendance for more than three hours,—and the musical visitors, after passing a pleasant social hour at the Rockingham, with friends, started for their homes in Newburyport.

CITY COUNCIL.

In the Board of Aldermen, last evening, a petition was offered, requesting the City to buy and exchange land with the North Parish; accepted and referred.

Mr. Hatch resigned his office as assistant marshal—accepted.

The Mayor was authorized to act for the city at the meeting of the Piscataqua Bridge Company.

The Street Committee report that the petitioners on Dover street be required to furnish plan and lines.—Accepted.

It was voted that the resolution for going into convention for the choice of City Officers be taken from the table, after much discussion; decided by the casting vote of the Mayor;—and Thursday evening next was fixed for the Convention.

A proposition was introduced to purchase the Pleasant st. church for a Court House, and convert the present Court House into Rooms for the High Schools—referred.

In the Common Council, the Appropriation Bill was laid on the table.

The following report and resolutions were offered by Mr. Tullock, for the committee—accepted and adopted.

The Committee to whom were referred the resolutions to inquire into the election and powers of the Collector of Taxes, (published in the Chronicle of May 19,) have attended to the duty assigned them and ask leave to report:—

They find that is provided by the 6th Sec. of the City Charter, that "all city, ward and town officers who are chosen by the people," "shall hold their respective offices for one year from the fourth Tuesday of March, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead," and by the 23d section that the City Clerk "holds his office for one year, and until another shall be chosen and qualified."

By the amendment of the City Charter, the city collector is required to be elected annually by the City Council in Convention in the month of April, or "as soon thereafter as may be," and they find no provision that any other officer may hold over or exercise any legal authority after the lapse of the year for which he was elected. From the nature of the collector's duties, his power continues until his duties are performed. A copy of the warrant to the collector of this city for the past year, and an extract from his official bond which are hereto annexed, will explain the tenure of his office.

The Legislature is granting the City Charter having acted upon the subject matter of officers holding over until their successors were chosen and qualified, and designated what officers, whether elected by the people or the City Council, should so hold over, and the collector not being in the list, there is not only no legal provision for the collector's holding over, but by implication, his authority to hold over is negatived.

The Legislature having enacted what officers shall hold over, is equivalent to enacting that those which are not enumerated shall not hold over, and if the collector holds over he would exercise his office, for the current year, without security to the city. It is quite clear that the sureties for the collecting of the taxes for 1853 are not responsible for his collecting taxes assessed for 1854. The committee can find no provision for giving a valid bond for fidelity in an office or trust to which the obligator has not been legally chosen or appointed.

The examination of this subject has brought to the notice of the Committee the fact that the city now is, or in a few days will be without subordinate officers, and although this matter was not referred to us, we cannot close this report without calling the attention of the Common Council to the consequences which may grow out of this unexpected state of affairs.

The Committee report for the consideration of the Common Council the accompanying resolutions.

THOS. L. TULLOCK, for the Com.

Resolved, That no person can legally collect the taxes assessed for the current year, unless elected by the existing City Council in Convention, according to the requirements of the city charter.

Resolved, That no officer chosen by the City Council in Convention, except the City Clerk, holds over after the lapse of the year for which he was elected, or can legally exercise any official power after the lapse of the time for which he was chosen.

The Dog Law, in a new draft, from the Board of Aldermen, was laid on the table.

Adjourned to next Thursday evening.

DALHIAS.

Albeit we are not great gardeners, we must notice the reception of half a dozen Dalhia Balbs, of fine varieties, in the best of order for planting and growth, which we learned on inquiry, came from Mr. Wm. H. Foster, who has a few more left of the same sort—So, getting a son of the Emerald Isle to stir the soil, we planted them, that is to say, we saw it done by the flowers of our household. We intend to weed and take care of the plants somewhat in the same way; and when the flowers blow, then we will look at them with our own eyes, and admire them as if they were our own work, or a little more, perhaps. We are quite fond of flowers in that way, and recommend the Dalhia to all others, who like us, had not begun to make a stir for flowers before the last of May. UNCLE T.

☞ The fire on Thursday afternoon was caused by the burning of a chimney in the house of Mrs. Daniels, in Chapel street, corner of Sheafe st. The sparks from the chimney set fire to the dry shingle roof, which blazed briskly in the fresh breeze; but it was speedily extinguished by Mr Hampti Kenney and other joiners who were at work near by. Their promptness doubtless prevented a considerable fire.

☞ Yesterday being the first of June and a beautiful day, the juveniles thought proper to celebrate it. Many of the schools were not kept, and the woods in the vicinity of Sagamore Creek had a large sprinkling of the pupils of nearly all the schools in the city.

☞ At nine o'clock on Thursday evening, the citizens of Portsmouth were entertained by a salute of Artillery, which we understand was fired in honor of the Nebraska Bill.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. F. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turnper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE,

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 31.

SENATE.—In the Senate Mr Badger presented the proceedings of the North Carolina Convention, relative to the improvement of Cape Fear Rever.

The Senate adopted Mr. Adams' resolution directing inquiry as to granting a pension to the widow of Mr. Batchelder, killed in Boston on Friday night.

The vetoed Insane Land bill was discussed. Mr. Hunter of Virginia defended the veto, contending that the bill was unconstitutional.

Mr. Foote of Vermont spoke in favor of the bill, and the subject was then postponed. The Senate went into executive session and then adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, a bill was introduced providing for the survey and sale of the public lands in the territory of Kanzas, and establishing a land office therein. Referred, and the House went into Committee on the Pacific bill.

A message was here received from the President, stating that yesterday he had approved and signed the Nebraska Kanzas bill.

Mr. Perkins spoke mainly in reply to the manifesto of the New York Hards, defending the administration and Mr. Soule from some of the aspersions therein contained, and closing with an argument in support of the constitutionality of the proposed government aid to the bill.

Messrs. Peckham and Maurice, signers of the address, replied, defending the propositions of that document.

Mr. Smith of Virginia also spoke on the address, denouncing it as a deliberate attempt to injure deeply and vitally the Democratic party, and wishing it to be distinctly understood that gentlemen who signed that paper are no longer held as part and parcel of that party. Adjourned.

CONGRESS, June 1.—There was no quorum present in either House today, and both adjourned over to Monday.

EXPLOSION.

A terrible explosion of gunpowder took place on Wednesday, May 31, at Wilmington, Delaware, in the streets, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Three wagons, with 450 kegs, or 5 tons of powder, were blown up, killing 15 horses, and the three drivers, also two other men. One woman and a child are missing. The explosion demolished the elegant house of Bishop Lees, and five other houses, and injured 75 more. Total damage not less than $75,000. The concussion was felt 35 miles from W.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARCTIC.

A telegraphic despatch, received last evening announces the arrival of the Arctic at New York. She bring no accounts of any further fighting between the Turks and Russians.

In the London and Liverpool Grain Market an advance had occurred of 2s per bbl on flour and a corresponding rise on wheat.

The New York Herald, not the best authority, but sustained by appearances in other quarters, announces that adherence to the Nebraska measure will be made a test of fidelity to the Democratic party, by the administration; and that opponents to that bill be removed from office. Such policy would be madness in any party, and we cannot think that it will be seriously entertained.—Newburyport Herald.

We have seen some mad pranks enacted by all parties: are prepared to see any possible change of programme at a moment,s warning: and expect daily to witness performances not set down in the bills.

PROGRESS OF "REFORM" IN CUBA.—It appears from late advices from Havana, that the decree had gone forth, that in future, marriages between whites and negroes shall be held civilly and ecclesiastically legal. The Bishops, under the direction of the Governor General, had held a meeting, and decided the point in favor of amalgamation. Of course the decision gives great dissatisfaction, both to the old Spaniards and to the Creoles. A decree has also been issued establishing schools for the instruction of "white apprentices."

POISONING FISH.—During the past week thousands of fresh water fish have been poisoned in the river Colne, at Chester, an immense tank of gas tar having been emptied into the river from the premises of the old gas works. A great number of persons busily engaged themselves in capturing fish of several pounds weight, which were floating intoxicated upon the water, and many were the singular expedients resorted to for that purpose. We hear that after feasting themselves to their hearts' content upon the carcasses of the finny delicacies, the gas tar produced an effect upon those who partook of them, similar to that it had upon the fish.—Ipswich(Eng.) Express.

Rev. Ebenezer Hill died at his late residence in Mason, N. H., on Saturday last, aged 88 years. He graduated at Harvard, in the class with John Quincy Adams. He was an eccentric man, an able preacher, and much beloved by his people.

Party-givers, who stuff their friends with everthing found at a restaurant, will be interested to know that it is not at all the custom in Parisian good society, to furnish refreshments at evening entertainments, beyond, perhaps, a glass of sugar and water. The most brilliant parties are unattended with any of that vulgar display of eatables, which parvenues seem to think necessary as a bribe to induce the guests to come.

POOR OLD PRIMUS.—The Selectmen of Northampton sent, last week, the paupers in town, who are entitled to a support from the Commonwealth, to the State Alms House at Monson; and among them was 'old Primus,' a colored man, who according to the best information, is at least 100 years old: He has resided in town from a period of time to which the memory of a few can recur, but yet had not 'gained a legal residence.' Poor old man, he disliked to leave the dwelling place of so many years, and we almost wish that the selectmen could have felt justified in allowing him to enjoy the charity of the town for the remnant of his days. But he has had the satisfaction of having his first ride upon a railroad, and we commend him to the kindly consideration of the accomplished Superintendent of the State Institution.—Hampshire Gaz.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its salting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to head-ache one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it, on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4820 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor that they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in size from thirty to four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last it bursted, and a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. In the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the anticonvenience.

In Lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleise the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to grow an all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, administered in olive oil, scatters Scrotulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. The fluid extraction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been spilled later than the great fire of last year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS POISONOUS AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase an Article known as DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two scullieries, and has an excellent cellar for the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in the north section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached includes a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 105.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.
Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.
☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.
JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY.—The most magnificent project of the age—seems destined to have the go-by for this Congress, at least, if not forever, so far as the national government is concerned. After the settlement of the Nebraska measure, the season will be too far passed to admit of any business before adjournment, that can be postponed; and as the next will be the short term, this Congress has virtually postponed the railroad question. It is doubtful now whether to us will belong the honor of first connecting the two oceans by a continuous road. Gov. Stephens of Washington territory, reports favorably upon the northern route, which may encourage the British to extend their Canadian roads to Puget Sound. Then, south of us a European company are already building a road through the most thickly settled part of Mexico, from Vera Cruz to Acapulco; and yet in remote parts of South America, other surveys are being made Buenos Ayres to the Chilian coast, one of which proposes to tunnel the Andes.

The only chance of our having a road immediately is by the Southern route, through Texas, by the New York company, that has been chartered, and in which Robert J. Walker, Chatfield, and others are interested. After all the talk there is little doubt that this is the cheapest and the best route—that it passes through the most productive lands,—and would unite the greatest portion of the country in its favor. With its freight depot at Galveston or some other port of Texas we are nearest to the Pacific of any point in the country. Then, a road thence to New York and Boston would intersect all the great thoroughfares of trade and travel. This route could easily be supplied with fuel, and is far enough south to ensure it against snows and ice. For the Eastern part, Texas has already appropriated lands, some of the richest and most beautiful on the continent, now valued at $12,000,000, that would pay the whole cost of construction through the State.

If the road is commenced at all within three years, it will be by this route, and this would be favored by the whole country but for the slavery question. It would undoubtedly open new lands for cotton cultivation, that excel any between Texas and the Atlantic States; but upon the Pacific railroad, wherever and wherever built, cotton growing will be a small interest; cities will take the place of plantations; the emigration from the whole world will crowd out negroes; and the immense trade that will extend from one end of the track to the other, will crush slavery, if it is there, to death. If we sought to abolish slavery in any State, we would build railroads, if we wanted battering rams to destroy despotism anywhere, we would use steam engines; and for the advancement of freedom we would be glad to see the Pacific railroad well to the south.—Newburyport Herald.

Much of the above is sound, and all is interesting. If the first part of it, about Congress, be correct, then to this Congress will belong the everlasting honor of passing the Nebraska bill, breaking up all the so called compromises, ending the finalities, and defeating a most important and beneficial measure.

THE LESSON OF THE DAY.

The Boston Transcript of Saturday, May 27 says:

The streets of our usually quiet city present a strange aspect to-day. Many of our citizens are called from their peaceful avocations to take up arms in defence of the laws, and to prevent anarchy and bloodshed. Patriotic and sober minded men have peculiar grievances at this time, as they have to set their lips firmly together, and "keep down some rebellious swellings of the heart." They are called upon by their fealty to Law, to suppress the inborn sentiments of their Humanity, and to keep their plighted faith with those who who have just violated a solemn compact!—Many men who have never before given much attention to the subject, now ask themselves—What is our duty in this emergency? How far is the example of violating compacts to be followed?

No man, we think, familiar with public sentiment here, can deny, that the recent course pursued by the almost united South, has alienated them from the North, and created a deep seated and firmly rooted conviction, that the time has fully come, when those who remove the key stone from the arch, must not complain if they suffer damage from the fall of the ruins. They have not heeded the voice of earnest warning that went up from the wisest and best of our citizens, protesting in the name of honor and justice, against the abrogation of compromises, and affirming that a deliberate breach of the plighted faith of the nation, would tend to weaken the claims of our common country upon the confidence and affection of the people. We have done much for our engagements, our promises, our contracts. But it would seem, that not content with this, we are called upon to make new sacrifices, and to renewedly suppress the rights of conscience, of religion, and of that law, whose corner stone is justice, and whose attributes reflect the character of the Infinite.

Having thus stated the case in general terms, we would add, that to our view, there can be but one answer to the above queries. Distasteful as are the duties enjoined, and repulsive as is the task imposed, we are nevertheless required by a just regard for the cause of freedom itself, to join in no unlawful proceeding, or to countenance any measures which will not stand the test of the calmest reason, and be justified by our maturest reflection. There is a day coming after to-day,—in that coming day, to-day's hests and passions will have passed, but its records will remain. Let every man so conduct at this time, that he may refer to that record with pleasure and honor.

A few years ago, the advocates of freedom were mobbed in our streets, their persons were treated with indignities, and their property was destroyed. Let them see to it that, from being martyrs, they become not rioters. Folly has its martyrs as well as wisdom. Let us all trust to that benign and beneficent spirit of freedom, justice and humanity which is now making such progress upon the earth. In this country, opinion is stronger than kings; and we may reasonably hope that our country, now the asylum for the oppressed of the Old World, will at no distant day become indeed the land of the free.

"Oppression shall not always reign—
There comes a brighter day."

POWDER.—Some of the 3050 must have smelt powder ere this, as we hear that 100 guns were fired yesterday morning by the democrats of New Haven, 113 by the Boston democracy, (one for each vote in favor of the Nebraska bill) and a goodly number in Hartford.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

Our New York contemporary is unjust. It was the Suffolk democracy, numbering just forty three, who fired those guns, and they were paid for by subscription at the Custom House. Credit to whom credit is due.—Boston Journal.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1854.

For the Morning Chronicle.

A POLITICAL HUMBUG.

The Nebraskaites say that in the passage of the Kansas Nebraska bill they have maintained a great principle, viz.: self government, and non intervention; that it was for this principle that our revolutionary fathers fought, bled, &c. They hold out the idea to their dupes, that this great principle in the organization of our seventeen territorial governments, since the Federal government was established, has been trampled under foot, and that now by their potent agency it is brought to light and confirmed. But this humbug can deceive none but the ignorant—and for this class it was doubtless intended. Surely there is no party in our free States opposed to the theory of self government, as it has ever been understood, and ever carried out in practice in this country. It is not at all inconsistent with the power vested in Congress by the people of the original States, and clearly defined in the Federal Constitution. And the authority of Congress so to act was never seriously called in question until the present session.—The bill just passed, from its beginning to its end, is a flat denial of the doctrine of non intervention, as an inspection of it shows. In substance and effect, with the exception of its repealing clauses, it is like all, or nearly all the previous bills for organizing territorial governments.

The whole bill is legislation by Congress for the new territories, and the legislatures of the latter can pass no laws not in conformity to the bill. If they should make the attempt, all such acts would be set aside. But like the bills for New Mexico and Utah, it delegates authority to the people to form a constitution tolerating or prohibiting slavery, and this is legislating by Congress on that subject. Had not the bill repealed the Missouri compromise act, it would probably have passed without having excited the whole nation.

Self government and non intervention would have made no popular outcry; the great principle would have slumbered in quiet security; and the Nebraska leaders would have had no popular hobby to ride.

Every intelligent citizen and statesman in the Union, fully understands that the repeal of the Missouri act, undisturbed for 34 years, has produced the excitement, and that the sole object of that repeal is to extend the area of slavery north of 36° 30' north latitude.—It is idle to say that the repeal was to assert a mere abstract principle which could have no practical effect. For such an abstraction, it could not be an act of wisdom to raise an excitement tending to loosen if not dissolve the bond of union.

We assert further, that the object of the repeal was not only to introduce slavery into the new domain, which is larger than the original thirteen states, but to give it protection, under the Federal constitution, (this is the southern doctrine openly avowed) in all the free states.

The great issue between the two antagonisms, freedom and slavery, is now forced upon the free states, against their will; and the south must abide by their decision, as they have more than two thirds of the free populatioc. It is true that the latter, by the aid of northern recreancy, have obtained a temporary triumph—but the battle will be decided when new slave states, emerging from territorial pupilage, shall petition Congress for admission into the Union. The north will not then complain of being taken by surprise. Care will be taken that their representatives shall truly express their voice—and should it be in favor of the extension and perpetuity of the institution, from that day clouds and darkness will rest upon the fairest Republic on which the sun ever shone. T.

The Worcester Transcript, the organ of Gov. Washburn, calls for an extra session of the Legislature to see what shall be done in view of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and "to enact such statutes as shall tend to secure the State against any further attempt to execute the fugitive slave law within its limits." The party in power will hardly take the responsibility of such a movement.—Newburyport Herald.

Nor can any other party fully accomplish such an undertaking, without political suicide. Parties at this day, have as much as they can do to take care of themselves. But a principle, the love of liberty, for example, if it could be put into action in such a way as to pervade all parties, could do something, in the promotion of a good object. In elective governments, like ours, however, it seems next to impossible to prevent any important question of public interest, from being mingled with the strife of parties for power, and of individuals in those parties for the honors and emoluments of office.

Objects without principles and against all sound principle, may be attained by parties, and for a time they may thrive thereon, but only for a time.

MASS CONVENTION IN MAINE.

The Portland Expositor of May 31, is entirely devoted, on its inner form, to the "Call for a Mass Convention of the Democracy of Maine, and of all persons disposed to cooperate in the success of liberal principles in the State, to be holden at the city of Portland, on Thursday, the fifteenth day of June, 1854, to nominate a candidate for the office of Governor, and adopt all needful measures to ensure the united support of all liberal electors, of the nomination that shall be so made."

To this call are appended, as signatures, fifteen columns of names. If all these signers attend, there will be a mass meeting indeed.

The call, and the editorial commendation of it, are finely written; and what is truly remarkable, not one word is said in favor of good liquor, nor is the "Maine Law for the suppression of drinking houses and tippling shops," once mentioned by name.

Yet it is indisputable, that the corner stone of the party making this call, is opposition to the Maine Law, and effort to repeal or break it down.

BOSTON CHRONICLE ENLARGED.—The Boston Daily Chronicle, our namesake, and our twin brother as to age, has always been a little the larger of the twain; and now, on the first day of June, he has fairly outgrown his clothes, and donned a new suit of ample dimensions, with a pair of most capacious pockets.

The liquor dealers of Boston, the wine merchants, and that class of solid men generally, set up the paper to promote their interests, and they have so fed it with some nourishing pabulum, as to make it as corpulent as themselves.

It must not be supposed for a moment, however, that the Boston Chronicle has no merits but its advocacy of the liquor trade, or that it is a paper of one idea only. Very far from this: it contains a little of almost every thing; and its present editor, Mr. Warland, is a man of both talent and tact, who knows how to make a readable paper, and who actually makes it. He never loses sight of the one idea, to oppose the liquor laws, but he has always some other matter to make his paper saleable. Here is a specimen of the matter:

A MODEL CHARGE—EFFECT OF BAD LIQUORS.—The following amusing incident transpired at the spring term of the Circuit Court of St. Croix county, Wisconsin. The judge of the Circuit Court lately in session at Hudson, Wisconsin, gave a charge to a jury in a certain action tried before him, which excited considerable merriment in the court room at the time. The action was to recover the value of certain liquors sent from below and consigned for sale to the defendant.—Evidence was given on the part of the deft. to show that the brandies, &c., were made of forty cent whiskey, and drugged at that, at which the judge appeared quite indignant, and charged the jury very nearly as follows:

Gentlemen of the Jury:—Pure, unadulterated liquor is a wholesome and pleasant beverage, and as far as the experience of the court extends, conduces to health and longevity; but a bad article of liquor, gentlemen, or what is worse, a drugged article, cannot be tolerated; and if dealers from below will send up into this beautiful country, so blessed with the smiles of a benignant Creator, such a miserable quality of liquors as the proof shows this to be, in this court, gentleman of the jury, they cannot recover.

LICENSES IN NEW YORK.—The New York Herald says that the Board of Excise has been sitting at the City Hall since the first day of May; that applications for licences to sell liquor have been received from thirteen wards, and about two thousand licences have been granted; and that it is a source of joy to all good citizens to know that the number of licences granted this year, will be, at the present rate, one third less than the last.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.—Our copy of Putnam's Monthly for June, from Fetridge & Co. of Boston, is laid on our table by Mr. J. F. Shores, jr., Bookseller, of this city.

We have shaken our sides heartily in reading a Review of American Epics in this number.

Some other persons would probably laugh as they read Dick Pastel's Story.

The Review of Comte's Philosophy is able and instructive as an essay, favorable to the book, and honorable to Comte, its author.

We have no hesitation in pronouncing the number for June, to be fully up to the high standard of excellence hitherto maintained in Putnam's Monthly.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR JUNE.—This is a monthly magazine of Literature, Art, and Religion. Edited by Abel Stevens, and published by Carlton & Phillips, New York. It is beautifully printed on fine paper, with neat engravings; and the matter is at once interesting and unexceptionable. A new volume begins with July. $2 per annum. Rev. Mr. Spaulding is agent in this city.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—Our copy of Harper for June, came from J. F. Shores, jr., and so we wrote, but the types said something else.

LOCAL.

The Chronicle of this city, instead of showing itself upon the side of law and order, and rebuking the conduct of the mob of fanatics in Boston, who would tear down the halls of justice, rescue fugitives, violate the laws of the land, and cause blood to flow through the streets, gives them as much consideration in its editorial comments, as though they were worthily engaged, and deserved the encouragement of every good citizen in their wicked and treasonable resistence to the laws. It terms the commissioner's court, the slave court, and tacitly justifies the reckless mob spirit which is above and higher than the laws of the land. This course arises not from the true dictates of humanity—it is the inspirings of mobocracy.—N. H. Gazette.

If the writer of the above, and its readers, take pains to read our editorial remarks on the above slave case, and examine our account of the proceedings from day to day, they will perceive, to their astonishment perhaps, that we have not said one word editorially, in praise or blame of any man engaged on either side, with the exception, if that be an exception, of our apology for Commissioner Loring, who was attacked by both sides.

We have stated facts, as plainly and as briefly as possible, generally with credit to the Boston papers. If in doing so, we have termed the Commissioner's Court the Slave Court, we have simply called it by its right name: for it was a slave court and nothing else! It has set a week, at a cost of $30,000 for the express and sole purpose of sending back a slave into slavery,—and this it has accomplished.

If any body chooses to blame us for what we have not said; we do not see how we can help that, nor why we need to care much about it.

THE GRAND PIANO used at the Concert on Wednesday evening, delighted every body who heard it as well as those who performed on it. It is new from the manufactory of Hallett, Davis & Co., Boston, whose instruments are equal in all respects to any manufactured. There are many of them in this city, giving entire satisfaction. Their Grand Pianos have recently received a premium at the New York Crystal Palace, over all others, including Chickering's. Music loving citizens, and all concert givers who come here, will be gratified to know that one of these splendid instruments is hereafter to be kept in Portsmouth for public use.

BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.—The Newburyport Herald of Wednesday says:

Yesterday morning, Albert G. Browne, of Salem, father of young Browne, now in Boston jail on a charge of being accessory to the murder of Batchelder, was presented with a pass by Sheriff Eveleth, to visit his son. Proceeding to the jail, while waiting in the office, he was joined by several colored women, who came to see their husbands and brothers, likewise incarcerated for the same offence. They, however, were told that they could not be permitted to enter till after the examination of the prisoners, and turned away with sorrowing hearts. Mr. Browne at once refused to pass within the walls, saying, that although it would deeply gratify him to see his son, there is no privilege he would enjoy in such times as these, that was not shared by lowest and most humble of the community.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—An Irish boy, by the name of Lucy, was killed almost instantly, yesterday afternoon in the Bartlet mill, by being caught under the mule while it was in motion. There is, it seems, a standing rule for no one to clean the machinery while in motion. This male had been stopped for the purpose of removing or "doffing" the spools, and it is supposed that the boy had been or was cleaning off while doffing. The mule was put in motion without his being seen, and he was caught in such a way as to press his head through the upper part of the carriage and kill him. In conversation with the agent, we learn that rollers are placed so as collect the waste, and that the lad was in a position and place where he ought not to have been, even were he cleaning the machinery about the mule.—Newburyport Herald.

CORONER'S VERDICT.—On Friday forenoon, in Boston, the Coroner's Jury on James Batchelder returned the following verdict:

That James Batchelder, on the 26th ult., at about 9 3-4 o'clock, P. M., while employed with others by Watson Freeman, Esq., U. S. Marshal, as an assistant in defending the west entrance of the Court House in Boston, from the assaults of a mob, received a wound in the left groin, severing the femoral artery, which caused his death:

And the said wound was inflicted by a long, narrow and sharp instrument in the hands of some one of the persons engaged in the assault, to the jurors unknown.

And the jurors further find that Samuel alias John J. Roberts, Martin Stowell, Walter Phenix (colored), John C. Cluer, Albert J. Brown, jr., John Wesley (colored), Henry Stowe, Wesley alias Walter Bishop (colored), Thomas sackson (colored), John Thompson, and John Morrison, were identified as engaged in a greater or less degree in said riot.

CONGRESS.—A despatch from Washington to the Courier and Enquirer says:—"The House will adopt the Senate resolution for a recess from July first to October. All legislation but the appropriation bills will be abandoned."

A rescript from Rome, calling on the priests of Ireland to abstain altogether from interference in political affairs, is daily expected, if it has not already arrived, in Dublin.

Seven hundred men, women and children have already been admitted to the new State Alms House at Tewksbury. Three fourths of this number are foreigners.

BOSTON SLAVE CASE.

On Friday morning the crowd began to assemble early, and before 9 o'clock the whole neighborhood about Court Square was densely filled with people of both sexes, and of all colors and conditions.

At half past seven o'clock a detachment of the 4th regiment U. S. Artillery, having previously been to the navy yard and received a a field piece, marched up State street. The cannon was drawn by a pair of horses, and it was planted in Court Square, a little south of the easterly entrance of the Court House, and pointing towards Court street. Soon after, the artillery were relieved by a detachment of marines, who stood guard over the formidable piece of ordnance.

The several companies of M. V. M. in the city began to assemble at their respective armories at 7 o'clock in the morning, and soon after the streets resounded with the strains of martial music. The troops marched to the parade ground on the Common, where they formed into columns, with the lancers and light dragoons on the right, and the whole under command of Maj. Gen. Edmands.

There were two companies of light dragoons, seven of artillery, and twelve of infantry, not including the United States soldiers and marines.

At nine o'clock, Commissioner Loring came in and read his decision, in which he decides:

That the fugitive law is constitutional:

That Burns owes service to Suttle;

That he has escaped from that service;

And that his identity is proved—not by Brent's testimony, for that he considers nullified by the other tistimony about the time of Barns being in Boston—but he considers it proved by Burn's own admissions and answers after his arrest.

He therefore orders the slave to be remanded to his master.

Several of the occupants of offices and other tenaments in Court square, Court street, &c., dressed their windows in mourning as soon as the decision was known.

The following account of the closing scene, is from the second edition of the Boston Evening Transcript:

At 2 1-2 o'clock, the procession started from the Court House in the following order:

A detachment of the Boston Lancers in front, followed by

A company of U. S. Infantry from Newport;

A company of U. S. Marines;

A hollow square of about 60 men, volunteered principally from the

BAY STATE CLUB,

armed with cutlasses. In the centre of this square marched attended by Marshal's officers.

These were flanked by another company of U. S. Marines, and the rear was brought up by the piece of ordnance before mentioned, which was loaded and had a burning match ready for use.

At the word to "march," a volley of groans and hisses were given by the spectators, and were often repeated as the line passed along.

The route was down Court and State streets to the end of Long wharf, where the slave was put aboard the steamer John Taylor, to be conveyed to the revenue cutter Morris, which lay in the stream.

An immense concourse gathered on all the wharves adjacent to the scene of embarkation, and at every possible point where the least view could be had.

Thousands upon thousands of people gazed upon this strange spectacle at high noon, on a brilliant day, and under all the lights of civilization, "liberty," law and religion.

FOREIGN NEWS.

It was the Asia, and not the Arctic, which arrived at New York June 1. She left Liverpool May 20.

The arrival of the Asia relieves the anxiety which was felt for the Arctic, which has been overdue for some days. It appears that the latter struck upon a rock, a day or two after her departure from Liverpool, and was compelled to return to that port.

No military movements of any importance appear to have taken place since the previous accounts. A report of the bombardment of Revel by the British Baltic squadron is in circulation at Paris, but it seems to be discredited. Revel lies on the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland, near its junction with the Baltic. It seems pretty clear that Admiral Napier is in no hurry to make his threatened dash at Cronstadt.

The commercial intelligence states that cotton had fallen, and that breadstuffs were higher.

DETAILS OF WAR NEWS.—A despatch received in Paris from Vienna on the 15th states that the bombardment of Silistria with eighty pieces of cannon had commenced.

The evacuation of Lesser Wallachia had been suspended.

A despatch to the London Times of Saturday, from Vienna 19th, states that a government messenger had reached Galatz May 9th with reliable intelligence that Sebastopol had been bombarded for four days.

BUCHAREST, May 15.—The English steamer Tiger, 16 guns, stranded close to Odessa, and was obliged to surrender to the Russians. Two other steamers went to her assistance, and bombarded the Russian works, but with little effect.

The allies are now in sole possession of Varan, and as the French have already advanced to Adrianople, the Turkish grrrison of that city is on its way to Shumla.

It is confidently asserted at Constantinople that the French will place a reserve corps at Rodost of 50,000 men, where their engineers are already taking measurements for a fortified camp.

ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL.—A despatch from Constantinople of the 9th announces that Sebastopol had been cannonaded by the French and English fleet with guns of long range and with a view to destroy the advanced works of the port.

The allied fleets attacked one of the outer ports of Sebastopol, and the Russians were compelled to evacuate it.

Three vessels were cruising along the coast of Circassia, waiting for the Ottoman fleet, which was to bring 5000 men for disembarkation.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

WILLIAM MASON.—Recent letters from William Mason, the pianist, (a son of Lowell Mason,) announce his intention of returning to America, for the purpose of making his debut in August or September next. Though solicited to give concerts in Europe, he has steadily refused, and has only appeared publicly so far as to play a single piece on a few important occasions, when he has uniformly met the most flattering receptions. Unlike many American artists, he had chosen his native city as the scene of his debut, and he will therefore give his first concert in Boston, and will afterwards visit other cities.—New York Musical Review.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham ss

To Andrew J. Beck, Esq. City Marshal of the City of Portsmouth, GREETING.

IN the name of the State of New Hampshire you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of said city, qualified to vote as the law directs, to assemble and meet at JEFFERSON HALL, in said City, on MONDAY, the twelfth day of June next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to consider and act on the following particulars, in continuity to a petition signed by over fifty legal voters of this city, viz:

To choose by ballot a Moderator;

To see if the City will vote to adopt suitable measures to ascertain in whom the absolute title of a certain lot of land situate in Market Square, so called, whereon lately stood a house once occupied by the North Parish or Church for public worship, in the City of Portsmouth aforesaid; and

Also further to ascertain in whom the fee simple of the aforesaid lot was vested; and

Also to see and ascertain whether the inhabitants of said city ever at any time conveyed, sold or parted with said lot of land legally to any person, persons or body corporate for a valuable consideration; and

Also, if practicable, to keep the same open, to be added to Market square, so called.

Hereof fail not, and make return of your doings therein, at the time and place aforesaid, to the City Clerk or Mayor and Aldermen of said city.

Given under our hands and the seal of said City of Portsmouth, this the twenty-sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY, AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been a Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr Kelley by an Indian, who, attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattle, adder, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions of the Scalp Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feeling of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Another, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the medicine is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good Housekeepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found it to be enough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as regular as aligtor names kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Rich and Valuable Mill Property

For Sale in Wisconsin to Close a Concern.

THE KINGSTON MILLS, situated in the beautiful and thriving Village of Kingston, Marquette County, Wisconsin, are now offered for sale at a low price to close an Estate.

This magnificent property consists of a GRIST AND FLOURING MILL of the most modern construction, with two runs of stones. The supply of water is skillful and ample at all seasons, with a fall of twelve feet. It commands a vast amount of custom work, sufficient to keep it in full operation the whole year round. The building is four stories high, very large and commodious, and built in the most substantial manner.

Also, a SAW MILL, built after the most approved plan. It has been hitherto rented for one hundred dollars per month.

Also 120 ACRES OF LAND—embracing some choice village lots in Kingston.

This property is within a few miles of the Milwaukie & La Cross Railroad, and within four miles of the navigable waters of the Fox River. A portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage if desired.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, opp. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by other agencies, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific points respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration as the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR,—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK, Commissioner of Patents."

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito, Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, &c.

It does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold cheap, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Pleasant street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

TREATMENT OF INFERIOR NATIONS BY THE UNITED STATES.—There is a reason to believe that the people of the United States will in no long time be deserving of as much censure for their treatment of the inferior nations of Spanish America, as we ever bestowed upon England for the oppression which she has exercised in India, and Ireland; upon Austria for her conduct towards the Hungarians, or Russia for the extinguishment of the nationality of Poland.

All over that portion of Spanish America which the people of the Enited States have not seized upon, as well as the countries through which they pass on their way to California, the native population are hunted down and oppressed with savage ferocity.

A passenger in the last Nicaragua steamer, relates in the New York Tribune, the particulars of the affair, called in the accounts an outrage upon the American Minister. This plain statement shows that the outrage was committed by the Americans, first in willfully shooting a native, and next in preventing the arrest of the murderer.

"As the steamer Routh, of the Transit Company, of New York, was approaching Greytown, two boats, or bungos, were perceived tied close to the beach. The owner of these boats, perceiving that the steamer was nearing him, cried out to the captain of the steamer to take care, and not run into him. At this time the owner of the boats had a gun in his hand. The steamer passed on, but returned again, and it was suggested by an influential person that such should be done, with the object of giving the unfortunate owner fifty lashes for his impudence. Instead of doing so, however, the captain of the steamer Routh called for his rifle, and taking deliberate aim at the man, shot him dead—the ball passing through his heart.

Upon the arrival of the Routh at Greytown the authorities proceeded on board the ocean steamer to arrest Capt. Smith for the murder of this native. The American minister, who happened to be on the spot, called upon the passengers present to prevent the arrest, and was successful for the time. Later in the evening, Mr. Borland, the American Minister, went on shore, and proceeded to the residence of the U. S. Commercial Agent at the port.—The populace, enraged at what had occurred, surrounded the house and used threatening language to Mr. Borland for his interference in behalf of Capt. Smith, the master of the boat and a Portuguese by birth.

THE RICHEST MAN IN VIRGINIA.—A correspondent of the Richmond Whig, says that the richest man in Virginia, and the greatest slaveholder, is Mr. Samuel Hairston, of Pittsylvania. Mr. Hairston is the owner of about seventeen hundred slaves, and has a prospective right to about one thousand more, which are owned by his mother in law. He has the management of all of them; a little army of near three thousand in number. They increase at the rate of one hundred a year, and he has to purchase, annually, a large plantation to settle them on. He has overseers on his numerous plantations, who are compelled to give him, at stated intervals, a written statement of all expenditures and receipts.—The negroes are clothed and fed from the produce of the plantations.

Mr. Hairston's wealth is estimated at from three to five millions. His residence and estate are of a character to correspond with his immense fortune, being probably unsurpassed by any in the Union for magnificence and beauty. Mr. Hairston has one brother in Henry County, Va, who owns seven hundred negroes; two other brothers in Mississippi, who own, respectively, one thousand and six hundred slaves. He has still another brother in Henry County, who once owned a large number, but having given most of his property to his children, now owns but one hundred and fifty slaves.

AN INCIDENT IN THE BALTIC.—A letter from an officer of the English Baltic fleet, dated 18th, tells the following rather good story:—One morning a few days since, we saw a large vessel 8 or 10 miles a head, which we fully believed to be a Russian man-of-war, as she made all sail to get away, and showed no colors. As we rapidly came up with her, she took in sail until she was under reefed topsail, (fighting trim) so we beat to quarters, and the pipe sounded loudly, 'hands, bring the ship to action!' For some three minutes every thing was bustle, casting the guns loose, clearing the decks, &c. In five minutes more every gun was shotted and primed, and the men standing with match lines in their hands, waiting for the word to fire. Just as we got within good distance the blackguard ran up American colors, and coolly told us he would have hoisted them sooner, but he wanted to see how smart we could clear for action.

ANTIDOTE TO CHLOROFORM.—A French physician announces that where there is danger of death from the use of chloroform, a shock of electricity will instantly counteract the effects of the chloroform, and restore the patient to consciousness and life.

THE LAST OF NELSON'S CREW.—A veteran sailor named John Groombridge, above 100 years of age, and said to be the last survivor of Lord Nelson's crew at Copenhagen, made a call a few days ago upon some of his old Kentish friends. It appears that he was born at Yalding, was apprenticed at Chatham to a Quaker, named White, and was married at 20 years of age; but on the day of his wedding was seized by a press gang and hurried off to Hull, whence he was sent to sea, and remained in the service through the long succeeding wars, commencing with that against the revolted American colonies, now the United States. Among the engagements in which he took part, was one against Paul Jones.

Subsequently he served under Nelson, both at Copenhagen and Trafalgar, and has sailed with our present Baltic and Black Sea admirals, Napier and Dundas, when the former was a boy lieutenant. He is now an in-pensioner of Greenwich Hospital, the oldest on the college books, and is, he says, the only survivor of the crew sailing in the Victory when Nelson met his death wound. He retains perfect command of all his faculties. He never saw his wife after the day he was torn from her, fresh from nuptial rites at church, by the ruthless press gang; but she lived some fifty years afterwards; he learned the particulars of her death shortly after it happened, some thirty years ago.—Kentish (England) Mercury.

THE CHURCHES OF EUROPE.—We have church edifices in this country which are regarded as tolerably capacious; but our largest are little mole-hills beside the mountain cathedrals of Europe: St. Peter's, Rome, holds 54000 persons; Milan Cathedral 37,000; St. Paul's, Rome, 32,000; St. Paul's, London, 25,000; St. Petronia, Bologna, 24,000; St. Sophia's, Constantinople, 23,000; Florence Cathedral, 24,000; Antwerp Cathedral, 24,000; St. John's, Lateran, 22,000; Notre Dame, Paris, 21,000; Pisa Cathedral 13,000; St. Stephen's Vienna, 11,000; St. Peter's, Bologna, 11,400; St. Dominic's, Bologna, 11,000; St. Mark's, Venice, 7,000.

REVIEW OF EXCITING SCENES.

Mr. Commissioner Loring, in the very document by which he consigns Anthony Burns to slavery, speaks of "That Right which makes Life sweet, and the want of which makes Life a Misfortune."

By this right he means Liberty, the liberty to own one's self, and we agree with him fully in the above remarks which we quote from him.

In another sentence he says—

It is said that the statute is so cruel and wicked that it should not be executed by good men. Then into what hands shall its administration fall, and in its administration what is to be the protection of the unfortunate men who are brought within its operation? Will those who call the statute merciless commit it to a merciless judge?

Without a direct answer to the question, we will answer it in substance, by saying that the statute itself, being founded in wrong, made to protect a wrong, and to crush down a right, must always be merciless, by whomsoever administered, whenever it operates at all. Mr. Loring considers liberty a right, and without that right deems life a misfortune.—Yet he pronounces a statute constitutional which forbids a man before him to exercise that right, and sends him back again to the slavery from whence he fled.

We read in the Boston Transcript of Friday, that

During the delivery of the decision, the prisoner fixed his gaze upon the Commissioner, and as the conversation between himself and master, as sworn to by witnesses, was detailed, he listened with the most intense earnestness. When it was stated that he said he was 'willing to go back' to Virginia, the prisoner shook his head very emphatically, as if to indicate that the statement was a false one.—This act was noticed by many persons, and created considerable surprise, as well as sympathy for the unfortunate man.

Yet it was, as Mr. Loring himself informs us, upon the testimony of Brent and others, who heard Burns' conversation with Suttle, including this 'willing to go back' statement, that he identifies the man, and rules out the admitted conflict of evidence!

To show that we are not talking without book, we here make another extract from the Commissioner:

The 3d fact is the identity of the party before me, with the Anthony Burns mentioned in the record.

This identity is the only question I have a right to consider. To this, and to this alone, I am to apply the evidence and the question whether the respondent was in Virginia at a certain time, is material only as it is evidence on the point of identity. So the parties have used it, and the testimony of the complainant being that the Anthony Burns of the record was in Virginia on the 19th of March last, the evidence of the respondent has been offered to show that he was in Massachusetts on or about the 1st of March last, and thereafter till now.

The testimony of the claimant is from a single witness, and he, standing in circumstances which would necessarily bias the fairest mind—and other imputation than this has not been offered against, and from anything that has appeared before me, cannot be—his means of knowledge are personal, direct, and qualify him to testify confidently, and he has done so.

The testimony on the part of the respondent is from many witnesses whose integrity is admitted, and to whom no imputation of bias can be attached by the evidence in the case, and whose means of knowledge are personal and direct, but in my opinion less full and complete than that of Mr. Brent.

Then between the testimony of the claimant and respondent there is a conflict, complete and irreconcilable, on the question of identity.

Mark this, a conflict, complete and irreconcilable. Then observe, he makes out the point by Burns' conversation, which is witnessed only by the claimant, by his volunteer witness, who the Commissioner says is necessarily biased, and by one of the deputy slave catchers.

We have never had much doubt that Burns was the slave of Suttle;—but this evidence, if brought before a jury, would not be strong enough to hang a dog upon.

It is not our purpose now, however, to find fault with the administrators of the law.—Burns might have fared no better under another Commissioner; and he certainly could have fared no worse, inasmuch as he lost his case.

Our controversy is with the fugitive law itself, and with the basis on which it is founded, viz.: that one man may own another man. Against this basis, and therefore against all statutes built thereon, our prejudices are not yet conquered. Loving liberty for ourselves, we ought to love it for others; and therefore we would never vote for, or consent to, making one grain of concession to slavery;—but would always vote, speak, and protest against it. We might be outvoted, overruled, silenced by a mob, or dragooned into submission by a military force with ball cartridges and lighted matches; nevertheless, truth and right would still remain in their places, and slavery be as odious as ever.

Its recent developments in Boston have produced a story, whereat both the ears of him that heareth it shall tingle. For a whole week the telegraph wires have vibrated between Washington and Boston, to hold, and try, and return a slave. Forts and navy yards have been stripped of their guards to defend the court house in Boston, which has served at once as a jail for the slave, and a fortress for his captors. An assistant of these captors has been killed, and half a dozen of the mob who were about him are now in jail charged with his murder. All the uniformed militia of Boston have been under arms, and the whole police force of the city on the alert day and night. An expense estimated at from 30,000 to 50,000 dollars has been incurred. And all for what?

To send back a runaway slave, thereby sustaining the majesty of the laws, upholding the constitution, and cementing our glorious union,—we suppose to be the only true answer for a submissive, obedient, patriotic son of the north. If any of our readers can kneel down and say this, we have no objection; but we are not yet quite ready to join in such worship.

To show that there are some other mortals quite as stiff necked, let us copy the following item from the Boston Mail:

To the lovers of law and order, the most humiliating feature connected with the drama of the past week, is the position occupied by the daily press of this city. But four of the daily papers have raised their voices in favor of the execution of the law—the Courier, Post, Times, and Mail. The others have either dodged the question or counselled resistance, in a manner arguing a deplorable state of morals, intolerant in spirit, and at war with the stability of our institutions.

But does any one ask why then do we not join some party in a crusade against the South? We answer that we have no quarrel against the South, and bring no charges against Southern men for defending their wretched institution as well as they can.—We lay the sin of concessions to slavery, at the doors of men at the north. And to show that we are not quite alone in this opinion, we quote from the Newburyport Herald the following sentences, which we cut from the middle of an editorial, urging "obedience to the laws," especially to the fugitive law:

This fugitive slave law, which has been resisted unto blood, in Boston—nay, in the very sanctuary of justice, in the Court House—is not the law of the South, or the West, or the North; but the law of the nation—of the people; our law, passed by our agents at the time, and continued by our representatives today. We might almost say that it was the law of Massachusetts; for without the influence of Daniel Webster, who gave it his vote and his voice, it might have failed.

These are matters for grave and sober consideration, followed by steady, consistent action.

FROM ST. DOMINGO.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Herald writes from St. Domingo, May 5th, as follows:

President Santa Anna has been to Sebo, where he reviewed 5000 men, who are daily expected here on their march for the Haytien frontier. All is activity and preparation.—The government remains in charge of his principal ministers while Santa Anna heads his troops to meet Soulouque.

The French Consul from Port au Prince is here and intends to await the result. The whole army of the Republic will reach nearly 30,000 whites and mulattoes.

THE BLACK WARRIOR DIFFICULTY SETTLED.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce states on the authority of the Paris Assemblee Nationale, of May 18th, that a functionary of the Spanish Department of Foreign Affairs left Madrid on the 11th, for the United States, with a despatch to the Spanish Minister at Washington, containing a definite settlement of the difference in the case of the Black Warrior. It is further stated that the fine of $6000 imposed upon the Black Warrior by the Cuban authorities has been remitted by the Spanish Government.

BALTIMORE, June 2.—Advices from Havana are two days later than those of the Isabel. Great anxiety prevailed there among all classes with regard to their relations with the United States. Seven hundred Chinamen had arrived, and also a considerable number of laborers from Spain.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Mrs. Judson, widow of the late Dr. Judson, the missionary, but better known as "Fanny Forrester," died at Hamilton, in this State, at 10 o'clock last evening.

QUARANTINE AT CHARLESTON, S. C.—The city of Charleston has passed an ordinance, which went into operation on the 1st instant, requiring all vessels arriving from the West Indies to perform a quarantine of thirty days, although all on board may be in good health; and the Charleston Courier says it has caused much alarm amongst all interested in this trade, but the consequence will be to drive away from that port all vessels engaged in it.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Mrs. Clark, wife of Bradford Clark, who was married at Pattagumpus, near Mattawamkeag, some time ago, came to the Mansion House in this city last week, and at 3 o'clock yesterday morning swallowed half an ounce of opium. It was not expected last evening that she would recover. The cause of the rash act is supposed to have been domestic difficulties.—Bangor Whig.

Mr. St. John, who was arrested at Bera, Ohio, had $5,000 in his possession, which he obtained by forgery; but that is nothing to his offences in having three wives in different places. His last victim is a young lady of Indianapolis, not yet twenty years old. A penitentiary discipline will probably subdue Mr. St. John's romantic propensities.

LOCAL.

NARROW ESCAPES.—The schooner Euphemia, Capt. S. Eldredge, arrived on Saturday last from New York. Capt. E. reports that he left Holmes's Hole on Thursday, about noon, in company with a large fleet of vessels. On the same night, off Cape Cod, the wind hauled to the North and N. E., blowing very heavily. He was obliged to put up and drive his vessel off shore under a two-reefed foresail. At about midnight, with a heavy sea, into which the vessel frequently fell off, a sea boarded and took the captain off his feet, and would have swept him overboard, had he not clung to the rail; the next wave tumbled him on board again. This last wave swept overboard the colored cook, to whom a rope was immediately thrown, and he was towed along for several minutes—the crew hauling in carefully upon the rope. His strength was fast failing, and at every pull the rope came slightly through his hands, and it was supposed he must be lost; but at the end of the rope there was a large knot, and this enabled him to hold on until drawn within reach, and he was thus saved. A part of the deck load was lost, binnacle and both compasses, stove. After weathering the gale until noon on Wednesday, the weather moderated. It is feared that other vessels that left Holmes's Hole at the same time must have sustained more or less damage from the sudden gale.

THE GIFT CONCERT.—The statement of the drawing has already been made public, and those who have the lucky numbers know it. There was a large proportion of tickets sold in Boston, Newburyport, Portsmouth, on the line of the P. & C. Railroad, and elsewhere out of Portsmouth; and many of the articles were awarded to ticket-holders abroad—the Piano and two of the watches among them.—The Piano ticket is held by a gentleman in Boston. The articles belonging in this vicinity will be ready for delivery at the room in the rear, No. 4 Exchange Buildings, on Wednesday morning, June 6. We would here state that Mr. Thompson had no interest in the enterprise; but kindly consented to arrange and conduct the musical performances, without fee or reward, at the invitation of a friend in this city, who planned and successfully carried out the scheme.

THAT BLACKING.—Having received a nice Yankee Brush, we have given "Stockbridge's original Croton Blacking" a fair trial. It is a capital article, polishing readily and beautifully, and is very clean. We think we never have used better, if as good. J. C. Carr has it, and also the Brushes to apply it.

☞ Mark's Patent Washing Compound, advertised by Messrs. Mathes & Varrell, is an excellent article. We have seen it tried with complete success, for cleaning clothes and furniture. Try it; it is cheap and at least harmless.

☞ A party of drunken rowdies, amused themselves, on Saturday evening, by breaking the blinds and windows in the Catholic church in this city. Any good citizen, who may entertain an unfriendly feeling toward the Catholics, would exhibit it in a less questionable manner.

☞ The great Circus of Sands & Co. arrives in this city today. See adv.

FROM HAVANA.—By the Black Warrior, we learn that the Captain General is raising black troops, and has addressed the Director-General-of-Arms, &c., and says that the banner of Spain shall wave at all hazards in Cuba. Another address had also been issued, ordering lists to be prepared throughout the island, of all persons liable to military duty.

Considerable excitement was occasioned on the 24th, by a report that a party of Americans had landed at a place called Chorera, about a league west of Havana. Troops were sent there, but it proved a false alarm.

Four Americans from Key West, belonging to the surveying department, had arrived at Havana, and had not been allowed to go beyond the city walls.

General Vezuela is stated to have said that he intends gaining an European reputation by emancipating the slaves.

The above, from a New York despatch of the 2d, is to be received with a few grains of allowance.

RIOT.—On the 26th plt., the friends of the administration fired a salute at Middletown, Conn., for the success of the Nebraska bill, in doing which a man was killed. On Friday evening the people tolled the bells, to signify their grief at the passage of the bill. In the evening tar barrels were lighted by the administration men, and a row ensued, in which a man was stabbed, though the wound was not fatal.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—London, C. W., June 3d.—The cars on the Great Western Railroad went off the track near this city, and pitched down the embankment, demolishing passenger and freight cars, killing seven second class passengers, and seriously injuring several others, four, at least, fatally.

U. S. SENATOR.—Hon. Julius Rockwell, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, has been unanimously confirmed to the office of U. S. Senator, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Everett.

The Rochester Democrat learns that Gerrit Smith will very soon resign his seat in Congress, on account of ill health. His successor will probably be chosen in November.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—A meeting of the Anti Nebraska members was held today, and resolutions were adopted to oppose all appropriations, not indispensible to the current service, and to adjourn at the earliest possible day.

The friends of the Nebraska Bill are in high exultation at the result in Boston. They boast that the bill was passed and the Fugitive Slave Act enforced in New York and Boston the same day.

SLAVE CASE IN BOSTON.

The Courier of Saturday says:

At sunset last evening, the steamer John Taylor left the cutter Morris, ten miles east of the outer telegraphic station, (twenty miles from Boston) and returning, left Maj. Ridgely and his command at Fort Independence, and landed Col. Dunlap and his force at the Navy Yard. Thus ended Burns's career in Boston.

We are authorized by Mr. Parker, the junior counsel for the claimant, to say that Burns will be kept in Virginia for a reasonable period, and if any persons wish to purchase his freedom there, they can do so upon reasonable terms. It was stated yesterday morning, that parties were present in the Court House ready to give $1200 as an equivalent for the freedom of Burns; but Col. Suttle could not be found.

A Southern gentleman, who signs himself H. W. Allen of Louisville, in writing to the Boston Post, praises Boston for the "firm and patriotic manner" in which the slave law has been executed there, and says:

To the disconsolate widow of Mr. Batchelder—he who fell in defence of the laws of his country—I have to say that the city of Alexandria will take care of her. To the kind hearted and philanthropic ladies and gentlemen who actually subscribed and were anxious to purchase the freedom of Burns, I am authorized to say, that after his return to Virginia, they can fulfil their benevolent wishes. To the gentlemen of the Boston press who have sustained the law, the whole country is deeply indebted.

We sincerely hope the city of Alexandria may do something for the widow of the murdered man—when the money comes we will make a note of it.

There must be some mistake about the philanthrophy of buying the freedom of a man who is willing to go back into slavery, especially as slaves are so much better off than freemen.

Joseph K. Hayes, one of the captains of police in Boston, resigned his office on Saturday morning. The following is the letter of resignation:

BOSTON, June 2, 1854.

To his Honor the Mayor and the Aldermen of the City of Boston:

Through all the excitement attendant upon the arrest and trial of the fugitive, by the U. S. Government, I have not received an order which I have conceived inconsistent with my duty as an officer of the police, until this day, at which time I have received an order, which, if performed, would implicate me in the execution of that infamous "Fugitive Slave Bill."

I therefore resign the office which I now hold as a Captain of the Watch and Police, from this hour, 11 A. M.

Most respectfully yours, JOSEPH HAYES.

The Courier says:

This is judging of the "law," as well as the "evidence." Mr. Hayes, of course, will occupy a front seat at the next abolition meeting!

Very likely he will, and perhaps some other front seat, also, for which his decision of character may qualify him.

The Atlas asserts that "ruffians from brothels were employed as guardians of the law," and asserts, what ought not to be believed without full proof, that Pres. Pierce and the District Attorney interfered to prevent the purchase of the claimed fugitive. Of course, if it is untrue, the District Attorney will forthwith commence a libel suit, for the charge is as distinctly libellous as the English language can make it. [P. S. Mr. Hallett denies the charge.

☞ It appears from the Boston Transcript of Saturday evening, that Mayor Smith exceeded his powers, in ordering out the military. Five of the Aldermen, in a card, say:

"We not only did not advise the Mayor to call out the military to escort the poor fugitive to the slave vessel, but earnestly entreated him to do nothing to implicate the city of Boston in the disgraceful proceedings. We were desirous that the U. S. authorities should bear the whole responsibility of returning to slavery a freeman of Massachusetts. The Mayor is the only one of the "City Authorities," so far as we know, who ordered the Military of Massachusetts and the Police of Boston to assist in an act which belonged exclusively to the U. S. authorities."

The Transcript says:

"Near the corner of Chatham and Commercial streets, a teamster attempted to pass the line formed by Company A, Boston Artillery. He was ordered back, but refused so to do, and swore at the military. One of the company thrust a bayonet into his horse, whereupon the crowd pressed in to see what was the matter. Probably supposing that they intended an attack, Capt. Evans gave the order to his company to fire. The muskets were brought to the shoulders, when Lieut. Col. Boyd, who accidentally was near enough to hear the order, countermanded it and thereby prevented the fatal result which must have followed. The horse, we understand, died from the wound.

A horse belonging to a member of the corps of Lancers, who was on duty in Commercial street, was fatally stabbed in the side by some unknown person.

R. H. Dana, Esq., was knocked down, on Friday evening, supposed by a slung shot.—Doubtless the assailant was one of those vicious scoundrels whom Mr. D. had occasion to allude to in his recent speech in the slave case.

We learn that John H. Pearson, Esq., the lessee of Long Wharf, refused to allow that wharf to be used for the removal of the slave. The wharfinger of T wharf, who let those premises for the business without consulting the proprietors, was promptly discharged last evening, but was this morning provided with a place in the Custom House."

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by
W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

New Baptist Church, Boston.—The spire of the new church edifice built in Somerset street, by the First Baptist Society, now looms up above the surrounding buildings, and it will soon become quite a marked object, as it will nearly rival the dome of the State House in height. It is to be 200 feet high from the street, and the location itself is quite elevated. It will make a very imposing appearance when viewed from the Harbor, as the site on which the church is built, is nearly at the top of the principal elevation of what was once known as Beacon Hill.—Transcript.

The advance guard of this year's Mormon emigration over the plains is encamped at Kansas, and is 1600 strong.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both bottle order humor. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pasture and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of 80. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrhal cases and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 70, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell many of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

Leah Jay in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet or exposure necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

Dandyline for the Hair. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found it the most thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as the fumes Kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other Sholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET.—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

WAR FOR CUBA.—The Richmond Enquirer, after advocating the immediate conquest of Cuba, and representing that the attempt would be full of danger after the emancipation of the slaves, says:—"The South may repose implicit confidence in Mr. Pierce; he is with us." Complaining of the delay of hostile movements, the Enquirer asks, "Why is Congress so backward and timid?" It is hoped that Congress may have more prudence and foresight than the Enquirer. Rash counsels may indeed prevail at the south, but do the property holders there consider the consequences of involving this nation in war, not only with Spain, but two of the most powerful nations of Europe? If they have no regard for northern interests, we ask them to consider the effect of war upon their cotton and tobacco trade? Should that be cut off, would not the price of their slaves be reduced one third or perhaps one half? Even the institution which is their idol, might be brought into a perilous condition. But "whom the Gods destroy, they first make mad." Surely none but madmen would provoke a war to rob a nation of its possessions, without any justifiable cause. And if it be true that Mr. Pierce is with the south in favor of such a war, he would dishonor the land of his nativity, and prove himself to be an enemy to the vital interests of the free states. Let us hope for better things, and that the Enquirer is not the true exponent of the southern sentiment.—Surely there are some statesmen there who have a regard for our public treaties, and our national character at home as well as abroad. May the period be far distant before this nation shall, because she is powerful, oppress the weak, in violation of the eternal principles of right and justice.

Non intervention in respect to the internal affairs and policy of foreign nations, has hitherto preserved our pacific relations, and been the powerful means of promoting our unparalleled prosperity. Let us not be driven from our safe and wise position by the selfish designs of ambitious demagogues. There are breakers ahead. The signs are ominous of an approaching tempest. The united counsels of the most wise, prudent and skilful men are needed to avert the impending danger. T.

A lady now travelling in Europe, mentions the following instance of severe sickness, which she witnessed on board the steamer which took her out to Havre:

One morning I heard the steward inquiring kindly as to the health of one of the ladies, who was forever complaining of a seventeen years' head ache. She responded to him despairingly—

Oh, ver' bad. All ze night I was more sick zan evair. Ze head, ze back, ze limbs—so bad I cannot tell.

Would you like some breakfast, madam?

Don't know—ver' sick wiz ze sea wal. Vot ayes you?

Can get you anything nice, madam.

Aves you ze bif stek.

Yes, madam.

I take ze bif stek. Aves you ze mutton chop? ze potato? ze tomato?—viz ze coffee and ze hot cakes?

We have. Any thing ELSE you would like to have, madam?

Ah, mon Dieu! I cannot tell. I ver' indispose. Stop, garcon!—after leetle bit, bring ze lobstair, cucumber, and ze oil.

MRS. ROBINSON.—It is now pretty well settled that this person is none other than the Henrietta F. Wood, who was once a brilliant, dashing and eccentric pupil in the Troy Female Seminary, whose parents are wealthy, and of high standing and character in Canada. She married Robinson, it is said, in Canada. He was a British officer. They disagreed and divorced. She then came to this city, plunged headlong into vice and dissipation here, and subsequently removed to Troy, where she pursued the same abandoned course. She is a strange woman.

She will be sentenced to death ultimately, but never, in our opinion will she be executed.

During the proceedings several ladies fainted and were borne out of the room.

Thus ends this exciting and interesting case for the present. The next term of the Rensselaer County Oyer and Terminer will be held in Troy next month.—Albany Express.

OUTRAGE AND EXCITEMENT.—Much excitement has been created in and about Xenia, Ohio, by an attempt to kidnap a free negro. It seems that a man named McLeod, overtook the negro on the road between Xenia and Selma, and suspecting him to be a fugitive, asked him to ride. The negro accepted the invitation. McLeod shortly stopped at a farm house on some pretence, and made a bargain with the farmer to assist in securing the negro. The account says:

"The negro was invited into a room to eat, was seized, tied with ropes, and placed in the buggy to be driven towards Cedarville on the railroad. The man who assisted, and his son, accompanied McLeod. After proceeding a mile or two, the negro broke his rope, and then broke for the woods, chased by all three of the party. The old man nearly overtook the negro, when the latter turned and dealt a blow so powerful that it broke the arm of his pursuer, but he was soon after caught, beaten, and tied into the buggy again. Before they had proceeded much farther the negro broke the cords a second time, and had nearly escaped, when McLeod grappled with him, and the others coming up, a fight ensued, in which the negro was beaten until he fell dead."

The affair was disclosed by the son of the farmer, and the culprits were arrested and are now in Xenia jail.

The first meeting of the season, of a rural character, near Cincinnati, was that of the American Wine Growers' Association on Saturday last. Mr. Longworth read a paper upon the grape culture, and samples of the native article were discussed with close attention. The Cincinnati Gazette says:—"The culture of the grape is rapidly extending through the interior, and thus the foundation is being laid for a heavy and most important trade in native wine. On Saturday twenty-one tierces of this article were received by the Whitewater Canal."

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1854.

A CHAPTER ON MOBS.

BY UNCLE TOBY.

Most readers of the Morning Chronicle understand who Uncle Toby is, and also understand that the utterances against slavery, through this paper, are his. For though he does not pretend to say all the things that are said therein, yet he does utter many of them. And therefore, as the Chronicle has been accused by high official authority, of "not rebuking the conduct" of a certain mob in Boston; the old gentleman deems it proper to offer a few remarks on Mobs in general, illustrated by reference to some mobs in particular.

The grand accusation is, that in not uttering one word of praise or blame, the writer "tacitly justifies the reckless mob spirit which is above and higher than the laws of the land," and to this is added the charitable remark, "This course arises not from the true dictates of humanity—it is the inspirings of mobocracy."

Now a mob simply means a promiscuous assembly, and the word mob comes from a root which signifies moveable or variable.—The term then is properly applied to every promiscuous assembly which is disorderly, tumultuous or rude.

Thus there were at least two mobs in or near Jerusalem in our Savior's time, and not long before his death, both of which were raised on his account. One of these mobs shouted Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh; the other yelled out, Crucify him, Crucify him. Both these assemblages were mobs, the one as really so as the other, yet it would be very absurd to say that they were alike in character. So of any and all other mobs. Their motives and their acts, good or evil, make their character good or bad. This is as true of mobs, as it is of men or statutes, and no truer. A mob is an irregular democracy; a town meeting is the same democracy in a regular form.

A reckless spirit cannot be justified in a mob, any more than it can in a statute, nor any less, although one has the form of a law, and the other has not. All resistance to law, which rises high enough, we dare say is treasonable, though it does not necessarily follow that it is wicked. There was, as we read in our familiar histories, a certain mob in Boston some years ago, which threw a quantity of tea overboard, in open defiance of the laws of the land; another mob in the same place that meddled with and assaulted the king's soldiers, and were some of them shot down; and another still in Portsmouth which buried liberty in effigy, and then dug it up. Moreover many men in all parts of New England resisted the stamp act, the port bill, and the tea tax. All this was mobbish; all this was treasonable. But will any body please to say that it was also reckless and wicked?

The spirit of a mob may be "above and higher than the laws of the land," or it may be lower, according as the moral character of each happens to be.

The law of the land in some countries and times, has burnt men at the stake, because they would not conform to the faith and practice of a certain church. Surely the spirit of a mob cannot be lower than this. We think the spirit of the Boston tea mob rose much higher.

There is said to be a law in some parts of our own country, at the present time, whereby one man can sell another, or keep him and work him and use him as he does a horse.—Uncle Toby cannot think there is much majesty in such a law as this. He supposes it would be treasonable to oppose it, but he does not exactly understand how it would be wicked. He thinks it is a very low law, and can hardly see how the rudest mob could go lower. He has a great objection, indeed several objections, to being sold or owned by any body; and he cannot see why the spirit of a law which sells Uncle Tom, should not also sell Uncle Toby. He has seen a few mobs in his day, one in particular which was got up for the special purpose of putting down his own right of free speech in his native city. The new comers do not know, but some of the old inhabitants may remember that an informal town meeting was called on a fourth of July morning, many years ago, to prevent his speaking in Pleasant Street Church; that a mob surrounded the church and stoned the windows, and rushed into the entry to ring the bell and take out the speaker, but were repulsed and some of them pitched down stairs and out of doors by a few determined men.

Though a writer for newspapers then and ever since, he has never told the story in print till now; and he alludes to it at this time only for the purpose of saying that he never felt it his duty to pour out vials of wrath on the heads of the mobocrats, though perhaps they might deserve it. No man is obliged to say all that he thinks.

With no partiality, but a great dislike for the mob form of action, he thinks he can see a great difference between a mob raised to defend liberty, and another mob raised to crush it. And so, when he sees dreadful deeds done, by mobs, sometimes he speaks,—and sometimes he does not, but keeps up an intense thinking; insomuch that some people think he has spoken when indeed he has not.

So of laws: when under the cloak of a statute, some monstrous wickedness is perpetrated,—sometimes he speaks out, and sometimes he only thinks. All New England is thinking now.

MR. WEBSTER'S VOTE, &c.—A correspondent states that Mr. Webster did not vote for the present fugitive law, as asserted in a quotation from the Newburyport Herald; but only gave his voice and influence for it.

The stories about John H. Pearson's refusing to let the slave procession pass over Long Wharf; and about the dismissal of Sampson, the wharfinger of T wharf, are contradicted in the Boston Courier. Sampson resigned his office on Wednesday night, but acted on Friday, and let the coffle pass over the T against the will of the owners; and we suppose, as that is not contradicted, went into the Custom House on Saturday.

The other statements made, seem to be generally confirmed.

RIOT IN BROOKLYN, N. Y.—On Sunday there was an attack made by a body of Irishmen on a procession from New York city, who came over to hear a street preacher.—Shots were fired upon the assailants, and two men fell dead; several others were wounded.

The Mayor, with a regiment of soldiers came on, reading the riot act, attended also by the sheriff.

The mob was cleared away, and quiet restored. This was about 8 o'clock. Sixty nine of the rioters were arrested, and are under examination. The premeditation on the part of the Irish was clearly shown by the sticks with which they were armed, being nearly all cut and pared, and made of hard dye woods obtained from the wharves in the neighborhood.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for May, 1854, is just received by mail from the publishers, Leonard Scott & Co., New York.

☞ Hamilton Willis, Esq., of Boston, distinctly charges Mr. District Attorney Hallett, with interfering between him and Col. Suttle, in regard to Burns's ransom, after Suttle had agreed to the plan, but before the papers were drawn.

THE MURDER OF BATCHELDER.—The examination of witnesses in Boston on Saturday does not seem to identify any one of the prisoners with the murderous assault, though all of them were in the mob, and were arrested on the spot.

BATCHELDER'S WIDOW.—The Washington Star of Friday says that the Senate's Pension Committee have agreed to report a bill granting $3000 to the widow of the late Deputy Marshal Batchelder, who recently lost his life in Boston in aiding in the execution of the laws of his country. A meeting was holden at Wilmington, N. C.; on Wednesday evening "to take into consideration proper means for rendering efficient assistance to the widow and family of James Batchelder, who was murdered by the Abolition rioters of Boston."

MRS. BATCHELDER'S PENSION.—A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times writes that the resolution relating to the Batchelder pension was suffered to pass the Senate without discussion on the Boston riot, as it is one of inquiry merely. The majority of the pension committee are northern Senators, Sumner, Seward, Allen and Walker.

TROUBLE AT COLUMBIA COLLEGE.—The entire Sophomore class at Columbia College, New York city, were expelled from the institution on Thursday. The class have been for some months dissatisfied with certain arrangements of the Board respecting them, and have taken frequent opportunities of manifesting their discontent in the presence of the President. Three or four of the members were recently dismissed, but the class still continued intractable. A number of torpedoes were a few days since discharged in the presence of the President. The class was called upon to reveal the names of the offenders, but refused to do so, and consequently they were all expelled. The whole difficulty has arisen from the action of the trustees in the selection of a professor of chemistry, it being charged that they rejected Dr. Walcott Gibbs because he was a Unitarian.—Boston Courier.

Another paper states that the new professor was deemed incompetent by the students; although his religious views were approved by the trustees.

GRAND JUNCTION RAILROAD.—The following Directors were chosen on Wednesday, in Boston:—Ichabod Goodwin, Benj. Lamson, Thomas Hopkinson, James M. Whiton, George A. Whitney, David Kimball, and John T. Eldridge. Mess. S. S. Lewis, W. B. Lee and C. J. Hendee declined a reelection.

LOCAL.

PORTSMOUTH LAUNDRY.

All those gentlemen who are interested in the project of a Laundry, are requested to meet at the City Missionary's office on Wednesday evening at half past 7 o'clock.

☞ The annual meeting of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad was held on Monday at North Berwick, and the old board of Directors re-elected without opposition—as follows:

Messrs. Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth, Albert Thorndike of Beverly, Southworth Shaw, of Boston, Thomas West of Haverhill, Josiah Calef of Saco, Charles E. Barrett of Portland, and John D. Lang of Vassalborough.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, at Kittery, Lieut. John Weeks, aged 81, was accidentally killed by a falling tree.

Mr. Weeds was formerly a lieutenant in the Revenue service, and was attached to the cutter Scammel, at this port, under captains Kennard and Adams, until that vessel was lost.

His house, as many of our readers know, was near the old meeting house at Spruce Creek, in which temple he was a worshipper. Many years ago he planted a willow post in front of his premises, for the purpose of fastening the horses of distant friends who rode thither to meeting. This post took root and became a tree, and like its owner, had in the lapse of years waxed quite old.

He essayed to cut it down; but the wear and tear of four score years had so enfeebled the strong man, that he was cutting what he could, as the neighbors saw, for several days. On Saturday, as one passed, the tree was down, and in its fall had crushed the old man to the earth, and held him fast. He was removed and laid helpless on his bed, where he breathed till evening, when the lamp of life went out.

The old church, the old tree, the old man, all pass away; but the new church, the young tree, the next generation, fill up their places; and the world under the allwise providential and gracious guidance, moves on, as bright, as cheerful, as beautiful as ever.

DEATHS IN MAY.—The number of deaths in this city in the month of may was—Males 9; females 4; total, 13. The ages were as follows:—Males—75, 25, 75, 75, 1, 45, 1 yr., 9 mos., 65 years. Females—30, 50, 70, 42.

GENERAL COURT.

The Legislature of New Hampshire will meet tomorrow, at Concord.

Two Senators are to be chosen, and the balance of power settled between conflicting parties.

The Patriot learns that at a meeting of the Whig and Abolition parties, it was agreed to support Mr. Tappan of Bradford, a leading man in the Democratic ranks, for Speaker of the House.

On Thursday, should the organization of the Legislature be accomplished, it is designed by the citizens of Concord, without distinction of party, to celebrate 'Lection in the old fashioned style. The Granite Guards, Capt. Gove, and their guests, the Stark Guards, of Manchester, will perform escort duty.

We copy the following from the Portsmouth, Va. Transcript:

Senator from New Hampshire.—Hon. Harry Hibbard, of the U. S. House of Representatives, deserves to be the next Senator from New Hampshire for the noble manner in which by speech and vote, he sustained the Nebraska bill in the late severe contest in Congress.—Mr. Hibbard has won a national reputation, of which the Granite State may well be proud.

This is the nomination of Virginia. Who seconds the motion?

BURTON, THE SUICIDE.—The Exeter News Letter gives the jury's verdict of suicide, in the case of Wm. Burton, whose death we have before noticed, and says, the cause of this act was ignorance and family difficulties. The deceased was worth about $2000, and leaves a wife who had applied for a bill of divorce. He was perfectly steady and temperate in his habits.

RETURNED.—The company of marines, attached to the Portsmouth Navy Yard, returned from Boston, on Saturday evening.

The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury, a strong Nebraska paper, deprecates the means by which the billl was forced through the House. It says:

"There are some now who congratulate themselves and country upon the success of Mr. Stephen's tactics, who will yet regret and decry their application. They will yet feel the value of the rights of the minorities, when they belong to the weaker side themselves, and will bitterly remember that they first administered to others, the poisoned chalice which even handed justice commends to their own lips. The whole country, and particularly the South, will be made to feel at what cost the passage of the Nebraska bill was bought."

Rev. William Hamilton, D. D., of Mobile, formerly of Newark, N. J., has been deposed from the ministry, and suspended from the sacraments of the church, for beastly practices.

CONGRESS.

Monday, June 5.—Ten Senators only were present, and in the House there was no quorum; so both houses adjourned to Thursday.

New York, June 3.—James Wickham, formerly of Wickham & Corwin, grocers, in this city, and who had retired on a farm at Oathogue, L. I., was murdered last night at his residence, together with his wife and a negro boy. The murderer is supposed to be an Irishman named Nicholas Lane, who had worked for Mr. Wickhhm for two or three years past, and who had left his employ only a few days ago, and was last seen about the premises the night before the murder. The scene of the murder presented a horrible spectacle.

Mr. Wickham lay weltering in his blood, his head literally cut to pieces, and apparently in the last gasp of his existence, unconscious, with no hope of his recovery. Mrs. Frances Wickham, his wife, was dead, she having had her brains completely knocked out, which, together with blood, were spattered about the room. Mrs. Wickham was but 35 years old. A negro boy, 15 years old, who was living in the family, was also beat and cut about the head to such an extent that he cannot survive his injuries. The deed was committed with an axe.

New York, May 3.—The Courier's Washington correspondent writes as follows:—The muster rolls of the organization for the invasion of Cuba, show a list of fighting men 12,000 strong. It is supposed that ten per cent. of this number is available for immediate service. The subscriptions to the fund amount to $1,000,000, but a small part of which has yet been collected. Assessments are made upon the subscription by a Junta, or Committee of the executive Officers of the Lone Star Association. In return for payments, stock is issued, redeemable after the conquest of Cuba, and signed by the President, and Secretary of the Association. Gen. Quitman stands at the head of the military organization.

The New York Slaves.—The Rev Dr. Pennington, a colored clergyman of New York, and brother of the fugitive slave who was arrested in that city and sent to the South a few days since, has published a letter received from the master, offering to sell the slave; and he appeals to the benevolent community of New York for procuring aid to enable him to purchase his brother's freedom. Grove, the owner, has already sold the two nephews of Mr. Pennington to Southern drivers, and threatens to sell his broteer in a few days, unless the sum of $1000, besides his expenses in recapturing the man, be speedily forthcoming.

At the Woman's Rights' Convention, last evening, a lady, the sister of Col. Suttle was introduced to the audience, as being desirous of saying a few words about her brother. She said he was born in New Hampshire, but married in Virginia, and, by his marriage, inherited slaves. She proceeded, laboring evidently under strong emotion, to defend him from the charge of having wished to carry Anthony Burns back to slavery. Burns was not her brother's slave, she said, and he would gladly have released him if the real owner had been willing. Amid frequent interruptions, she attempted to defend the judgment of Mr. Loring. She said she wished the people to understand one thing—that her brother was a good, kind man.—Boston Herald.

A committee of military officers has been appointed to solicit subscriptions from the soldiers who bore arms on Friday, for the purchase of the freedom of Burns. There were, it is estimated, about eleven hundred men on duty, and should the proposition be received with approbation by the soldiery, rank and file, the money could be easily raised. It would be a very handsome act on the part of the militia of Boston.—Courier.

A Handcuffed Prisoner Shot.—On Thursday, June 1st, at New York, a coroner's inquest was held at the City Hospital, on the body of Bernard Riley, who was shot at Haverstraw on Tuesday by a constable named Meyer. Riley had been arrested for drunkenness, but evincing some indisposition to accompany the officer, the latter thereupon shot him down. The evidence went to show that when the deceased was shot, he was not only securely handcuffed, but also bound with ropes, and that the officer fired twice, the second time holding the pistol to the heart of the deceased, who was then on his knees.

Singular Incident.—As Capt. Daniel Gorman of the ship Jessy, from Limerick, was on his outward voyage, when about forty-five miles south east of the Island of Anticosti, during a thick fog and surrounded by field ice, he heard a report of a gun. Supposing it to be a signal from another vessel near at hand, he caused the fog bell to be rung to avoid a collision. In about twenty minutes the fog cleared off, and his ship was found to be close to a piece of ice, on which lay in view the body of an Indian extended, and still bleeding profusely from a wound in the chest. He was quite dead, and not far from him lay the body of another Indian with a dead seal alongside of him. The first poor fellow, it is conjectured despairing of relief from certain death by starvation, had just put a period to his existence, not imagining that aid was really so near. They probably went out together on the field ice to kill seals, and had drifted out to sea, when, the first dying from cold, the other committed suicide to avoid a more lingering death.—Quebec Mer.

One hundred passengers of the emigrant ship Ellen Thompson, wrecked in the Gulf of St. Lawrence on the 18th of May, arrived at Portland, June 3, by the steamer Admiral, from St. John. They are on their way to Canada. They were taken from the wreck by the barque Sarah, and carried to Richibucto, N. B.

An Irishman had his head cut off on the Central Railroad, N. Y., on Wednesday. His headless body was found, and a jug tightly clasped in his hand explained the reason for his decapitation.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. F. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. John Irving, late Mayor of Philadelphia. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, long a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, opp. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons engaging in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

Commissioner of Patents."

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, to make its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes when other medicines fail, it is not deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels will find that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as results. Sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 30,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers it unnecessary to insert them, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Green street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Isaac M. Lord and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

A FRIGHTENED WIFE.

The Cincinnati Enquirer relates a funny piece of hair dyeing business, in which the principal participant was a Clevelander.

A few days since a Benedict, whose silvery hair proclaimed him on the wrong side of fifty, came to Cincinnati. Being a man of taste as well as of means, he made the —— House his residence. The morning after his arrival he visited the magnificent saloon of our friend A F, who observing that his customer's hair and whiskers wore a very wintry appearance, suggested the propriety of his getting them dyed. Now our hero not being addicted to vanity, at first objected, but A—— said that it was a shame such silken locks with a natural wavy curl, should be allowed to retain their frosty character, and the gentleman finally resigned his cranium to the hands of A——, who very speedily—by the aid of C——t's cosmetics for changing red or gray to a beautiful brown or black—as the advertisement has it—transmogrified him from a rather antiquated specimen of a gentleman in the 'sere and yellow leaf,' to a juvenile looking Adonis, of twenty-eight. The transformation was most gratifying to our hero, who being rather a good looking fellow, felt proud of himself, and accordingly displayed his handsome figure in the principal promenades of the city.

His business concluded, he returned to his home in Cleaveland, where he arrived late at night; and going straightway to his house, was admitted in the dark by his anxious spouse. Going to his apartment, he undressed himself, and without the formality of striking a light, got into bed, and in a short time was closely folded in the arms of his affectionate wife and Morpheus. The morning beams were dancing in diamond splendor upon the floor of the bed chamber, when he was awakened by a terrific scream, and starting up he discovered his better half rushing, very much terrified, from the bed room.

Quick as thought he sprang from his bed and followed her, visions of madness floating through his imagination. At length she reached the parlor, and sinking upon a sofa, she fainted outright. By dint of sal volatile and other restoratives she was shortly revived, when gazing upon her husband, who was mournfully bending over her, she exclaimed that she was ruined, dishonored and undone.

Be calm, dearest, said he soothingly.

At the sound of the voice she started, gave one piercing look, and as she recognized the well known features, burst into tears and sprang into his arms. It appears that upon waking, instead of the familiar 'frosty pow' of her liege lord, she discovered a redundant quantity of dark brown hair and whiskers.—This caused her alarm and flight from the marital couch. The lady, who is many years the junior, is perfectly charmed with the alteration, and feels quite proud of her old man. This adventure turned out happily at last.

STEAM NAVIGATION BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND THE TROPICS.—Charles W. Dennison, United States Consul at British Guiana, has forwarded for publication at New York, Philadelphia and Boston, the following resolution, which was recently passed by the combined court of Guiana:—

COMBINED COURT, BRITISH GUIANA, 25th of March, 1854.—Resolution.—The Honorable Mr. Netcher, seconded by Mr. Whitney, moves that this Court pledges the colony to provide the sum of *$10,000 for encouraging and supporting the first person or company which shall start and keep up a monthly communication between this colony and New York, or some other eligible port in the United States, out and home, via Barbadoes and Bermuda, with steam vessels of not less than 1000 tons burden, and an average travelling speed of not less than ten miles an hour, and that such sums will be annually granted under the contract for a term of seven years, provided the passage money or fare for fore deck passengers, or charge to the colony for the transport and feeding of emigrants be not more from New York to Demerara than $10, from Bermuda to Demerara than $8, and between Demerara and Barbadoes, to and fro, not more than $2; that there be accommodation at least for 40 cabin passengers, and that no goods or merchandise shall be laden out in the hold of the vessel. Agreed to.

*To be increased to $25,000.

The Cashmere goat has been successfully introduced and bred in South Carolina. The Charleston papers say that the animal seems perfectly at home in the climate, and is as hardy and as easily raised as the common goat. The fleece obtained is in weight about equal to that of the choice varieties of sheep, whose value is ten times greater.

It is said that Mr. Noble Butler, brother of the murdered Professor B., will be obliged to sell his house to pay the expenses of the late trial. He is a popular teacher in Louisville.

A New York paper suggests that a subscription be taken up for him.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and forwarded by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1854.

ACTION AND REACTION.

A most conservative correspondent of the Boston Courier, speaking of the recent scenes enacted in that city eiscourses on this wise:

It is done; the majesty of the law is vindicated; that law which our fathers made, and which we have been reared under, and are to guard and transmit to our children. There have been many proud days for Boston, but none, I sincerely believe, to make us prouder of our old Commonwealth than this one.

Yet there are but few of us who do not feel the institution of slavery to be a monstrous anomaly and a blot on the American name, who do not pray, if they pray at all, for its erasure from our otherwise glorious escutcheon; certainly, for myself, I would forego every other earthly ambition for that of seeing our noble country rid of its incubus, its disheartening cankering disgrace;—but who thought of all this to day?

As to the South, she has broken faith with us. This is a strong accusation, but I say it deliberately and coolly. The North would never have submitted to the fugitive slave bill if such an insult and outrage as the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, regarded by every one as final and binding on the nation, could have been apprehended. Nevertheless, we have kept our faith with her. * * .

But we have earned the right to speak out.

A confusion of ideas often leads to confusion in terms. Submission to a law is one thing:—the enforcement of a law is quite another. For example, Anthony Burns submitted to the fugitive slave law, when he was carried off; but Marshal Freeman, the Commissioner, the President, and the Military, enforced the law. A poor debtor submits to the law which arrests him; but the sheriff enforces it.

Now the writer of the above extracts says, that by submitting to the fugitive law of '50, the Bostonians have earned the right to speak against the breach of faith, the oppressions, &c. But he evidently means, that they have earned that right by enforcing the law.

It strikes us, that if the law is so majestic as the first sentence intimates; so venerable for the fathers' sakes; and so valuable to transmit to our children;—then we have not earned much by keeping it, except a good conscience. It is a good law in itself, and needs no bribes.

But in the second quotation we read that the thing which this sacred law upholds, is a blot and a disgrace, an incubus and a monstrous anomaly, against which all men ought to pray who pray at all. It looks as if the end, in this case, could hardly sanctify the means.

The third extract is a complaint, that A, with whom we made a bargain that we would help him rob B, provided A would promise not to rob us, has broken his word and picked our pocket. And then there is an assertion, that whereas we have well and truly kept our covenant, and have robbed B as we agreed;—now therefore and thereby we have earned a right to speak out.

Our readers, by this time, see through this logic; and perhaps some of them may fall in with it; but we don't know how to travel in a path so crooked.

On the contrary, we say, that every aggression of slavery upon freedom, from whatever quarter, ought always to have been resisted, steadily, openly, firmly, according to our best ability,—not by saying what great things we would do,—but by doing what we could, little or much.

Those, if any, who have done thus, have never lost their right to speak—neither have those who have not only submitted but agreed to be muzzled—but these last, poor fellows, when they speak, do it with so many apologies, that the hearers doubt who owns their tongues.

We see no reason why the advocates of liberty and honesty should be more mealy mouthed than those of fraud and bondage.—Earn a right to speak? Why man! the right was born, when man, by breath divine, became a living soul.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The papers are publishing, in full, the correspondence between the President and B. F. Hallett, about paying the military guard for the slave trial. The principal letter is as follows:

WASHINGTON, May 31, 1854.

To B. F. Hallett, U. S. Attorney, Boston, Ms.

Incur any expense deemed necessary by the Marshal and yourself for city military, or OTHERWISE, to ensure the execution of the law. FRANKLIN PIERCE.

A correspondent hands us the following comment.

The U. S. Constitution says—

"No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law."

Is it necessary to violate the constitution in order to execute an act of Congress? Can the President delegate authority to B. F. Hallett and Marshal Freeman to draw from the Treasury any amount, at their discretion? It is said that the expense incurred will be some $50,000, some say a much larger amount.—But it is certain that about three fourths of it will fall upon the free states.

THE GADSDEN TREATY.

The Washington Union of Sunday says that intelligence has reached that city, from reliable sources in Mexico, to the effect that Santa Anna will accept of the Gadsden treaty as amended. This, if authentic, is an expeditious reply to the amended proposition which did not pass the Senate before about the 6th of May. The new treaty, if its provisions were correctly stated, reduces the stipend to be paid to Mexico for the proposed grant of land for a railroad track, and for the release of certain engagements of the treaty of peace, from $20,000,000, the sum originally proposed, to $10,000,000. Santa Anna is doubtless of opinion that half a loaf, provided it be as large even as that now offered, is better than no bread. Ten millions of dollars will come very opportunely for the exigencies of the Mexican treasury at the present time.—Boston Advertiser.

In connexion with this subject, we may mention that shortly before the passage of the Nebraska bill in the House of Representatives, Mr. Benton made a short speech which contains a developement of what he supposes to be the real motives of the authors of this bill for unsettling the Missouri Compromise. It was in his opinion not merely to adopt a new principle which shall be ap plicable to all the present unsettled territory of the Union, but one which shall also be applicable to new acquisitions of territory already resolved to be made, and on which the new principle established by this bill will be more effective.

It has been obvious from the pertinacity with which the measure has been persevered in, with the full knowledge that it would be a signal for the renewal of the exciting slavery controversy, there were reasons for carrying it, beyond those which were avowed by its supporters.

In the speech of Col. Benton, he supported his opinion by the following references:

First. The mission of Mr. Gadsden to Santa Anna. It must have been conceived about the time this bill was; and according to the transpiring accounts, must have been a grand movement in itself, $50,000,000 for as much Mexican territory as would make five or six States of the first class. The area of the acquisition, as I understand it, was to extend from sea to sea, on a line that would give us Santanda, Monterey, Saltillo, Parras, Sonora, and all Lower California. This was certainly a large movement, both in point of money and of territory, and also large in political consequence, and clearly furnishing a theatre for the doctrine of non intervention, if there should be any design to convert the newly acquired territory from free soil that it is into slave soil that it might be desired to be. Here, then, I believe I have found one branch of the grand movement.

Secondly. The mission of Mr. Soule to Madrid—also a grand movement in itself, if reports be true—two hundred and fifty millions for Cuba, and a rumpus kicked up if the island is not got. Here again may be found a case for the non intervention principle; but of that I say nothing, because I know nothing and wish to know something. Of the acquisition itself I say nothing now, but did say something about forty four years ago in a Nashville newspaper, in which I discussed Cuba as the geographical appurtenance of the Valley of the Mississippi, and eventually to become its political appurtenance, but to be got with honor whenever it was got; and in all that faith I still remain firm. No dishonor; no stain on the bright and spotless fame left us by our fathers!

Mr. Chairman, I discuss nothing in relation to those rumored acquisitions of Cuba and a broad side of Mexico; I only call attention to them as probable indexes to the grand movement.

SEEING THE ELEPHANT.—On Monday, the large elephant attached to the menagerie while on the way from Pawtucket to Fall River, got beyond the control of his keepers and killed three horses on the road, smashed the wagons, and seriously injured two men who wore in the wagons. The elephant was finally captured near Slade's Ferry and taken to Fall River.

FOURTH OF JULY.—In Providence, R. I., on the 5th of June, the city council voted not to make the usual celebration on the 4th of July, but to toll the bells one hour at sunrise, noon and sundown, on account of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the recent events in Boston.

A letter from Washington, dated May 28, and published in the New York Express, says:—

"Information of a reliable character has been received by the President of the organization of a large fillibuster force in our principal cities on the sea board, for the purpose of taking possession of the island of Cuba.—The leaders and commandent of the expedition are said to be well known to the government."

If any such fillibuster force has been organized, we have no doubt Pres. Pierce and Attorney General Cushing know all about it.

☞ The Monthly Instructor, No. 1, Vol. 1, for June, is just received from Wm. Guild & Co. publishers, Boston. This is a juvenile magazine of 36 pages, monthly, and is published at $1 per annum.

In Paris the article of dress known as the basque, is worn at present of nearly the same length as a veritable paletot. Uniformity in color is all the rage—robe, capote, mantelet, boots, gloves and veil must be of the same hue.

Women are like horses—the gayer the harness they have on, the better they feel. We got this from an old bachelor, who was early crossed in love, and afterwards went into the pawn-broking business.

LOCAL.

TAKE CARE.—Don't meddle with that gun, Billy! was the warning of an old lady, long ago. The warning is not unnecessary now. An Irish boy in this city, on Tuesday morning, was at play with a loaded pistol, and while flourishing round, as boys are apt to do, the pistol went off, and the charge of shot entered the breast of another boy, inflicting a severe wound; but it is hoped it is not dangerous.

Carelessness and fire arms should never go together.

ARITHMETICAL.

Three numbers, if divided by a certain divisor, and the sum of the numbers, quotients and divisors are added together, give the sum total 2525. The sum of the divisors is 7-768 of the sums of the numbers and quotients, and the sum of the quotients is 1-7 of the sum of of the numbers. The smallest number is 1-8 of the largest and 1-7 of the next largest, or 1-8 of the first number and 1-7 of the second.

Required the three numbers, the three quotients, and the three divisors.

PORTSMOUTH LAUNDRY.

All those gentlemen who are interested in the project of a Laundry, are requested to meet at the City Missionary's office on Wednesday evening at half past 7 o'clock.

Chief Justice Wells is holding the annual term of the Essex Common Pleas at Newburyport. The Grand Jury after a session of four days last week, came into court on Monday with 70 bills of indictment, about half of which were for liquor selling.

GOVERNOR DORR.—Samuel H. Moore and James Watson, alias "Gov. Dorr," were held in $500 for trial, on a charge of robbing Jas. H. Nichols of a gold watch. Nichols testified that having settled his bill and determined to go to his home in Maine, he drank several glasses of liquor on Saturday afternoon, when at near midnight, he made the acquaintance of the defts. who treated him to oysters, and carried him to the "Bite" tavern, where they drank and gambled till he was broke. His companions proposed to accompany him to his lodgings, and when they got out they stole his watch. He held Watson until an officer came, and subsequently Moore went to the station house, with the watch having its crystal broken, stating that he found it on the steps of the tavern.—Boston Journal.

THE SOUTHERN METHODIST CONFERENCE AND SLAVERY.—On the 25th inst. the Conference acted upon the report of the committee appointed upon the ninth section of the Discipline. It will gratify the friends of the church everywhere in the South to learn that the ninth section was expunged, as well as all other parts of the Discipline which condemned the institution of slavery. The general rule forbidding "the purchasing of men, women and children, with the intention to enslave them," and which has reference to the African slave trade, was retained, though the vote upon the expurgation of this rule, was 47 to 54. The Methodist Church has thus placed itself upon Scripture foundations upon this subject, and deserves and will receive the commendation of the Southern people for its bold and manly assertion of the Apostolic doctrine upon this vexed question, in the face of the insane clamers of a wild fanaticism which has substituted its puling philanthropy for the word of God.—Columbus (Ga.) Sentinel, May 26.

This same southern Conference must be a precious set of apostles. If the above report is correct, and we presume it is, it shows that 47 of the members voted that African slave traders are christians, though by the "laws of the land" these traders are termed pirates.—Now we propose these questions to all scribes and lawyers round about, viz.: Which is the higher law here, that of Congress, or this of the Southern Apostles? and what shall a patriot do, who is also a christian, or wishes to live a christian life?

It may not be amiss also, to ask, whether there is not, in the bosom of every honest and intelligent man, something which prompts him to judge of an act or usage as right or wrong, independent of all human laws or priestly conclaves. Why do ye not yourselves judge what is right?

THE MILITARY.—Maj. Gen. B. F. Edmands, commander of the military force ordered out by a requisition from Mayor Smith, of Boston, has put his name to the petition for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, at the Merchants Exchange. The editor of the Gazette, an officer in the Boston Light Infantry, says that nine tenths of the men on duty on Friday sympathized with the slave. The movement contemplated in the votes copied below, is one of great significance.

At a meeting of the officers of the first battalion of Light Dragoons, it was unanimously voted:

To choose a committee of three from this battalion to confer with the officers of the several regiments, battalions and corps belonging to this division, for the purpose of obtaining funds to purchase the freedom of the slave Burns, who has been remanded back to service by the decision of the United States Commissioner.

It was also resolved: That while we regret the unpleasant duty which has devolved upon us this day, yet we hold ourselves in readiness as citizen soldiers, at all times, and at all hazards, when called upon to support the supremacy of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and of this Commonwealth.

Voted: That the subscription be confined strictly to the officers and members of this division.

Voted: That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the leading papers of this city.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW ORLEANS, June 5.—The steamer El Dorado arrived today from Aspinwall.

The steamer George Law left Aspinwall on the 31st for New York, with mails, passengers and $1,500,000 in treasure.

The Daniel Webster is at the Balize, with California dates to the 16th ult, and has brought her passengers through from San Francisco in less than twenty days.

The Star of the West sailed for New York on the 31st, with 250 passengers and nearly $500,000 in treasure.

The revolution in Nicaragua was reported successful.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Courier's Washington correspondent telegraphs Lord Elgin and Mr. Hinks's departure to morrow. The fishery and reciprocity treaty is fully arranged, subject to the decision of the Provincial Congress to assemble at Montreal. We admit free of duty, coal, lumber and grindstones, over which most discussion has taken place.

Official despatches from Mr. Soule state that in addition to the remission of the fine on the Black Warrior, the Spanish government accord to steamers of that line the privileges and exemptions of British mail steamers.

England and France have demanded of Spain 24,000 men for the occupation of Greece and Palestine. Spain refuses unconditionally.

England denies officially that she has tendered either ships or men to protect Cuba against the United States, or to promote Africanization there.

Official despatches from Mr. Gregg only state that violent discussions have taken place at the Sandwich Islands about annexation to the United States. He has made no treaty, but will enter into one as soon as practicable.

ARREST OF A MURDERER.—New York, June 6.—Nicholas Bain, the murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Wickham, at their residence in Catchogue, L. I., was captured yesterday morning, in the woods, eight miles from the bloody scene. The inhabitants had turned out in a body, and when they found him they could scarcely be restrained from hanging him to a tree. He had cut his throat with the intention of committing suicide, and was weak from loss of blood. He was armed with a loaded pistol and a knife, but made no resistance. Officer Dowling and Constable Nesbit of this city, prevented the excited multitude from hanging him on the spot, and had he not been much exhausted from loss of blood, it is probable that even their interference would not have saved him. He was taken to Riverhead, to await his trial.

The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Wickham took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by an immense concourse of friends, relatives, and neighbors.

The colored boy, whose life the murderer also endeavored to take, is getting worse, and but little expectation is entertained of his recovery. The servant girl is said to be in a state of mind bordering on insanity.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—By a despatch from Washington, of June 6, at noon, it is said:

A special bearer of despatches from the Spanish government has just been in official communication with the new minister from Madrid in this city, and the result is said to indicate events of the highest importance.—All our difficulties with Spain are in a train of amidable adjustment. It is said that Spain has announced her willingness to sell Cuba, and that negotiations are now actually on foot between the two governments with that end in view.

The provision stores of Messrs. Howe and Masters and Son, Union street, Alexandria, were destroyed by fire this morning, together with 3000 barrels of flour, a large quantity of lard, hams, &c. During the fire ten kegs of powder in Masters' store exploded, creating great confusion and damage, but injuring no one. Loss about fifty thousand dollars.

The election of Mayor in this city progresses spiritedly, the Catholic question forming the basis of the contest. The news of the riot in Brooklyn created great excitement this morning, and operates to the advantage of Mr. Towers, who is supposed to be the "Know Nothing" candidate. His election is considered certain.

WASHINGTON, June 5, — midnight.—The official vote for Mayor of the city has not yet been made public, but enough is known to declare in five of the seven wards that Tower, whig, the candidate of the "know-nothings," has between 400 and 500 maj. The Board of Aldermen and Council are also whig.

The election derived peculiar interest from the fact that the administration had openly exerted its influence for Maury, and is understood to have threatened the clerks with removal if they did not vote for him, and prominent administration Senators and Members threatened that the appropriations for the city would be denied if Maury were not elected.

THE MARTHA WASHINGTON CONSPIRATORS.—We learn from Helena, Arkansas, that Kusane and Cummings, two Martha Washington conspirators, recently liberated on bail, have been rearrested and committed to prison, the county grand jury having found bills of indictment against them for arson and murder. The whole gang are now again in prison.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Stephen A. Douglas and lady are at the St. Nicholas. Senators Seward, Chase of Ohio, and Adams of Miss., arrived in town last evening. Mr. Chase tarries in the city with David Austen, jr., several days; Mr. Adams is bound for Boston, and Mr. Seward is en route for home.—N. Y. Mirror.

THE BROOKLYN RIOT.—We learn from the New York papers that although many persons were severely injured in the melee at Brooklyn on Sunday evening, no person was killed, as has been stated in the telegraphic despatches. Fifty Irishmen were on arrest for participation in the riot, and warrants issued for the arrest of twenty more. Among the injured persons were many police officers who were the special victims of the attacking party, as the latter considered that they shielded their antagonists. The Irish women are said to have been even more active than the men in the attack, and showered stones and brickbats from the roofs of the houses on to the police and New Yorkers.—Boston Journal.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humors.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen pond, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I based my sense of the more extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will see that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the fever left the patient the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will roon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one tab'e spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a
POISONOUS GUM RESIN,
Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found this a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it cuirls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase a medicine equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the navy yard. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across from it at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling House.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $150. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH I. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 109

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street, ... PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

THE SPANISH NAVY.

We have sometimes thought our correspondent "T" was almost a croaker, especially when he seemed to fear the Spanish Navy, aided by a few British and French ships might be formidable on our coast. But we see by the following extract from the New York Herald, that "T" in this matter of a war with Spain speaks only the words of truth.

Should war result from the existing entanglements of the Cuban question, it will be from the bungling efforts of the administration to prevent it, and from the inconsistency between the war cry of the Cuban organs and the peace professions of the agents of the State Department. But the government is wholly unprepared for war, President, Cabinet and Congress included. They have all been too eager for the spoils to think of preparing for the possible contingency of war. They want the money in the treasury for Gadsden treaties, and the public lands for railroad stock jobbers. Six war steamers have been ordered; but were they already built, our whole available navy, including the Japan expedition, would be hardly equal to the Spanish West India squadron. How ridiculous, then, is the administration cry for war against Spain. France and England combined, if they shall persist in the Africanization of Cuba. How criminal to counsel war against such alliance, without the slighest preparation for it.

No. The administration have neither the courage, the capacity, nor the desire to meet the issue of a war with Spain. But they may blunder into it, in spite of themselves. We call, therefore, upon Congress to take such measures for strengthening the navy and the active forces of the army as the occasion justly demands. Let the spoils for a day or two be forgotten, and let something be done to protect our commerce and our seaboard, in the event of a war, against seizure or spoliation by the enemy.

INFLUX OF EMIGRANTS.—The immigration from the old world continues with augmenting force. We learn from the books of the Commissioners of Emigration that the total number of aliens who arrived at this port from the 1st of January last to the 24th inst., was 87,922, being an increase of 18,883, over the same period last year. The immigration this month is already larger than ever before during an equal length of time, with few exceptions. A striking feature in this movement is the great increase in the German element of emigration, and which now, as it has done since the year 1852, exceeds any other. By many interested in the prosperity of the country, this circumstance is viewed with gratification, on account of the neutralizing influence which the Germans and Irish exert upon each other. For many years the Irish immigration greatly preponderated, till, in 1851, the Germans suddenly increased from 69,883 to 118,126 in 1852, placing the Irish slightly in the back ground. Here are the figures for the last six years:—

Irish 112,691	116,582	163,256.
Germans 55,705	45,402	69,882.
Year 1852.	1853.	1854, 5 m.
Irish 115,537	113,164	17,649.
Germans 118,126	119,644	44,248.

The number of immigrants who have arrived at this port the present month, up to the 24th inst., is 36,590, of whom 8,995 are Irish and 18,560 Germans.

The health of immigrants thus far has been very good, notwithstanding the frequency of long passages.—New York Journal of Commerce.

DANCING AND DRINKING.—Jullien gave a grand fancy and full dress ball at Castle Garden, N. Y., on Friday evening. The feature of the evening was the sparkling cascade of Sowtaine's champagne, which made all the place intoxicated with grape-y odors. The rock and evergreen crag over which it poured was an ingenious, fairy-like creation. Messrs. Max Sowtaine & Co., who took this novel method of introducing their fine brand to the public, expended over $2,000 in wine and fixtures. Several youths in waiting, not satisfied with small measures, applied conch-shells to the fountain, and soon drank themselves oblivious to mortal cares. — Boston Courier.

That is to say, the scene was a drunken frolic, professedly genteel, but really vulgar.

MUSK.—The Empress Josephine was very fond of perfumes, and above all, of musk.—Her dressing room at Malmaison was filled with it, in spite of Napoleon's frequent remonstrances. Forty years have elapsed since her death, and the present owner of Malmaison has had the wall of that dressing room repeatedly washed and painted; but neither scrubbing, aquafortis, nor paint, has been able to remove the smell of the good Empress's musk which continues as strong as if the bottle which contained it had been but yesterday removed.

THE HARPERS.—The Harpers are putting up two large buildings, on the site of their former establishment, which will cost $1,000,000 (?) There will be no communication between the different stores, except by iron stairways, outside of the walls. The only wood work will be 1 1-4 inch flooring, to be supported by two iron girders. The largest of the two buildings will have a front of 129 feet on Pearl street and a depth of 75 feet, and will be six stories in height besides the basement and under-cellar. The other will be 112 by 61 feet. All will be finished by November.—N. Y. Mirror.

LAWYERS PAYING COURT FINES.—Schaffer and Busteed, the lawyers who got into a fight in the Marine Court at New York last week, were fined by Judge Phillips—the former $75, and the latter, who struck the first blow, $150. The fines were promptly paid. The case in which they were concerned—and which appears to be strangely mixed up with Trade's Unionism and Native Americanism—was postponed, and at the conclusion of the matter a mob outside the Court House saluted Schaffer with cheers and Busteed with groans.—Boston Courier.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham ss

To Andrew J. Beck, Esq. City Marshal of the City of Portsmouth, GREETING.

IN the name of the State of New Hampshire you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of said city, qualified to vote as the law directs, to assemble and meet at JEFFERSON HALL, in said City, on MONDAY, the twelfth day of June next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to consider and act on the following particulars, in conformity to a petition signed by over fifty legal voters of this city, viz:

To choose by ballot a Moderator;

To see if the City will vote to adopt suitable measures to ascertain in whom the absolute title of a certain lot of land situate in Market Square, so called, whereon lately stood a house once occupied by the North Parish or Church for public worship, in the City of Portsmouth aforesaid; and

Also further to ascertain in whom the fee simple of the aforesaid lot was vested; and

Also to see and ascertain whether the inhabitants of said city ever at any time conveyed, sold or parted with said lot of land legally to any person, persons or body corporate for a valuable consideration; and

Also, if practicable, to keep the same open, to be added to Market square, so called.

Hereof fail not, and make return of your doings therein, at the time and place aforesaid, to the City Clerk or Mayor and Aldermen of said city.

Given under our hands and the seal of said City of Portsmouth, this the twenty-sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

SERMONS AND REMARKS.

The Boston Post informs us, that on last Sunday several clergymen of that city and vicinity preached violent sedition sermons, in utter forgetfulness of the Master they profess to serve.

We have read one sermon only, as yet, which was preached on that day, by Theodore Parker, at the Music Hall, Boston, and which was published the next morning, occupying over seven columns in the Commonwealth.—His text was from Matt. 26 : 14-16. Matt. 27 : 3-4. It was delivered two days after the U. S. troops and the Massachusetts militia forced back Anthony Burns into slavery. In his sermon, he says that "the liberty of America was never in greater peril than now. Which shall conquer, slavery or freedom? That is the question." But he dwelt chiefly upon the tragical scenes at Boston, the past week, when the slave power signally triumphed.

Whether this was one of the seditious sermons referred to or not, we cannot tell,—but we could see no sedition therein, unless it is sedition to speak against slavery. By the way, this word sedition puts us in mind of John Adams and the old Federal party, who lost their power partly by passing a sedition law! Sedition against slavery, we fancy, is not a very high crime in New England, at this moment.

The sermon referred to contains a great many terrible truths, with a few defective and exceptionable items;—it will have a wide circulation and do good.

SMALL BILL LAW.

One of these small laws, very small indeed, has been passed in Virginia lately,—but does not appear to give general satisfaction, as we infer from a communication in the Portsmouth (Va.) Transcript. The writer says—

By an act of the last Legislature of Virginia, it is made a penal offence—to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace—to pass or to attempt to pass, any note of less denomination than Five dollars. The provisions of a former act of the Legislature, (which has long been a dead letter,) are also retained in the new law—which makes the party receiving a note smaller than a five, liable to be presented by the Grand Jury.

It does not matter whether the law will work well or not, so long as it is the law of the land it should be strictly observed. With surprise I have noticed a newspaper in our community, not only declaring through its columns that it would not observe the provisions, but calling upon the people of the town to set it at defiance.

This course of advising resistance to the law by the weak and lame argument of its being detrimental to the interests and business of the community, is nothing more nor less than that detestable doctrine of Higher Law, promulgated by the treasonable fanatics of the North, and which has caused so much trouble and bloodshed in the execution of the Fugitive Slave law.

It does seem too bad that a law so wise and benificent as the small bill law should be set aside by the treasonable fanatics of Virginia. We don't think there'll be much blood shed about it, nor much trouble—only the people will break it because they can't very well help doing so, in the common course of business. No man living ever felt condemned for breaking such a law, or condemned any other for it in his heart. It is simply nonsensical in its inception, and merely vexatious in its operation whenever it operates. It must, like the old statute, its illustrious predecessor, speedily pass into desuetude.

Slaves Returning from California.—The steamship Pampero, on her last trip from San Juan, brought up twelve or fifteen slaves, who, together with their master, were on their return from California to Georgia. These slaves were taken out to California by their master, in the spring of 1850, and as soon as practicable after their arrival at San Francisco started for the gold mines, where they have ever since labored faithfully, the proceeds of their labor rendering the owner wealthy.—When they returned to San Francisco, the owner addressed them, and informed them that they were free, and offered to rig them out in fine style and give each of them a sufficient sum of money to enable him to start fair in the world for himself. Without a single exception they refused. They had all been looking forward with great glee to return to the "old plantation," and the "old folks at home," and so back they all came, and by this time, perhaps, they are astonishing the young darkies, who have never left home, with the wonderous incidents which befel them in the land of gold, and gratifying them with a sight of the monkeys, paroquets, &c., which they picked up on the Isthmus of Nicaragua. The above facts are gathered from gentlemen who came through with the slaves and their owner, and who were perfectly cognizant of the matters stated.—N. O. Picayune.

This incident must go into the third volume of Uncle Tom, to illustrate the old plea against emancipation, which took it for granted that all the new freed men would make a stampede for the north.

There is an air of romance about the story, however, that puts all the romance of Uncle Tom in the shade.

Sophistry is like a window curtain—pleases as an ornament, but its true use is to keep out the light.

MURDER OF BATCHELDER.

We learn from the Courier, that in the Boston Police Court on Tuesday, the examination of the alleged murderers of James Batchelder—John J. Roberts, Albert Browne, jr., John C. Cluer, Martin Stowell, Henry Stowe, John Thompson, John Morrison, whites; John Wesley, Walter Bishop, Thomas Jackson, Nelson Hopewell, and Walter Phenix, colored,—was resumed and finished.

Cluer, Stowe, and Hopewell were discharged, there being no evidence that they participated in any act of violence. It was shown that Cluer insisted upon admission to the Court House; but the judge viewed his conduct as merely exercising what he conceived to be his right as a citizen. Browne, Thompson, Phenix and Wesley were discharged on the original complaint of murder; but subsequently held on a joint charge of disturbing the peace by throwing stones and bricks. Browne had a stick in his hand when taken into custody. Phenix throw a stone into the broken door of the Court House, as did also Wesley; and Thompson attempted to rescue a prisoner. These defendants gave bail in the sum of $3000 each. Roberts, Morrison, Bishop, Jackson and Stowell were committed, on the original complaint, on a charge of aiding and abetting in the murder of Batchelder, although no testimony was adduced to fix the crime upon any one of them. With regard to Mr. Roberts, it was admitted that he is a man of good character, a teacher of a Sunday school, and it is likely that he will be admitted to bail. It should be stated that no evidence for the defence was offered, and that the object of the examination was to ascertain the precise crime of each of the prisoners.—Those held on the original charge were proved to have participated in the breaking in of the Court House door, three of them with a large piece of timber, and Stowell and Jackson with axes. Cluer expressed a desire to make a speech, which was refused. He, however, returned public thanks to the officers of the jail for their kindness towards the prisoners.

On Wednesday morning, it appeared in evidence that Roberts extinguished the gas light, and that Thompson attempted to rescue Roberts. Under all the circumstances, the judge ordered them to be discharged from the complaint for murder, but should order them to recognize in bonds of $3000 each, to answer to the charge of riot. The defendants waived an examination, and gave the required bonds.

Looking Ahead. — Senator Douglass made a speech to the Democracy of New York, on Saturday evening, in which he said :

I find that the Nebraska bill is growing in the popular favor, as it is becoming more thoroughly understood. I hear men now say that although they opposed it at first, that they are now willing to acquiesce in it; and if they are, let us take them at their word, but let us first understand what they mean by acquiescence. It is not sufficient that they shall not seek to disturb Kansas and Nebraska; but they must acquiesce also in the principle, and apply it in all time to come, when the question of the admission of any new State arises, whether it be Nebraska, Kanzas, Oregon, Mexico, Cuba, or the Sandwich Islands. [Enthusiastic cheering, and cries of "that's it,"—"go it, Douglas."]

Anti-Repeal.—The Boston Post contains a communication in these words :

Messrs. Editors:—I see a petition is up for the repeal of the fugitive slave law. It hope another petition will be got up not to repeal it, and I am anxious to put my name to it.

Yours respectfully, Anti-Repeal.

It is to be hoped we shall have the names of these petitioners, and the offices they hold, when the thing comes off.

Capt. Alvin Fox, of Perkins, has long been acknowledged the best shot with a rifle in this section of the state. His prowess was put to a fearful test on Thursday afternoon. A piece of card, two inches by one and a half inches wide, was stuck into the slit of a piece of shingle three inches in length. Placing this in the hands of his son, S. M. Fox, the captain, paced off ten rods distance, and the boy holding out the card at arm's length, five balls were put through it from the rifle in the hands of the father! This deed was witnessed by four persons, and the card is now in our possession.—Sandusky (Ohio) Register.

A fearful test sure enough. The captain proved himself at once a good marksman and a great fool.

The Hard Shells in Congress. — Messrs. Maurice, Wheeler, Peck, Peckham, and Oliver, who betrayed their principles by voting against the Nebraska bill, have been smitten with remorse, and have given vent to their feelings of contrition in a small octave pamphlet. Had they been men of sense, they would have voted for the bill in the first place, or, at all events, having foolishly voted against it, they would not have borrowed arguments from the free soilers to justify the act. This, however, is what Messrs. Maurice, Wheeler, Peck, Peckham and Oliver, have done.—Their justification is a rehash of the abolition arguments against the bill; and is dreadfully dull at this stage of the business. It will have a double effect. As members of Congress it will prove them to be men of no vigor or originality; as national democrats, it will utterly destroy them. Committed to the same course as Seward and the Van Buren free soilers, the national democrats cannot preserve any sort of separate party existence.—They become merged with the soft shells, and all their opposition and clamor against the Van Buren free soilers vanishes into air. A neater suicide than the five above mentioned gentlemen have committed we do not remember to have known.—New York Herald.

The Late Judah Touro.—We learn that the body of the lamented Judah Touro will be taken on board the steamship Empire City this morning, on its way to Newport, where it is to be interred, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased. It will be accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Gutheim and Mr. Kursheedt, who is on his way to Europe to carry out the testament of Mr. Touro.—New Orleans Picayune, May 26th.

LOCAL.

Flowers.—Mr. Shores has our thanks for a neat boquet now refreshing our eyes and cheering our spirits. Also a lady at the west end of the city, for repeated favors of this kind—and for an invitation to come and call for ourselves when we will. Readers will see that Mr. Shores is prepared to supply those who are not so favored with floral friends.

☞ The Grand Piano of Hallett, Davis & Co., Boston, received the first premium at the late Mechanics' Fair in Boston, over all others, including Chickering's; also at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, and at the New York State Fair in Syracuse. This is proof enough of their excellence. In speaking of these instruments a day or two since, we erroneously stated that they had received the first premium at the Crystal Palace; and we now correct, at the request of the manufacturers.

Handsaw Accompaniment.—Various are are the instruments used to accompany and beautify the sounds of the human voice. Perhaps the best accompaniment is a skilful orchestra, though a good Piano or a rich organ is not objectionable. We have, also, sometimes heard of a handsaw accompaniment, and had a good illustration of this sort a day or two since—in a young man using a splitting saw vigorously to the whistled tune of "Come, Philanders, let us be a marching." He was doubtless thinking of the evening previous, and we did not interrupt him, as he kept good time.

J. Russell Spalding's celebrated Cytherean Hair Oil or Wash, composed of Rosemary and Castor Oil, is having a great run.—Both the ingredients composing it are allowed to be excellent for the hair, and the mixture is one of the most popular ever offered to the public. It is manufactured by the proprietor, No. 23 Tremont Row, opposite the Boston Museum, and sold by Druggists everywhere. It is warranted free from the objectionable properties of alcohol, spirits, oil and grease; a trial bottle may be purchased for 25 cents.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Concord, N. H., June 6th.—The Democrats at their caucusses nominated Francis R. Chase of Conway for the speakership, and E. A. Hibbard of Meredith, and A. S. Marshall for Clerk and Assistant Clerk, the votes being in all instances unanimous.

The Freesoilers have nominated Mason W. Tappan of Bradford, Speaker, which nomination the Whigs will endorse.

The Whigs will probably nominate J. O. Adams of Manchester for Clerk. Mr. Eastman of Concord, Webster Whig, made a speech against any coalition, which he affirmed would ruin the Whig party in New Hampshire, and which it had nearly accomplished already by the election of John P. Hale to Congress.

Concord, June 7th.

The Legislature of New Hampshire assembled at the capitol at 10 o'clock this morning.

In the Senate, 10 members were present; 8 democrats and 2 whigs. Vacancies existing in districts 5 and 7. I. Everett Sargent of Wentworth, was elected President; Geo. C. Williams of Lancaster, and Chas. Doe of Rollinsford, Clerks—all democrats.

In the House, 310 members out of 311, the whole number elected, appeared. Francis R. Chase of Conway, dem., was chosen Speaker over Mason W. Tappan, of Bradford, Freesoiler, supported by both whigs and freesoilers. The vote stood, Chase 156, Tappan 153, Scattering 1—the scattering vote being cast for a democrat. For Clerk, E. A. Hibbard, of Plymouth, dem., had 158, J. O. Adams of Manchester, 148, Blank 1. Anson F. Marshall of Concord, was subsequently elected Assistant Clerk.

The Governor elect, Hon. N. B. Baker, will be inaugurated and deliver his message tomorrow.

Mr. Orer, the street preacher, was arrested in Newburyport by the city marshal, on Sunday, by instructions from the Mayor, but was discharged on trial before the Police Court, as nothing was proved against him.

Arithmetical.—The following problem was incorrectly stated in yesterday's Chronicle, and is therefore republished.

Three numbers, if divided by a certain divisor, and the sum of the numbers, quotients and divisors are added together, give the sum total 2325. The sum of the divisors is 7-768 of the sums of the numbers and quotients, and the sum of the quotients is 1-7 of the sum of of the numbers. The smallest number is 1-8 of the largest and 1-7 of the next largest, or 1-8 of the first number and 1-7 of the second.

Required the three numbers, the three quotients, and the three divisors.

New York, June 7th.—We understand that a fight took place on Monday afternoon at Elizabethtown, N. J., between the Irish and German Turners' Society of this city, who were out to that place on an excursion.

The Turners, according to rumor, were assaulted with brickbats and other missiles, while about to leave for New York. Upon their turning upon their assailants the row became general, and it is said one Irishman was killed, and two or three persons on both sides severely injured.

Pittsburg, June 7.—A fire last night in Alleghany city destroyed 18 buildings occupied as stores for hats, clothing, and other kinds of business, situated mostly on Federal street. Loss $50,000. A recently discharged State Prison convict has been arrested on suspicion of setting the fire.

Congress.—Washington, June 7.—The House is in Committee on the Pacific Railroad bill. Mr. Stanton, of Tenn., said he would vote for the bill.

Mr. Bridges, of Pa., stated that he was opposed to it on constitutionall grounds, and asked leave to print his argument, which was granted.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, June 6.

HOUSE.—No business of importance was transacted in the House to-day.

Mr. Letcher of Virginia asked leave to offer a resolution instructing the Committee for the District of Columbia to inquire into the expediency of so amending the charter of Washington city, as to abolish the system of voting by ballot, and substituting therefor the mode of viva voce. Objection was made. The House adjourned at 1 o'clock, no quorum being present.

A WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

The arrival of the Niagara gives us Liverpool dates to the 27th of May. Brown, Shipley & Co. report a decline in the Cotton market during the week of 1-3 a 1-4d, particularly on the middling and lower grades. At the close, a slight speculative feeling was perceptible, but some few holders were pressing upon the market. Breadstuffs had also declined.

Denniston & Co. say that in the early part of the week the market was tolerably active, but at the close of the week there was less demand, and prices fell off 1s on Flour, the quotations being, Western Canal 38s 6d, and Ohio 40 a 42s. For Wheat, a fair demand, at a slight decline. For Corn in the early part of the week higher prices were paid, but at the close the advance was lost, though the market was firm at 42s 6d for white, and 42s 3d for mixed and yellow. The following quotations, which vary materially from the above, are from the circular of Messrs. Milligan, Lampriere & Co.—Western Canal, 38s; Ohio, 39s; White and Yellow Corn, 41s.

There is no news from the seat of war of a decided character.

Silistria was hard pressed by the Russians at last accounts.

Advices from Vienna stated that negotiations looking to an adjustment of the present difficulties between Russia and Turkey have been again opened, and that Austria and Prussia have taken a decided stand against Russia.

CITY ELECTIONS.

Kingston, N. Y.—On the 6th of June, the first election came off under the new charter. The "Know Nothing" ticket was elected by a large majority.

Philadelphia.—The first city election in Philadelphia, since the consolidation of the old city proper and the districts into which it had extended, took place on the 5th inst., and the result was a triumph of the Whigs and "Know Nothings," who, it is stated by telegraph, have elected their candidates, Robert T. Conrad for Mayor, and Isaac Hazelhurst for City Solicitor, by a large majority over their Democratic opponents. A late despatch states that the majority for Mr. Conrad was estimated at from 6,000 to 8,000.

Washington City.—The local election in Washington City, on 6th inst, resulted in the choice of Mr. Towers, Whig and "Know Nothing," candidate, as Mayor, by between 400 and 500 majority, over Mr. Maury, the present Democratic incumbent. The Board of Aldermen and Council are also whig.

The election derived peculiar interest from the fact that the administration had openly exerted its influence for Maury, and is understood to have threatened the clerks with removal if they did not vote for him, and prominent administration Senators and Members threatened that the appropriations for the city would be denied if Maury were not elected.

THE NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE PURCHASE OF BURNS.—Mr. Hallett has as yet made no reply to the letter of Mr. Willis, which fastened on him the responsibility of having defeated the negotiations for the purchase of Burns. A card is published, signed by H. W. Allen of Louisiana, in which an unavailing attempt is made to relieve Mr. Hallett.

Mr. Allen, who dates from the Brattle House, Cambridge, concludes his card with the following paragraph, which will be a welcome assurance to the real friends of Burns:

"Furthermore, if the purchase of Burns be still desired by any one here, his wishes can be gratified by applying to me within one month from this time, as I am authorized to say by Col. Suttle."

A couple of the most efficient Shakers of Enfield have cut the society and got married. The New Haven Register says they were heretofore regared as fire proof specimens of the order.

In a recent trial before the United States District court, Philadelphia, Judge Kane said: "Rum has sunk more seamen than all the tempests that ever blew."

FIRE.—On Monday morning, the bleachery at Scott's Pond, Smithfield, R. I., belonging to W. F. Sayles, was destroyed by fire.—The buildings and machinery were valued at $25,000, and the goods at $40,000. Partly insured.

That is a bad religion which makes us hate the religion of other people. That is a bad sect of Christians which encourages its members to think contemptuously of all other sects of Christians.

WATER PROJECT IN BROOKLIN REJECTED.—The plan for supplying Brooklin with water from the streams and ponds of Long Island, was submitted to the people Thursday for their decision, and rejected by an overwhelming majority.

It appears by a paragraph in the Deseret News, that Gov. Young and his Mormon Regents, have adopted a new alphabet of 38 entirely original characters. Every letter has a fixed and unalterable sound, and every word is spelt with reference to given sounds.

The Jews of Hartford have purchased a site in that city for building a synagogue. The present number of Jews in the United States is estimated at 300,000, and 31 publications of the faith are now issued throughout the country, and well sustained.

The Catholic Archbishop of Quebec has issued a pastoral letter prescribing public prayers for the purpose of drawing down the blessings of Heaven on the allied armies of Franco and England in the pending war.

SICKENING CASE.—In Philadelphia, last week, the jury in the case of Young v. Young, for divorce, were discharged, in consequence of the testimony making one of the jurors sick.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by
W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and Infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,
"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,
Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those to have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. Kelley, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable sensations at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT TO DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $150. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 110.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE WAR.—Wanted, a few smart, handsome young gentlemen to dance at evening parties, on account of the great drain of officers that the war has carried off to the east. They must converse freely about the weather, the opera, and all fashionable topics, and be accustomed to good society. They must be well practiced in the polka, waltz, (single, as well as a deux temps,) schottische, and not be above dancing in a quadrille, if needed. They must be single, and not exceed the age of forty. They must not refuse to dance with an elderly lady occasionally, if the size of her property is such as to warrant the presumption. The terms offered, including a champagne supper, are of the most liberal description, and may be ascertained at Gunter's, St. James's square, or of the secretary of the "Distressed Young Ladies' Elegant Partners' Association" at Hanover-square rooms. Young gentlemen presenting themselves must bring with them a white neckcloth as a specimen. Not the slightest objection, at present, to officers in the militia, but no tradesman, unless extremely rich and highly respectable in the wholesale line, need trouble himself by applying. Wanted, also, a few agreeable, rattling, clever young fellows, who can sing, conjure and play tricks. A vanancy for a young nobleman who can fry omelettes in his hat, in a genteel establishment, where hot suppers are given and a servant in livery is kept. Terms, including kid gloves, (new, not cleaned,) well worth the attention of younger sons, who have a very little or nothing on their hands. Inquire as above. N. B. A good light dinner Irishman is in large request. —Punch.

AN ELEPHANT AT LARGE.—From the Providence Journal, and the testimony of an eye witness to a part of the scene, we gather the following particulars of the havoc and destruction made yesterday morning by a large elephant attached to the Broadway menagerie, who got loose from his keeper on the way from Pawtucket to Fall River.

When about seven miles from Pawtucket he got free from the control of his keeper, and meeting a horse and wagon, belonging to Mr. Stafford Short, he thrust his tusks into the horse and lifted horse, wagon and rider into the air. He mangled the horse terribly, and carried him about fifty feet and threw the dead body into a pond. The wagon was broken to pieces, and Mr. Short considerably hurt. The elephant broke one of his enormous tusks in this encounter. A mile farther the elephant, now grown more furious, attacked in the same manner a horse and wagon, with Mr. Thomas W. Peck and his son. He broke the wagon and wounded the horse, which ran away. Mr. Peck was pretty badly hurt in the hip.

Two men took horses and drove ahead to give warning to the passengers whom they met on the way. They came up with a Mr. Pearce who was riding with his little son in a one horse wagon. He was coming towards the elephant, and being warned by the out riders turned around and put the horse to his speed, but the elephant overtook him, and seizing the wagon, threw it into the air, dashing it to pieces and breaking the collar bone and arm of Mr. Pearce. The horse, disengaged from the wagon, escaped with the fore wheels, and the elephant gave chase for eight miles, but did not catch him. The elephant came back from his unsuccessful pursuit and took up his march again on the main road, where he next encountered Mr. Jabez Eddy, with a horse and wagon. He threw up the whole establishment in the same way as before, smashed the wagon, killed the horse and wounded Mr. Eddy. He threw the horse twenty feet over a fence into the adjoining lot, then broke down the fence, went over and picked up the dead horse and deposited him in the road, where he first met him.

He killed one other horse and pursued another, who fled to a barn. The elephant followed, but at the door was met by a fierce bull dog, which bit his leg and drove him off.

Once on the route, the keeper being ahead of him, saw him plunge over a wall and make for a house. The keeper got into the house first, hurried the trightened people within to the upper story, and providing himself with an axe, succeeded in driving off the furious beast.

On his route, the elephant killed three horses, and seriously injured two men, besides the damage to wagons. Our informant says he shall never forget "seeing that elephant." He was covered with blood from the horses he had killed. His strength was surprising, for he seemed to handle a horse with as much ease as a terrier dog does a rat. The horses were terribly frightened when they saw the wild elephant. It is believed that a part of the time he ran at the rate of a mile in three minutes. He finally exhausted his strength, and laid himself down in the bushes, about two miles from Slade's Ferry. Here he was secured with chains, and carried over the ferry to Fall River.—Boston Transcript.

It is undoubted madness, palpable insanity, to live a beggar's life that you may die rich.

NUMBER OF SLAVE HOLDERS.

In the great collection of statistical information contained in the Census, there is one marked and important deficiency. We hope it will be supplied when another Census is taken. The Census gives us the number of the population free and servile, with a most minute subdivision of them according to their various occupation.

For instance, in that of Virginia, we are informed of the number of artists, barbers, bar keepers, confectioners, drovers, bakers, and went down to bellows makers, of whom there are only two, but the census no where gives us the number of slave owners.

Yet this is beyond all question the most important class in the slaveholding states. It is in this class resides, for all practical purposes, the sovereignty of the country. They make the public opinion in the slave states.—Through this opinion they return the members of Congress in their own States, and though a minority themselves, with the aid of northern mercenaries, they completely control the action of the government. Why then does not the census give us the number of this important and dominant class? Is it because these very slave owners do not choose that their numbers should be known? We have seen the number variously estimated from 100,000 to 300,000. Perhaps the medium of 200,000 may not be far from the truth. But even take the largest number, yet of these a very large proportion own not more than two or three slaves. The number of large slave holders probably does not exceed 100,000. It is this small number that makes public opinion in the slave states, and thus practically governs the country.—State of Maine.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers it warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

A REASON.

We could not, at first, conceive why it was that any body in Congress, in these days, should think of going back from a ballot vote, to the old viva voce method; any more than we could understand why the Whigs of Massachusetts should vote to nullify the secret ballot law of that state. We could see no good reason for either; but the Boston Transcript now explains the motion in Congress, to make the people in Washington city vote viva voce, by the following statements, most of which are new to us:

The election of Mr. John T. Towers, the anti-administration candidate for Mayor of the city of Washington, is regarded as quite a rebuke to those officers of the general government who interfered in the matter. That they feel this is evident enough from the movement of Mr. Latcher, of Virginia, in the House of Representatives yesterday, looking for the abolition of the ballot, and substituting in its place the odious viva voce mode of voting, so popular with overseers of all kinds. Mr. Towers had been for some years past President of the Board of Aldermen. He is a job printer, and a citizen highly esteemed and respected in Washington. He was appointed "Superintendent of the Public Printing" by President Fillmore, from which station he was removed for political reasons by President Pierce. The citizens of Washington have now placed him in the highest official station in their power, and surrounded him with a majority of political friends in the two branches of the city government.

We may remark in addition, that the great attention paid to Bedini in Washington, by executive and legislative officers of our general government, doubtless aided in procuring the result of this election.

A viva voce vote in Washington, would make every clerk and every mechanic employed there, liable to espionage and dismissal, if he dared to vote otherwise than favorably to the powers that be, or that shall be, when the day of trial comes. And voting thus, with manacled hands, and with the bread about to be snatched from his mouth, would be termed, we suppose, the right of suffrage. We should not wonder if Mrs. Partington were to call it the right of suffering.

PARTIES.

It will be seen from the voting at Concord, on Wednesday, that the Democratic party are in the majority in both Houses; and that the Representatives were more correctly classed by the Capital Reporter, than by any other paper, as it set them down Democrats 156, opponents 154. The Patriot' claimed 19 majority. And some of the opposition papers also claimed a small majority.

The actual vote stood 156 to 154, only one was a scattering vote; and there was one absentee. The same paper said, at the same time, that the Old Guard democrats held the balance of power. We shall soon see whether this statement is true, like the other. If so, we must have an interesting session.

MOBS.—Among all the mob stories told lately, we wonder why somebody has not called up the Dorr Mob, sedition, rebellion, revolution, reformation, or whatever it was, in Rhode Island.

Governor Dorr, so called, was a lion in his day; and a pretty good looking lion, too.—Our legislature voted honorable distinctions and freedom of the State to him;—though by the laws of the land he was convicted of treason and sent to the State Prison.

MAJOR WYSE.—The New York Times of the 7th inst., understands that the Court Martial in the case of Major Wyse has found him guilty of disobedience of orders in refusing to embark on board the steamship Falcon; and that he has been sentenced to dismission from the service, as a punishment therefor.

We shall see whether this sentence is approved by the President, and also if any body is called to account for the shameful collusion whereby the soldiers were sent to sea in an old trap.

Another paper, published a few hours later, says:

But the Court recommend that he be restored to his command. A petition for his reinstatement has been widely circulated in New York, and very generally signed.

The verdict of the Court, then, may be thus rendered:

Guilty of a technical crime; but really entitled to a reward of merit.

☞ Mr. Tappan, of Bradford, whom we stated to be a leading democrat, (copying the statement from another paper) never belonged to the democratic party, as we are assured by a well informed member thereof. He is a Free Democrat, or abolitionist.

NAVY YARD STRIKE.—The ship carpenters, machinists, and others employed on the U. S. frigate Sabine at the navy yard at Brooklyn, who struck for an advance of two shillings a day on their wages last week, were receiving 22 shillings and demanded 24 shillings. Word was sent to Washington, and on Saturday an answer was received from the Secretary of the Navy, giving directions to pay 20 shillings on new work and 24 shillings for old work. The Sabine is considered new work, she never having been launched.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June 7.

HOUSE.—The House went into Committee on the Pacific Railroad bill. Mr. Stanton of Tennessee said he would vote for the bill.

Mr. Bridges of Pennsylvania, said he was opposed to it on constitutional grounds, and asked leave to print his argument, which was granted.

Mr. Hendricks of Indiana was opposed to the bill in its present shape, and said that until it shall be shown that the central route was not the right one, he would not support any bill which excluded it. The debate was farther continued by Messrs. Denvey, Chandler, Giddings and others. Mr. Giddings's speech was merely in reply to Mr. Smith of Virginia, defending the truth of history from the audacious falsehoods of that gentleman. The subject related to the proceedings which took place some years ago, when Mr. Giddings was expelled from the House for introducing resolutions upon the subject of slavery. Mr. Giddings used strong language, and was called to order by the chairman. The Committee rose, and the House adjourned.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARCTIC.

Liverpool dates to Sunday, May 28, have been received by the Arctic at New York, one day later than by the Niagara.

On the 9th the combined fleets were still before Sebastopol.

The Vienna Wanderer says that the Turks are masters of the Islands above and below the mouth of the Alutha. It is also reported that they are in possession of Tarna, which they are entrenching, so as to make it a second Kalafat.

In the Julmouitz district the peasants have burned all the hay stacks collected by the Russians for the use of their cavalry.

A telegraph despatch via Hermanstadt from Bucharest of the 19th, states that the Russians since the 16th, have unexpectedly stopped their cannonade against Sillistria. One explanation of this may come from the circumstance of Gen. Luders having about the 13th, experienced at the hands of a Turkish division, a defeat, accompanied with very serious loss.

It is now reported that the Russians are unable on account of the blockade, to defend the seaboard of Circassia, and had evacuated all their positions from Bathoum to Anapa, a distance of two hundred leagues. They burnt all their own forts, and returned to Kutala in the interior. The Circassians came down from the mountains and took possession of all the posts which the Russians had occupied, making prisoners of 1500 men, whom they surprised at Sukhum Kalch. The Circassians had proclaimed a Provisional Government, under the President of a brother in law of Schamyl.

The ultimatum to Greece demands the strict observance of a neutrality, and the punishment of all those who have joined the rebellion, the immediate recall of all civil and military officers who have joined it, and the refusal to re-admit into the public service those who had resigned office, or left to join the insurrection. If these categorical demands are not granted by the 22d, the throne is to be declared vacant, and a new government established.

A Greek Bishop was arrested on the 28th of May, as an emissary of Russia. Important papers were found upon his person.

Six more Russian vessels had been taken as prizes, and put into the port of Memel, where prize masters got on board and were despatched to England.

We are informed that vast numbers of the Finns are quitting Finland, and seeking refuge in Sweeden, in consequence of the reign of terror established in their own country.—Armed bands of soldiers burst into their houses at all hours of the day and night, and compelled them to enter the military service.

SEEING THE ELEPHANT.

On our first page to-day, is an account of the mad pranks of an elephant on the highway. Speaking of this same beast, the New Bedford Standard of Wednesday evening says:

"The elephant that belonged to the menagerie which exhibited in this city on Tuesday, still continues in an uneasy state of mind.—He was confined with several chains, in order order to keep him secure, but soon after the exhibition was closed, he succeeded in severing two of the chains; a third, however, which was fastened to one of his legs and around a rock, he was unable to break. Considerable excitement was caused among those who chanced to be upon the ground, and many fled in hot haste. He is undoubtedly a dangerous animal. The Company paid $700 for damages done by him on Monday."

TUFT'S COLLEGE.—Officers for the ensuing year: Oliver Dean of Boston President; Thomas Whittemore, Vice President; B. B. Mussey, Treasurer; O. A. Skinner, Clerk; Sylvanus Packard, Timothy Cotting, Executive Committee. On the return of Rev. Dr. Ballou from his trans-Atlantic tour, the professors will be appointed, and the institution will commence very soon thereafter.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says some of the congregational clergymen in New Haven, have driven the anti Nebraska team so hard as to disgust a portion of their people—a larger portion than they are propably aware of. Two families at least, both of them highly respectable, have withdrwn from the churches alluded to, and it is understood that they will join the Episcopalians, who as a body are more conservative.

On the 24th ult. five fellows were brought up in the police court, Cincinnati, for whipping their wives, and sentenced to a fine of ten dollars and costs each, ten days in a dungeon, to be fed on bread and water, and three hundred dollars bail to keep the peace for one year.

The Worcester Ægis says there will not be any celebration of the Fourth of July in Worcester this year. The city authorities have suspended action in the matter.

We understand that the Meredith Village Depot has been broken into; but nothing particular stolen, because it was not there.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

In the Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, Jefferson Hall was granted to the Odds and Ends and to the Centincntals.

Notice was received from the Council that they were ready to meet the Aldermen in convention, for the choice of city officers.

A communication was received from the Assessors, stating that they had completed the appraisement of the Estates of the city, and find the valuation to be $5,653,000—increase from last year $215,000.

A communication was received from Col. J. W. Pierce, stating that he intended to apply to the Legislature for liberty to build a bridge to Pierce's Island, with a view to the establishment of a ship-yard, and wished a favorable opinion from the city.

The Board authorized the Mayor to express their favorable opinion of the project.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, John Bennett, Esq. City Clerk, being detained this evening from his official duties by a sudden domestic bereavement, and the City Council being desirous of testifying their respect for him and his deceased companion, and their sympathy with his afflicted family, therefore Resolved, If the Common Council concur, that the Convention of the City Council appointed for this evening by the concurrent vote of both boards, for the election of City officers be and the same is hereby postponed until Monday evening next at fifteen minutes after 8 o'clock.

Resolved, That the members of the City Council will attend the funeral of Mrs. Bennett to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The resolutions were adopted in the Council.

☞ We hereby express our grateful acknowledgements to Gov. Baker, for a copy of his address in advance of its delivery, whereby we are enabled to lay it before our readers thus early.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Thursday, June 8.

In Convention of both Houses, Ichabod G. Jordan was chosen Senator for No. 5, and Robert B. Cochran in No. 7.

The Committee appointed to count the votes for Governor made the following report:

Whole number of votes returned	57,931
Necessary to a choice	28,966
Scattering	122
Jared Perkins has	11,080
James Bell has	16,941
Nathaniel B. Baker (elected) has	29,788

No returns from Litchfield and Piermont.

[Mr. Baker's majority is 1645.]

Daniel M. Smith was elected Councillor for Dist. No. 4.

In the afternoon, Gov. Baker took the oaths of office, and delivered his Message. The Convention then rose.

In the House, immediately after the Senate withdrew, Mr. Flanders of Manchester offered a series of anti-slavery resolutions, quite similar to those passed in 1848, when Mr. Hibbard was President of the Senate, and moved that they be laid on the table, and made the special order of the day for Friday forenoon, which motion was adopted, and the House adjourned.

JOHN BENNETT, City Clerk.

Portsmouth, June 8, 1854.

Governor Baker's Address.

On Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, His Excellency Nathaniel B. Baker delivered the following Address to both Houses of the Legislature:

Fellow-citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives:

Under the constitution you are assembled to make, ordain and establish all manner of wholesome and reasonable orders and laws, that you may judge to be for the benefit and welfare of this State, and for the support and defence of its government.

State Finances.

I am happy to inform you, that under the management of the able and efficient Treasurer, the finances of this State are in a prosperous condition. By the annual report of that officer, it appeared that the State debt, above available funds, June 1, 1853, was $74,399 00. During the year past a large portion of that debt has been paid, and funds are now in the treasury to meet other portions of it, so soon as they shall become due. The State debt, above available funds, June 1, 1854, was $40,995 45, being a decrease of $33,403 55, in a single year.

Asylum for the Insane.

The Asylum for the Insane, under the care of the present able and accomplished superintendent and assistants, is realizing the expectations of its most zealous advocates and supporters. Every department reflects credit upon its managers. During the year past one hundred and forty-six persons have been admitted. Sixty-three, entirely, and twenty-four partially restored, and twenty-two unimproved, have been discharged. The present number in the Asylum is one hundred and sixty-one, which is 13 more than can be comfortably provided for by present accommodations. The annual report of the officers of this institution will soon be in your hands, and will present you a full statement of its affairs.

The Asylum is not large enough to accommodate all who would and should share in its benefits. During the past year its halls have been crowded, and many applications for admission have been necessarily refused. It is an ascertained fact that there are at this moment more insane persons in this State taken care of by their friends at home, than there are now accommodated at the Asylum, and many of these are only waiting for vacant places to occur, or for increased room to be furnished, in order to be taken into this institution. Every year the mode of management and treatment pursued at the Asylum is becoming better known to the community, and the greater comfort and safety, and the increased chances of cure which the insane can enjoy there, where everything is arranged with a view to the relief of mental maladies, above what can be afforded at home, are being perceived, and the consequence is that a large number every year seek a residence there for their unfortunate relatives and friends. And it certainly is a duty of the State to afford ample facilities for the relief and restoration of this unhappy class of persons. Considerable additions to the present accommodations, an entire re-construction of the building for the more excited patients, and a thorough refitting of the apparatus for warming the apartments, so as to insure comfort and safety, seem to be indispensable. These matters, however, will be more fully presented to you in due time, and it is believed that you will make such necessary appropriations as will abundantly provide for the wants of the community, and make the institution, which has already proved itself so useful, equal in its advantages to any of its kind.

State Prison.

The condition of the State Prison, the health and appearance of the convicts, the good order and regularity apparent in every department, commend the present Warden and his officers to your unqualified approbation. Its finances have been conducted in a manner which will merit your cordial approval. The annual report of the officers of this institution, with detailed statements of its affairs and condition, will soon be laid before you. Under all the disadvantages of the past year, occasioned by the increased price of provisions for the support of the convicts, the report of the Warden on the receipts and expenditures will show a balance in favor of the State of over two thousand dollars.

At the last session, the Warden was authorized to purchase a new boiler, to build a new furnace and chimney for the same, to procure a permanent and sufficient supply of pure soft water, to make additions and improvements in different buildings and to procure gas lights for the use of the prison, and a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars was appropriated for these purposes, out of any money in the hands of the Warden. In the construction of these improvements, the Warden found that it was necessary to expend a few hundred dollars above the appropriation. Upon an examination of the matter, I think you will approve of the conduct of the Warden. There are other improvements required. The shops and cells should have better ventilation.—Some of the buildings within the walls are inconvenient and insecure in many respects. In case of fire, the loss of the present shops would be a small item in the pecuniary damage to the State. The loss of the labor of the convicts and the general disarrangement of the internal discipline of the institution, would be the injuries most to be regretted. To ventilate the buildings properly and guard them against accidents by fire, would require a considerable expenditure; but when the importance of these matters is considered, so far as the health of the convicts is concerned, and the great loss which must necessarily occur to the State in case of fire, I doubt not we shall concur in opinion that our best interests demand the improvements suggested.

State Reform School.

In 1851, a law was passed which authorized the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, to appoint a board of three commissioners, who were directed to select a lot of land containing not less than fifty acres, as an eligible site for a manual labor school for the employment, instruction and reformation of juvenile offenders, regard being had in the selection of said land to the centre of population, cheapness of living, and facility of access. The commissioners were further directed to report what laws were necessary and proper to put said school in successful operation. The commissioners appointed under this act made a report at the June session 1852. The importance of this subject was again urged upon the attention of the Legislature by my predecessor, in his addresses to both branches, June session 1852; and the subject was further considered by a committee of one branch of the Legislature, in 1853; but no definite action has yet been had upon the merits of the case.

It is a lamentable fact that many crimes have been committed in this State by mere boys from eight to eighteen years of age.—The exertions of parents and friends, motives of pity and hopes of reforming the offender, have hindered and prevented prosecutions in most of these cases. Our prosecuting officers are unwilling to commence proceedings against juvenile offenders, and when indictments are found, our juries reluctantly convict and our courts as reluctantly impose even the lightest penalty which the law may allow. This class of offenders frequently commit crime through ignorance, and nearly always through the influence of bad associates. Notwithstanding the strenuous exertions of parents and friends, our courts have been compelled, in the strict and impartial discharge of their duties, to sentence to the State Prison a number of these juvenile offenders. The records of the State Prison show that, within four years past, a child nine years of age, another twelve, another thirteen, and several boys from fifteen to eighteen years of age, have been confined within its walls. Our county jails have been the prison houses of many more of this youthful class of criminals. Our laws provide for them no place for punishment which will not from necessity degrade them, and eventually make mere ignorant and unfortunate boys hardened criminals.

In the cases above referred to, the law which imposes a penalty upon the offender should have two objects—the protection of society, and such punishment as will not degrade and dishearten the unfortunate youth. We should punish, reform and save, not destroy. No boy can be sent to the State Prison for a single day, and come forth again into the world without being marked and degraded. He is avoided even by his former associates, who have been as deep perhaps as he in crime, but less unfortunate in its punishment. He must have associates, and finally will find them among the dregs of society.—Thenceforward he will be educated in the ways of crime, and his walk will be in the path of sin and misery. Is there no way to prevent all this? Cannot this class of offenders be saved from the road to ruin? Cannot they be made valuable citizens instead of worthless outcasts and degraded criminals? If it is the fixed determination of our Legislature that the laws shall make no distinction between the place and mode of punishment of mere children and of older offenders, the courts will feel bound to carry out the legislative will.—Uncertainty or laxity in the enforcement of the laws should always be avoided, and although instances may constantly occur which prompt the best feelings of our hearts to compassion and pity, when we witness the mental sufferings of parents and friends, yet, upon calm consideration of the whole subject in all its bearings on society, we can come to no other conclusion than that it is best to carry out the full intent of the law and enforce its judgments. I earnestly commend the subject to your careful consideration.

Common Schools.—Teachers' Institutes.

I cannot too strongly commend our common school system to your care, encouragement and support. A thorough education of our population is the surest safeguard to the preservation of our liberties. As far as I am informed, the school laws require little amendment. I would suggest, however, that several towns in the State neglect to appropriate the amount required for the support of Teachers' Institutes. It was undoubtedly the intention of the law that every town should contribute its proportion for the support of these institutions, and if the statute on this point is of ambiguous construction, it should be amended so that town officers should have no doubt as to their duty on this subject. The provision for appropriating money for Teachers' Institutes, and the amount thus appropriated, enable the school commissioners in most of the counties to support these valuable aids to our common schools on a liberal scale; but the smaller counties are deprived of many of these advantages, on account of a want of funds. I trust your wisdom and liberality will devise measures that will enable the smaller counties to enjoy the same advantages in this respect as are now possessed by the larger ones.

The statute of 1846 provides that any town in this State may raise, in addition to the amount required by law for support of schools, a sum not exceeding five per cent. of such amount, to be applied for the support of Teacher's Institutes within the limits of the county in which said town is situated. The statute of 1851 provides that a sum equal to three per cent. of the amount required to be raised for the support of common schools in each town, be appropriated by said town for the support of Teachers' Institutes in each county. The statute of 1852 provides that the selectmen of each town in this State be authorized to pay over to the School Commissioner of the county in which such town is situated, the sums by law required to be appropriated by said towns for the support of Teachers' Institutes. None of these laws, however, provide that the School Commissioners shall render any account of the sums received from the several towns, or for what purpose they are expended. I would therefore suggest that some system of accountability be adopted in relation to the receipts and expenditures of all sums placed in the hands of the School Commissioners. The accounts of each Commissioner should be audited by some State or county officer. In all appropriations of public money, it is just and proper that the people should know the items of expenditure.

Agriculture.

The promotion of the interests of agriculture is one of the duties enjoined upon the Legislature by the constitution. All agree that this branch of employment of our citizens is the most important to our State, inasmuch as the largest portion of our people depend upon it for their support, and it may truly be said to be the foundation of our prosperity. But there is some disagreement among those engaged in this pursuit, as to what measures can properly and profitably be adopted for its advancement. On this account, and more especially as a large portion of the members of the Legislature are practically conversant with the subject, I do not think it advisable to recommend any particular legislation in regard to it, but will only commend the whole subject to your favorable consideration.

Railroads.

The accidents which occur on our railroads, and which are attended with serious injuries to persons, and frequently with fatal consequences to human life, suggest the necessity of further legislation for the protection of our citizens. The various provisions of our statutes now do much towards this object. But in our laws there seems to be some deficiency with reference more particularly to operatives on the roads, whose interests should not be forgotten. The nature of their employment exposes them particularly to danger, and a prompt and fearless discharge of their duties is most important for the safety of others.—But as our law now stands, they are left wholly without remedy in case of injuries, however serious to themselves, and their relatives without any relief in case of their death. For our laws, which provide a remedy and relief for others in such cases, afford no protection to the operatives of the roads.

There may be some reason for this distinction in cases of ordinary accidents. But that reason would seem wholly to fail in cases of accidents happening through the gross fault of carelessness of the corporation in the construction or equipment of the road, or of its agents in its management and direction, about which the suffering operative may have no voice and perhaps no knowledge. There should be some responsibility to urge such corporations to care and diligence with regard to those in their employment, and in such cases of gross fault or negligence, the innocent employee and his relatives should not be left, as now, wholly unprotected and remediless.

Reference to the protection of the same class of citizens and others, suggests the expediency of further legislation relative to bridges over railroads and the present method of construction of railroad bridges where there are double tracks, and in relation to crossings and intersections of different tracks on railroads. Where roads have already been constructed, a proper regard for their rights may affect the expediency of any laws relative to what has already been done, but provisions for the future will be embarrassed by no such considerations. And in all cases, a proper regard for the public safety must be paramount.

Exemption of personal estate.

Our laws now provide that any legal guardian, upon the return of the inventory of the personal estate of his ward, may apply to the Judge of Probate, by due petition, for the sale thereof, and said Judge of Probate may by license authorize the sale thereof at public auction. The strict construction of this law deprives the family of the unfortunate insane person or spendthrift of the very articles of comfort and support which the law exempts from attachment and execution for the benefit of the poor debtor's family; or to state the case still stronger, a dishonest debtor's family is better protected by our laws than the poor family of the unfortunate insane or spendthrift. If sound policy dictated the exemption in favor of the poor debtor, justice and humanity demand equal protection to the family of the still more unfortunate.

Homestead Exemption.

In 1851, a law was passed, entitled "An act to exempt the homestead of families from attachment and levy or sale on execution."—Many difficulties constantly arise in the administration of the provisions of this law. Our courts of probate, particularly, are in doubts as to their jurisdiction, and our legislators, as would appear by the proceedings of 1852 and 1853, are unwilling to attempt its amendment. No law should remain among the statutes in this condition.

Section first of this act provides, among other things, that "such homestead shall not be assets in the hands of an administrator for the payment of debts, nor subject to the laws of distribution or devise, so long as the widow or minor children, or any or either of them, shall occupy the same; and no release or waiver of such exemption shall be valid unless made by deed executed by the husband and wife, with all the formalities required by law for the conveyance of real estate, or if the wife be dead and there be minor children, by such deed executed by the husband, with the consent of the judge of probate for the county in which the land is, endorsed on said deed;" but it makes no provision for ascertaining the value of such homestead, or for assigning the amount exempted. In cases of assigning dower where the widow claims the exemption, in the sale of the remainder for the payment of debts, in the sale of property of a ward, in the division of estates among heirs where the exemption is claimed by the widow, and in many other cases which constantly arise, the law is indefinite and uncertain, and great doubt exists as to the power and jurisdiction intended to be conferred on our courts by this act. I trust that you will make such amendments as will remove all doubts and uncertainties in the construction of its provisions.

Adjourned sessions of the Legislature.

Our laws now provide that returns of votes for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States shall be made to the Secretary of State, and that the Secretary shall lay said returns before the Senate and House of Representatives in Convention, to be by them examined and counted, and that the requisite number of persons to be chosen, who shall have the largest number of votes returned, shall be declared duly chosen Electors. The statutes further provide that if the requisite number of Electors shall not be chosen by reason of two or more persons having an equal number of votes, then the Senate and House of Representatives in Convention shall forthwith chose by ballot so many persons, one at a time, as shall be necessary to complete the requisite number. It is further provided, that if, upon the meeting of the electors, the requisite number is not present, or do not accept, the Senate and House of Representatives shall immediately meet in Convention and by joint ballot elect the number wanting to complete the Board; and if any person so chosen does not accept, the Convention of both branches of the Legislature shall fill the vacancy. These provisions of our statutes create the necessity of a session in November every year in which the Presidential election occurs.

I would recommend an amendment to these laws so that the returns should be laid before the Governor and Council, and that the same powers be given to them in relation to examining and counting votes, declaring the elections and filling vacancies, which are now conferred by the statutes upon the Convention of two branches of the Legislature. No objection to this amendment of the laws could be made on the ground that the votes would not be as correctly counted in one instance as the other.—I can conceive of no other point of objection, unless it relates to the power of filling vacancies. But when we consider how rarely such vacancies occur, we shall give this objection little weight. If it is desirable to give this power to some other Board, it might be provided that such of the Electors as are declared chosen, shall fill all vacancies. If such amendments should be adopted, the necessity of an adjourned session of the Legislature in November, 1856, and every fourth year thereafter, would be obviated, and the State would be relieved of one of the heaviest burdens that has been imposed on her treasury. The pay roll of the Council, Senate and House of Representatives for the Nov. session, 1852, amounted to $36,082,20 If we should add the amount paid for printing, clerks and other officers and contingent expenses, the cost of that session must exceed $40,000. The sound economical policy of the State demands that this great expense be saved.

The State Records.

In the office of the Secretary of State, and in the other rooms in the State House, are deposited the Provincial papers and records, the proceedings of the Committee of Safety from the eventful year 1775, through the revolution, the lists of men who conducted the civil affairs of New Hampshire through that dark and trying period of our history, the journals of our Constitutional Conventions, and the journals and records of our Legislature. Beside all these records, and many more of great historical value, there are those which are not only of the greatest importance to the historian, but which have been and still are of immense pecuniary value to the citizens of this State. I refer to the army rolls of the revolution—the rolls of State, of Cilley, of Poor, of Reid, of Sammell, and of other heroes of that memorable period. The brightest pages of our history are adorned with the deeds of those brave and patriotic men. The most valuable portion of the history of their services, the only authentic lists of the names of the fearless and noble-hearted patriots who went forth from this State to Bunker Hill and Bennington and Saratoga, and other battle fields of the revolution, the evidence of the character and length of that service, and numerous papers and documents connected with our national independence, together with the documents before enumerated, are liable at any moment to destruction by fire. These important records are now deposited in insecure and unsuitable rooms. Some of the most valuable of these papers are bound in volumes; others of less value are stored away in boxes like worthless rubbish. I would recommend that an examination be had, and if a suitable fire-proof room can be constructed in the State House, that such room be prepared without unnecessary delay, and if such room cannot be constructed, that a separate fire-proof building be erected, in which shall be preserved all our State papers. Is it not important to our citizens, and would it not be creditable to the State, while we are making appropriations for monuments in memory of the worthies who have made the name of New Hampshire the glory of her sons, that we make some efforts to preserve the records which will tell posterity how these same worthies and their patriotic associates conducted our civil affairs during the revolution, and with what efforts and at what sacrifice means were furnished to the brave men who inscribed their names on the most glorious rolls of our revolutionary fame?

The Militia.

Our fathers uttered words of truth and wisdom when they declared that "a well regulated militia is the proper, natural and sure defence of a State." It is to be regretted that our present laws on this subject have been so framed as scarcely to leave the shadow of an efficient organization. If no better system is devised, no other encouragement held out to a citizen soldiery, than that which our statutes now provide, I fear that the emergency may arise when we shall need at least a small number of well organized and thoroughly drilled troops, and shall be unable to find them within the limits of the State. We may not need them in case of war, invasion or insurrection; but who can tell that such emergencies even may not arise? As our cities increase in population, is there no danger that we may witness mobs and riots, like those that have disgraced our sister States? Upon what strong arm can the municipal authorities on such occasions rely to support the police, if our militia cannot furnish well equipped and thoroughly drilled troops? In such an emergency, good citizens even would reluctantly engage in a contest with an infuriated mob, and in case the citizens rallied to the aid of the municipal authorities, their organization would be delayed perhaps until the mob had effected its purpose. On such an occasion, one company of well drilled troops, ready for any crisis, and led by a resolute man, would do more to restore order and preserve the peace, than hundreds of well intentioned citizens, unprepared for the occasion and unaccustomed to act in concert. I believe the best interests of every section of the State demand a militia system more in accordance with the intention of the constitution, and carried out more in the spirit of those men who framed that instrument, and who did active military duty for years after its adoption, and left the field of service only when they had educated their sons to tread in their footsteps. It is my decided opinion that the welfare of the State demands a thorough organization of the militia, and that a small number of troops, at least, in each county should be thoroughly equipped and drilled as a body, which could be called upon a moment's notice, whenever the State, or any of her towns or cities, should need their assistance. This small body of efficient troops would also serve as the nucleus around which all well disposed citizens might rally, if mobs or riots should arise, and would serve to supply, in times of war or invasion, much material for the instruction of the enrolled militia who might then be called out.

The National Administration.

It cannot be questioned, I think, "that the people of New Hampshire firmly adhere to those great principles of public policy upon which the present national administration came into power—principles upon which the Union was founded, and to which we are mainly indebted for its surpassing prosperity and grandeur."

And it is a source of pride and gratification to them that the high confidence reposed by the country in the distinguished son of this State, who has been called to preside over the destinies of the country, has thus far been fully justified; and knowing as we do the high and noble qualities of his head and heart, his devoted patriotism and fidelity to principle, we cannot doubt that so long as he may be charged with the duties and responsibilities of his present exalted station, he will continue to discharge them with the same devotion to the public interest which has always characterized his career. It becomes the people of his native State to continue to extend to him that high and generous confidence and that firm and cordial support which honest and faithful public servants have a right to expect from a virtuous, intelligent and patriotic people.—That the measures of his administration will be based upon the great principles which we have so long advocated and supported, and will tend to the peace and harmony of the country and promote its prosperity, progress and true glory, must be the devout hope of all true patriots, as it is the confident expectation of the people who called him to the high position which he so worthily fills.

In the discharge of our duties and responsibilities, I trust that we shall in all respects fully justify the high confidence which an intelligent constituency has conferred upon us. May Divine wisdom guide us in our counsels, and may the results of all our proceedings tend to the general welfare of our State and its citizens.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have been for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD SAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

DR. BEECHER'S PRAYER.—A writer in Frazer's Magazine, who gives an account of the Beecher family, says that he once heard Dr. Lyman Beecher offer a prayer, in which occurred the following:

"And, O Lord! grant that we may not despise our rulers; and grant that they may not act so that we can't help it."

Charles Lamb, sitting next some charitable woman at dinner, observing that he did not attend to her—'You don't seem,' said the lady, 'to be at all better for what I have been saying to you?'

'No ma'am,' he answered, 'but this gentleman the other side of me must, for it all went into one ear and out at the other.'

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 29, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the aid inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption on the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No changes of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.
